THE OFFICIAL CAMPER NEWSLETTER OF CAMP ROBIN HOOD

Hello Robin Hood Campers!

I hope this letter finds everyone enjoying their yearbooks and reliving the great memories of last summer. It seems like just yesterday we were saying our goodbyes at the gas pump and the buses pulled out to take you all back home. We have had such a busy off-season with major renovations at camp as well as some exciting new changes. I am very excited to announce that the most honorable Sam Jonas will be joining us next summer as the head of boy's camp. And Michelle Brockmann will be taking over as head of girl's camp. I am talking to a few other former campers who we hope will be joining our Admin team.

Last summer was perfect in every way. We had great weather at beach day and throughout the summer. We climbed more mountains than any summer before, our sports teams set records everywhere and you put on the best SYTYCD show I have ever witnessed. I am so excited to welcome last year's saxons/scribes to our staff and can't wait to see last year's foresters and shires lead camp this summer as saxons and scribes.

I am so humbled and nervous to sit behind Andy Friedman's desk this summer. I will miss DC a ton but can't thank him enough for this opportunity and his friendship over the many decades. I cannot wait to see the next generation of leaders emerge at the Realm.

Of course, with Chuck, Michelle, Diane, Scott and Lizz by my side I know all the traditions and Andy's legacy will continue to live on.

Please stay in touch with me and again, THANK your parents for sending you to camp.

Warmest Regards,
Woody
