Camp Robin Hood's 90th Summer: the more things change, the more they stay the same.

We celebrated 90 summers with a Reunion weekend that coincided with the end of Green & White. We had 125 alumni and judges ranging in ages from 17 to 87. The common refrain was camp looked different and 'modern' to the old-timers but the culture was the same as when they attended – a warm culture where campers and staff look out for each other while competing vigorously. The sentiment that Camp Robin Hood has not changed through 90 summers reminded us we are merely the caretakers of this special haven until the next generation in the CRH family is ready to 'take the wheel'.

We are fortunate to have an incredibly talented maintenance team. They installed an expanded water park to the Senior Waterfront, added 9-Square as our newest field sport, and they built for us a new cabin in Girl's Camp last summer.

Summer '17 also brought more of the same traditional wonderful events our campers have grown accustomed to each summer: numerous hiking trips in the beautiful White Mountains, our July 4th Carnival, a beautiful all-camp Ogunquit Beach Day, Sanford Mainers baseball, excursions all over New England, and of a course a Green & White break that made it into our record books.

We thank and salute Diane Morath for 25 summers and Dick Roberts for 35 Summers. Consistent with her understated personality, Diane quietly does the work of two people in the off-season managing everything required for all our staff and campers. No one worries when Diane is in charge of a project – we know it will be done and done correctly. We hear constantly from CRH parents what a pleasure it is to work with Diane. Dick arrived at CRH in 1983 as a Sailing Counselor and quickly became a Group Leader and then Color War Captain. In 2004, we promoted Dick to Program Director and soon realized his true passion and skill is working with kids so asked him to head Boys Camp. Dick loves CRH and it is readily apparent to all who deal with Dick that he has an authentic way with our campers. Diane and Dick are two of the reasons CRH continues to be a uniquely special place 90 summers after Andy Friedman paddled up the channel to plant a flag in our summer home.

We are excited to launch into Robin Hood's next 90 summers on June 22, 2018. As tradition dictates, Chuck will be waiting for you at the Gas Pump.

TINKERS/PAGERS/JUGGLERS

Sup boys... Put your fidget spinner away, find a comfortable seat and sit down and take yourself back to the amazing summer ya'll had in 2017.

Remember the first day? When everyone for here and the craziness began? You guys were all so excite to get here and it was awesome to finally see all of you. Remember our first evening activity at the gaga pit, when we played a round where you guys has to run around the rink to get back in, when Robert made it a plan to be the dirtiest person in the gaga pit, having dirt and mud all over him when we were done.

Remember when you all got up at 5am on the first day? When Zach was the only one sleeping til 8am when everyone was making a ton of noise outside. Remember when you all crushed it swimming your 16 laps with the Saxons, when we saw a roach at the carpet ball table. Remember when we hiked Green Mountain with the Saxons and beat the Tumblers to the top to win Cozy Corner?

Remember when we got our Saxon buddies? We all hung out at the ODT and got to know our Big Brothers a little bit better. Remember when Brendan ate a taco so messy that it got all over his face and shirt? When we got to play 9 square for the first time and had a blast, when we played camper hut for the first time and caught Everett, Brendan, and Zach.

Remember when we got out Saxon aides, Benny and Billy? They rocked it the whole summer and got really close to you guys. Remember when we all played gold rush, but instead of not looking where you guys were hiding the tennis balls, you all made sure to chest and for some reason knew exactly where all the tennis balls were hiding. Remember playing "keep it up" in drama and it got really intense, only for the ball to hit the ground when a staff member messed up, making all of you mad at us.

Remember when you all dominated at the U10 soccer? When Robert and Zach both got yellow cards. That tournament was awesome and it was so fun to watch you guys compete against the other camps and we can absolutely say that we BEAT WEAT END! Remember going to the Mainers game? Although we didn't get to see the whole game, it was a lot of fun to get out of camp. You all took advantage of the sugary options at the ball field concession stand and made the bus ride home a ton of fun, but as soon as you guys got back to camp you crashed pretty hard.

Remember when we played Danish Long-Ball and Colton took a break and covered in grass? When we all made sure to eat a ton of fortune cookies on Chinese food night, when we had an awesome Pirates of the Caribbean battle royal in the lake on canoes, kayaks, and paddleboards. Remember when we had skit night and Zach made an original wrap about camp, when Reid killed a spider with silly string. Remember when we did a scavenger hunt for EA and Robert, Eli, and Jack won the game? When Julian played chess in an intense showdown outside of the office with what seemed like all of boys camp watching?

Remember when we played British Bulldogs, or as we called it, Lions and Gazelles? When Jose had a really intense speech that got everyone really focused on getting the last out, when Reid was caught off guard and fell over. When Jackson did a split in the middle of the field, when we sacrificed Jack to the lion gods and when Julian did insane somersaults.

Remember the Fourth of July? When we made an awesome banner for the camp parade…I think we won the banner competition, no matter what other people say. We had a blast at the carnival…Jose and Jackson were in the dunk tank multiple times and you guys kept on hitting them into the ice cold water, when we when on ALL the inflatables and water slides, when you guys ate a ton of candy and ice cream, getting crazy face paint. When we hit the waterfront for the beach party after the carnival to cool down, when we won candy canteen in the raffle…like we needed that!

Remember when we challenged the Squires to Bombardment and the dining hall went crazy? You guys put your all into that game, but we came up just a little short, there is always next year! When we chilled at the waterfront and got to see one of the best sunsets of the summer, when Jack went on Ace's shoulders for 9 square, when we played kick the can and you all thought the trash cans were a good place to hide, when we played king of the hill on the splash mats at senior waterfront.

Remember when Eli purposefully tried to get out in SPUD? When Zach ran to the barn without a shirt on for the play, then when he realized he was shirtless, he sprinted back to the bunk, when Colton fell into his box, when Eli and Freddy played gaga with the rest of us acting like a wall, when you guys all ran through camp after bonfire even when we told you not to. When we FINALLY went to Cozy Corner. Remember when we had Robin Hood gives back day? You all gave the speaker the respect he deserved, paid attention, and were great the whole time.

Remember when we went to The Outpost? The counselors cooked up some great burgers and hot dogs and we just got to relax by the fire. When we played a game of Lions and Gazelles on the far far field while we waited for s'mores, when we threw a cardboard board box in the fire and the fire became huge. We had a really awesome campfire and we listened to everyone talk about life and how much we all love camp.

Remember when we had a mini Green and White? We woke you guys up super early with air horns and had an awesome day competing with our groupmates. When the rifelry contest came down to a shootout between Zach and Eli, when the war came down to song night and the white teams cheer won the day. You guys had so much fun during that day, and I hope it gave you a taste of what the actual Color War is like.

Remember when we had a boys campfire where we got to make new cheers for the dining hall? When JC couldn't drink milk, when Dick played 9 square with us and he ended up being the king of 9 square. Remember our awesome dance? You guys didn't really dig the songs originally but you really crushed the dance, and I am glad we all got to be on stage together. Remember when we played hunger games? When we had casino night in the barn, when we blindfolded everyone and brought them to the waterfront for a surprise jump, when Jack and OG jumped off the tower for the first time!

Remember Beach Day? I don't think that the weather could have been any better that day. When you guys came out to visit your counselors while they were on lifeguard duty in the freezing water, when Freddy claimed to have been in the water a combined four hours, when we all got a little sunburned, when the tide came in and we had to relocate, when your counselors won beach day because you all got a ton of food, but rarely finished any of it so they all got to eat for free, when Brody got in with his shirt on and OG got in with ALL his clothes on, when we chilled in the hot puddles to warm up from being in the cold ocean. BRRRRR.

Remember when Eli put toothpaste on his chest? When we did the color run at camp and your counselors destroyed you with blue color at the beginning of the race, when we hit the water front after the run so we could get the paint off, but somehow Robert still had paint all over his hair and neck. When we played backwards scavenger hunt on the quad. Remember when we played balloon wars on the lacrosse field for EA? When we had a "meeting with Dick" and we all got candy canteen.

Remember PVD? You guys rocked once again as you performed your dance for your parents. Remember when Jack called Kris Bryant? When seven of you guys showed up right after PVD, when we played gold rush at the waterfront but this time we drew stars and smiley faces on the balls so you all couldn't cheat, when we started listening to Soy Peor, when we were challenged by the Tumblers to a game of softball and Nasser got the last out to win the game. Remember when we played Family Feud in the Barn? When Turkey wrapped asparagus was the answer to every question, and Bruno and Will wanted to be called Long Wayne and Chicken Wayne for Family Feud.

Remember the awesome 3 vs 3 basketball tournament in the Yeoman and Lancer Bunks? When we played hunger games and when someone got out they had to do a specific task to get back into the game and John A. was doing to do pushups to get back in, when we went to the sandbar for EA and we played keep away with a football. When Hamad had an amazing catch during Danish, when Edward was tubing and ne never fell off even though the boat driver was making it super hard to stay on.

Remember our awesome excursion? We got in vans and went to Story Land first where you guys had so much fun and didn't want to leave. After Story land we went to the movies where we saw the Emoji movie, it was so funny! When the movie was finished we went to our campsite where we had a great meal of fajitas and we made s'mores for dessert. The next day we went to Whales Tail, where you all went on almost every ride in the park. It was a little windy that day so you made sure to hang out in the hot tubs to warm up. Remember when Will was handing out war heads candy on the ride back to camp. When John Z. was telling us stories in the van ride, and when Reid made jewelry out of licorice.

Remember the Green and White break? We were all waiting for announcements to start in the dining hall when confetti came raining down from the ceiling and then everyone started to run out of the dining to the new quad where there was more confetti and fireworks. Finally we ended up in the far far field where a helicopter landed to reveal some judges, which officially marked the beginning of the 2017 color war. Shout out to Robert and Freddy for being chosen to be captains, and Eli and Reid for being elected co-captains. You all did an amazing job during color and I had a blast watching you guys compete.

Remember Founder's Night? We made a pretty awesome Adirondack chair dedicated to Dick and his 35 years of service to camp and we all went up on stage to present it to camp.

John Arfons – You crushed it this summer. When I first met you, you seemed nervous to be here, but as soon as you came to bunk you relaxed as you met your groupmates. Although you only go to stay 2 weeks, the time you spent here showed me that camp will be a place you will come to for years. You had a great color war and were always respectful to your group. I hope to see you back in The Realm next year.

Nasser Al Sabah – It's very impressive that you and your brother came from across the world to spend a week at camp. You are a great older brother. You always made sure that your younger brother was okay and took great care of him. You had a great time at camp and next year I hope you can stay longer to experience everything this place has to offer.

Hamad Al Sabah – Whenever I looked at you, you were either smiling or giggling about something. Coming to camp at your age is already quite the feat, but the fact that you came from so far away is awesome. Although you always stayed close to your brother while you were at camp, you still branched out and crated some awesome bonds with the members of your group. I hope to see you back in The Realm next year.

Juan Carlos Barrios Gomez – What can I say, you are the man. I know the position you were in being the only Spanish speaking camper in our group must have been intimidating but that did not seem to affect your time here at all. You made tons of friends and tried new things that I would never try at your age. I don't think I have ever met someone who is as good as you are at soccer at such a young age. I hope you keep playing, your passion for the sport is amazing and I can see you have a future with it.

Jack Chibnik – It takes a lot of guts to go away from home at the young age of 6 and I give you lots of credit, I would have NEVER been able to do that. You were threw yourself into all the activities that camp had to offer. I seemed like you really enjoyed camp this summer and I hope that you will keep coming back.

Dylan Frank – You were reserved at the beginning and quiet at the beginning of camp but you came out of your shell in no time. You became friends with the whole group and had no problem rocking it during all the activities. My favorite thing you did was when you tried to get more popsicle on your face than you got in your mouth. You thrived at camp this summer and I hope that you can come back, you know you have a place here.

Oskar Goshin – You are a really cool little dude. I loved talking to you about rap music and shoes. Not many kids your age are in that stuff so it was great connecting with you over that. Keep rocking your yeezys and learning more about rap. It was clear you had a great first summer in The Realm. 2 weeks was not enough time for you to experience this amazing place. I hope you are able to come for longer next year.

Bruno Liddell – You are a really good kid. You would always do exactly what was asked of you and we never had to say it twice. Watching you compete during Green and White was great, you fought hard for your team. We had such a great time on excursion with you and I hope you can come back for whole summer next year.

Robert Milacci – You are simply the man. Even though a lot of your friends moved up to the squire group, that did not affect you at all. You created friendships with all the new TPJ's. You became a leader in your group and I know you will continue to be for many summers to come. It was awesome to watch you lead your team during color war as a captain. I hope that you keep coming back, because this place needs you.

Krishna Moorjani – During the first night you gave me the impression that you were going to be fairly quiet, however the first full day of camp you came out of your shell and you continued to do so until the day you left. You always had a smile on your face and a positive attitude about everything. I hope your 2 weeks here have showed you how amazing this place is and hope you keep coming back.

Will Morrison – You are an awesome kid. Coming back for your second year you brought a lot of energy to the group right from the start. You were really helpful to some of your groupmates that had never been to camp before. You explained traditions and events as they happened and I know the other appreciated your knowledge. I liked that you were always down to hang out with the counselors just as much as you hung out with your group. Come back again next year, you thrive at camp.

Reid Olynick – You are the man! From the first day you were never without a smile. You have the best attitude about every single activity. You made sure to become friends with every kid in your group. I am really glad you got to stay for 7 weeks and that you go to be co-captain during color war. You are going to be a great leader of this group. Keep coming back.

Eli Perrino – You crushed it this summer. It is always great to have alumni children at camp and it was amazing to have you in this group. You made it a point to get to know everyone in the group and made some awesome bonds this summer. I think it's great that you wanted to stay the whole summer. I hope you come back next year and for years to come.

Everett Pulver – Heavy E, although you were shy the first couple of days, I was happy to see your awesome personality come out as the days moved on. You remind me a lot of myself when I was younger, so it was really cool to see you make your way around camp as a TPJ. You always listened to us and I thank you for that. Keep coming back to camp, this place needs people like you.

Julian Puri – Even though you could only come to camp for a little while this summer, the days you spent here were so much fun. I could clearly see you flourish when you are in The Realm. Your chess games outside the office were always an attraction for all of camp. I hope that you come back next year for longer so you can experience all that camp has to offer.

Brendan Riordan – You are an amazing kid. You were always down to do whatever activity we had and never complained. I loved when you put on my headband and shades and pretended to be me. I'm Really glad you got to experience camp. I know how different it is from your life at home and I truly think camp has changed you. I hope you keep coming back.

Freddy Rosenthal – You are an asset to have in our group. Being your third year you brought a lot to the group and helped me out a lot also. I relied on you quite a bit to help your first year groupmates integrate into camp and you did a stellar job of showing them the ropes. I don't even have to tell you to come back because I know that you will. You love this place and this place loves you.

Brody Russo – I am really glad that you were able to come back this year. Staying for the last 4 weeks allowed you to experience a lot of great activities, including green and white, which by the way, you were remarkable in. You brought a lot of energy and humor to the group. I hope that you are able to come back next summer.

Edward Shapiro – Although you only got to stay 2 weeks, they were the most action packed weeks of camp and it's awesome that you got to experience green and white and the 90th reunion. The energy with which you do activities is impressive and it rubbed off on everyone. You created a lasting impression on this group and you flourished at camp. I hope that you come next year and can stay longer.

Colton Stratman – I'm really glad that I got to know you better this summer than just being the kid with the super cool, color coordinated outfits. Your constant competitiveness is great to have in the group, and it would be awesome if you could show that off during color war. Although sports play a big role in your life, I think it's important that you keep coming back because this place means more to you than you think it does.

John Zaccaro – Right when you walked in the door you picked up where you left off from last summer. You are such a funny kid, but you make sure it is the right moment. You meshed with your groupmates that were new to camp and made them feel at ease. Watching you during color war was a lot of fun and you did a great job. Keep coming back.

Zach Zweibel – You came into this summer knowing almost everything there is to know about camp, which was awesome. It is clear that you have camp roots. The enthusiasm that had each day was unparalleled. Although you had to leave earlier than expected, I think next year you will be able to experience the full summer especially green and white, which I know you would thrive at.

Staff – I would not have been able to make it through the summer without you and this group would not be where it is today without your help. The hard work and dedication you brought every day is something that I can't thank you enough for. I got closer to you guys than I ever expected I would. I hope we can share memories of this summer forever. Thank you!

TPJ's of 2017 – WOW, what a summer! You guys gave me the best summer I could have asked for. Each and every day you brought tons of energy into the group and that kept me motivated. Each one of you has a tremendous future here in The Realm and I hope that you all realize that. You boys are the future of Robin Hood. I can't say it enough, keep coming back. This place means more to you than you realize right now and I hope to see all of you grown up and leading camp as Saxons.

SQUIRE CHI!

Set aside your fidget spinners and Burt's Bees and pay attention, because this has been the best summer! Sit back, relax, and let's reflect on this amazing summer.

Night one, we took camp by storm, as the hustle and bustle of moving bags and chants of BEAT WEST END echoed in the dining hall. Remember when the busses rolled in and we took the Squire sign off the bunk and ran to the gas pump to welcome our new friends. Or Johan's first game of Newcomb? Or Jack Doherty's first hike? Remember when Quentin and Justin made sticks and planes at woodshop? Remember out amazing first evening activity that ended with the whole group commandeering Dick's golf cart? Or Leo Babbin's master hiking skills? What about Sean Gresko's jokes at benches? Who would have thought that the Squires would crush those boys from Maine in an all-out brawl? Nate Weldon with the shot BOI! We had so much fun the first week, our U10 Basketball victory didn't even make the top 10. Remember our 3 mountain trips and 6 trips to Cozy Corner the first week? And our dominant performance against the TPJ's in bombardment?

With the 4th of July quickly approaching, the Squire Squad prepared by throwing on all of our USA garb and dunking Palmer in the Dunk Tank. Bounce houses and pretending it was Ngoni's birthday filled the afternoon. Remember Andrew Levine's ice cream stain and Chang's backflip off the tower? Archer's insightful comments on the benches were a crazy time! Watching fireworks from our beds after evening circle rounded out a fantastic day filled with beach parties and fried dough.

EVERYONE UP! At 7:30am the members of Squire Chi woke up and ate an early breakfast in preparation for Beach Day. As the entire group piled into a school bus that looked very similar to a "large twinkie", visions of burgers, candy, ice cream, and crashing waves came to fruition. Remember when we played football in the shallow tide pools? Or when the boys played whiffle ball on the sand? Remember out Baywatch-eque slow-mo sprint in the freezing water. Sadly, the great day came to an end as the staff busted an attempted candy smuggling operation before entering the bus to go back to camp.

The SUV's and PVD cookies showed up sooner than we thought and with them came a bunch of your parents, some of which were even former campers. Ratner and Dery spotting their parents signatures on the wall of bunk 12 was really cool. Remember when we showed off our epic dance moves to your parents. Popsicles and goodbyes left us wanting more and hoping that the clock would slow down for the next part of the summer. Especially Cooper, who couldn't bear the thought of leaving and came sprinting back to Robin Hood, unwilling to say goodbye to the Magic in the Trees.

I'm not sure which emoji to use to describe excursion, but I can say we rolled out of camp and splashed into Whale's Tale water park. Remember when Body thought he broke the waterslide or the Lazy River that never ended? Remember when the lifeguards banned us from the hot tubs, we would have never left otherwise. We totally conquered all the waterslides, even the tallest one was no match for the Squires. Next up was the Emoji movie, with a play very similar to Interstellar. A complex series of emotions left you all feeling quite sentimental. It was finally time to camp out and munch on some s'mores. The next morning, we woke up to Dunkin Donuts and a trip to Cranmore Ski and Extreme Sports course. A breathtaking chairlift ride and roller coaster were just a few of the awesome activities we got to experience that day. Nothing will ever be funnier than Ty and Noah Forrest on the coaster. Jacob Shapiro sure did love the rope swing pendulum. Remember our double backflips on the bungee trampoline? Remember Bryce's obsession with the roller coaster. Pizza arrived just in time for lunch and the fun continued with tubing!

BANG! Green and White confetti filled the dining hall on the afternoon of July 31st, followed by a helicopter carrying judges. After 5 hard fought days of Newcomb, soccer, swimming, regatta, and cracker eating, The Green Legends finally prevailed over The Toxic White. As much as I hate to say it, Holiday by Green Day was the perfect tune. Remember the epic bombardment game and Noah Varney's amazing dodge skills. Or Marshmallow and Blake's theatre performance? What about TUG with Chase as the white team's anchor and Cooper's frisbee accident.

Sadly, the year came to a close with Founder's Night and the awards night banquet ceremony. The past 7 weeks flew by here in The Realm and we found ourselves attempting to turn back time. Remember Andrew Dery's heartfelt speeches and Adam Segal's story time interludes? Remember when Devon and Noah Varney threw their sticks into the flames at the final boy's camp fire? It truly was an amazing summer and I'm so glad we got to experience all of it together.

SQUIRES

Leo Babbin – You were a true wild child in the group, you were always doing something crazy just because you wanted to. You had the best jokes at benches and you kept us laughing the whole time. I cannot wait to hear more jokes from you next summer.

Finn Carlson – You threw yourself into every activity and you always had a smile on your face. You truly made the best of every day you had in The Realm. Watching you play basketball and football, I can see you have a passion for those sports. I hope to see you back next year.

Andrew Dery – On the day after color war, you gave the most moving speech to your group and thanked every single person for making this summer great. We were all very moved by your honesty and willingness to be open with us. You put your all into every activity and you were always willing to try new things. I know will be a leader in this group for years to come.

Chase DiMeco – Chase! Wow, just wow. You came in late but you made a massive impact on your group with your athleticism and crazy style of play. Your water burps are something for the record books. Keep coming back.

Jack Doherty – I am impressed with your willingness to be an individual who holds his ground when even when everyone else is doing something different, you know what you want out of your day. This takes courage and I hope that your bravery carries you far in whatever path you choose. Camp needs people like you!

Cooper Ferdman – I can say with the utmost confidence that you already know what it means to live 10 for 2. The first session flew by and you hadn't had enough of camp and ended up staying 7 weeks. You got to experience all that camp has to offer but I promise there is more, so keep coming back.

Noah Forrest – The man, the myth, the legend. Noah, your super goofy attitude and love for every sport made it easy for you to integrate into the group. Your gladiator ball skills are amazing. I couldn't imagine Squire Chi without you. Keep coming back.

Quentin Glaenzer – Your positive outlook on every activity this summer did not go unnoticed. You managed to hold this group together at times with your positivity. You were an absolute pleasure to have in the group and I hope to see you for years to come.

Justin Goldberg – You were the perfect addition to the group this summer with an overwhelming positive outlook. Your love for water skiing and tubing had the entire group jumping off the benches! Watching you come out of your shell and into your own was one of the most gratifying experiences of the summer. Keep coming back.

Archer Gould – Fun facts and mending our group together were two of your strongest attributes. You, hands down have the best hair in the group. You made sure that no one was ever left out of game, or conversation, always reaching out to your groupmates to include everyone. Camp is where you thrive. Keep coming back.

Sean Gresko – You were a little ball of energy with a passion for sports and going crazy during dining hall dance parties. Watching you bond with your camp big brother Shaun was hilarious. We missed you during the second half of camp and I hope you can stay for longer next year.

Devon Kislin – There was never a dull moment with you in the mix, Dev! Thanks for a great summer filled with miracle gaga and fantastic football plays. I hope that you continue to turn your competitive athleticism into leadership at camp, and I am looking forward to watching you grow into a fine young man over the years to come.

Andrew Levine – You are possibly one of the most energetic campers to hit the Squire bunk. You truly brought out the best in all your groupmates. You were never afraid to try new things and even if you failed you always did it with a smile on your face and you got up and tried again. Camp needs people like you. Keep coming back.

Blake Lipman – You were never afraid to put yourself in a goofy position or laugh at something, you always saw the positive side of things. I loved your attitude and even though it may be "old hat" Camp Robin Hood needs you back. It goes without saying, but I cannot wait to watch you grow into an individual here at camp.

Bryce Lippard – Bryce Lips! You made your own name here at Robin Hood by showing us your caring and compassionate side but also that you are a fierce competitor. You excelled in all sports especially bombardment. During Green and White I loved watching you come in your own and I can't wait to see what next year has in store for you.

Alex Martorella – Even though your first few days were hard for you, you battled through and found your place in the group. It was awesome to watch you form bonds with your fellow campers and play the day away. I hope that you realize how awesome this place is and come back for longer next year.

Noah Ratner – The biggest Steelers fan I know. Although I am a Bengals fan you will always be my go to NFL guy. Your knowledge of football is impressive. You brought such an awesome energy to the group and I hope to see that Steelers comforter back in The Realm next year.

Callum Rodin – I am so glad that we got to be such close buds this year. I will never forget hanging out with you at beach day or just waiting for benches. Your leadership abilities in this group will take you far in life and I can't wait to see where it takes you at camp.

Brody Rothenberg – You were always full of such energy and would go head first in to any activity we had on the schedule. It was awesome to see a 1st year camper be so excited about everything. Keep coming back, camp needs you kind of excitement.

Johan Samuel – We watched you grow into a responsible young man right before our eyes. You were always there to help your groupmates when they needed an ear. Your dominant strategy in Newcomb along with your competitive drive kept the group going from revelry to the goodnight song every day that you were in The Realm. I hope you can stay for longer next year so you can experience everything this place has to offer.

Adam Segal – You are possibly the most coordinated athlete in all of junior camp. Your basketball skills are miles ahead of the game. You are also the nicest person and always have a smile on your face. Keep working those basketball skills so when you are in senior camp we can beat that other camp from Maine.

Jacob Shapiro – Although you were only here for 2 weeks, the tears that rolled down your face when you left were so genuine. You felt the magic in the trees the moment you stepped into this place. I know you will be back for years to come and I hope you stay longer next summer so you can experience all the magic that camp has to offer.

SQUIRES

Jackson Steinlauf – Jacky Perfect! No matter the sport, or time of day your competitive attitude allowed the group to get the most out of every activity period. Your witty circle time comments were hilarious and kept everyone laughing. I cannot wait to see more of you next year.

Sam Swartz – Chuckles! I loved hanging out with you this year and making so many hilarious memories. My favorite moment was watching you sit on the benches and making yourself laugh for no reason at all, you would laugh a literally nothing and it always kept the mood light. Keep laughing and come back next summer to make us laugh some more.

Noah Varney – Coming into the group late in the summer can be rough but you grabbed a hold of the summer and never looked back. Your willingness to learn new things was awe inspiring. You made some great friends and I hope you come back for longer next summer to keep creating amazing bonds.

Nate Weldon – Your general knowledge on an array of subjects never failed to add a funny yet educational moment to each day. I will miss playing stick and ball with you during rest hour and watching you hop to flagpole in the mornings. Keep coming back so you can share even more mind-blowing facts from you.

Marcello Zarif – Marshmallow! How will we be able to make it through the next 10 months without hearing your crazy laugh or "oooohhhh come onnnnnn?!" I will miss your pronunciation of SQUIRREL, and your nighttime shenanigans with Brody. You truly get what camp is and you have so much fun at every activity. I hope to see you back in The Realm next year.

Ty Zitomer – You always had something to say about the activities, whether it was a funny comment or gesture, your input was always well received. You were the heartbeat of this group and I hope to see you back.

Staff – I cannot say enough about your passion for each activity. At times, I thought as though you were more excited for tubing and waterfront than the kids were! Have a great year and I hope all 6 of you will be by my side in The Realm again next year!

Squires of 2017 - I could not ask for a better group of boys to share my summer with. I will never forget our hilarious EA's or the early morning ski sessions. Even when I was exhausted you all managed to lift my spirits. I learned so much from all of you and I cannot wait to watch you all grow up into confident and respectable young men.

Over and Out!

ARCHERS

My dudes, my dudes, my dudes.

It is time to sit down, relax, either with your fidget spinners or magic cards, grab a couple of friends and reminisce about the summer of 2017.

Remember our first night of the summer? Everyone was so excited to reconnect with old friends and welcome the newcomers to the group. We hit the ground running with our first evening activity, CAMPER HUNT!

Remember being the first in line for Sundae Sundays, Thank you Beckett Fox for that one!

Remember when Jesse drooled on Sobel at lunch because his mouth was frozen. Sorry, not sorry. Remember when Henry fell up the benches? Remember yo momma jokes? Remember watching the first sunset of the summer at the waterfront as a group. I hope you all remember that special moment.

Remember the mountain hike up Rattlesnake and Sobel being the first one to the top? Remember the amazing view from the top? Remember Jack's great accents while getting candy canteen. Beef Jerky!! Remember the all junior camp game of infection in the rain, we were so muddy after that. Remember destroying spiders with brooms and bug spray. Remember going to the Sanford Mainers game. The bus ride back was so insane, you guys ate so much candy that night.

Remember when Alex and Ethan had the same fortune cookie fortune?! How about the junior camp talent show? Alex and Max represented the Archers well as they performed a number from the Lion King. Remember Juan's Forrest Gump impersonation. Remember our playdate with West End? Newcomb didn't go our way but then we destroyed them on the soccer field and topped it off with an intense game of kickball on the homerun diamond.
BYE FELICIA!

Remember when Will and Sammy went full beast mode at the senior waterfront, knocking kids off the trampoline? Remember when Jack turned into Harry Potter in the bunk? Remember being challenged to a game of gaga, Beckett went all in on that game. The intensity was high but sadly we were not able to fly the W that time. Remember making the best sand castles during waterfront periods, Juan being a trooper and belly flopping off the tower. Remember when Chuck would call us up at meals and your staff freezing both tables so you couldn't move.

Remember Sebastian channeling his inner Weird Al Yankovic and making up the best song parodies. Remember our trip to the outpost where we roasted s'mores and had a total bro sesh? Remember when Ethan decided dirt was a nutritious snack during Danish on the quad or how Alex had the nest facial expressions during tubing.

Remember the 4th of July when you all had the opportunity to dunk your counselors in the dunk tank. Needless to say, we got what was coming to us. Remember how we would have the greatest talks about science, the countless flagrant fouls against the Squires, and our awesome EA of steal the bacon on the beach. Remember when Jasper, Alex, and Max crushed their performances in the Harry Potter skit in front of all of camp. Remember how Ethan got that terrible splinter in his butt. Note to self don't scoot across the wood benches. Call of Duty warfare or digging holes on the benches all the way to China?

Remember Robin Hood Gives Back day? Joe from K9's for Warriors joined us with his family and his dog Lily. Joe shared with us his story of perseverance and I hope it inspired some of you to never give up.

Remember when Lan performed the noodle trick or when the boys took over the dining hall. Remember destroying all the huge spiders on the porch and loosing track of the biggest one? Remember when Juan and Jack wore the Banana costume during EA's, Alex hunting Alex during sailing periods. The Terry Rozier Championship or when Beckett finally decided to retire? Remember how Shawn was the king of unsuspecting tennis balls and kept everyone on the lookout for flying tennis balls. Remember when Becketts bocce ball got destroyed by the passing camp van, and the epic last fight in hunger games?

Let's talk about how awesome out dance was for the talent show. Everybody went nuts when Jasper did a split. Also the shirt hoods were a huge hit with the audience. I could not have been more proud. Remember the awesome rainbow during gaga, capsizing drills, and sponge warfare? Remember capture the greasy watermelon at senior waterfront, mad libs during our nightly meetings, and the time Jasper ran into the pole at soccer.

Remember the epic Harry Potter duel at eh grassy knoll, 9 square donkeys, or when Jesse got deported. Remember our kitchen raid that turned out to be a prank by your counselors and Dick. We got you guys so bad! We had so much fun that night, I hope you remember that moment for the rest of your lives. Remember putting orbies in the sink and leaving them there overnight. None of them grew because we forgot to add water. Remember Jack's great grandmother impression. Remember our Parents vs.

Campers game of bombardment on PVD? Remember Sebastian's mom bringing everyone custom fidget spinners. That was pretty awesome! I enjoyed meeting all of your parents and seeing how much like them you all are.

We said goodbye to the four weekers and welcomed a few new faces; Nico, Cian, Caleb, Andrew, and Hugo. Remember playing 9 square during EA and half-way through picking any object you could find and throwing it across the field and innuendo bingo? Remember the clash between the alliances in hunger games with the Squires. Remember when Cian dove off the dock, Nico's exploding shampoo, and only eating fluff at Sunday dinners? Remember being part of the Freedom Old Home Week parade? Riding behind the bulldozer on the big TPJ chair and tossing candy to the on lookers.

ARCHERS

We enjoyed a couple of days of quiet in The Realm while other groups were on excursion. Then it was our turn to pack up and head out for excursion. Remember not being able to find our first destination, Monkey Trunks? Everyone tackling the ropes course high above the ground which ended in a long zip-line down the field. Then we moved the operation to the largest arcade in the world, Funspot. Remember when Hugo won the 1,000-ticket jackpot, the counselors winning Deal or No Deal three times, and Andrew coming away with the best clapper prize? After our adventures at the arcade we headed to the campsite to find Yensi there making dinner! Remember when Caleb was climbing the tree at the campsite and Jesse wanted to join but then fell off the tree or when Beckett pied himself in the face with spaghetti? After our amazing dinner, we hit the links at Pirate Cove. Day two consisted of non-stop action at Funtown Splashtown USA! Remember when the counselors explained how the carnival games were rigged. We then departed from the theme park and headed to Wal-Mart, just kidding! Seeing Spider-Man was a way better alternative. The was indeed lit. After the movie, we came back to camp and started to get ready for the inevitable Green and White break.

Green and White finally broke during lunch the next day with confetti raining down in the dining hall and we all ran to the new quad to see even more confetti and fireworks. A helicopter flew in and landed on the far far field with judges inside. Congrats to Jasper and Beckett on being elected captains. Remember the crazy bocce ball game where it came down to the final two throws or the tug of war where everyone battled hard for three tugs? The 5 five days of color war were as intense as it gets but the Green Legends came out on top. After competing against our groupmates we came back together and reveled in the final few days of camp.

Remember our founder's day gift of the Cheer-O-Meter, being koalas instead of sitting on benches, campers vs. staff in a game of Newcomb for the coveted candy canteen. Remember our last evening activity of sunset tubing and when we pushed all our beds together for the final night of camp? It truly was an epic ending to an equally great summer.

Ernie – Although you were only here for one week, you were able to solidify yourself as a pillar of this group. You were always excited about whatever activity was on the schedule and always gave it your all. I hope to see you back in The Realm next summer.

Sammy – It was awesome to see you come out of your shell the first couple of days of the summer. I know it was a weird transition for you being from another country, but you made a place for yourself here. I know you enjoyed yourself, I could see it in your smile and the way you carried yourself. I hope to see you back next summer.

Henry – The moment you stepped onto camp I could feel our enthusiasm and the energy that you had. You brought the group together with your excitement for every single part of the day and for that I would like to thank you. Keep being that happy, kind, and enthusiastic about life. It will take you far. Keep coming back, camp needs your kind of energy.

Beckett Sobel – Even though your time at Robin Hood was cut short this summer, you made the most of every minute you had here. You are one of the smartest eleven year olds I have ever met and your competitive spirit made each activity full of excitement. Keep coming back because camp is in your heart.

Jack – You really came out of your shell as the summer went on and you showed the group your true personality and they all loved you for it. Your quick wit and humor was uplifting to the group and to the staff. Everyone enjoyed getting to know you.

I know you will be back for years to come and I can't wait to see what your camp future holds.

Sebastian – Your curiosity about everything that happens at camp showed how much you enjoyed camp. You wanted to know everything there is to know. Being younger than everyone in the group did not stop you from making friends. You were never afraid to show the group your voice and that bravery will take you far. Keep coming back.

Max – I've never met someone so young who isn't afraid to get up in front of 300 plus people and show off your incredible talent on the stage. You have a loud presence within the group and I was sad to see you leave so soon. Keep coming back because you have a bright future in The Realm.

Alex – Your maturity and intelligence is rare for someone your age and you brought a sense of calmness to the group even when things weren't going your way. I enjoyed getting to know you throughout the summer. You're a camp person even if you don't know it and I hope to see you next summer for a longer session.

Lorca – Being new to camp didn't stop you from jumping right into the groove of Robin Hood. Your competitive spirit made each activity we did even more exciting. You gave your all in evey sport and activity. I hope to see you in next summer.

Ethan – Baby Agmoni, you returned to The Realm with no hesitation and had no trouble getting back in the swing of things. I know you wanted to stay longer but that desire will be rewarded next summer, I just know it. You are a very mature kid and I hope you enjoyed the playlist.

Will – Coming to a place like Robin Hood for the first time is tough for everyone but once you found your feet and made your place in the group you absolutely crushed it every single day. Small but mighty is an expression that fits you well. You were never afraid to speak your mind and you should always to continue to share what you have to say. Keep coming back.

Juan – Being the only kid in the group from Spain wasn't easy and especially with it being your first time at camp. However, you never let it stop you from making your presence known within the group. You remind me so much of your older brothers and that always put a smile on my face. Your willingness to try new things is a great virtue and I hope that it continues because it brought out the best in you and your groupmates.

Shawn – You came to camp in the middle of the first four weeks but you made the transition flawlessly. You brought out the best in everyone at each activity by going as hard as humanly possible. You have a bright future here at camp and I hope you get to stay longer next summer so you can experience all camp has to give.

Hugo – You were only at camp for a week but you were able to see how special this place is in that small amount of time. You cemented yourself as a part of this group in such a short period of time and everyone was bummed to see you leave so soon. Come back next year for longer because I know you have a future here.

Caleb Webber – You came to camp and jumped into activities without a hitch. You had such a positive attitude and willingness to do anything, you made our job easy. I can't wait to watch you grow up to be a mature young man. Come back for as long as you can because I can tell you know how special this place is.

ARCHERS

Jasper – From the minute you stepped through the doors of the bunk, I could tell you were right at home. You encouraged kids to participate in activities and would play Magic: The Gathering or Ping Pong with anyone who was willing to play. Your leadership skills really shined through this summer and it showed by being elected color war captain for the white archers. You pushed you team through Green and White with finesse. I know you know how amazing this place is and I can't wait to see you at camp next year.

Beckett Fox – Bucket, bucket, bucket, you are the goofiest kid I have ever met. You always made me laugh with your constant shenanigans. Congratulations on being elected color war captain by your group mates. You encouraged your green archers in every single activity and lead by example. I hope you keep coming back to this special place.

Jesse – I am so glad that you stayed 7 weeks this year. You're a very funny and sweet young man. You are conscientious about what is going on around you and made sure to become friends with the whole group. You even made close friends with campers from other groups. It was amazing to watch you this summer. I loved just goofing around with you during activities. Come back for as long as you can.

Cian – Coming to an unfamiliar place was definitely something different for you but you took your time adjusting and you came to love it. Nothing made me happier than when you jumped off the tower after telling me earlier that this was something you didn't think you could do. BUT YOU DID IT! I hope to see you back for more next summer.

Nico – You made your return to The Realm with ease and that shows how much you are a part of this group and they are part of you. You never missed a beat and you are looked at as a friend to everyone. This is an amazing quality to have at such a young age. Keep coming back, camp needs more people like you.

Andrew – Coming to camp at the four week mark didn't stop you from getting into the groove of camp. Your high energy at every activity lifted the group day in and day out. I hope to see you back in The Realm next year.

Caleb Newman – Your love for camp is unmatched, and it really came out during color war. Your competitive spirit brought out the best in everyone and you fought hard alongside your groupmates. Keep coming back because this place needs you.

Staff – You guys made my job so easy this summer. You each brought something special to the table and made a lasting impact on our campers. I knew I could count on each and every one of you to lead our group at any time. I hope you are all back next summer so you can continue making positive impacts on campers.

Archers - You guys are an amazing group of kids and I was so thrilled to be your group leader this summer. You all have very unique personalities and yet you all mesh together so well. You are definitely one of the closest groups on camp and I admire how well you all work together. You all get along so easily which made my job and much easier. I hope to see you all back next summer and for summers to come because you guys will dominate camp as you grow older. I'm so happy that I can say that I am part of your group.

WELL BOYS,

it's time to put away your glow sticks and water guns and take a minute to relax and reflect on one of the greatest summers of our lives: the summer of 2017.

Remember 15 of you all arriving at camp on June 23rd, seemingly ass from the New York bus. You all started out as an amazing group right away and we clicked right from the start. After our first few activities I could tell that this would be the best summer of my life, and I have all of you to thank for that.

Remember Nate's incredible farmers tan and Theo's Saxon roast…"Ben, how's business?""BUMAN"…remember lips and Eli taking their sailing expedition…Nate puts Austin on skates during rest hour…who could forget the infamous Dinnichris Sock and the God of Emotions?

Remember Tyler's big butt question…Theo and Nate slam heads during the meeting after discussing the mysterious ramen source. "Are you feeling it now, Mr. Krabs?"… and who could forget Griffins amazing sword from woodshop? Remember Sobel's lacrosse skills and Eli's scratchy voice…the innovative PB & J technique…and of course Nate making the 15U basketball team.

Remember Toby's waffle dilemma…all the Takeoff/Migos conspiracy theories (are they the same?) Remember steal the bacon…Tyler's wrath on Buman, only to be exposed. Henry vs. James (Proud to be an American!)…Triple Stack…Buman knocks Felipe off his game in bball.

Remember our incredible mountain trip?? Nah…but for real the nature center was pretty cool…The crazy dude screams at us from his car at Cozy. Buman eats it during "the floor is lava"…Windows 10 background…Chase slips goof a rock in excitement…the epic Nate/Pierce/Eli belly flop resulting in candy canteen.

Remember 4thof July? "Walnuts are alive… sometimes?" Eli's pie face…rub a dub dub…J rock stating that if you don't have a belly button you are adopted and then getting confused with the concept of time. Remember all of our tubing adventures… Griffin losing his attire and the rope snapping in half, just to name a few.

Remember our amazing role call check-ins? Boneless pizza, Ray's mountain Bike Park and Saturdays are the Boys were always hits. Remember peek-a-boo…the Jedi training announcement from out of camp…placing "Do not use" on many of the stalls…making families and dogs…meeting our new friend TeShaun…and of course Eli's hit single?

Remember Nate's paddle boarding incident…Kreindler saying he's making friends in crafts…and the big bucket splash on Pietro? Who could forget skit night? The team we stacked coming up empty handed, but solid performances from all participants. Remember I'm a "Freneshinol"…solid nubing…Olsher taking away Pierce's dignity in basketball…Tyler waterskiing…cheese and the two breads…Ignacio wishing he was a squirrel…" Pray for J-Rock"…and Chase eating a Jolly Rancher with some unexpected guests on it?

Remember Robin Hood Gives Back? We all met Joe and his service dog, Lily. We will all remember his kindness and words of encouragement. His advice has truly stuck with me and I hope that it will resonate with you all forever. He truly was a pleasure to have he is a hero among us.

Remember Beach Day? One of the best days of the summer. Remember being frustrated at ring Frisbee…Ignacio seemingly loosing Felipe…" I don't burn"…Chases hyper ordering at Splash and then decides to hide candy in his water bottle…#Slips…and of course our love for "toucha, toucha, touch me" from "Rocky Horror Picture Show?"

Remember J-rocks outstanding Danish catch…the hilarious mouth guards during meetings…Eli explaining his unusual party trick to all of us. Theo landing a front flip…Peter's excellent toilet story followed by some expert freestyling…Pierces athletic plays…the beetle night club…Nirvaan's crazy snake move in the dodgeball tournament…Eli's flesh wound…Remember Casper's unintentional Thomas Jefferson Passover food mix-up followed by him laughing and crying in the dining hall…and Dragon Tales for EA?

Remember PVD? It was awesome to get to meet all of your families and spend some time getting to know them and showing them all the cool stuff we do at camp. I'm happy that they all got to see you in your element in such an amazing place.

Remember gaining Arthur, Remo, David, and Peter the next day? Remember body dragging while tubing. Remo is a hype beast! Orbeez spilling everywhere…Aayush's stacked question at dinner, followed by him receiving stack…Tamer's obsession with all of my speakers and all of his wonderful questions. Casper and Peter eating it in the dining hall "just trying to get a fork"…Arthur's three words: "Hi, my name is Arthur."

Remember excursion?? Our van becoming a range rover simulator…being obsessed with the claw machine at the campsite…all the stuffed animal sacrifices…awful tube mania at Water Country with Casper, Chase, and Sobel…non-gmo empanadas…The bird leaving a surprise in Nate's backpack…Lips falling in marinara sauce…our new favorite soundtrack in the van…having tons of fun at Attitash, the alpine slide was sweet…War for the Planet of the Apes?

Remember as soon as we got back to camp Green and White broke? The Mighty Toxic White vs. The Great Green Legends. It was a pleasure to see all of you compete so vigorously for 5 days. I loved being able to coach some of you in a few activities. Your hard work and sportsmanship paid off on all sides.

Remember the last few days of camp…packing up…getting the last few great moments of camp in while we could. It sure was a summer for the ages.

YEOMEN

Griffin Steinkraus – Your constant positivity around the bunk made you an absolute pleasure to be around. You always had a positive mind set and you don't realize how much I appreciate that. It is clear that you love camp and camp loves you. I hope that you can stay for longer than weeks next year.

Ben Buman – Even though it is only your second year at camp, it seems like you've been here for so much longer. You click with the entire group so well and it is evident that you are a true friend to everyone. I loved your quiet, witty humor that came in the form of sharp, quick remarks. Camp needs people like you and I can't wait to see you next summer.

Felipe Roca – It is never easy to come to an environment without your family, knowing very little of the native language. But you took this challenge head-on and tackled any problem that came your way. From the first Spanish conversation we had, I knew we would become fast friends, your enthusiasm for new activities and making friends is unlike any other and I like to think that I could be that way too. See you next year!

Ignacio Estevez – You fit in with this group right off the bat! Meshing into an already close-knit group so seamlessly took me by surprise and brightened my summer immensely. You are so funny and kind and I know that I and the rest of the group appreciates it. I can't wait to see you next summer building an even stronger bond with your newfound brothers.

Arthur Aqraou – You really bring a special vibe to our tight-knit group. You are wise beyond your years and you are incredibly funny. I'm so happy you had fun in your second year and I can tell you love camp. Just remember that camp is always there for you as am I and the rest of your groupmates. See you next summer!

Toby Bloch – Dude, you practically are camp. It's so clear from the way you lead your group that you care so much for this place and you want everyone to find their spot to succeed. It's crazy to think that this is your sixth year and I can't wait to see you back for many more. It will be amazing to see what the rest of your camp career holds.

Chase Brooke – Ah! The comedian of the group. While your area may have been quite messy much of the time, you made up for it by being a caring and essential member of the group. You are incredibly funny and goofy but you really understand when it's time to buckle down and get serious. As a camp veteran, I can't wait to see what else you give to camp and what you gain from it. Keep coming back.

David Chachoua – David, so much to write and such a little space to write it in. From the moment you walked into camp on July 23rd, you meshed perfectly with our group dynamic and it was as if you had been here for the whole summer. Your athletic ability is incredible and it was a pleasure to watch you during Green and White. What pleased me the most is your ability to make friends and others happy. This is so crucial to being a successful camper and I excited to see where it takes you.

Theo Drye – First of all, let me say that you, by far have the most comfortable bed in the bunk. But on a serious note, you really understand how important camp is and you truly came to enjoy yourself. You are an extremely funny kid and joking around with you was always the highlight of my day. Keep coming back for as long as you can, because I can tell that you and Robin Hood have a lot to offer each other.

Tamer Fishman – Showing up brand new into a pack of close kids if never easy, but you were perfect from the start. We immediately hit it off and you were a pleasure to be around. I know you loved your time at camp and I hope that you understand how long-lasting these friends can be and how big a part they can and will play in your life. See you next year!

Casper Glaenzer – Dude, you absolutely crushed it this summer. I couldn't be happier when I saw your name on the list of kids coming back. You are too funny for words and above all you cared about the groups well-being. Whether we were at soccer or dancing during a meal, you were always giving your all and I loved being a part of that. Have a great year and see you next summer!

Austin Goodman – Your questions always left me in stiches. Thank you for inventing the Yeoman sound off, by the way. But seriously you are an awesome kid who loves camp and everyone in it. Similar to many others you are very goofy but you know when it's time to be serious. You can lead this group so well and it's clear that everyone values you and your opinion. I hope to see you back for many years to come. Camp is vital to who you are and who you will be.

Aayush Irani – First off, you're just an incredible kid. You are absolutely hilarious to talk to and you gave me and the rest of the staff very little trouble at all. It was a pleasure to get to know you and I could tell that as your session came and went, you became a camp person. I hope that you come back as long as possible because this group loves you and you will always have a home here.

Ben Kreindler – Your dance moves are impeccable. You are someone who is always there for camp and for your friends. If I could describe you in one word it would be "caring". The confident way in which you carry yourself is vital to the success of this group. People look up to you, and I hope you realize how big of an impact you have on those around you. It was a privilege to be your counselor again and I hope to see you back in The Realm for many summers.

YEOMEN

Jack Levine – J-rock, you rock. It seems as though Camp Robin Hood was made for people like you. You are carefree, outgoing, and kind. Your groupmates all think very highly of you and I am so happy you decided to stay the full session this year. Your random noises were always something I looked forward to. You are a great kid. Keep coming back because you embody everything camp.

Tyler Lipman – Tyler, it's honestly been incredible how much you care about camp and your group. I have noticed throughout this summer that you tend to be the voice for everyone, which is extremely underappreciated. Every day you have a smile on your face and it's nothing but high energy wherever you go. That rubs off on the rest of the group and we all love it. You clearly love camp and camp loves you right back.

Max Lippard – Lips, your crazy goofball attitude is only matched by your outstanding dedication to making sure you had an incredible summer. You are very honest about whatever you have on your mind and I respect that. You made this summer extremely enjoyable for me and I know you will be back for a long time. You matter so much to this group and I know that, no matter what, these people, including myself, will always have your back.

Remo Marcaccio – Remo, I couldn't be happier that you came back to The Realm. You are constantly upbeat and positive and I loved that about you. Activities were more enjoyable with you and it made the whole day brighter. I hope you know that the bonds made here are lifelong and you can be yourself at camp. Keep coming back. It is clear that you love camp.

Jack Olsher – Jack, I'm so happy that your decided to come back and give camp another chance. I know coming back was a last-minute decision for you but I can guarantee that you made the right choice. I lves having you around and your positive attitude was contagious throughout your stay. Keep giving Robin Hood a chance because you have so much to give to camp.

Nirvaan Pandit – You might be the goofiest kid to walk through the gates of Robin Hood. Everything you said from sun up to sun down was either a joke or some silly accent. Eveeyone loved your carefree attitude. You can make almost anyone smile just by neing yourself. Camp was built for kids like you, kids who just want to have fun. I would love to see you back in The Realm.

Peter Ryan – Your hilarious questions and comments were absolutely a highlight of my day. I love to see that you had fun no matter what the activity. It was a pleasure to have you in the group this summer. You kept me on my toes and being your counselor was never dull. Come back for as long as you can.

Eli Sobel – You are one of the funniest, craziest, and most lovable kids I have ever met. And I'm not just saying that because we're family. Even if we weren't I can tell we would have hit it off right away. You were always making me smile and laugh and I know everyone else feels the same way. Everyone around camp knew your name and everyone thinks highly of you. You clearly love camp and camp loves you more. Keep throwing yourself into camp and only good things will come of it. Love you, kid.

Pierce Terowsky – Your personality is one of the biggest in the group. You're always up for a good time, rain or shine. Whatever you did, I was laughing and thinking about how you are so built for this camp. We all love you and its clear to see that you have found brothers in this group. Congrats on 5 years, by the way! Hopefully that turns to 10! Keep coming back.

Nate Wildman – Your athletic ability is honestly unparalleled. Watching you compete in Green and White was awesome. Your athleticism matches your sportsmanship. You love your group so immensely and I can see it every day. You are always looking out for your boys and you have no idea how much I appreciate that. It was so great getting to know you better this summer. I know you will keep coming back.

To James D, James F, Henry, and Pietro – I could not have asked for a better group of specialty staff to have by my side. You guys made this an incredible summer and I hope you all had as a great a time as I did. You were amazing with our campers and we all loved having you around. Love you all.

To Joey and Lomo – What can I say, you guys absolutely crushed it this summer. You are now two of my nest friends and I am so happy I got both of you on our staff. I love you both so much and you helped me more than I can tell you. The kids loved you and I am so happy you both had a great time. Please come back because being on staff just gets better. Love you guys.

Well Yeoman...

It sure was a crazy ride. I can say that without a doubt this has been my favorite summer out of the 11 that I have under my belt. You guys made my first summer as a group leader so enjoyable and I want to thank all of you. I now consider all of you to be my close friends and if any of you need anything, I'll always be around. See you soon boys, and just remember,…

It's not goodbye, just time to say goodnight.

LANCERS

Lancers, put down those Magic Cards, stop singing 1,000 years, and stop saying JULEEYYYYY so that we can reminisce on the best summer of your lives.

The summer started strong by consistently waking up early every morning to secure the flagpole…until we had to stop so other groups could have a chance. Our amazing summer had just begun and out presence on camp was growing. From there we had hilarious cheers to earn us first in sundae Sunday lines and some awesome tubing time with Lewis.

Remember Spencer's epic tubing wipeout, and Mercer refusing to let go. How about the sweet double tubing with Eli and Schmidt and Nathaniel getting exposed? Hamani getting knocked off his feet, and Eli's belly flop, and Spencer swimming like a fish! Remember Alvaro calling out the natives and Sean never once messing up his count off number?

Then came the 4th of July. You all took advantage of the dunk tank and dunked your counselors a total of 20 times. Whether or not you actually threw the ball…We also had the best beach party ever and Alvaro even belly flopped off the tower. After all that we finished off this amazing day with a July 4th feast and I am pretty sure we took down 100 corn dogs. The next morning we woke up at 6:45 am to get in an early game of softball and some DUNKINNNN! We left camp a fair amount this year, but the best was Noah Giesens birthday extravaganza! Mini Golf, Despicable M3, an amazing dinner AND Cozy Corner.

Remember So You Think You Can Dance. We brought the house down. Amos, Eli, Baumoel, and Gavin sending those who didn't know the dance to chalk city. How about Hamani's hilarious remember when's? The Extremely large gust of wind on the softball field that knocked Amos to the ground. Speaking of Amos, how about all those letters he wrote and received and of course his father the meme master!

Baumoel drinking all those juice boxes at lunch and who could forget his popularity at Cozy Corner. Logan Switching over to the archery intensive and having a great time at Indian Acres. What about Mercer and Jake combining for 6 touch downs that day. We clearly didn't win and we still got ice cream. They won and their coaches were upset because the game was "too close". What about Takeshi's homerun in softball and Eli actually almost hitting trees! Staff crushing it at 9 square, when Schmidt wasn't spiking the ball at us. Barone getting tossed from the canoe. All of the flips down the at the sandbar and the Senior Waterfront "gazebo".

Our groups true bad side came out during hunger games with alliances constantly turning on each other. Alvaro turning on his team members during the hunger game, Nick realizing who he was when he attempted to teach Magic. Pickles being the bombardment ninja and Dodge destroying everyone in Ultimate. Remember Mercer's funny hand movements and always being at soccer. What about the weird time the stars came out when we playing dodgeball? Lieberman being the dustpan king and balling up in pajama's. The group assigning Barone's future job on staff. Mason and Takeshi taking over the group. Not athletes? How about sweeping the Yeoman in four challenges "caramelized" and then beating the Arrows in a game of gaga. How about the awesome canoe trip and the amazing job Pickles and Amos did getting there… The great campfire that left Noah and Hamani speechless and Logan washing his shoes in the lake, and Noah cooking up some Oreos while Nathaniel assembled all the tents.

Four weeks in, parents visiting day rolled around and it was a blast. Little Logan and Hunter's dad started off the day strong with a mean game of ultimate. Remember the dads playing the staff in ultimate. How about the kids challenging the moms to a game of gaga or paddle boarding? Watching you all perform your dance in front of your parents was really special and I know that they, and the entire audience enjoyed it and could tell how much hard work you all put it.

Next up came EXCURSION! The coin factory was sick but not as awesome as the US Postal company. Day one was stacked with laser tag and bowling. Remember Andres' funny bowling faces and Mason desperately trying to get that strike. How about laser tag which started out productive but just turned into a lawless game of tag your friends. Laser tag was "lit" and we will never forget Oli's epic through the legs strike. Then we capped off the day with the Emoji Movie…just kidding, staffed tricked you and we saw Planet of The Apes III. Then we hooked it up and slept on camp. Day two was even better, waking up at ay 7am to go paintballing. Paintball was really great except when Nick was shooting his own teammates, or when everyone ran out of paintballs mid game. It ok though because we got 4000 more paintballs and gave it our all, we had bruises to prove it. Dodge destroyed his opponents from the tower and Hamani couldn't miss either. What about our amazing Chipotle dinner, did anyone actually get water? Who can forget Pickles attempts to behead the fish. Remember Dodge and Gavin both going for it twice. Dodge where

IS that $5? That boat trip wasn't the best for Schmidt but we made it through.

Color war was way too much fun this summer. You guys all got really into it but back at the bunk things were as they should be. We started off with an amazing game of Danish and the war just heated up from there. Remember Gavin and Mason's ultimate game? What about pickles being lil' Fuente on stage? Mercer and Gavin absolutely destroying the soccer game and Schmidt taking over basketball. Andres crushing the track meet and Takeshi's volleyball game. Jake being unreal at absolutely everything and Eli's softball game. Mercer becoming Benny and Nicks talent show performance was flawless. How about Dodges all out defense in every single sport? Dagnino got really into gaga. You all gave your everything to the final tug and I am proud of you all.

LANCERS

Jake Baumoel – This summer I feel like you really realized what camp is all about. You constantly gave it your all and you didn't waste a minute. You were a dominant force during Green and White and it was amazing to watch. Your sportsmanship during games also made me very proud. Thank you for being a great camper and have a great school year.

Mercer Kruzner – You have all your older brother's qualities and more. You're a true leader in this group and that showed throughout Green and White. Whenever your team lost a sport you didn't lose confidence and just kept fighting. You're hilarious and an important part of this group. Good luck with soccer and I can't wait to see you next summer.

Spencer Weldon – You had such an amazing summer. From the minute you were dropped at camp your high energy and constant smile on your face immediately made a positive impact on the group. You brought your highest intensity to every single activity and were always a good sport. Also, I'll never forget your epic tubing wipeout and your crazy soccer goals. Have a great year and I really hope to see you back next summer.

Nick Barone – BARONE! Coming into this summer I had heard of your hilarity but experiencing first hand was even better. You always had a smile your face and kept your groupmates smiling. Your love of camp and your group is clear. I look forward to seeing you next summer.

Noah Grossman – In prior summers we had been friends and would hangout from time to time, so when I found out I would be your group leader this year, I was ecstatic. Thank you for always hanging out with me and being a good friend. You're an awesome kid and I really mean that. Have a great year and I look forward to seeing you back in The Realm next summer.

Andrew Schmidt – The best Schmidt! Thank you so much for an amazing summer. Your a clear leader in this group and you lead your team in an awesome color war. Apart from that you really grew this summer. You knew when it was time to be serious and when it was time to let loose. Keep coming back so you can continue to lead this group.

Hamani Al Mutawa – You are hands down the funniest kid in the group. Whether it's those random faces you make or the never ending witty comments, you always managed to keep a smile on the faces of your groupmates and staff alike. Thank you for always helping clean the bunk and being the hilarious kid you are.

Nathaniel Hill – You had such an amazing summer. Thank you for always listening and trying to get the best out of the group. You were always the first up to flagpole and helped us secure it many times. I hope you keep working on basketball and that you come back to this awesome place for years to come.

Amos Blumberg – It's really refreshing to see a 13 year old who is so perceptive about camp and the world itself. It was really funny when I realized that I was coming to you about problems in the group. You always respected and helped the counselors in the group all while being your hilarious self. Your skits on skit night will never be forgotten and neither will all the hard work you put into our founder's day gift. Have a great school year and I know I'll see you next summer.

Eli Greenfield – Firstly, I would like to say thank you for always keeping the bunk bumping. Secondly, you're an amazing athlete and it was really fun to watch you shine in color war. You almost did every port and contributed highly to your team. I look forward to seeing you next summer.

Oli Snidow – It's clear that you've been coming to camp for a long time. This place is a part of you and the group dynamic completely changed when you came back. Thank you for always helping around the bunk and being a good friend to others. I hope you have a great year and I look forward to seeing you next summer.

Andres Tello – Camp is a perfect place for you. When you're here you are always happy and moving. You never wasted a minute this summer and kept the energy high within the group. I hope you have a great school year and I look forward to seeing you next summer.

Pickles – You are strong. I don't know another kid at your age who is so strong hearted. That will take you far in life and accompanied with your amazing personality you will do amazing things. During the school year I hope you remember that Robin Hood is your home and this place needs you as much as you need it.

Mason Kasimov – Thank you for always being respectful and helpful. You were always the first on the benches and the first to bequiet when we asked you too. It made my job a lot easier and it lead the group into good behavior. I hope you have a fun school year and I can't wait to see you next summer.

Gavin Gore – You were at camp longer than I was this summer and it really showed. I can see how much you love camp. Every day when you wake up, you have a big smile on your face. I'm really happy you decided to stay with us during Green and White this summer and thank you for always being nice to everyone in the group. I hope to see you in Chicago this year and back in The Realm next summer.

Takeshi Nakajima – Your arrival added a spark to this group. We really enjoyed having you back at camp this summer. All the Takeshi chants made your group really happy and they all came from the awesome things that you did. I really hope you had a great time and you come back next summer.

LANCERS

Hunter Dagnino – Hunter, thanks for making this summer really fun for me. From day one you came in with a smile on your face and when you left I could tell how badly you wanted to stay. Your love for camp is clear and I can't wait to see you back next year.

Hunter Gould – You had the largest turn around this summer. Watching you come from where you started to loving camp as much as you do was a true pleasure. Our entire group was so happy when you decided to come back and you did a great job during Green and White. I hope you can come and come back full session next summer.

James Dodge – I really hope you enjoyed your first Green and White. I know that you really put everything you had into that war and that became clear when I watched you steal every ball in basketball. You did whatever you had to do for your team to win. Aside from Green and White I'm glad you got to see your first shooting star this summer and I hope you have an amazing year and come back next summer.

Logan Kaganovsky – You had an amazing summer. You were extremely responsible and did well in every activity. I think you really found your place in the group this summer and enjoyed all that camp had to offer. Good luck on your placement tests and I look forward to hearing the results!

Noah Giesen – 7 weeks? Noah, thank you so much for making the decision to stay with us on your birthday. Not only was that probably the best birthday in camp history, but we also had the pleasure of keeping you for another full week. I'll miss your hilarious antics and the fun spirit you brought into every day. I hope you have an awesome year in Chicago and next summer you can come for the full 7 weeks!

Eli Lieberman – Eli, I'm really happy that you decided to come to camp this summer. You were a great addition to the group and it really seemed like you understood camp. You always had a smile on your face and were willing to help whenever needed. I really hope to see you back here next summer.

Sean Mahar – I hate the Yankees but one day when you become one and I'll have to like them. I'm really glad you joined the Robin Hood family this summer. Thank you for being yourself and enjoying all of the things that we do here. Have a great year!

Alvaro Huarte – My foreigner! You're first night at camp was a bit of a rough one but I'm glad it happened because it made us a lot closer. From that point on I think you really enjoyed camp and loved everyone in your group. I really hope you can come back full session next year because I know your group and you, would love it.

Staff – Thank you all for making this summer so easy on me. You were all so involved with the kids always, and helped give them the greatest summer they could've had. You all mean the world to me and I really hope you all find your way back to camp next summer because camp needs amazing staff like you.

Lancers, thank you for making my first year as a group leader a great one and one that I will never forget. Coming into the summer I really didn't know you guys but leaving now I feel like I am leaving a ton of little brothers. As I sat down to write this, I couldn't help but think about all the fun we had and how much I will miss every single one of you. Your group is amazing and something to be proud of. I really hope to see all of you next summer and I will miss you during the year.

Friars...Hold up...

Turn off the fan, mute the horrible musical talent of Lil Pump and D Rose and take a second to read the memories that we will never forget. The summer of Friars on the Storm!

Remember when…Ticks!! Opening day with Jesse's birthday, then Griffin's birthday, then Arturo's birthday, SURPRISE BIRTHDAY WEEKEND! We should have requested more cookie cake. Summer of the Burt's Bees, we beezin'. Eagle ball, you mean speedball? Capture the flag in the rain, and rock paper scissors to break the tie for waterfront or team handball. Why does Danny always plan fire EA's? Sick team handball, softball, ultimate football. Arturo's honey mustard sandwiches? DEET! Cooper and Sam matchup…Rainy day dizzy wrestling and Friar Feud…Carson betrays his own team during steal the bacon…sunsets together instead of quad time.

Remember the West End House game, we lost but it was still super hype. You were all so proud of our 15U boys team, Santi, Brooks, Ginsberg, Lomax, Carson, and Urmeneta. Who could forget Salty's rain water ramen and when he aced around the world.

Remember Sam's transformer bionicle roll and fidget spinner sacrifices…Dragontales… WE ARE NUMBER ONE! The sides are clearly meant for certain kids. Remember Salty's sprained ribs, Max's amazing talent…Where is Max? Oh, he's at the barn practicing…. Strauss's plumbing service…STACK! OG's amazing rap battles and our beautiful 4th of July banner. We should have won. Remember Ginsberg getting a 3rd ice cream and Logan throwing things into trees. Remember that intercamp day when we were at the gaga pit, we crushed Indian Acres. Winaukee got the best of us and took that 15U victory, they clearly got to our heads. Charlie is Henry Rodin…No winaukee swim tournament? Arturo's smiley fries and chicken nuggets. BIG FOOT IS REAL!

Remember Arturo's boogie wonderland and Braden's custom Robin Hood shirts. Remember buying all the candy at the Marina and who could forget the baby pool. Winning the gaga challenge…and evening circles. Max performed spectacularly (as usual) in Harry Potter…Strauss being carried off by the mosh pit. Urmeneta's ability to stand and tube. Woody makes and appearance at our evening circle. Our incredible dance (second to the Saxon's?)… Gladiator Ball is always hype…Jasper on the wagon from SPUD (the carnage)…The spinner who lived. Tosti and the blow dryer… Jesse always in the 9 square rectangle spot. Rick and Marty quotes…ending EA early for Foresters vs. Saxons gladiator ball challenge.

Sitting on the goal was a terrible choice. Andres and Sam's legs vs The Stack. Tosti deciding tubing isn't for him unless it's in a certain boat…Arturo falling off the double tube (HOW?). The Mainers game is always the best, fried dough issues. Logan vs the Squires in basketball…Cooper throwing to Briar, the first baseman…Casino night and the raffle ticket frenzy…Lomax's mom sending him a card with the "the things you love about camp". Luke being amazing with diablo. Is it Jack-O-Po? Pocket-po? OH! It's Yack-o-po…Going to the infirmary for mosquito bites and chapstick.

After visiting day we jumped straight into excursion and made every moment of our remaining 3 weeks count. We had the best time with our best friends. We began our first day of excursion by hopping in the vans and traveling in a monsoon to the Basketball Hall of Fame where everyone felt they were in the promised land, especially Caleb. Strauss somehow set the record on the virtual basketball game and we were pulling up from Curry range on the court when Sam killed the fist of thunder. We then headed to set up camp and cooked the best meal all summer with homemade fries and fat steaks. The goats and the mini horse really liked to visit our campsite. The next day took us to Six Flags where Strauss rode the carousel all day, Henry spent all his money in the arcade and Gavin drills a 3 pointer while the worker wasn't looking. Remember when google maps took us the church and the college streets were all named after Ivy League schools or when we scored free hats at the Worcester Braveheart's game! What a fun game and the Braveheart's won in walk-off fashion. We took to the rapids of the Berkshires the next day and what an amazing time we had. Remember when winking and eyebrow communication and Logan didn't know where he was going, or when Shanny was scaring Scott…car fidget spinner sacrifice and Jacopo roasting the hood in basketball. Friar excursion was one for the books.

Remember Brooks clutching the win against the staff…Cookie…Friars on the storm… the kitchen staff braking the light during our gaga challenge…Small fan vs THE FAN… accepting the Alex Soul transfer to the greatest group on camp.

We had a few great days in camp before Green and White broke. You all played with such amazing intensity during color war and you really showed your growing leadership at camp.

We finished up the summer with some intense activities and who could forget our memorable sunset hike up Rattlesnake Mountain.

Alex G. – You always have a huge smile on your face and are one of the only kids who can say they are truly friends with every single kid in the group. Your humor keeps the group lively and always positive. Keep coming back and keep up the comedy.

Andrea T. – You are a legend among your peers. Not too soft, not to crispy, but nice an Tosti. It is not easy to be thousands of miles from home and then stay longer than you expected but you made it work. Keep laughing and keep being you.

Andres – You are a clear leader in this group and that shows in your friendships within the group. You truly are the glue that hold this group together and I can't wait to see how you can further influence your group and camp.

FRIARS

Angelo – Big Lo, although you came late, you took this group by storm. Your fun loving nature and dancing ability are an incredible addition to this group. I hope you continue to make your presence known in The Realm.

Arturo – You always had something intelligent to add to any conversation. Your positive attitude is infectious and rubbed off on everyone. You are so mature for your age but you know when to let loose. Keep coming back.

Arturo F. – I don't know anyone who loves chicken nuggets and smiley fries more than you. You are always so happy and you have an amazing taste in music. You were always blasting "Boogie Wonderland" and other 70's hits. Your dance moves are unmatched. You're a great kid and you brought something unique to the group. You have so much confidence in yourself and that will take you far. Keep coming back so we can learn some more disco moves.

Braden – You are one of the weirdest, funniest but also big hearted kids The Realm has ever seen. Camp allows you to shine and show everyone your personality. Your antics kept the group and your staff on their toes all summer.

Brooks – You are a leader in this group, in all aspects. You lead on the field and off. You took every activity we were doing seriously and gave it your all. I admire how you always reflect on what the group needs to do to improve as a whole. You did a great job leading the white Friars in color. I hope to see you do more of that for summers to come.

Caleb – Your humor and humility keeps the group always asking for more. I am impressed by your passion to follow your dream of playing basketball and I guarantee if you keep working hard, your dream will come to fruition. Keep coming back to camp.

Carson – Sharkboy. You made it your mission to get a laugh out of anyone. Your witty humor always kept the staff on their toes. I hope you continue to come back for years to come because camp brings out the best in you.

Felipe – I am Felipe, and this is my flashlight! You're always down to participate in any activity, and your constant smile and laugh is truly infectious. Even though it was your first year, it seemed like you had been here for years. Camp was made for kids like you.

Gavin – The bees king in the flesh. Thanks for being you and always goofing around and lifting everyone's spirits. I love how you took the time to connect with everyone in the group. Even though some of your best friends at camp are also your best friend at home. It is clear camp is important to you.

Griffin A. – You're one of the smartest kids I know. You should join he debate team at school. You totally have a passion for it. You have a big heart, and you know when to defend what is right. You've really grown this year and hope you keep coming back.

Henry R. – Your dedication to camp is not only remarkable, it is unmatched. You wake up every morning with a smile on your face, a tune on your lips, and camp in your heart. You literally walk in Chuck's shoes. I can't wait to see how you continue to grow at camp.

Jacob – Your maturity is a major key in why our group has been so successful this summer. You are always looking out for everyone and making sure everyone is responsible for their actions and helping the counselors out. Keep coming back.

Jacopo – I love your dedication and want to advance skillfully in your favorite sports, especially tennis. You're also a very genuine person and your good nature personality made you easy to be friends with. You always extend a hand to the other foreign campers and make sure they are accepted in the group and this brought us all closer together.

Jake K. – Ed Sheeran, is that you? We loved listening to you play guitar, you are very talented. You are also an incredible athlete so take care of yourself so you can keep playing. It was great being your counselor this summer and I hope you come back so you can continue to see what Robin Hood has to offer you.

Jasper B. – Is that a stack I see?! You are the energizer of the group. You have made friends across all of boy's camp. You're a goon and one of the funniest kids in the group. You can make anybody laugh. I hope you keep coming back for more laughs.

Jesse – You have the envious ability to get along with everyone in the group and anyone who crosses your path. You truly are Mr. Congeniality. Everyone likes you and you like everyone and it is clear you are the soul of this group. I can't wait to see you as a counselor in the future.

Josh – You are one of those kids that always seems to be in a good mood and positive attitude despite the situation or activity. Despite coming at the 4 week mark, you acclimated to the group with ease and everyone looks up to. I hope you can stay the full summer next year.

Logan – As the summer progressed you became a better friend to more people in the bunk. I loved how you carried yourself and how you go head first into every activity. Whether it be hockey in the rink or helping out with the Founders Day gift. Keep being you and you will be a superstar at camp.

Lomax H – You became a key player in this group the moment you walked in. You even secured yourself a spot on the coveted basketball team that would take on West End. You are great at making people feel welcomed and accepted and we need that in this group. I hope you come back next summer

Luke A. – You were only here briefly, but I feel like you made an impact on the group. I know it's hard to come into a new place with so many unfamiliar faces but you found your way and it showed. You excel at every sport you play, which is impressive. You also made sure to make a connection with every kid in the group. I hope you can come back for longer next summer.

Max O. – You're so big and tall, you are unstoppable at Steal the Bacon, volleyball, and 9 square. But your most amazing talent is what will take you far. You love to sing and act and watching you on stage is such a pleasure. You also incredibly well read. You always put others before yourself and care very deeply for your groupmates. I hope to see you back in The Realm.

Muniz – Live, long, and prosper my friend. You came in on your first day with a big grin on your face and the nicest spock hand gesture. You always wanted to have fun and that is what camp is all about. You never complained and threw yourself into any activity. Keep coming back because camp needs kids like you.

Nicolas P. – Your athleticism is unmatched to most, especially in soccer. Your group loves your humor as much as they love you. You are absolutely hilarious and your light heartedness kept the group going. Keep coming back.

OG – The first camper of the summer. You have some fresh rhymes and always the rap battle champion. You bust rhymes, you were a dime, you could beat anybody at tennis in a short time. You throw out some crazy ideas. I don't know anyone else who has a presence like you do at camp. Keep coming back.

Rehaan – You are the most kind hearted and loving kid in the group. When you spoke, it was from the heart and that gained the trust of your groupmates. You quickly became an integral part of this group. Keep coming back.

Sam Ro – What can I say, you are the biggest fish/mountain man The Realm has ever seen. You are always willing to try new activities and you will venture out of your comfort zone to push yourself. You also bring such intelligent humor and always have witty things to say. You're hooked on camp, I will see you next summer.

Santi – Your intensity throughout every single activity is unparalleled. You play every sport with and go into every activity ready to play and win. Everyone looks to you for your leadership and that really showed during Green and White. Keep being you and that leadership with take you far, at camp and at life.

Shanahan – You are such a great presence in the group. I feel like this summer you established some great relationships, not just in your group but across boy's camp. You are a very well rounded camper and that makes you a great friend to your groupmates. Camp needs kids like you, keep coming back.

Strauss – Cooper, you are an integral member of this group. You find a way to make everything fun and anything you say funny. Camp wouldn't be the same without you and I can't wait to see what shenanigans you'll be up to for years to come.

Tanner – Slesh, you are wise beyond your years. Your maturity and leadership shines through in everything that you do. It was a shame you had to leave early for soccer but we are proud of you for making Varsity. Keep coming back because camp needs kids like you.

Staff – What a crazy roller coaster of a summer we had but I could not have asked for a greater group of guys to ride it with. You are all such a great influence on all of these kids and each of you brings a different aspect to the table. Thank you for being you.

FRIARS – I couldn't have asked for a better summer with such an amazing group of boys. You are all growing into great young men and have become brothers and best friends. I can't wait to see you guys soon and always remember…

TO THE FAN!

FORESTERS

Alright Foresters,

put your Rubix cubes down and think back to June 23rd the beginning of an unbelieve and memorable summer in The Realm.

Remember when Mathieu yelled "offset" before roll call at the staff talent show, or when Marc jumped off the waterski boat with his glasses on and they are still never to be found. Remember when French rap dominated the aux cord and Mathieu knew every word or when we battled for last against the friars in the Sunday sundae line? Remember when Dylan thought the exclamation point was above the letter and not next to it, or when Ethan thought icy hot on his face was a good idea? Remember when the entire group thought we needed to take pre-workout before every activity? Remember when Joey initiated a count off and forgot his own number…he was number one, or when Dylan wanted to be best friends with a shark and a turtle. Remember when 9-square was the best thing to come to camp? Remember when Jake learned how to dive…just kidding. What about our first drama class where we had to use our heads? How about Children having outrageously dope experiences, or when 7 x 7 = 42. Right Dylan? Remember our first camp fire at the ODT where Erich supplied the perfect amount of pine needles and our evening shades being so loud junior camp could hear us? Also, being smoked out by the fire having an excessive amount of smoke. How about our first ultimate game that went down to the wire in the pouring rain. Remember when Peter lucked out, and Joey had to run two laps for doing nothing, or when Mathieu kept the roll call going strong and started to spit bars in front of all senior camp. How about our excessive amount of sausage party quotes, or our battles at the senior waterfront? What about when Danegger got Podl out in half court knockout with a deadly nothing but net shot. Remember when we beat West End… oh wait never mind, or when Peter got mobbed at the end of the game. How about Zach's early two-handed swat against West End, Joeys 71 seconds of fame, and Luke's high shot quality. Remember when Marc was standing up on the boat and Louis started going and Marc wiped out. How about Gimbel the doctor and Rybo's near death experience.

Remember when Peter the unlikely hero made a half-court shot to put the 15u team into overtime against IA, leading to a great OT win. How about when Luke poured coffee all over himself. Or when Woody put the spot light onto Phil and he killed his Gru dance in front of the entire camp. Remember when we did high school musical for the dance…oh wait. Remember when Ethan threw up on the tube and still kept going. How about when Zach dunked at IA or when the Saxons were out of camp and you guys ran the camp fire and thought of some amazing cheers, and next morning when we made our presence on camp felt when we out cheered the shires and took back the dining hall. Or when you guys thought notching your eyebrows was the best thing since sliced bread. How about when the skunks went after Marc? Remember when we took 2nd place in the soccer tournament, but the real winners were team B. How about when Marc took a page from Al's game and repeated the famous step over about bodying a kid in futsal, or when Ricky became Neo in the goal, George took over scoring a majority of the goals for the squad, and Joey putting kids in the spin cycle. Remember when we took a step back and watched the infamous sunset at The Realm. How about when we killed our dance and Max and Mathieu's French discussion, to set the tone for the rest of the night. Or when Ethan went incognito to change the playlist at the dining hall. What about when we challenged the Saxons and gave them our best fight, Max never going down, and Zach throwing that staph infection to the side to send Gimbel to the infirm and change the tone of the game. Or when we dominated the Friars in 9 square.

Remember when Ethan hit those dagger 3s and we beat Winaukee in softball, and when the shires challenged us and they regretted it quickly when we took them down with ease. Remember when Phil and Peter talked in their sleep and woke everyone up. Remember the color run and the color not coming off of any of our bodies. Remember when Woody showed everyone one up in the gym with the boys. Remember the sunset and the s'mores we took from the shires and scribes. How about when we roasted everyone in around the world. What about when barn time was moved to before dinner…oh wait. Remember when Godbout was faster than two of me.

Remember when you guys absolutely killed Green and White and lead camp in an amazing way. Remember when George didn't get mono. How about how intense that 9 square game was…Or the one of the best football games ever. Remember when you guys murdered the talent show and all had an integral part in helping your team. How about Lomo making some insane saves in the soccer game and his performance night 2 of Green and White. Or when Nicolo lent his "soccer cleats" for the staff soccer game. Remember when Gabe killed his dance in the talent show and showed what doodles are made of. How about Phil and his sleep talking/walking/hiding. Remember when Francesco killed it in the swim meet and dominated defense in the Green and White soccer game. How about when Ricky and his American idol voice took over glee. Remember when Godbout was accused of being on steroids by all of junior camp, still a possibility.

Jake Danegger – Even though you only ended up staying 2 weeks, your presence in the group was huge. You're quick with a joke or a witty comment and personally I can say you made me laugh every day you were at camp. I hope you decide to come back Saxon year because this group would be dulled without you and hope you have a successful rowing season this year. Love you.

Zach Bohm – Your presence in the group was felt the second you stepped onto camp. You dominated in basketball and you were a crucial part of the group. Keep coming back camp needs you and your group needs you. Love you.

Joey Abrams – Even though you were away from camp for such a long time it didn't faze you at all, you jumped right back into the group like you never left. You always had a smile on your face, it was contagious, it made the day that much easier. Keep coming back. Love you.

Max Escalara – Your positive attitude towards everything makes the group so much stronger. The language you created says a lot about the type of person you are, you are creative and do not care what people think of you, which is amazing. Please never change and keep coming back as long as you can. Love you.

George Eustice – You are very intelligent. Whether you are correcting me or telling me something I didn't know you teach me something new every day. You dominate in sports and you always give everything you have in all activities and that is contagious. Keep coming back as long as you can because you will be a great staff member. Love you.

FORESTERS

Luke Swirksy – Tobachi you have a way about you like makes you much older than your age. You have a genuine care for this place and are at camp for the right reasons. You lead from the shadows in this group and it was no surprise to me when you got co- captain. I want to see you on staff please keep coming back as long as you can because you would kill it. Love you.

Dylan Siegel – The way you treat every single member of this group is amazing. You always have a smile on your face and that doesn't go unnoticed. I loved spending my first year as a GL with you. Keep coming back as long as you can because camp needs more people like you. Love you.

Phil Schmidt – Your love for camp and your group is unmatched. You are one of the nicest kids I've had the pleasure of being a counselor for. You get camp and understand right from wrong and always make the right decision. Your dance moves are impeccable. Keep coming back because camp needs people like you leading this place. Love you.

Gabe Zolot – Gabe your constant ability to lend a helping hand will carry you far in life. You are always the first to listen to me, clean the table, and make the right decisions. The most important thing is to keep coming back to camp because you are such a great member of the group and camp needs you. Love you.

Mathieu Lovang – Where do I begin, ever since day one at camp you've had a such a positive attitude. I know you had a tough time with your back, but you're jokes, French rap, and everything in-between made you such an integral part of the group. You became a camp legend and you need to come back as long as possible because camp loves you and so does your group. Love you.

Will Godbout – You are an athlete to say the least. You are a genuine hearted person as well and your presence was felt the second you came to camp. I hope you can stay 7 weeks next summer because you play a huge role in this group. Come back as long as you can because camp needs you. Love you.

Peter Cohen – You're love for camp is amazing and you are a true leader of this group and I know you'll be here for years to come. I hope to see some gains in the muscle department next summer. You lead an amazing team in Green and White. I can't wait to see what's in store for next summer. Love you.

Francesco Colombo – You were the first kid I saw in the group this summer and I couldn't be happier you finally decided to stay the full 7 weeks at camp. You are so important to the group because you are a camp person and you are here for the right reasons. Keep coming back as long as you can because we need more people like you on camp. Love you.

Nicolo De Rosa – This being your first year at camp it's easy for me to say it didn't feel like that because you fit right into the group the second you came to camp. You look older than I do and you always find a way to make me laugh. Come back to camp because you fit so well with the group and they all love you. Love you.

Ricky Melasecca – Your genuine kindness and care for all the kids in your group doesn't go unnoticed. Never change your personality because it brings out the best in people. I wish you could have been here the whole summer. Great job leading your team in Green and White. Keep coming back as long as you can. Love you.

Andrew LoMedico – Whether it was a joke or a hug you always keep a positive attitude and that spread through the group the second you stepped on camp. You are a very important part of this group and never forget that. Keep coming back as long as you can because this place needs you. Love you.

Ethan Hobert – I know last year was tough for you because of your injury, but this summer you jumped right back into the group like you never left and you bring great energy to the group. Please keep coming back camp needs you. Love you.

Marc Kanaan – I know this summer was tough for you because you spent a lot of the best parts of camp in the infirmary. I can speak for the whole group when I say that we were missing something when you left camp. You have a great love for your group and you need to keep coming back because camp needs you. Love you.

Joey Healey – I know you had to leave early and that was hard for you. The short time you were here you had such a positive attitude towards everything, you were nice to everyone in the group, and made the group better by just being here. Come back as long as you can because camp needs your type of personality. Love you.

The Staff – I can't thank you guys enough for making my summer both amazing and memorable. I can personally say you all had a major role in the success the group had, you all are amazing people and hope to see you guys back at The Realm for years to come. Love you guys!

Last but not least I just wanted to thank you guys for the best summer of my life, each and every one of you are so very special to me in your own unique ways. Keep coming back as long as you can because you guys are all amazing people and will kill it on staff.

stop playing with ping pong balls, get on the benches, count off, stack it up, and get ready to relive the amazing summer of 2017.

Remember getting to camp a day early… Benjamin and Jacob R are the first two Saxons to arrive, and several more join them a few hours later. On our first full day, Tyler Adelman hits two massive tree shots, shocking everyone. Later that night, we battle it out in an intense game of ultimate on the lax field. Alfonso and Connor arrive shortly thereafter. There's never a dull moment Saxon summer, as just a couple days later we set off on an extremely difficult hike up Green Mountain with the TPJ's. The Saxons get a sweet staggered 3-by-4-stack going on the top of the mountain after defeating the females in the race up. Later that night, we get our first chance to lead all of boys camp at the campfire. While we did a great job teaching cheers to everyone, Jacob G decided to improvise on one the very next day, mistakenly starting a cheer with "hey boys camp" (I'm sure you all remember what happened after that).

The year continues to speed up as we travel to IA for a playdate. Impressively, the boys earned a split in our beach volleyball matches, ending with a video replay that ensured a win for the trio of Ethan, Tyler, and Benjamin. Next came arguably the highlight of the day, as the fiercest competition took place on the Twister mat. Although IA's Twister players proved to be more flexible, our consolation prize of chicken tenders and fries wasn't too bad. However, the tons of fried food IA served us was surely all part of a plan to slow us down in the primetime basketball game. We suffered a tough loss but thankfully got to experience two of the best basketball refs in the Lakes Region in action.

Remember our night out at Peking Sunrise…I would argue that the food was worth the reasonably short wait. From there, we head to Walmart, where we instantly find out that there is extra surveillance in aisles 7 and 9 for some reason. We run into our friends from Camp Cody, and we unfortunately find out that they don't often go "C's up." It's a successful trip, as we of course don't get any food for the bunks, only 4th of July materials and Jacob G's coveted pink Ripstik. Just a couple days later, we welcome Jules back at midnight. While it was heavily debated, we ultimately decide to keep the Stinky Corner unoccupied. Before we know it, it's time for the West End game. Everyone paints their bodies with face paint. Nicholas Edward covers himself head to toe with paint and consequently spends two hours washing it off in the shower (and he can't even get all of it off).

Remember getting our 10,000 feet by climbing Mount Washington…It didn't happen without drama. Woody, Joshua, and Nicholas get lost coming up the mountain before ultimately getting back on the trail after hiking sideways for hundreds of yards. Trips Sean saves Jacob G's life, and Alfonso saves Connor's life. William makes an Asian connection at the bottom of the mountain. Perhaps inspired by his encounter, he asks for a McDoggie at dinner. Although we are a little sore, we prepare to defend the flag that night. Lewis is the only foe who gets the opportunity to attack, as the night is cut short. The next day, we kill it running the 4th of July carnival. Nathan F's lizards are the most prized body art on camp. Hopefully the tank top tan line was worth it for him. Somehow, we aren't quite worn out yet, as Club Saxon is in full effect at dinner, followed by a hard-fought game of handball at Girls Camp Field, which features Benjamin's highlight reel tackle on Nathan F.

Remember Lewis's flawless driving to Pizza Barn…The next day, Nicholas finds out he is cut from the 16U soccer team, but Woody lightens the mood with his doo rag and Fuente gets revenge by breaking Chris's kneecap. Connor, Nicholas, and Joshua all hit trees for the first time in the same period, and Alfonso is the next to join them later in the summer. Our alma role call at the Harry Potter play was a huge hit. Later that night, Dick sees Nicholas ripstiking when all his clothes are in the laundry, and Jacob G, Jules, and Nathan F play with bubbles. Soon enough, we depart camp for a few days to hike Katahdin. We wouldn't have survived without the cooking squad of Benjamin, Jacob R, Ethan, and Jules, and maximum supplies. Nathan F is one of the first ones down the mountain (perhaps motivated by a trip to Walmart), Jacob G sprints down the mountain, and Eddy scares Tyler by hiding on the mountain. We all made it to the summit, even Jimbo. We get back just in time for a social in the barn. Saturdays are for Siagel!

SAXONS

The next night is the talent show. Remember the Saxon dance…that's all I have to write about it because that's the only remember when you guys gave me for it. But on a more serious note, every single one of you guys killed it, and it was so great to see all your hard work pay off. Remember prepping for the Color Run with DJ Wood…taste the rainbow, sneeze the rainbow. Up next, we finally have a chance to show off our athleticism in camp once again as we take on the Foresters in gladiator ball. Unfortunately, we don't all make it out uninjured. Nevertheless, the Saxons dominate, nearly shutting out their outmatched opponents. Benjamin and Nathan F have some huge hits on one Forester in particular, while no one on the field can match the tenacity of Nathan G. The week is capped off the right way, as many Saxons come to the office for Shabbat with Rabbi Podl.

Remember playing baseball at camp? It sure has been a while, but we brought it back, albeit in a slightly different form. Nathan G struggles when it comes to stealing. However, he is quite the storyteller. The next morning, we are off to the beach. We had some great deep conversations with C Dog in the van, when we learn about the legendary Darshan. Jacob G, against all odds, makes it to Beach Day. We couldn't have asked for better weather, and we are having so much fun that the day just flies by. The trip is capped off by Jules singing the alma mater in the van. Later that night, Joshua loses his walkie talkie privileges.

Remember when we got a lot of good answers? The Platt family defeated the Solomon family in an instant classic Saxon Feud. Kyle arrives just in time to swim all 16 of his laps and to be in the PVD talent show. The hover hands steal the show in round two of the Saxon dance. Visiting Day arrives, and the dads show off the athletic genes that they passed down to you guys in a spectacular volleyball game. In the afternoon, Ethan's dad, Nicholas's dad, Tyler's dad, and Benjamin's dad all hit trees, and Ryan Adelman displays his superior athleticism. All in all, the parental touches were great, and thankfully Nathan F was with the group for the whole weekend. Soon after, we head out to Cape Cod for an excursion. We spend two nights in the Ocean Park Inn, a true 5-star resort. The trip is highlighted by Jinx Monsoon, the kind front desk guy, watching Channel Local 4, and schvitzing in the sauna.

Before we know it, Green and White is upon us. The midday break surprises everyone. Congratulations once again to Jacob R and William for being elected captains and to Nicholas and Ethan for being elected co-captains. You guys all have an amazing Color War, and there are several memorable events, including Kyle's singing in the talent show, Nathan F's performance in the football game, Jacob G's Fat Sam accent, and Nicholas and Ethan going off during basketball. As was the case for this whole summer, everyone steps up and plays a major role for each of their respective teams. In the end, the Great Green Legends narrowly defeat the Toxic White.

We finish the last few days strong, starting off with completing and presenting our Founder's Day gift, Scotty's Seat by the Sea.

All of you had very powerful Saxon speeches, and I'm sure you left a lasting impact on much of boys' camp. We power through our last evening activity despite still being sore from the war, a classic Cleveland vs World basketball game to 100. Before we know it, Awards Night is upon us, and soon enough say our goodbyes early the next morning.

Tyler Adelman – It's apparent to everyone how much camp means to you. You brought energy to everything you did this summer, whether it was playing in the field for both teams in softball or clowning around in the dining hall. As the summer progressed, you showed off time and time again how much you have matured as an individual. I can't wait to see you crush it with the kid's full time. Love you man.

William Chang – You cultivated such special connections with every single person in the group, which is not an easy thing to do. It was clear how much respect your peers have for you, and you were a deserving captain. It was awesome to watch you lead your team for the six-day war. You were definitely missed by all of us throughout the last few days of the summer. The kids flocked to you, and I know you'll kill it full time with them next summer. Love you man.

Connor Dodge – Although we all wish you could've stayed the whole summer, your decision to extend your stay for a week was still great news for everyone. You're a sweet, kind person, and you make the people around you happier. Dressing nicely for meals with your boy Alfonso definitely caught a lot of people's attention. I hope you stay in touch with camp and the people that you've grown so close to because of camp. Love you man.

Alfonso Estevez – I can only imagine what it's like to come to camp where only a handful of people are from the same country as you and speak the same language that you do, but it obviously did not faze you at all. You made quite a few strong bonds this summer that I hope you will hold onto for the rest of your life, no matter how long being back at Robin Hood is in your future. Love you man.

Nathan Fuente – Sharing the backroom with you was a true honor. You are easily one of the funniest people I know, and I'm sure about that. You had such a huge presence on camp this summer, highlighted by the fantastic job you did of controlling the Foresters whenever you were on duty for them. I'm sorry you never got your chance at 15u basketball, mistakes were certainly made. Camp loves you and needs you, and I hope you're in it for the long haul. Love you man.

Ethan Gimbel – While we both know how great Shaker is, camp is such a special place, and you get that. You make the most of everything that you do here, which is admirable. Watching you beat Nicholas in tennis during the war was remarkable, albeit a little disappointing for the white team. This place has so much more to offer for you, and I hope you take advantage of that and come back on staff. Love you man.

Jacob Goodman – You have such a huge impact on camp that goes beyond just the group. You embraced aiding like no one I've seen before, and as a result, you got so much out of it, as you developed a special relationship with the Friars. Also, you hit some of the most absurd tree shots, whether they were one handed or on an overhand pitch that was soaring over your head. It's clear that you are always trying to improve and be a better person, and you've come such a long way, even just this past summer. Love you man.

Nathan Grossman – Even though you could only be here for four weeks, it's still very clear how much you love being at camp and how much it means to you. You were someone who everyone in the group always wanted to be around. It was awesome to watch you step out of your comfort zone in the dance. Being a counselor at Robin Hood is the best job in the world, and I really hope you get that experience at some point. Love you man.

Jules Lansac – Everyone at camp who knew you absolutely loved you. The rest of the group was so excited to hear that you were coming back this summer, and your arrival at camp was highly anticipated by all. Your positive, fun-loving mood rubbed off on everyone, and you were hilarious in our dance. I really hope that you continue to stay in touch with the friends you've made at Robin Hood. Love you man.

Kyle Meister – We're all glad you decided to come back even after being announced as a staff captain last summer. More seriously speaking, the group missed your presence throughout the first four weeks. Although you came in late, you did not miss a beat and jumped right into things. Your floater game in the Green and White basketball game could not have been more on point. I hope you can keep coming back to continue sharing this place with your brother. Love you man.

Jacob Rosenthal – No matter what we were doing, you always gave more than 100%, and your effort could not often be matched. I've never met someone as genuine, helpful, and humble as you. You are undoubtedly a leader, and you displayed that once again this year as a Green and White captain. I hope life doesn't get in the way for you, because you have the potential to be an outstanding counselor. Love you man.

Nicholas Russell – Your decision to stay the whole summer was a great one, and I hope you feel the same way. Thanks for hiking Washington and Katahdin with me no matter how slow we went. You put on a memorable performance during Green and White, both on the fields and on stage. So many kids at camp look up to you, and you would have a tremendous impact on them if you come back as a counselor.
Love you man.

Benjamin Sedlock – Thank you for the role you played this past summer. Not only are you everybody's friend, but also you constantly stepped up and aided when help was needed around camp and certain groups were low on staff. I enjoyed watching how fiercely you compete because there aren't too many people like you and me out there anymore. Camp needs people like you on staff and there's no doubt that you will have an amazing time.
Love you man.

Staff – None of this could have happened without you guys. You were both amazing, helping out whenever it was needed. More importantly, you developed great relationships with the kids, which I hope you will cherish for a long time to come. It was an absolute pleasure to get to work with you guys.

Saxons of 2017–

Thank you for giving me the best summer of my life. I know your camper days have come to an end, but I promise you that you will enjoy being on staff so much more if you give it a chance. I'm grateful that I got to live with you guys for seven weeks, get to know you, and be a part of your group.
I love you all.

TUMBLERS

Put down your slime, turn up the Hamilton, start spinning your fidget spinners, and get ready to relive the best summer of your lives!

The Tumblebees took The Realm by storm in 2017. Day 0 Sammy rolled in and helped us get the bunk ready before the rest of the crazy sixteen of you arrived. Remember our first evening activity? We got to know each other by throwing around a ball with fun get to you know questions. After only a few hours it felt like we had known each other for years. At night, your big sisters came to tuck you into bed and complete the first day in your new home.

Remember the first real day of camp? At the end of day 1 you guys fell right asleep, exhausted from activities, after the staff (lack of) talent show. Since then we've been sailing through the summer! By Day 3 we were already racing the TPJ's up Green Mountain (we all know we had the harder trail)! That view from the fire tower was remarkable. We were rewarded by being first in line for Sunday Sundaes with Brooke and Lila Solomon leading the pack since they had just lost their teeth!

Remember the first campfire of the summer? We finally got to learn the dining hall cheers we had been hearing for days and your big sisters introduced you to the rest of Girl's Camp! A few days later we had another special day – Ellie Hoglund's birthday! The big 9! Her mom was nice enough to give each of us an awesome headband that I bet a bunch of you are wearing right now! If chocolate cookie cake followed by Cozy Corner wasn't enough, we still had the Mainer's game. You guys ate so much that there wasn't any candy left in Maine after that. Just two days later, we had more cookie cake and much anticipated pajama jumping to celebrate my birthday!

Remember the junior camp talent show? First up were Leighton and Clarisse with an original dance that got the crowd on their feet. Next up, Ellie and Lyla performed an original play with a surprise dance component at the end. The only Tumbler solo act was performed by Liv of her original song called "I love camp." It sure was a hit! After a week of hard work during shower hours and rest hours, Clarisse, Liv, and Ellie were ready to share with us their beautiful voices while performing in the choir to finish up the show!

Remember Beep beep I'm a sheep said beep beep I'm a sheep? Remember falling off the sailboat? Remember only listening to Hamilton and Hairspray on repeat all summer? Remember falling off the tube and sinking the tube? Remember Clarisse's sister Emily? Remember playing Pass the Pigs during rest hours and circle time? Remember how lucky we were that they built a new playground just for us? You guys loved those swings, monkey bar, and slide!

Remember the Fourth of July? We woke up to the Scribes screaming and making tons of noise with their USA playlist to start the day. Twenty minutes later we showed up to breakfast decked from head to toe in red, white, and blue. No time was wasted in the morning as we made our beautiful banner that could not have been more colorful and spunky! In the afternoon, the Scribes and Saxons ran an awesome carnival where we won tons of raffle tickets and ate a lot of ice cream! I even got forced into the freezing cold water of the dunk tank once. To finish out an amazing day we had a junior camp beach party followed by a fair food dinner complete with everybody's favorite, fried dough. But we weren't done yet – to top it all off, we beat the shires in the gaga challenge for a perfect day.

After an exhausting 4th of July, we kept the momentum going but had some chill time when DC and Woody invited us into their cottage to watch the Hannah Montana movie! The next day we finally got what you all had been waiting for – s'mores!!! For the two-weekers last night, we made the most of it with a traditional campfire at one of my favorite spots on camp, the ODT. What could be better than reflecting on the summer so far with s'mores in hand? Sadly, the next day we said goodbye to some of our friends, but the summer continued to roll on for the rest of us.

Remember PJubing? Not only did we go tubing, but we got to wear pajamas while doing it! And how about when you guys were much better at counselor hunt than we were at camper hunt? Really all sports in general…

Remember our amazing Moana/Despasito mashup for So You Think You Can Dance and wearing goggles on stage? We started off the show with a bang, making it hard for all the groups following us to keep up with the bar we set. Then two weeks later we got to do it all over again for the parents visiting day talent show!

Remember cookie wars? After dividing into teams, you each made beautiful cookies to represent Girl's Camp's 30th, The Realm's 90th, and the wonderful waterfront. All were amazing, of course. Remember the dog show? Each pair had a different theme and routine with one person being the dog and the other was the owner.

Day? We all went in the freezing cold water which actually felt pretty refreshing since it was such a beautiful day in Ogunquit, Maine. And who could forget the endless trips to the boardwalk to buy more yummy ice cream, candy, and other food? You guys were all so impressed with how soft the sand was! Overall, it was a great day had by all.

TUMBLERS

Remember casino afternoon? We got soooo many tickets that we won the raffle the next day and got to go canoeing with the Scribes to the marina! The only thing better than canoeing on a beautiful day with all your best friends is also getting candy!

Remember camping out at the outpost? You guys cooked a delicious dinner of fajitas and quesadillas! We finished up dinner with a different kind of quesadillas…made out of s'mores! We then made our own s'mores while we played make your staff laugh and definitely made some memories. Shout out to the trips staff for setting up the tents and helping us cook dinner!

Remember the color run? We all wore our brand new white t shirts in preparation for a later activity…

Remember the talent show and Parents' Visiting Day? We got to do our dance again and definitely stole the show. All your parents were so impressed! Remember the Parents' Visiting Day cookies? It was so nice to meet all your parents and I know it was exciting for you to see them too. Remember our final EA before the 4 weekers left? Boat ride to the sandbar and then…Newcomb!!! Dive for every ball!! It's water!! We got back and then decorated our very own Tumbler t-shirts that we proudly debuted the next day. Finally, we scared you guys and woke you up to some yummy McDonald's. The next morning, we shed some tears while saying goodbye to our four weekers, but smiles quickly returned when Sienna, Sadie, and Alexa joined the Tumblebees! We were quickly back in full force ready to take on the second half of the summer.

Remember starting the second half strong with an early morning treasure hunt that led you to pajama jumping and Dunkin Donuts at the waterfront? Those donuts were so good and the cold water wasn't too cold once we got fully in! Remember challenging the TPJ's to gaga? Marni came in clutch by taking down so many TPJs (and staff members) to win one of the games!

Remember when Tali didn't know something about camp, Lily wasn't killing it at tennis, Sienna wasn't playing tetherball, Brooke wasn't trying her best, Caroline wasn't happy, Leighton wasn't playing with her squishies, Alexa wasn't athletic, Ellie wasn't in the lake when we had waterfront, Sadie wasn't related to all of camp, Clarisse wasn't making somebody laugh, Lila Ratner wasn't making creative jokes, Liv wasn't really good at singing, Maya didn't have the coolest custom Robin Hood clothes, Katherine wasn't being kind, Lila Solomon wasn't smiling, Lyla didn't love camp, Marni wasn't good at everything, Sammy wasn't dancing, and Emery wasn't loving nature…WE DON'T!

Remember playing capture the flag across girls' camp with the jesters? We ended it early to announce that we were going on excursion the next day!!! Although we told you that we would be picking up trash at various locations, we actually went to Storyland and a movie and then Whale's Tale! Remember all the fun rides at Storyland? The Roar-O-Coaster, the Polar Coaster, the Bamboo Log Flume ride, Dr. Geyser's Wonderful Raft Adventure, and so much more! After Storyland we went to the best movie that I've ever seen – the Emoji movie! Although some might say it was Meh, I would definitely argue that it was super Smiley. We luckily got to camp out with the jesters and had an awesome dinner of homemade fajitas together, complete with s'mores. The next morning, we woke up early and had fresh cinnamon buns cooked over the fire before we went to the waterpark Whale's Tale! After going on so many rides and hanging in the hot tubs and wave pools, we trekked back to camp to join in on the Green and White hype. Now that all 16 groups were back on camp, we knew it could break at any time!

Remember the Scraxon fake break? During dinner, we all ran to the barn to be fooled by the leaders of camp. I guess we would have to wait a little longer until the real break…

Remember when Green and White actually broke the next day at lunch? Confetti was flying everywhere in the dining hall and continued to be everywhere at the new quad with the confetti guns. Then a helicopter arrived to guide us to the soccer field where a tractor with the TPJ chair filled with judges arrived to announce the official start to color war! We got started with captain voting and the jelly bean pick right away! Well done to Lila Ratner for leading the Toxic White and Marni Spear for leading the Green Legends! It was a well fought war on both sides! We competed in everything from soccer to baggo to riflery and everything in between and got to know many of the first year judges well in the process. We even had most of our group either in a skit or a glee performance on talent night! On Song Night, both teams sung beautifully and we discovered that the Green Legends took the W for the war with a point margin of less than 100 points. Wow! Great job to both teams.

After an exhausting and exhilarating color war, we got to chill out on Lazy Day with a late breakfast (even though you all still woke up super early of course!) and Dunkin Donuts! We took the morning off to chill out but we were quickly back in action that afternoon to finish out our final days with every ounce of spirit we had left. Later that night we presented our beautiful Founder's Day gift, a chair for the bluff bunk's back porch. Then all of you first year campers got super cool water bottles and Sienna got her 3 year flag!

Remember our day of evening activities? All day we did different evening activities during the normal activity periods! We started off with infection, then went pajama jumping, then tried to go to the sandbar for newcomb (until we saw old men had taken it over), then played camper/counselor hunt, and ended before dinner with a lipsync battle. Remember Wilson the ball that kept swimming away from us? But wait… we weren't done yet! Instead of dinner, we went to PIZZA BARN!!!! You guys were finally introduced to M&M pizza, a girl's camp original, and devoured your slices. When we got back to camp, we had everybody put on one pieces and had Emily guide you around camp while the rest of your staff got ready to turn you guys into human sundaes!!! Yes, it was cold and messy but it sure was worth it.

Remember when you guys turned our bunk into a massage spa for the last week of camp? You invited every girls camp group and counselor to come through for a free massage! Those sure were some busy rest hours! Remember GL swap day? You guys loved Mikey and he gave you CANDY CANTEEN!!!

Remember our final moments together in The Realm this summer? Our last activity was a group favorite – TUUUUBINGGGG!!! We spent the afternoon hanging out and packing and closed out the summer with a banquet and Award's Night. Congrats to all winners! Then later that night we made the most of our dwindling time and had one final candy party and evening circle. Unfortunately, we woke up early to start saying our goodbyes but knew that in just 10 short months we would all be together again at The Realm!

Tali Avivi – The only one to love instructional swim! Your positive attitude and helpfulness radiates throughout the group and keeps the energy up always. You try your best always – whether it is with your friends or on the field, and I am so happy that I could be your counselor this year.

Lily Chibnik – Your passion into every activity is remarkable and livens up the group. Watching you kill it on the tennis court always made me smile. Keep coming back-your connection with this place will keep growing stronger.

Sienna Coen – Your understanding of camp and maturity is evident and makes me smile. You always know how to have fun whether it's just playing tetherball or putting your all into Green and White. Keep coming back!

Brooke Dery – Coming into camp at such a young age is hard, but you quickly took The Realm by storm. Your intensity and desire to give it your all in every activity is always appreciated and adds to the group dynamic. Keep coming back!

TUMBLERS

Caroline Desoe – Your quiet but sweet presence always completed the group. Even though it was only your first year, you excelled at so many different activities and always seemed to be enjoying yourself. Keep coming back!

Leighton Goldberg – I'm so proud of you for stepping out of your comfort zone this summer. Of course, you shined in the stables with the horses, but I love how you kept trying new things – whether it was tubing or even just helping out in the kitchen. I know you'll be here for a while!

Alexa Heller – As soon as you entered The Realm, you fit right into the group, despite the fact that it was halfway through camp. You killed it during color war and you're insanely athletic. I can't wait to watch you grow up here and know you'll do great things.

Ellie Hoglund – As a second year camper, you led this group from day one. Your energy and passion bring so much enthusiasm into the group. I'm so proud of the path you've paved at camp and I know you'll be here for a long time to come.

Sadie Kreindler – I couldn't be happier that you decided to stay on parents' visiting day. You threw yourself right into a place where your family has established a legacy and have surpassed it. I can't wait for you to experience all of camp next year and for years to come.

Clarisse Moucha – Moucha! Where's Emily? You're seriously one of the funniest people I've met in my life. Your laugh is contagious and you know how to entertain every single person around you. You're an incredible girl and I can't wait to see you thrive at this special place.

Lila Ratner – Watching you lead half the group during color war was so fun for me. Your energy and sense of humor keep this group laughing all of the time. I can't wait to watch you grow up at a place that's so special to your family and will be to you one day too.

Liv Robson – Watching you perform your I Love Camp song at the talent show truly gave me chills. You clearly love this place and I know you'll continue doing big things here in the future.

Maya Rosenberg – I'm so impressed with how good you've gotten at tennis with all of your hard work! You're always so easy – going and happy and I love that about you. I can't wait to watch you grow up here!

Katherine Schmidt – Your caring nature always calmed me. You never failed to do the right thing and I am so appreciative to you for that. I can't wait to watch you follow in your brothers' footsteps and keep coming back here!

Lila Solomon – Smiley Liley! You always have a smile on your face and know how to instantly brighten a room. I can't wait for you to grow up here with all your cousins and make Robin Hood your home.

Lyla Solomon – L Sol! I love how happy and excited you are about everything there is to know about camp. Your roots in this place will carry you on but I can't wait to see how you make it your own.

Marni Spear – The gaga champ! It's remarkable that it is only your first year at camp! You fit right in and instantaneously became a leader of this group. I'm so proud of you and I know you'll accomplish big things at camp and in life one day.

Sammy Steinlauf – I love how much you know about camp at such a young age. You throw your heart into everything you do and always strive to make sure everybody around you is happy. Most importantly, never stop dancing!

Emery Thompson – From the second you got to camp you tried your hardest at everything! I'm so impressed you went on both optional hikes! You're a star and I can't wait to see where this place takes you.

Skyar sisters aka staff – I wouldn't have been able to do it without you this summer. Thanks for giving it your all 25/8. You made my life so much easier and made the campers' summers incredible. Love you all!

Tumblers 2017 -

Thank you for the best summer of my life! Every day I would wake up so excited to hang out with you guys. You kept me laughing for seven weeks straight and your energy is contagious. You're so lucky that you have so much time ahead of you at this very special place. Take advantage of it all and don't waste a minute! Call/text/facetime/snapchat me at any time of any day if you ever need anything! See you all next year and for many more years to come.

Love you all to the stars on the quad and back.

JESTERS

Hey Jesters!

Turn off Despacito, put away your slime and your stress balls, pause your iPod shuffles (which are probably playing Shia Labeouf), stop asking around for another bandaid, pause your game of spit, and get ready to relive the best summer of your lives!

Remember the first day of camp? Meadow rolled in as the first jester to arrive in 2017, and you all soon followed. Remember when we played games to get to know each other and had a sweet surprise at the ODT? Remember when we had our first Sunday sundaes? And campfire afterwards, when all our new girls got introduced by their big sisters? Love it! Remember crushing our sixteen laps? Remember when we had our first real EA? That backwards scav hunt was awesome! Remember when Meadow went too hard for her team? Everyone nose what happened there! What an awesome opening to summer 2017!

Remember when Annika didn't want to participate? Remember when Amanda hated arts and crafts? Remember when Julia didn't know any camp history? Remember when Eliza couldn't dance? Remember when Lola hated laughing? Remember when Meadow was uncoordinated? Remember when Ava wasn't funny? Remember when Marina had no sass? Remember when Seven was a complainer? Remember when Grace was negative? Remember when Maya hated the outdoors? Remember when Ana was impolite? Remember when Ger was unenthusiastic? Remember when Noa didn't try her hardest? Remember when Audrey wasn't goofy? Remember when Georgia hated smiling? Remember when Linsul was mean? Remember when Lisa hated tennis? Remember when Aliyah K was low energy? Remember when Asha wasn't sleepy? Remember when Lialah didn't want to try new activities? Remember when Cami wasn't curious about the EA? Remember when Milla was mean? Remember when Ivy wasn't stylish? Remember when Sylvie hated goofing off? Remember when Sam hated listening to music? Remember when Mandy didn't want to do sports? Remember when Gillian wasn't funny? Remember when Hannah hated evening activities? Remember when Addie wasn't excited to be here? Remember when Ella wasn't sweet? Remember when Ceci hated learning? Remember when Kamila didn't joke around? Remember when Lyla didn't like Newcomb? Remember when Aliyah T didn't have fun on excursion? Remember when Nora was selfish? Remember when Ruby was mean? WE DON'T!!!

Remember when we went boating and Georgia and Seven found the baby turtle? That was epic! Remember admiring Linsul's blue streak of hair? Remember when Ana was super polite? Remember when Ella and Ana were obsessed with riding? Remember when Lialah found all her cool rocks? Remember when Gillian, Ivy, and Maya knocked down tennis balls in riflery? Remember Kamila going all out in the dining hall dance parties? Remember when Grace and Ella set tower jumping records? Remember when Mandy hit a bullseye in riflery? Remember when Hannah flipped over the bumps in tubing? Remember when Audrey was the queen of France? And when she taught us how to spell "yellow"? Remember when Georgia was a beast at tennis? Remember when Lyla and Lialah had "big big chicken" from Yensi for dinner? Remember when Georgia and Meadow got stuck in the middle of the lake?

Remember climbing Mount Rattlesnake? Seven, Meadow, Mandy, and Gillian, you were so positive and encouraged everyone to keep going! That view at the top was awesome! And Julia's dance moves up the mountain kept our spirits high! Remember the nature center after? Maya and Lialah, your curiosity was inspiring. All those interesting facts about animals were fascinating. Ana, remember how fascinated you were by the bees? And Lyla, how you didn't want to leave the bird center? What an amazing day of getting out in nature and learning!

Remember the Mainers game? That was so fun! We had so much yummy food… Too much? Maybe. But that fried dough was GOOD. Remember when Grace really really had to pee? Remember the junior camp talent show? Noa, Eliza, Ger, Gillian, Ceci, Aliyah, Audrey, Ivy, and Hannah really showed off their talents! You guys were incredible. Remember pajama jumping and getting candy canteen? We totally tricked you! But still, make sure you wash your hair properly. Thank you, Sylvie, for your demonstration. Remember when Audrey was so scary with her flashlight face at night? Remember when Maya got the toilet paper roll on the rafter? Remember high school clique's day? This song goes out to…The nerds!!!

Remember the Fourth of July? So much yummy food! And firework tattoos on foreheads! And thanks girls for dunking me in that icy dunk tank…Good throw Sylvie! Remember when Hannah couldn't decide which raffle to put her tickets in? Remember when Ella was obsessed with the bouncy house? Remember when Maya decorated the most beautiful cookie ever? Remember when Aliyah got her hilarious fortune? And remember the beach party after the carnival? Lyla and Marina, I thought you'd never get out of the water! Same with you Lialah, but you sure found some cool stuff! Remember watching the fireworks a few days later? Eliza and Ger trying to take Polaroids of the fireworks but the photos not coming out… A bummer, but we definitely will always remember those beautiful fireworks! Thanks for sitting with me to watch, Ella!

Remember mini Green and White? We had the best mini break ever! Streamers, balloons, air horns…AND we got to hang with the bows! So awesome. Remember when you guys had the best team names, the Green Grass and the White Weeds? Remember going hard in bombardment, soccer, Newcomb, and gaga? Remember the spelling bee with Flash and Podl (spell "bombardment"), and remember the cracker eat at dinner? That was the best day ever, and song night was the best way to end it. Congrats Green Grass on your win and getting first for sundaes!

Remember the Harry Potter and the Cursed Child performance? You guys were so impressive! Seven, Eliza, Julia, Noa, Ger, Ceci, and Ava, I was honestly blown away! You guys worked so hard and had rehearsal all the time, but your hard work paid off! Remember challenging the kitchen staff to gaga? You guys killed it! Remember when Lola was the last one in and won it all for us in the first game? That was awesome!

Remember Robin Hood Gives Back Day? It was so nice to be reminded of how lucky we are to live our lives safely. The talk given by our speaker and his dog Lilly was so important, teaching us about leadership, perseverance, gratitude, and respect. Also, that dog was just so adorable. And your letters to soldiers after the talk were all written beautifully!

Cami looked absolutely hilarious. Remember when Hannah drove the boat for your GL at the end? Yes guys, I'm still alive! Remember when Mandy and Meadow went on another optional hike? What avid adventurers! Remember when Gillian shot down her fifth tennis ball? Remember when Aliyah, Hannah, and Lola attacked their counselors at senior waterfront? And remember the treasure hunt we did after playing football with Woody? You guys were so confused about your surprise…Thanks Grace for being an awesome clue reader and Ivy for being an awesome clue holder! The M&M pizza party at the lodge (plus cupcakes of course) was an awesome surprise. I know Cami enjoyed the pizza even if it was weird! We loved watching Noa and Milla devour their pizza, and there were never enough M&Ms for Sylvie and Cami! Remember So You Think You Can Dance afterwards? You guys crushed it and definitely made your staff look bad at dancing compared to your incredible moves! Seven, Eliza, Noa, and Ivy, your energy out there brought everyone else up with you! It was so awesome to watch!

JESTERS

Remember beach day? We had so much fun swimming in those giant waves and eating ice cream. Cami and Lyla were such fish, spending so much time in the water! Kamila, your caramel ice cream looked so yummy! Linsul, your food looked delicious as well. And Meadow and Ivy bought the coolest souvenirs, a floatie and a pink volleyball? Remember when Audrey was ridiculously generous with her fruit snacks? Remember when it took 20 more minutes to get there? Remember when the tide got so high at the end it almost got to where we were sitting? Remember Grace and Maya's sandy fruit cup? Remember when everyone was on time to every check in? Very impressive! And remember when we got back to camp and had a crazy storm? Sorry about your bed Julia, but at least we told some fun stories.

Remember when Ava and Eliza were tubing and those three massive waves flooded the boat? And how the boat was peeing after? So funny! Remember inventing the dab n jog? Remember when Linsul was the best at folding? Remember playing muddy gaga after the big rain storm? Hannah was so into it. Remember Sylvie teaching us a fun new game after you guys were too good at mafia? How did you guess the mafia correctly on the first try, five times in a row?? Remember when Ger got frozen at lunch and just looked so angry? Remember when we played our everlasting game of Newcomb that everyone got super into? Those were some impressive jailbreaks, especially Lyla's perfectly placed throw. Remember when Aliyah went around showing everyone the bug in her eye? Remember when Julia, Lyla, Marina, and Eliza were cracking up at dinner and couldn't stop? Remember when Mandy, Ger, and Ceci found a deflated water balloon at tubing?

Remember our diving lessons? Lola, Ava, and Lyla, you guys improved so much so fast! Remember the color run? Addie went crazy with all the color powder. Remember challenging the bows to Newcomb? It was a close fight, but eventually we came out on top! Thanks again to Flash for coaching! Remember the awesome throws and serves by Lyla, Maya, and Hannah? You guys are epic Newcomb players. Remember Snapple caps and writing nice things about each other? So nice to be reminded of how much we all mean to each other.

Remember getting so excited to see our parents? Remember how awesome it was to run up to them on Friday night at the talent show? Thank you so much for introducing me to all your parents? Remember the Tower family and the Bloom family being epic at basketball? Remember when Sylvie and Meadow crushed the PVD swim lessons, and Audrey's dive improved by a mile. Remember when Milla showed off her paddle boarding skills, and Addie kept switching boats? Then it was time to say goodbye to some of our friends…Ella, Audrey, Milla, Cami, Maya, and Seven, we started missing you immediately after you left. Remember when Ava left and came back only a few hours later? So so so happy to have you back! And remember saying hello to our second session jesters? Sam was so excited about being back at camp as she was running up to the bunk that she could hardly speak! And for Annika, Lisa, Aliyah T., Ruby, Nora, Amanda, and Asha, you guys slipped right into the group like you'd been part of the jesters all along.

Remember the all junior girls camp tea party and speed dating? Gotta love those leftover PVD cookies. Remember when Ceci, Ivy, and Meadow saw that huge bald eagle at paddle boarding? Remember when Ger amused the group leaders at How to Make Your GL laugh with the birds that were not chirping? Remember when Lisa learned to play tetherball and said it was her new favorite game? Remember when we played infection for the second time and it finally worked? Remember being very impressed by Aliyah T.'s awesome blanket? Remember when Tara decided we should sneak into candy canteen and Woody caught us? Thank goodness we didn't get into trouble! Remember when Annika, Aliyah T, Nora, Ruby, Lisa, Amanda, Sam, and Asha swam their sixteen laps with ease? You guys were all so fast! Asha, you especially looked like a pro out there. Remember when Nora and Ruby fell in love with kickball? Remember when Asha was sleepy? Remember being amazed at how flexible Noa, Gillian, and Sam are? Remember Marina and Noa's trick to play cards without being on the same bed? Remember having the camp to ourselves while senior camp was on excursion? Remember Ivy and Julia becoming card buddies? Remember our spa? Thanks again Aliyah K. and Noa for helping with everyone's hair! And your nails all looked lovely. Remember when Julia had way too many blankets? Remember asking for your songs to be added to the queue? Remember Ava's dance to "Hooked on a Feeling" during baby if you love me? Remember Noa and Gillian singing "To the broom, to the dustpan"? Remember when Aliyah T's favorite thing about camp was the senior waterfront? Remember when Meadow was always the voice of reason? Remember when Asha was sleepy? Remember when all Sam and Lisa wanted to do was ride?

Remember being surprised that we were going on our epic excursion? Remember our early breakfast and then the most gorgeous drive to our first destination? Whales Tale was definitely an awesome first stop. Remember how Annika and Lola really loved the hot tub? Remember how Addie was so excited about that first ride where you go up the wall? Remember our next stop, the best movie ever? We know the Emoji Movie was the best movie of the summer! It definitely got Amanda and Addie's seal of approval. Remember when we went to that awesome camp site and had a blast sleeping in our tents? It was so in tents to camp out! Remember the old woman and her suggestions for the fire? Remember saying bye to Marina the next morning…But remember going to Cranmore afterwards? Remember how much Linsul loved the rides? Remember the beautiful view on the scenic chairlift? I know Mandy, Sam, and Hannah won't forget it! Remember the delicious frozen lemonade and pizza? Remember jamming out to Hamilton on the way back? Thanks for the suggestion, Ger and Ceci! Remember saying bye to Aliyah T…But remember all the anticipation of Green and White.

Remember Green and White breaking? Remember all the confetti in the dining hall, the helicopter on the far far field, and all the judges driving in? Remember how Sylvie and Sam held onto their Popsicles for the entire break? Remember picking captains and co captains? Eliza, Noa, Hannah, and Julia led their teams awesomely. Remember the score going back and forth the entire war? Congrats to the green team in the end, but a great war to both teams! Remember moving my bed the next day instead of at night? Oops. Remember when Grace saw a wild turkey on top of it? That was crazy! Remember coming together for Sunday sundaes after cookout and steak dinner? Remember saying bye to Asha and Cai? That was the worst, but we went on to enjoy the final few days of camp!

Remember waking up early to go pajama tubing? Remember Gillian's funny commercial about toothpaste with vitamins, and Ivy spit out onto the mirror? Remember celebrating Linsul's birthday? Too bad they ran out of s'mores ice cream, but it was cool to see the scribes '08 at cozy! Remember Noa filling a dish with water because she was thirsty? Remember going to the sandbar? Addie perfected her serve for sure! Remember Lola playing black magic and figuring out the trick? Remember Hannah interviewing people? Remember decorating jester t shirts? They all look so good, and all your nicknames are so awesome! Remember finally playing camper hunt? Annika and Lisa were so good!

Remember GL swap day? Rybo was so cool, especially in his flamingo tanktop. Remember when Lola was a jumping bean at lunch? Remember playing hunger games during fifth period? Remember scribe speeches making us all so sad about the end of camp…But also excited for summer 2018!!! Remember awards night and that yummy banquet? You guys got so many awards! Remember stargazing together on the last night of camp? Remember heading home, but being so excited to come back and knowing that with each passing moment we're closer to the start of next summer?

Georgia – You are already so campy. You are so talented at and into every activity, and you're willing to give anything a try with a smile on your face! Please keep that attitude forever and keep coming back, because the group benefits from your infectious positive attitude.

Audrey – You are such a spunky girl! You know how to make everyone around you smile with your silly voices, your fun dance moves, and your hilarious attitude. You fit right in at camp. Please keep coming back, because two weeks of you in The Realm is not enough!

Lialah – You are hilarious and sweet! You know how to brighten the day of everyone around you and how to keep the mood light. Your enthusiasm for new activities was incredible to watch and made the whole group excited, so thank you so much for that.

Ana – You are one of the sweetest people I've met at camp. You are always so polite, and never have an unkind word to say about anyone. Camp can always use people like that, and we were so lucky to have you as a part of the group this summer!

Seven – Participation was never an issue with you. You jumped at every chance to get in on the action and fully embraced every activity. That was so awesome to see, and really inspired the rest of the group to be the same way. Plus, you were sweet and smiling while doing everything. Keep comingback!

Cami – You are so helpful all the time. From helping people clean their areas to offering a hand to your counselors with setting up activities, you have an awesome tendency to think of others before yourself. That, and you are also hilarious. The group needs your kind spirit in the many camp summers to come!

Ella – You are so mature for your age. Sometimes when I talked to you, I felt like I could've been discussing with someone my own age. You are so considerate of others, but despite all this you still know how to have fun just as well as anyone! You let problems roll off your back in a way that's so impressive, and hold onto the good in a way that brings everyone else up.

Milla – You meshed into the group immediately. Your easygoing, smiley demeanor was so obvious that the group couldn't help but love you right away. It feels like you've been part of the group for many Summer's already. From riding to waterfront to drama, I could always count on you to love it! Please please keep coming back, and for longer, because you so clearly belong in this place.

Kamila – I am so bummed you couldn't stay for the whole summer. You are absolutely hilarious, and any time spent with you is guaranteed to be filled with some wacky fun. You bring levity to any situation, and you are also so dedicated to having fun with the entire group. Please keep coming back, because you are so loved in the group!

Maya – Sometimes I forget how young you really are. You are whip smart and talking with you is always a blast. Whether it's poke wars or talking about all the hypothetical situations of the world, you are a bundle of interesting fun and bring a lot to the group. When you love something, you really really love it, and the group totally benefits from your enthusiasm!

Aliyah T – You got excited about every single activity. Every single one. That was so awesome and appreciated by everyone. You're so nice and so sweet, which made everyone want to be around you. It wasn't ideal to only have you for a week, but you made that week awesome for yourself and everyone around you. Keep coming back!

Merby – Your hilarious facial expressions and your sass make my day on most days. You aren't afraid to show how you're feeling, and that makes you someone who people like to be around because they can feel your excitement and happiness so much. Not only that, but you care so deeply for your friends. It's obvious how loved you are, and the group needs you to keep coming back!

Meadow – Hey joke queen! You have an incredible amount of depth to your personality for someone so young. You are always down to go all out in any activity, and bring the intensity when it's needed. But also, you can snap right into joking around with your friends and being the silliest person. I love how you embrace every moment of every single day, and care so much about the people around you.

Ivy – Not only do you have all the coolest stuff, but you are also the coolest person! From including everyone in playing spit to sharing everything you own to tossing out some sass at the most hilarious possible moment, you were campy from the minute you stepped foot here. Keep coming back, because the group is lucky to have you!

JESTERS

Annika – I can't believe one person can be so good at everything AND be so dang sweet. You fell into the rhythm of camp like you've been here the whole time. It was a pleasure watching you form lasting friendships in the last few weeks, as well as compete in color war with grace and with intensity. Please keep coming back. Amanda: You are one of the sweetest kids to have come to Camp Robin Hood. You always give your all in every activity, even if it's not your best activity. And when you do work on the things you're best at, you absolutely shine. Keep on having a heart of gold, because it makes everyone around you better.

Julia – You live and breathe camp. You know how important it is to form bonds with your entire group, and you do an incredible job despite the size of the group. You are a total star, and it's been so nice to see your enthusiasm for camp and for activities and for your friends every single day. I am so proud of what a great leader and friend you are.

Ava – Whaddup boomerang! I could not be happier that you came back. You are a kind and compassionate friend. You are honest and sweet and you care about everyone's feelings. You are always able to see from everyone's perspective, and that makes you so well loved among the group. Also, you're absolutely hilarious. Keep being awesome and keep coming back.

Grace – I can say without hesitation that you are the nicest person on camp. You make sure to spend quality time with everyone, and you always care about the wellbeing of others. You also are so silly and goofy, and that makes each day so much more fun. Keep coming back, because you bring so much kindness to the group.

Ger – You are completely hilarious. You are an awesome leader and an awesome friend. You know how to make any situation lighter with your on point sense of humor, and you are so well loved all over camp. You've definitely embraced your true self so much this year. Just remember that your true self is always awesome. Keep coming back because you're a star.

Goldman – You always put 100% of yourself into everything you do. I admire that so much about you, and I know the rest of the group admires it as well. You love camp so strongly, and it shows every day. It makes everyone feel more excited about life just from being around you. Keep being you and keep coming back.

Linsul – I've never heard you say an unkind thing about anyone. You always have a smile on your face and you know how to bring the sunshine when other people are feeling down. Your politeness sets an example for the rest of the group, and I am so impressed by your character.

Lisa – I know the start of camp was rough for you. But from day one I could see what a fun, hilarious person you are. Watching you learn to embrace camp has been one of the best things I've gotten to do as a staff member. You are already very much loved by the other girls, and I hope you keep coming back forever.

Aliyah – You have so much energy and it's incredible. You bring an element of wacky fun to everything you do, and you're always a pleasure to spend time with. You know when you can lighten the mood, but you also know when to be serious. And you don't let your fun side keep you from being a good listener. It's awesome and you're awesome!

Asha – How's it going, sleepy? You are incredibly sweet. Anyone in the group who's feeling down can turn to you, because you'll easily make them feel happy and loved again. Even though you were only here for a short period of time, you made a huge impact on the group. It was awesome to see all the effort you put into Green and White. Keep coming back!

Sylvie – You are a champ. You're never complaining and you're always smiling, all the while with so much appreciation for camp in your heart. You'll hang out with anyone, and I love that you always can find the best in other people. You keep it real all the time, and I love spending time with you. You're campy through and through.

Sam – You're wacky in the best way. Your face lights up with every new thing we do, and it radiates to the rest of the group and makes everyone happier to be here. I love your energy and how you always pick out the best (and the funniest) songs to listen to. You rock.

Mandy – You're an amazing goof. You take things seriously when they're serious, but at all other times you're just a fun and silly kid. I don't think I've ever seen you in a bad mood, and it's so great that you're always chill and smiley. At the same time, your intensity during athletic activities is admirable and inspires everyone else.

Gillian – You're so mushy!!! You're absolutely sassy and it's always hilarious. You're so smart and always figure out the surprises the counselors have, but you're kind and considerate enough not to tell everyone else. You're an absolute joy to spend time with, and you make everyone smile. You're awesome.

Addie – You live your life with so much energy, and throw that energy into every interaction and everything you do. It brings the group up so much to always have you around. You're so fun and never take anything too seriously, which is such an important quality. You're such an important part of the group, so keep coming back!

Ceci – You're always positive and you never complain. There have been many moments this summer and last summer where I found myself thinking that I wish I could be more like you. You're so mature and kind, and I love how strongly you love the things you love. I wish I could borrow all your Harry Potter attire. Keep coming back!

Lyla – You don't hide your emotions at all, and you're always so excited about stuff. Everyone loves your excited screams, and they get everyone so hyped. You always show everyone how much you love them, which makes everyone feel so happy and love to be around you. Thank you for always making everyone feel loved and appreciated.

Nora – You are incredibly sweet. In the two and a half weeks you were here, you asked to help more than everyone else combined for the entire summer. You get so excited about everything, and it's so fun to watch. You fell into the rhythm of camp as soon as you got here, and it's been a pleasure to watch you fit in like you've been here forever.

Ruby – You always listen to what we have to say, but at the same time you're such a ball of goofiness. You give your all in activities, and looking at you with the group makes me feel like you've been here forever. You're very mature, and an amazing and hilarious addition to the group. Keep coming back!

Eliza – You have so much spunk. You always know the funny thing to say in any situation, and you have everyone cracking up at your jokes. You also have so much energy and enthusiasm, and I can always count on you to give everything you have into any activity. You are so talented and it's impressive. Keep coming back!

Lola – You are a wild ball of energy. It's so fun to hang out with you because you're always laughing. I can always count on you to be dancing in the dining hall or singing the songs at campfire. At the same time, you are incredibly considerate and kind. You're awesome.

Hannah – You're incredibly mature. When I talk to you I forget that I'm talking to someone so young. When you got here, you fell right in step with everyone in the group and it honestly feels like you've been here forever. You're hilarious and whip smart. Keep coming back!

Cai, Sophie, Haley, Tara, Caitlin, Ciara, Caitlín, and Laura – You guys are incredible. You made my job so much easier, and I could tell just from watching how dedicated you were to the kids. Thank you so much for always being willing to help, whether I asked for it or not, and for doing everything you could to give these girls an awesome summer. I cannot thank you enough.

Jesters of 2017, Scribes of 2023 –

You are an unbelievable group of girls. I can see how much love you all have for each other, and I know that it will only grow as you move through the ranks of The Realm. You are so lucky to have so much more time together, so please embrace every moment in the future because it goes by so fast. I can't wait to come visit every summer and watch you guys grow up, because I know the future has some incredible things in store for your group. Keep coming back, all of you. I love you all!

WHAT UP BOWS!!!

ALRIGHT LADIES TURN OFF CHATTAHOOCHEE AND PAPER PLANES, STOP DREAMING ABOUT HAVING ANOTHER BOW SESH WITH ROBBY AND PATA, OUT DOWN THE PUTTY, STOP BOW BOW BOWING YOUR BOAT, GET SOMEWHERE COMFY, AND GET READY TO LIVE THE MEMORIES FROM THE BEST SUMMER OF OUR LIVES.

Remember arriving at camp and feeling at home with the smell of the pine needles and all the people dancing in the dining hall? Remember feeling like we never left? Remember finding out that I got to spend another wonderful summer with you ladies? I was so lucky to be surrounded by all of your beautiful faces this summer.

Remember when Alex was the first one to arrive at camp? Remember when Alex got us to be the first group in line for Sunday sundaes by answering a trivia question? Remember the first campfire of the summer? We got to meet the Scribes of 2017, get introduced by our camp big sisters, and learn the camp alma mater!

Remember your early morning wake up on the 3rd day of camp to reveal a PJ jump and full breakfast at the waterfront? You guys did not let the freezing water stop you from jumping off the tower a million times before reveille! That breakfast truly set the tone for the rest of the summer! We continued Christina's birthday celebration with a trip to cozy and showering her with many bracelets and posters!

You ladies are truly the goofiest group on camp! Remember when you all named your two "friends" on the way home from the Mainers game? You may have eaten yourself into a food coma, but you guys fought the stomach pains like champs! Remember when Sassy woke up at 7:00 just to beat the lancers to flagpole? Remember Liv's power sleep meditation? Remember the dog show? Sub's water broke, welcoming her baby guinea pig into the world, Samsol the dog did a flip, Lia used "the force". Remember our first paddle board session? We raced across the lake on the boards to get candy canteen, and Ivy fell off the board pushing Samsol in! Remember when Bella declared to the group that she was Swoody 2.0? Remember when Natalie and Lia solved the shower line epidemic with a showerwheel? I'm still super impressed to this day!

Remember finding out that the bows are the most talented group on camp? Rya slayed on the piano, Linley rocked the electric guitar, Sassy, Bella, Natalie, and Lia danced their heart out to thunder, and finally Millie and Avery closed out the talent show by singing and dancing to magic! I'm so proud of each and every one of you for getting up there and showing camp that thebows have talent!

Remember when Anna wasn't screaming "YEAH", Millie wasn't crying about how much she loves camp, Sassy wasn't jumping up and down, Bella wasn't making public service announcements, Linley wasn't doing random dance moves to make us all laugh till our bellies ached, Rya wasn't begging to go on another hike, Lily wasn't putting whip cream on people's noses, Christina wasn't sleep walking, Ivy wasn't a soccer star, and Lia didn't have the best area decorations??? WE DON'T!

Remember also finding out that the bows are super athletic? Remember our play date with Robindel? Lily joined us just in time to help us sweep the afternoon! We won basketball in overtime when Natalie had the game winning shot, Avery and Lia slayed in the soccer game, and all of you crushed it in Newcomb. Later that night we got in our finest rainbow outfits and beat the Archers in GAGA.

Remember the 4th of July? Everyone took turns dunking me in the dunk tank, (thank you Ivy for finally dunking me) and we had an awesome beach party! Remember when Mishy started calling me "baby Swoody" in the water? Remember starting off week three strong with a mini Green and White? The most honorable Flash joined as we battled it out. Can anyone besides Dani please spell BOMBARDMENT for me?

Remember when we sat at the ODT all morning to work on our time capsule? I can't wait for you guys to open them as Scribes, and discover what you guys put inside. Remember when Samsol, Subs, Millie, and Lily went to winaukee and beat all the boys in a swim meet?

Remember when we all dressed up as aliens to dinner?? SURPRISE!!!! ALL CAMP DANCE PARTY!!! Remember when Dani and I invented the jumping jack dance move? Remember falling in LOVE with camp history during a campfire with Woody and Rempell? Remember when Olivia and Natalie got up on water skis for the first time? Remember when Linley decided to guard Chuck's dock?

Remember when Samsol wasn't jamming out to music, Mary wasn't wearing "the shoes", Natalie wasn't playing with putty, Subs wasn't beating the lifeguards in races, Caroline wasn't talking about cool new technology, Meredith wasn't giggling, Olivia wasn't screaming, Dani wasn't talking about her world travels, and Mishy wasn't walking around with Tigger?? WE DON'T!!!

Remember when the bows killed it on stage during our dance? Bella made sure that everyone knew how to whip properly before getting on stage. We bow bow bowed our boat like no tomorrow! Swoody for dance specialty??? Remember Linley's hip thrust? Remember when Meredith and Caroline joined us just in time for beach day? You guys kept me in the water for hours and I loved every second! Once again you ladies, ate your hearts out. Bows deserve BIC eating.

Remember when we dressed up as high school stereotypes? Remember transforming me from a nerd into a real person for the "makeover your group leader"? Thank you guys for helping my brother surprise me with a dinner date! Remember making cookies in the cottage? Sabrina triedgluten free cookies, Millie cried for what felt like an hour towards the end of Zootopia, and Avery hid behind Christina the entire time.

BOWS

Remember the color run? By the end you guys were all a rainbow! Remember having PJ tubing later that night? Some of you created the first ever PJ tubing sessions and loved it! Remember when you guys became obsessed with slime? Remember saying hello to Mary, Aviva, Leni, and Sophia? We're so happy you guys are joining the family!

Remember when Lily had enough candy to feed the entire camp? Remember fighting the cold with a lip sync competition to fabulous? My fellow judge Leni and I announced that all of you wonderful sass queens are winners! Remember Mary sharing with us what her new obsession was? Remember putting up the forts? You guys created a mega fort on the gold side for card games and tiny villages! Remember human sundaes? Sophia put the "cherry on top" of my head to top off my chocolate covered mess! I would like to give a special thank you to Natalie and Alex for using chocolate ice cream as a moisturizer on my face. We finished off the night with a beach party where Mishy jumped off the tower for the first time!

Remember when Iris wasn't being the nice to everyone, Leni wasn't screaming "HOYAH", Aviva wasn't a mini Katniss, Betsy wasn't the sweetest girl on earth, Alex wasn't covered in dirt after Gaga, Avery wasn't dancing, and Sophia wasn't dabbing?? WE DON'T!!!

Remember getting called to the porch about being bad?? SURPRISE!!! We were actually going on excursion! Remember when Linley was so shocked she couldn't even stand up to cheer? Remember when we woke up all of camp with our screams? We loaded up the vans to head off to Funtown Splashtown where we all rode the largest ride, and conquered the water slides. Remember when Natalie thought we were actually going to the Christian "Church of Living Water" because we packed our swimsuits? Remember when Lily got a churro the size of her face? After Funtown Splashtown, we stopped to take a picture in front of the famous Canoe restaurant. After arriving to the campsite and cooking a 5 star dinner, we went to pirate's cove with the Archers. Remember getting lost on the way and ending up in the mountains? On day 2 we went to monkey trunks and had a sweet treat at Jordan's ice cream after! Remember when Sophie dabbed while on the swing? Remember when Subs got a $9 banana split? Remember the belly buster? Finally we ended excursion with Despicable Me 3 and Pizza Barn.

Right when we thought we were in for the summer, we got surprised and walked in the Freedom Old Home week parade. Remember Green and White breaking during lunch with confetti and a helicopter? The great Green Legends were led by Natalie and Subs, and the mighty Toxic Whitewere led by Dani and Avery! All of your girls fought so hard for all 5 days. Remember the bats coming into our bunk on night 5? Chuck and Dick had to come chase them out with brooms! Remember when Leni put a million tattoos on? Remember Iris's "just sticky"? Remember when Mishy became determined to learn how to ride a bike?

Remember our last EA? We did a treasure hunt including backwards scavenger hunt, infection, a dance party to come on Eileen, and finally s'mores with most likely to awards! It was a perfect ending of an amazing run of EA's. Remember going early morning tubing and sleeping on the porch for the last night?

Remember always being the happiest and craziest group on camp? Remember that moment when you feel in love with camp? Remember realizing that your bunk mates are your sisters for life? Remember counting down the days until it's your time to run girls camp as a Scribe? Remember never wanting to leave? Remember realizing that you'll be back at camp before you know it?

BOW BIG OR GO HOME!

Alex – You need to start giving yourself more credit for how mature and sweet you are! Age is but a number, and I know that you're gaining more and more knowledge every day. Your bubbly personality makes every day brighter. Thank you for always being my little helper, and for giving the best hugs!

Anna – I miss hearing you scream "YEEEAAAAHHH" everyday! You truly added so much character into every activity. Your personality never fails to bring a smile to my face! After you left, the entire group missed you making us laugh every single day. I can't wait to see you again next summer!

Avery – I'm not sure that camp has met anyone as fun-loving and kind as you! Your ability to be friends with every person you meet is a very rare skill. You're truly so responsible and mature for your age! I loved watching you have the time of your life on excursion with Yensi! Keep coming back because camp needs someone like you!

Aviva – I'm so happy that I got to spend another summer with you! You're such a cheerful person, and you can always bring up the group's spirits. You are one outstanding young lady who truly impressed me every single day! You never ever complained, and you were always excited for the next activity! Keep coming back forever!

Bella – Not a day goes by where we wouldn't hear "EVERYONE SIT DOWN ON BENCHES I HAVE AN ANNOUNCEMENT". Your level of confidence has grown tremendously and shines bright, and you always know how to make the entire group laugh. Thanks for always helping everyone quiet down on benches. Keep coming back and allow your love for camp to grow!

Betsy – I'm so happy that you decided to come to camp this summer! Although it was short, it was certainly more than sweet. Your caring personality towards everything in the group is truly inspiring! You're such a happy and smiley girl and I hope that you stay that way forever!

Caroline – I'm so proud of you for giving camp a try this summer! I know it was hard at first, but you truly pushed through at the end to have an amazing time! As the weeks went on, I had the honor to watch you transform into a new person! I loved watching you grow this summer.

Cristina – I know that I can always count on you for a hug! The second you stepped into the bunk you were immediately into camp mode! You turned out to be quite the little athlete during our play date, and you were always open to trying new things! I know that camp will always beon your mind, so keep coming back forever!

BOWS

Dani – I'm so happy you traveled all the way from Greece to come back to camp! This summer you discovered what the magic in the trees meant to you. You always look out for every girl in the group to make sure they're happy and having fun! I can't wait to watch you lead girls camp as a Scribe with that mentality. Keeping doing our under the leg jumping jack move!

Iris – Welcome back! You truly made our job easier by always being positive, friendly, and happy 24/7. Although you were only here for Green and White, I loved watching you compete for those 5 days! Please please PLEASE consider staying longer next summer!

Ivy – It was such a joy to have you in this group! You always seem to kill it on and off the soccer field. It was so amazing to watch you come out of your shell this summer! I'm so proud of you and all of your accomplishments this summer!

Leni – You're always ready to give everyone a hug! Your enthusiastic positive personality truly rubs off on others! I don't think I ever saw you without a huge smile on your face! Thank you for always requesting paper planes! I know you will be singing that song with pride for years to come. And yes, you can get a howya.

Lia – From the moment you stepped off the bus you immediately meshed with the group! You are truly loved by every single girl in the group, and the summer would not be the same without you! Your shower wheel will go down in history as a famous shower solution. Please keep coming back to camp forever because the group is stronger with you in it!

Lily – I love that you put everything you have into every activity! You always make an effort to include every single person in the group, and you always know how to make every day special! Hold onto your love for camp forever and keep coming back until you're running girls camp! I hope that one day you can finally dive into a pool full of sprinkles and whip cream!

Linley – Do the shoulder dance move because it's eggplant lasagna for dinner! You always push yourself to be the very best you can possibly be! Hopefully all of your tennis wisdom will rub off on me one day! You're such a sweetheart, and truly make sure every single girl in the group is included 24/7. Thank you for always being there for a big hug!

Mary – Oh Mary. Joining our group for the last 3 weeks was truly the icing on top of the cake. You are truly so adorable and I love listening to all of your stories. Hold onto your goofy outgoing personality forever because it truly brightens up everyone's day! I can't wait to watch you lead girls camp one day!

Meredith – I'm so happy that you joined our group this summer! Once you got settled in, you killed it in the dance and had an awesome time with the bunk. The constant smile on your face was an amazing sight to see! Please please please consider staying for longer next summer!

Michele – How are you doing without Robby? I've loved growing closer to you these past two summers! Always remember to take everything one day at a time to ensure that you're living up everyday at camp! I believe that my line in my Scribe song really relates to your area in the cabin…

Millie – You, my friend, truly have a heart of gold! You always know how to make everyone feel included in every activity. Even at a young age, your love for camp shines bright! I know that your love for camp will continue to shine forever. Please remember that camp will always be your home away from home, and you can always count on your camp friends. I can't wait to watch you kill it as a Scribe!

Natalie – Are you sure it was your first summer? I loved watching you fall in love with camp so quickly! Not only are you incredibly kind and thoughtful, but also you are so genuinely respectful and mature! You truly have a huge heart and an incredible way of getting along with everyone! Thank you for reminding me to clean my ears every morning! And yes I promise EA will be fun!

Olivia – I loved saying goodnight to you 3 or 4 times a night! Although you would pin me down so I couldn't leave, I truly loved our nightly chats. I know that I can always turn around and see your arms outstretched for a hug! I know you're still disappointed about not staying 7, but I promise you will never waste a day in The Realm ever again!

Rya – Our own little mountain monkey! You have such a passion for art, and I love seeing your new creations! Keep holding onto what you're passionate about, and always chase your dreams!I can't wait to see you in just 10 quick months!

Sabrina (Subs) – Oat…meal…oat oat oatmeal!! You my friend are one of a kind! I love that you are always eager for what's ahead, and make every activity fun! Your love for camp is truly contagious. Remember to always stop and appreciate the magic in the trees from time to time.

Samsol – You have such a special bond with every girl in the group, which gives me full confidence to say that you girls will be friends for life! I've loved watching you break out of your shell this past summer. I can see every single day that your love for camp is growing with every activity. Keep coming back until you're killing it as a Scribe!

Sassy – I loved waking up every morning to your smiley face screaming "WAKE UP EVERYONE!!". We could always count on you to bring energy into every activity. Your fun loving personality can't help but make everyone want to be around you! Thank you for always being so sweet to every single girl in the bunk.

Sophia – The time that you were with us truly flew by before we knew it. You're such a strong young girl for coming into a new camp in a new country for the first time. The group, and all of your staff, miss you more than words can deScribe. Please come back from longer next summer!

Emily, Liv, Devon, and Hannah – I could not have asked for a better group of ladies to share this summer with. Each of you have truly gone above and beyond, and I could not be more proud of how much you've all grown. Thank you from the bottom of my heart for everything you've done for the group this summer. Your love for camp is apparent, so keep coming back! I loved growing closer to each of you this summer! Love you more than I love our fire alarm during pre camp!

BOWS – You ladies are all one of a kind. Your love and compassion for each other is a beautiful sight to see. Remember that your camp friends will be your friends for life, and eventually the ones at your weddings one day. I can't wait to see you girls rule The Realm in 5 short years as Scribes. Thank you for the best summer of my life! You girls allowed me to let go, and enjoy every moment without a care. Always remember to hug your camp friends whenever you can, and ALWAYS play after every storm. Always face every problem you have with a positive mindset, and stay as one strong group forever. Seeing the amount of love you guys have for camp at such a young age is truly remarkable. I'm now going to tell you what my Bow group leader (E) told us,

"Don't cry because it's over, smile because it happened".

WE QUILL WE QUILL... BE HUMBLE, SIT DOWN!

Stop scrolling through Instagram, pause the twerking lessons, put down the cards (Lia and Elizabeth stop playing spit in the middle of the bunk), take a break from saving snapchat streaks, and get ready to sit back, relax, and relive the SICKEST summer and quillest group to walk through Robin Hood!!!

21 quills rolled in to camp on opening day, and that was where the summer began. It all started when we had our first evening activity at the new ODT and made a spider web out of yarn that connected all of us together. Can't forget when we then ate sour patch watermelon and shared fun facts about each other! Speaking of eating, who remembers when we first went down to the ODT to make s'mores and swim!? The fun evening activities then continued at the ABC fashion show, which we will keep to ourselves. You all know what the outstanding outfits looked like.

The start to the summer continued during week 2, when we unfortunately said bye to Macy and hello to Luma and who arrived from Brazil and Julia. We were SUPER excited to go on a hike and then we lucked out and it started pouring. Turned out to be a not so beautiful day to walk on a hike after all. The nature center was a great way to spend our day instead, especially on the playground. And then to top off the day and make our fun adventures even better, we got Cozy after!

Celebrations began on the Fourth of July, one of the best days during the second week of camp. We turned our Italian friends Alessandra and Ginevra into Americans for the day and went hard with celebrating. Who remembers when you guys dunked almost all of the counselors at the carnival in the dunk tank!? The fun days were never ending as we soon after had Robin Hood Gives Back. That day was amazing and unforgettable when Joe and his service dog Lily came to The Realm and spoke to all of camp in the barn. His story discussing the hardships and challenges of his life and how his canine dog Lily helped him were truly amazing and an inspiration to us all. Joe's speech led to us writing letters as a group to several veterans thanking them for their service to our country.

Remember when…we had pajama jumping for evening activity and we brought the newest member of the quills, our blow up flamingo Tarkesha. We PJ jumped off the tower, danced, and ate some snacks and hung out at the waterfront. The water activities this summer in the quill group were endless as we then canoed to the marina! It was so fun sitting on the roof eating our candy and just hanging out us quills. Last but not least, pajubing was BY FAR the best water activity in the first three weeks. It may have your first time ever pajama tubing, but it was well worth the wait of three weeks into camp! The fun evening activities in bunk 10 are endless. Remember watching Beauty and the Beast on the porch and being surprised with McDonald's, even though you all knew it was coming. What a night!

The Quills of 2017 are by far some of the best dancers and actors on camp. From Robin Hood's So You Think You Can Dance, to the Harry Potter play where Ava Russo killed it, to the all camp social when we wore all black, and to Ginsberg's twerk class-slay sessions, you all were phenomenal dancers. Mambo Number 5 was a fun, silly, and all around amazing dance! Reggie and Mia doing back flips at the end was unreal. You ladies crushed it with the rainbow outfits and the energy that was easily seen. And at the all camp social, every single one of you was going crazy at the front of the stage to win a t-shirt! Luckily, Ava Swidler, Sydney, and Morgan so many more of you did…and we danced, and had a really, really, really GOOD TIME!

Did someone say beach party!? Beach Day 2017 was one for the books. 21ta has never sounded so good to my ears! Who remembers the bus ride with the arrows where we were jamming out to songs… especially our favorite Moana. We all had so much fun whether it was in the water or at the boardwalk. After beach day, evening activities took a turn for the better. From human sundaes on Girl's Camp Field to our new invention of the game called Soap Hockey, where Morgan started to show her field hockey skills, we were all down to get dirty and messy in ice cream and soap.

Parents Visiting Day was by far one of the best days on camp. We played tennis, newcomb, gaga, and 9 square with all of your parents, which are all the quills favorite activities! Who remembers Hilary and her family playing doubles together!? Unfortunately, the quills said goodbye Larissa, Ava, Ginevra, Alessandra, and Luma after visiting day, but we gained Helen, Grace, and Maddie after 4 weeks to bring our number in the second half to 18ta. From then on, we stayed strong and continued to rock The Realm.

Excursion began with a van ride to Attitash where we took a ski lift up to the top of a mountain and went on slides down to the bottom. We all had so much fun overseeing the beautiful view of New Hampshire's White Mountains and doing the activities like the tightrope and trampolines. The journey then continued when we took a pit stop for ice cream and the ice creams were huge! Classic Goldman got fries when everyone else got ice cream that were too big for them to finish, but we had fun. When we arrived at the campsite, it was fajita making time! Can't forget when Ginsberg started to eat her fajita cold and didn't understand that the point of the fire was to warm up the fajitas. From fajitas onto s'mores, the eating and cooking at the campsite was never ending. Finally, Day 2 arrived and we departed for water country. Everyone had so much fun going on all the rides, until it was lunchtime and a seagull ate Syd's food! Oops. Right from water country, we set out for Despicable Me 3. And of course at night we went back for more ice cream! Last but not least, on our last day we the quills returned to Ogunquit for beach day take two. Going to the beach without the whole camp was an unreal experience that we were so lucky to have. Remember when Syd and Lily Collier got ice cream at the boardwalk bigger than the size of their face!? You all got your matching shirts and had so much fun on the last day of excursion together, a memory that will never be forgotten.

As sad as we were to leave excursion, it was shortly after our arrival back at camp when Green and White broke! Remember when Alana wasn't going to wear sneakers during lunch and Mia wanted to leave to go to the bathroom but I wouldn't let them…I was right when the confetti started flying in the dining hall! As we ran to the new quad and then to the far, far, field where the helicopter landed, it was a great start to 2017 color war. With captains Ella and Ginsberg leading the Green and White teams, you all killed it in every single activity and gave your everything. From swim meet to track meet to finally song night where we were surprised by the one and only Larisa who visited us for camps 90th reunion, every event was fun and spirited.

Macy – All the way from St. Louis you came into the Quills with such a smile and positive attitude. Your participation at every activity and ability to share everything (especially your cards) is what makes you such an important and special part of this group! You were amazing this summer and 2 weeks was too short. Keep coming back!

Julia – I wish you didn't have to come and go so quickly, but we all know when you aren't traveling around Europe next summer you'll be back for good. You are always down to do anything and everything, which is what makes you so easygoing and happy! Never change that amazing quality about yourself.

Luma – Coming to camp a week in from Brazil would not be easy for most girls, however, you fit right in with the quills in the blink of an eye. You are always smiling and so sweet to others. We were so lucky as a group to have you join us and I hope you will be back for many more summers in the future.

Larisa – LB, the chess champion, the dancing queen. Without a doubt is it true that the quills of 2017 would not be the same without your unique yet amazing personality. You are so special inside and out and that is what every person loves about you. The balance of maturity and craziness that you embrace is a true gift!

Alessandra – As an individual you are such an important part to the quills that it doesn't even feel like you missed bow summer last year. As you're always playing in the bunk with others, it seems as though you have been at camp forever. Never change!!!

Ginevra – You may always be one of the last ones out of bed and one of the last ones at benches, but you are always one of the first to take part in an activity and put a smile on your face! The quills could not be happier that Alessandra introduced you all the way from Rome to camp.

Ava Russo – I could not be prouder of the transition that you made coming into camp. The smile that you were able to put on your face every day since the first day is contagious and has made me and all the other quills smile with you. The effort and dedication you put in to making this a memorable summer paid off and you did it. Can't wait to see you shine in the group next year.

Hilary – The love and dedication that you have for camp is evident in everything you do. Your passion and excitement in The Realm makes everyone around you feel the same way. Never change the way you are, and continue to have such a happy, positive attitude about life.

Mia – I had always heard so much about you from your sister, and I was so happy to finally get to know you. You are a fun, crazy, hilarious, but most importantly sweet person. Can't wait to hang out in New York soon my girl!

Ginsberg – Whether you are the last one out of the bunk on benches, not wearing the right shoes, or cracking a joke, you somehow always find a way to make the entire group laugh. The smile that you put on everyone's face is always so big. I hope you always keep up the funny, but random jokes that you tell and put a smile on my face on all your counselors in the future.

Goldman – You're probably playing with slime as you read this article, so please put it down for a second! It's hard to put into words how caring you are to others. Whenever you see a frown or tear on someone's face, you approach them instantly to help raise their spirits. Keep being the comforting and lovable friend that you are.

Sydney – It is hard to believe that you are only 12 years old, because the poise and maturity that you bring to the group is so unique. You are always there for every single member of the quills, and I know that everyone is there for you as well. Continue to radiate the love for camp on all of your friends, because your love for The Realm is too hard to not rub off on everyone.

Lily Drye – Whenever you speak it may be said insanely fast, but it is always something sweet and considerate coming out of your mouth. You don't have a mean bone in your body, and you are always listening and respectful to others. Maybe slow down the words here and there, but never change what you're saying.

Lily Collier – The intensity and motivation that you have at every activity is truly a desirable trait to have. You are so amazing at everything you do because you care so much about camp and having fun during the days here. As you get older, continue to give it 100% at every activity.

Reggie – I can barely believe that you were only at camp for the last 2 weeks your first summer, because it seems as though you have been coming to camp your whole life. You have such a fun, bubbly personality that stands out in the group. Don't stop being the outgoing girl that you are.

Lia – Playing spit in the bunk or tackling people in the lake at waterfront, you are always just thrilled to be at camp. I am so happy that you are a part of the group and are always down to hang out and go with the flow.

Elizabeth – You walk around camp with a smile on your face always happy to be here. I know that whenever I need anything, I can ask you, and that goes the same for all of the quills. Whether you are drawing something for the group or just doing a favor, everything you do makes such a difference.

Alana – I am so happy that you stayed 7 weeks this summer. You were amazing during Green and White and truly gave it your all. The love you have for camp will never change and I can confidently say that you will be here for a while. Don't prove me wrong!

Maddie – Despite the fact that you joined the quills at 4 weeks, it feels like you have been here all summer. The sweet, kind, and caring girl that you are is the perfect friend for every girl in this group. Keep on doing you, because everything you do is what makes you so great.

Helen – It doesn't even matter that you came to camp for the second half because as soon as you got here, you jumped right into camp without taking a look back. I admire how happy you are at camp at every activity, and it puts a smile on my face hearing how much you love Robin Hood.

Morgan – I couldn't be happier that this year camp finally clicked for you. I remember last summer when I wasn't even your counselor and comforting you, and it is crazy to believe that now you are the one helping others when they miss home. I knew you would grow into this amazing girl who love camp, and you most definitely have!

Ava Swidler – You are by far probably the craziest girl I know, but that's what everyone loves about you. I know that if anyone is down or sad, your wild personality can bring anybody's spirits up. It is so clear how happy you are here at camp and I am so glad that you continue to make your presence known all the way from the UK.

Ella – The fact that you have been a color war captain consistently just proves how much of a lea Cate- Watching you break out of your shell this summer was one of my favorite sights to see. You left the shy, quiet side of you behind and allowed camp to bring out the fun, crazy, and loud part of you. I am so happy that you have grown as a person and can't wait to watch you continue to.

Grace – All the way from Nicaragua, you continue to amaze me at how well you fit in with everyone. You are overall just a chill, carefree, but loving individual. It is clear how happy you are here as you continue to return even if it is for the last 4 weeks. Keep coming back no matter for how long.

Cate – Watching you break out of your shell this summer was one of my favorite sights to see. You left the shy, quiet side of you behind and allowed camp to bring out the fun, crazy, and loud part of you. I am so happy that you have grown as a person and can't wait to watch you continue to.

Staff – I could not have asked for a better group of people to be by my side through the summer. You all were so willing to go the extra mile to make the summer amazing for the campers. I appreciate your help and I hope to be able to see you all on staff for years to come.

To My Amazing Quills of 2017 –

I could not have imagined a more amazing summer with a better group of girls. From the bottom of my heart, every single one of you has given me the best summer at The Realm in my 11 years here. It's the love and dedication that each and every one of you has for Robin Hood that makes your group so special and unlike any other group on camp. I can't believe how fast the summer went by, but there are no other 12-year-old girls that I would have wanted to spend it with by my side every day. You guys are one. You are one big group, and every one of you makes up a part of the name Quills of 2017. I love you all so much, and keep coming back forever and ever and ever.

I WILL BE RIGHT BY YOUR SIDE!

What is that mysterious ticking noise? Hey sombrarrows – put down your fidget spinners, stop watching Grey's, water your succulents, and let's relive some of the best moments of Summer '17.

After a long 10 month wait, the calendar finally flipped to June 23rd. Whether by car, van, or bus, all you gradually rolled in under the Robin Hood sign, seeing the first glimpse of The Realm and feeling ready for the start to an amazing Summer '17. Remember our first night starting with a long walk through camp jamming to despacito? We then rolled up to the waterfront for a bonfire, s'mores, and our eventual first dance party of the summer. From there, we were ready for the next two months that laid ahead…

Remember swimming our sixteen laps the first day? It was easy, of course, because we were "doing it for Dr. Burke." The first lunch included the debut of Izzy's squid hat, and it made an appearance at every meal after. Remember the Staff Talent Show? Sorry if your GL embarrassed you by rolling a whopper into her mouth in front of the entire camp. What about backwards scavenger hunt followed by candy canteen? We apologize, Monty, for stealing your shoes. Remember when Perin discovered her new obsession for dill pickles and when Charlotte finished count off with her interesting noises? Remember Bruna being a certain ghost during paper bag skits? Who could forget challenging the Quills to capture the flag in all pink and then heading to the entertaining junior camp talent show. Lucy's birthday came quickly and we took our first trip to Cozy of the summer. Remember the hunger games? Camp was pretty eerie with the whistle playing through the PA system.

Finally, it was the 4th of July and the Scribes ran through our bunks to wake us all up. Remember making our banner, heading to the beach party (finally joining senior camp), sliding down the waterslide and dunking your GL so many times? The Fourth of July dinner of funnel cakes, corn dogs, fried dough, and Philly cheese steaks wasn't too bad, either. Remember when Talia wasn't being chill, when Micaela wasn't taking over the tennis courts, when Laurel wasn't turtle biting, or when Christina wasn't finding her perfect place in the group? Remember when Anna and Carla weren't late for benches, when Alice wasn't cracking funny jokes, when Andrea wasn't asking for the Harry Potter countoff, or when Kylie wasn't sleeping? WE DON'T!

Remember Laurel's birthday and trip to cozy and pizza barn? What about our canoe trip to the chalet? We had a great fajita dinner followed by swimming, a Justin Bieber jam sesh, s'mores, and a beautiful paddle back to camp under the sunset on the lake. Remember our real talk at the rink that night? And who could forget being woken up with McDonalds fries in your face at midnight? What about #marenarrowsauce? Clearly that combo was meant to be.

Remember Robin Hood Gives Back? We all wrote meaningful letters to soldiers thanking them for their service. Remember when Camille found a golf club in the lake or when we celebrated Rosie's "birthday"? Triple layer cookie cake is a #arrowoginal. Who could forget the dog show? Penelope is an interesting dog with an even more interesting owner. Remember the all-camp social? It was a sweaty introduction into the life of a senior camper.

Remember our pancake/Dunkin Donut breakfast at the waterfront? Morning pajama jumping and chilling to music was definitely the move. Remember Brittany Snow Day? We all had some pretty interesting outfits and walked around with some weird music. What about So You Think You Can Dance? Our 70s smash hit combo took The Realm by storm as you danced in your tye-dye into the 21st night of September. Jemma's birthday was also a great time with a fun trip to our favorite ice cream place in New Hampshire. Remember our afternoon casino games? Blackjack was a highlight- especially when a certain someone tried to debate the rules. Remember our water balloon toss and drip drip drop on the quad? Nobody was safe, especially since Jemma and Cass could catch the water balloons from the other side of the quad!

Who could forget Beach Day? Our ride to Ogunquit with the Quills was hype with our favorite songs of the summer blasting through the bus. Remember when Gimbel got a gift from a bird above, when some of us had great service at Splash, and when Dunia had a little bit too much ice cream. Remember when Jessie wasn't smiling, when Mia wasn't beasting on the fields, when Izzy wasn't concocting illuminati theories, or when Segal wasn't leading the building of something in the woodshop? Remember when Maya wasn't creating an amazing display in her area for the 4th, when Thalia wasn't recalling funny stories, when Indi wasn't giggling, or when Leni wasn't playing her teddy bear recording (MAMA!)? WE DON'T!

ARROWS

Remember the #arrowstafforignal slime making? It got pretty messy pretty fast. Remember when Noa wasn't flaunting her eyebrows at everyone, when Dunia wasn't talking about Kate McKinnon, or when Daisy wasn't discussing her marriage list? Remember when Jessica wasn't coming out of her shell, or when Camille wasn't watering her succulent? WE DON'T!

Remember Robin Hood's First Annual Color Run? Everyone was blasted with powder until we reached a girl's camp beach party at the waterfront with a real DJ. Remember camper hunt? What about Human Sundaes when everyone was led around camp blindfolded? The walk through the sprinklers and lake were a nice touch. After being coated in ice cream, we ran down to the waterfront for a swim with the Shires and Scribes. Remember our thunderstorm talks about the illuminati?

Remember PVD Talent Show? We finally got to debut our dance to our parents and then eat some shaved ice outside the office. Following a long day on Saturday, we had our last EA with the 4 weekers: water balloon infection. This #arrowstafforiginal was definitely a hit as everyone ran through camp with balloons in both hands. Remember snapple caps on the porch that night? Everyone had too much to write on everyone's papers that one minute was just not enough time. What about…I WILL BE RIGHT BY YOUR SIDE!

Remember switching bunks with the Bards? We said goodbye to bunks 3 and 4 and moved into the luxurious Crystal Palace. Although it took a while, it was definitely worth it! Remember when we weren't listening to Maren's Mix? Remember when Callie wasn't being a camper? Remember when Ally and Shafer weren't thinking of pick-up lines? Remember when Alex wasn't obnoxiously waking us up? Remember when Carly wasn't in a sorority? Remember when Sophie wasn't wearing everyone's clothes? WE DON'T!

As the 4 week mark passed, it was finally time for us to go on excursion. Remember our first destination to the Portsmouth Escape Room? Everyone was actually pretty close to solving the puzzle. Luckily our Dunkin Donut stop after escaping helped ease our frustrations. Remember heading for pizza in North Conway? We ate fast before heading to Despicable Me 3 and then back to camp for a night in our own beds.

Remember Canobie Lake Park with the Lancers? It was a great day with water rides, roller coasters and our great purchases like fidget spinners, binkies, and hats. Remember arriving at the campground and going for a swim at the pool? We then had a steak and potato dinner cooked by our honorary trip staff Alex (what can't she do). Remember oreo s'mores and our rainbow campfire?

The next day we woke up to donuts and bagels before heading to SupYoga at the beach. Remember getting on the paddle boards and striking some impressive yoga poses? Remember when Casey could stay on her paddle board or when Rosie could keep track of her life jacket? WE DON'T! We also stopped over to the Seabrook Beach boardwalk for some shopping and exploring. Remember our lunch at Chipotle? I don't think Gimbel could had been more excited. What about our Walmart stop? Camille couldn't go back to camp without purchasing another succulent.

After a great excursion, we finally made it back to The Realm and tried out camp from our new bunk. What is that mysterious ticking noise? Snape, snape, severous, snape. DUMBELDORE! Charlotte's birthday quickly came around and we all picked up some fun new toe socks and goodie bags. Remember eating pizza on the quad and seeing a suspicious plane right before Green and White? The scraxon timeflies fake break couldn't have come at a more perfect time. The Green and White hype was unreal as the real break was just around the corner. Remember when you all really wanted to put on your bathing suits because Green and White was about to start?

Finally, during a high-energy meal, confetti flew through the ceiling and we all ran to the new quad. Remember the big confetti machines, helicopter, and parade of judges? Green and White officially began and Laurel and Izzy took the lead with co-captains Charlotte and Rosie. The war was intense, as the Toxic White took on the Green Legends for the 90th time in The Realm. Remember all of the alumni visiting? Finally, the war concluded and the Green Legends took the win. Remember lazy day? It was the perfect time for some silly string and shaving cream fights on the Girls Camp Field.

Remember Founder's Night? We presented our creative giant fidget spinners that will turn in The Realm for years to come. What about pajama tubing or our random Cozy Corner run? The final night finally rolled around and we went to the D-Hall for chocolate covered strawberries and brownies. Remember our last night? You all received some extremely creative paper plate awards followed by a stargazing sesh on girls camp field. After an exciting summer, it was suddenly time to leave this amazing place. The sombrarrows definitely left their mark in The Realm as a strong, united group of girls headed "to the right."

Noa Afriat – Whether sneaking up on people in the lake, raising your eyebrows at us, or coming up with the funniest one-liners, you always made the group laugh. Even though you are quiet, you are absolutely hilarious. This group loves you, Noa!

Jessie Allen – Even though you were only at camp for a short amount of time, you really found your place in this group. I loved seeing you open up and have a great time with new friends. I better see you coming back for longer next year!

Andrea Aranda – After arriving at the 4 week mark, you found your same place right back in this group. You are so kind to everyone and have a love for everything that happens at this place. Keep coming back!

Anna Attolini – From the moment you stepped foot on camp, we knew you would have fun. From climbing mountains to competing in Green and White, you showed your enthusiasm and did it all with a smile.

Casey Benson – I can't begin to explain how much of a helpful kid you are. Not only do you always support the staff, but you are always looking out for everyone. There's not a mean bone in your body, and I can't wait to see you grow up to be a leader in girls camp.

Jessica Brown – It's easy to say that you clearly came out of your shell this summer. I am so happy that you are finding your place and starting to truly love camp. I can't wait to see what you do next summer, especially now that you are so comfortable.

Jemma Fox – Random comments and all, you are a total camp person. You are always smiling and willing to have a great time. You hold a special place in the group and I hope you stay 7 next summer!

Bruna Fragali – You brought such a warm heart to camp, and this group was so lucky to have you! It was so fun to watch you make new friends and share your kindness with everyone. We were so happy you decided to stay!

Kylie Gilfillan-Long – Every year you seem to fit in to camp even more. I'm so happy that you keep extending your friendships and always looking out for new campers. This group needs someone like you!

Carly Gimbel – Gimby-poo, you just get camp. I cannot believe how much you have spread out this summer to find new friendships and continue on your past ones. I am so happy that we got so close and cannot wait to see you be an awesome GL one day.

Indi Grant-Pirie – You bring SO much energy to camp. Even after missing two years, your presence was returned so easily and you really impacted everyone in the group. We better see you next summer!

Mia Greig – Whether in the gaga pit, tennis court, or waterfront, you completely crushed it. I loved seeing you try new things and succeed no matter what. I think next year you may need to miss some school in Australia to stay longer!

Lucy Hallinan – After two years of being your counselor, I have loved getting to know you even better. I think your love for camp has really grown strong this summer and that you will see how important this place will be to you forever. Keep doing you, Luc!

ARROWS

Alice Hare – Quiet but hilarious, you always find the perfect time to crack the funniest joke. We are so happy that you came to camp this year. Keep yo-yoing and keep being absolutely great!

Carla Jaecker – Whether hitting a softball with ease your very first time or helping lead your team to victory in Green and White, you are an amazing athlete. You have really fit into this group in your first year and I can't wait to see what you do next.

Izzy Lightman – Squid hat and all, you walk around The Realm and bring an energy that isn't matched. Your kindness to everyone is unprecedented and you hold a huge role in the happiness of this group. Keep doing you, Izz.

Christina McKenna – Even though it was your first year, you easily fit into this group of Arrows. It was so fun to watch you have a great time at camp, and I hope you come back again to this group.

Cass Merino – We were all so happy to see you again when you came back to The Realm this summer! You are such a cool kid and are so friendly to everyone. We hope to see you in The Realm again next year.

Amber Mided – Coming back for another year, you have made such strong friendships with new people. Your sweet and caring personality is great to watch and I hope to see you staying all summer in years to come!

Laurel Milacci – Hey Laur-rel! You are such a great kid and have so much going for you. I am so happy that we were able to get even closer this summer, and I can't wait to keep coming back to see you at camp for years to come (maybe even when you are a color war captain).

Thalia Mouzanner – Whether explaining silly stories or dancing in the dining hall, it is so fun to watch you be yourself at camp. You have really found your way here and I can't wait to see what you do next.

Michaela Ponce – Despite your shy personality, you quickly found your way into the group. I loved watching you make new friends every day and try new things always. Come back next summer!

Perin Romano – Coming back for your second summer, you took The Realm by storm. It is so amazing how you continue to find a home for yourself in this place and impact every camper in the bunk. You bring so much excitement and enthusiasm that this group needs.

Leni Samuel – From your first camp meal when you wore your fuzzy unicorn hat, I knew you would have a great time here. It was so fun to watch you totally integrate into this group and find a huge role with your silly personality. Camp is the place for you.

Dunia Sarkis – First of all, we are all impressed with your knowledge of anything SNL. You are such a great kid and bring such a warm heart to this group. You also have the cleanest area, obviously. See you in Boston!

Carly Segal – You care for this group so much and are always looking out for the best of everyone in it. I am so glad that you have created such great friendships that will carry on throughout the summers to come.

Lily Shafer – You have an incredibly strong love for camp that is apparent every day. You work hard to make sure that this group understands and "does" camp in the perfect way, and this group is so lucky to have that. Keep doing you- I can't wait to see Shafe take over the higher ranks of camp.

Maya Shah – I loved watching you branch out this summer. You really worked hard and totally grew up over the course of two weeks. Like I said, you definitely need to come back next summer!

Camille Skala – Hey camille-zo! Between succulents and golf clubs, I can't quite grasp your weird obsessions. Your quirkiness and silliness makes you thrive at camp, and I can't tell you how much of a presence you have in this group. Everyone loves you. Keep doing you.

Rosie Swidler – You are one of the most genuine and thoughtful people I know. You look out for absolutely every person in the bunk and do it with such integrity. You will do huge things in The Realm, and I can't wait to see you grow up and become an amazing counselor #swidbut.

Daisy Swirsky – It was so fun to watch you thrive this summer. When you left for a few days- you were sorely missed- showing how much you mean to so many members of our group. Camp loves you. Also- thanks for introducing us to our new obsession: the song Maria.

Talia Tisserand – Even after skipping a summer, it felt like you hadn't missed a minute. You fit so well into this group and I can't wait to see you thrive at camp next summer even more.

Ally Valentine – You are one of the silliest people on this camp. You never stop making people laugh no matter what. Although you came in the middle of the summer, you fit right back in to this group.

Charlotte Wasserman – Hey Charlotta! Your compassion for others is so strong and shows through everything that you do. You are immensely loved in this group. Keep making weird noises at the end of count off and, obviously, keep making the most of every minute.

Callie, Sophie, Carly, Alex, and Danielle – I honestly do not know what I would have done without you all this summer. Every one of you has impacted these kids so much, and I can't begin to explain how important you are to them. I can't wait to see what you all do next. I love you to the stars on the quad and back, and of course #orangecaramel4ever.

ARROWS OF 2017 -

You are such a special group of kids. Every one of you holds such a unique part of this crazy group, and it has been so fun to watch you all grow and unite over the past two summers. I cannot wait to see you move up the ranks of girls camp and lead The Realm for summers to come. I love you to the stars on the quad and back.

BARDS

We are Bardy girls, in a Bardy world!

Put down your phones, get off Insta and let's reminisce about the summer of being nice.

Welcome to the Bardy Dreamhouse E, Tuesday, Jess, Mil, Stella-la-la, Ella, Ines, Lota, Grace, Ave, Mads, Ninerz, Caroline, Layne, Mags, O, Felicity, Ber and Jessie. Bard staff couldn't be more excited to meet and greet you. The summer was bound to be incredible from the start with Keely, Natalia, Amparo and Vicky back as your AGL.

Remember our first night bonding scav hunt? Really proud of you guys. From day 1, you set the tone for the most inclusive and lit summer. That night we had our first official Bard Sesh, the first of many. Who knew that the infirm porch would be a favorite camp spot? Within 2 days we already had a reason to celebrate, HAPPY BIRTHDAY JESSIE! Starting with an early morning pajama jump, our beach party ended with Dunkin' at the bunk and a grand entrance into the d-hall for breakfast. Who wants some oatmeal with eggs and cheese? To make it even better, the day ended with the first Sunday Sundaes of the summer and campfire. Welcome Riley! Don't forget the quick rest hour trip to Cozy the next day.

Remember water aerobics? Shout out to Sapphire. How about daily volleyball? It's amazing how much better you guys got in just one week. Tbt to that time we did music videos as an EA. Ate a whole box of _____ … wasn't me! Don't forget to add the next song to the que @Elisabeth. Remember backwards scav? The next item is…toothpaste!

Remember when Lactaid was not used for people that are lactose intolerant? Remember chilling on the rave and having generals almost every day? It's the summer of appreciating the waterfront. Props to Jess, Alua, Grace and Stella for representing Robin Hood at the U-15 soccer tournament. Wait…Is Alua spelled with an O? Can we all meet at MacLaren's Pub sometime? Robin Sherbatsky misses you all like crazy. Shout out to Ranjeet.

Remember when Grace somehow managed to get food on her shirt every meal? It's all good though because Carlota and Monty were Santa's helpers. Remember what good luck we had tubing? Gotta love when it hails and the boat dies. Can't forget that time that Jess was singing in the boat, Felicity was hanging off the side, Ryan Gosling was your boat driver and the ottoman was a condiment. Remember trying to find the perfect uterus chicken? 6 plates later…Remember Jessie and Vicky's bond over camp soup? Remember belting out old G+W songs at meals? It's so much more fun with weird dance moves.

Welcome Lane and Alexa! Throwback to that time you played the vegetable game with the Scribe Aids but somehow managed to include fruit. Remember when certain people were "infected" with Type 3 Diabetes? Welcome Eleonore!

Remember Canada Day? Obviously, the most important camp holiday! We can forget about those bangs and broccolis… Let's be real though, how great was the Fourth of July? Who would have guessed that you guys are the most artistic group on camp? Shout out to the people who won us Pizza Barn, that banner was awesome! Who could forget El Señor de Flatulence and his beautiful poems? Who could forget your first West End game? Lotty flop. Remember that time that Alua tried to kill a bug with a whole bottle of bug spray? Proud of Ines for killing that YUGE bug. What about when Vicky found a nest in her jeans? Let's all take a couple seconds to appreciate the fact that Grace somehow fell off the tube that was impossible to fall off of. Remember sharing a cabin with our chipmunk friends? Remember when Elisabeth, Ruby and Maddie scared Yensi, he is the sweetest… just like cookie dough.

Remember when…Millard wasn't fighting off a Scottish bear? JEB wasn't making grass music or being a stuffed animal? Stella-la-la wasn't a duck walker? Elisabeth wasn't an actual Barbie? Ruby didn't have a million nicknames? Jess never participated? Ella wasn't the most chill? Lane and Alexa weren't a dynamic duo? Ines was calm? Mags wasn't secretly a black lab in her next life? Ber wasn't trying her best in every activity? Granci wasn't a secret volleyball pro? Sloane wasn't loving soccer and pugs? Jasmine wasn't BIC mountain trips? Jess didn't have the coolest accent? Ella wasn't super artistic? Eleonore wasn't a multilingual world traveler? Mackenzie didn't love the dog filter? Ave wasn't a low key gangsta? Lota wasn't the sweetest person? Mads was whispering? KK wasn't a piano savant? NinERZ wasn't hair braiding master? Caroline wasn't running/doing abs/being the group mom/super mature? Emily wasn't the reason PVD rocks every year? OG Layne wasn't loving tubing? Alua (O) wasn't an Olympic athlete? Riley wasn't making bracelets? Felicity wasn't being sarcastic? We don't!

Remember being blindfolded and ending up back at the dhall for cookie decorating? Happy Birthday Millie! Can't forget that time you got stuck in a trash can during camper hunt. That's impressive. Remember our first drama period with Amparo after 2 weeks? Love those dance moves! Thanks Caroline for being GL for the day. Remember when you all killed it at 'So You Think You Can Dance' and had the cutest outfits? I was SO proud of you. Remember when Kaiya shielded her sundae from a certain someone? Remember 'How Well Do You Know Your GL'? What is Monty's favorite breakfast? An ooey gooey bowl of mashed up oatmeal with cheese and eggs…YUM. Remember when Grace had a twin in the Jesters? Remember when you guys made spinning into an actual camp activity. Thank you for keeping me fit!

Let's go to the WF gazebo…today! Remember when Grace accidentally ran into a flower pot? Remember tanning on the tennis courts? It's for sure the warmest spot on camp. Remember requesting the same activities every day? Remember how JEB and Toonie were twins? It's the eyes. Remember when Monty's bed was Target? Remember Kaiya's incredible piano skills? Remember the Bard/Friar gaga challenge? It's ok, we had fun! Remember Sloane and Elisabeth rocking it at the lacrosse intensive? TBT to when Ines was allergic to bananas…Remember football, softball and handball with Woody? Spicy…no? Remember having spinning every day? We definitely made that into an activity. Remember being the kind people you are and volunteering to help serve in the kitchen? Remember swimming laps for fun during waterski? You would.

Remember RH gives back? What an incredible speech. Remember the double mountain bike period to Maine and Cozy? We had Cozy almost every day! Caroline you are a soldier. What is 'activity in the bar'? Casino night…I mean afternoon. After correcting the calendar twice, it was finally time for one of the most anticipated days of the summer…BEACH DAY! Thank you for visiting me on boardwalk duty, you guys rock! Only a couple days later, PVD came and you were all stars in the talent show. Remember when half of you were my adopted children for the day? Love you kiddos. Remember switching bunks with the entire path full of stuff? Can't believe we pulled that off so quickly. Remember Monty's wall of memories, it just grows and grows!

BARDS

Within a day after Beach Day we were already headed on excursion. Can you believe how fast this summer went by? Remember when Isabel came the hour before we were supposed to leave? After the first trek of the drive we got to our first destination, the basketball hall of fame. Remember Monty's spidget finning addiction? You can't get any better than Subway and Cold Stone for lunch. Remember when we used almost all the butter to cook the steak and it actually tasted good? From there we headed to the movie theater to see Dunkirk. Remember when Vicky and Harry Styles were soulmates? The next morning we headed to our third destination, Six Flags! Rollercoasters, stuffed animals and lots of junk made for the perfect day. But then…surprise! Remember when we all got those swag hats from the Bravehearts game? "What's your snapchat? I mean, can I sign your hat? (Must say in a gangster southern accent.)" Then to top it all off, WALMART! Tbt to eating a whole roasted chicken right in front of the customer service desk.

Moving on to Day 3…Remember when Dunkin' was a daily necessity? Remember those interesting guides at white water rafting? Don't trust the trust fall. Loved seeing those candid pics. Remember how nice the campground was? We were defs glamping. Shout out to the face mask crew, the mannequins and the tent squad. Eggs, bacon, grits, sausage! After that delicious Mexican dinner, we headed back for EA. Remember cookie decorating? What about silent skits…never mind. Excursion flew by and somehow, we ended up at day 4. You guys packed up with super speed and we started to make our way to our next destination (don't forget Dunkin')…What's the name of that Drake song? PORTLAND. Cheese, ice-cream, popcorn and shopping made it the perfect last stop. Thank you all for making this the best excursion.

After just a couple days back in The Realm, the excitement started to build for…Green and White! Breaking with confetti and helicopters, you guys fought hard and impressed all of the judges. I couldn't be prouder. With the White Toxic and Green Legends, 6 days went by lightning fast. Remember when Sloane and Isabel had birthdays during color war? Remember when Isabel was an absolute star after playing softball for the first time ever? Remember playing soccer on a mini field? Remember when we learned how to actually play 9 Square and ended up loving it? Remember seeing everybody for the 90th and hearing John Klein tell stories? Congratulations to the Great Green Legends.

Remember going to Pizza Barn after Green and White to celebrate birthdays? Remember Founder's night? Our chair was by far the brightest on that stage! Remember our interesting count offs? Bards, bards, shoot off! Remember when we all decided that we are different characters from Madagascar and Vicky and I are your zookeepers? Remember making those paper plate awards that were all just too accurate? Remember getting Shreibman for GL swap day for the third year in a row? Shreib must really love the Bards! Remember when we were regulars at cozy?

Alexa – Within just a couple of days you came out of your shell and integrated with the group with such ease. You are such a happy girl and you were willing to try everything, which didn't go unnoticed by your staff! You're amazing, keep coming back!

Alua – Coming into a group is not always easy, especially when everything including the country is unfamiliar to you. The great thing about you is that you always just go with the flow. You are a great athlete and it is inspiring to see you give it your all at activities.

Avery – I want to start off by saying that your dance moves are a highlight of my day, every day. You are always up for any activity with a big smile on your face and that is why people flock to you. Stay longer next year!

Berrett – You are such a kind girl, and you are always willing to try your best in every activity. You let nothing stop you! You are so positive and have a smile on your face no matter what. Your uplifting energy is noticed by everyone and you can make anyone happier just by walking into the room! Keep coming back!

Carlota – You are beyond sweet and love to smile. I am thrilled that I got the chance to get to know you better. You are so mature and such a crucial part of the group, everyone loves you! I hope that in the future you try and stay for longer than 4 weeks to experience the second half of the summer.

Caroline – It amazes me how similar we are. That being said, I HAVE to include the typical yearbook statement. Caroline, you are incredibly mature and are definitely the mom of the group. You are reliable, smart and witty. I can't wait to see you move up in senior camp and eventually become an incredible counselor. Stay in touch!

Eleonore – It is amazing after 4 weeks to know that your laugh is louder than most of the other girls in the group. You may be quiet but I know that I can always count on you. Stay for Green and White next summer!

Elisabeth – You are such a sweet person. Getting to know you has been a highlight of my summer. This group just works with people like you. You are a natural leader and the group sees that. Oh, and you're also just a volleyball star. Keep coming back forever no matter what. You'll be a phenomenal leader of girls camp one day.

Ella – You are so easy going. From a stroll to the office to a chill sesh on the quad, you are always up for it! Your smile is contagious and your positivity really shined this summer. I can't wait to see what color you dye your hair next summer!

Emily – Out of everyone in the group we have probably spent the most time together before this summer because of our shared time in the infirm! Being your counselor gave me the chance to get to know you better and I am so glad I did. Just know that camp will always be here for you no matter what.

Felicity – I am so proud of you. From the first night when you told me you had a different attitude going into this summer, I knew that we would have a great time. No matter what had happened in the past, me and you just clicked this summer. You're hilarious, and definitely such a big part of your group. Keep coming back!

Grace – You are such a sweet and kind person. You radiate happiness and just love camp. Camp is definitely a perfect fit for you and I can't wait to watch you lead in a couple years!

BARDS

Grace – It is true and it has to be repeated – when are you not smiling? You are by far the loudest, happiest and most positive kid in camp and I wouldn't want it any other way. Your smile lights up the room! It is a pleasure to have you as a camper, you make my life easy.

Ines – You are such a hilarious and happy camper. I love being around you and the group absolutely adores you. You fit in the group so well, I can't believe it was only your second summer. I am so impressed with your maturity and I can't wait to visit you!

Isabel – I am genuinely amazed with your ability to fit in so well with the group. After arriving one hour before excursion, you participated in everything with a big smile and had a blast. That is what makes you so amazing. Keep coming back!

Jasmine – Your constant desire to participate and give your all is so admirable. No matter what, you are positive and light up the group. You are such a happy girl, and you do not have a mean bone in your body. Stay longer next summer!

Jess – I am so happy you decided to spend your winter break here at camp! You are so helpful and kind, a true asset to this group. It didn't even seem like your first summer, you just fit in so well and made friends instantly! Keep coming back.

Jessie – I can't thank you enough for just being you. You are always making people laugh, a true happy camper. You are friends with everyone and so kind, and that did not go unnoticed! Camp thrives with people like you. As cliché as I know this sounds, keep coming back! The Realm needs girls like you.

Kaiya – You are such a sweet girl with a heart of gold. You are wise beyond your years and I am so impressed with your piano talent. The group is lucky to have somebody like you. Keep coming back!

Lane – Coming from abroad is not easy but you managed to seamlessly fit in to the group. I am always impressed with your desire to take on a new challenge. You thrived in every sport, and also killed it in 'So You Think You Can Dance'! Remember that camp will always be here for you, and keep coming back!

Layne – I am so impressed with your willingness to try every single activity. You have improved so much and really given camp your all. We all missed you over the rest of the summer! Keep being you!

Mackenzie – You fit into the group so well, even though you came late! You are so easygoing and positive and it is noticed by everyone. You completed the group with your arrival! Keep coming back, I can't wait to see you lead girls camp with ease.

Maddie – You're love for camp and your best friends shines through everything you do. You are such a happy and hilarious girl, and I know everyone loves you. This group would not be the same without you, you are such an integral part. Keep coming back to lead girls camp, you'll do an amazing job.

Maggie – You just get camp. I love being around you and so does the group. I love playing sports with you and watching you give it your all in Green and White. You are a natural leader and everyone sees it. You will be an amazing leader of girls camp one day.

Millie – You are truly one of a kind. Sharing an area with you definitely made us closer and I am so happy that I got that chance. You are a natural leader and I can tell everyone looks up to you. I can't wait to visit and hang out with your whole fam!

Nina – Thank you for teaching me how to braid my hair!!! I love just chilling with you and catching up after a long day. You are so smart and I love listening to your stories from the year. Your laughter and happiness is truly contagious! Camp will always be here for you, so keep coming back!

Riley – Your desire and drive to stay fit inspired me every day. Keep coming back, camp needs people like you. I also believe you're the best bracelet maker this group has ever seen! Camp will always be your second home, don't forget that.

Ruby – No matter what, I know I can always count on you to make me laugh. Coming back after a couple summers is not always easy but it seems like you have been here forever. I am so proud of the person you have become over the summer. You'll be a great leader of girls camp one day. Keep coming back!

Sloane – My little sister! I have loved being able to watch you grow up into such an incredible person. Thank you for always being the most selfless person. Your dedication to putting others before yourself is admirable. I can't wait to see you continue to flourish.

Stella – You are such a crucial part of this group. Your positive outlook and participation at every activity makes you such an easy camper. Rest hour volleyball and tennis won't be the same without you! Keep coming back and stay longer, everyone loves you!

To my staff – You guys have been incredible. From switching bunks to excursion and so much more, you are always there to help and work hard. I've never experienced a staff that just clicks as much as we do, and I cannot thank you enough for helping to make this the best summer for the kids and for me.

Bards - Thank you for the most incredible summer of my life. Every moment of this summer was a dream and I couldn't have asked for a more amazing group of girls to share it with. Just take a look at how far you've come. I am so beyond proud of every single one of you. I can't wait to come back and watch you lead girl's camp in a couple years. Don't be shy to keep in contact, I will always be there for you no matter what! Remember, we are Bardy girls in a Bardy world forever.

Love you from the stars on the quad and back!

SHIRES

LET'S GET SHIRED UP
clap, clap, clapclapclap
WE ARE SHIRED UP
clap, clap, clapclapclap
WE ARE SHIRED UP
clap, clap, clapclapclap

Shires sit back, put down your phones and fidget spinners, stop dancing to "Chocolate" by Big Boi, stop trying to notch each other, and get ready to relive this incredible summer.

Remember Day 1 when people trickled in throughout the morning, and then all at once the Cleveland and New York buses came and finally our group was full! SHIRE SURPRISE we got the brand new bunk, and our new home for the summer, the Hotspot. Remember night one, getting to know your counselors and making group goals? We discovered that Emma is actually an H2O mermaid. You guys were all so excited and I couldn't think of a better way to start the summer. Remember our first EA, a backwards scavenger hunt filled with crazy items and tasks? Remember the fire extinguisher? Sometimes I wonder just how you guys get into these situations. Speaking of, Lily and Chloe, it amazes me how you two find ways to entertain yourselves ~Burt's Bees & bug spray~. Soon after, Kate, Livy and Soleil joining, making us 24 TA.

SHIRES ARE ATHLETIC!! Remember when Danielle forgot to tell anyone that she was really sporty? Remember the soccer tournament at Proctor Academy? Playing with the Bards and Dina's sick soccer skills. Low-key teaching half of you how to play soccer during the game. Thanks Eric-h. Remember getting pumped up for West End and cheering on your friends? Maddie getting a little too excited right before, we may have lost the game, but definitely won in spirit. P.S. thank you Chacoon for helping us swipe some green paint. Remember our Robindel playdate, demonstrating to both sides our Shire athletic ability. 11-54!!! They did not like our Maddie + Ruby dream team, but its ok because we won volleyball! What about when we challenged the Foresters and actually won the first game of gaga? Still one of my proudest moments of the summer! Remember our creative ways to split teams? Never forget: Shire softball on 3, Shire softball on 3. 1,2,3, SHIRE SOFTBALL!

Remember 4th of July? Coming together as a group and starting off the day by making our fantastic banner for the parade and showing it off on the quad. (At least it was better than the Foresters!) Beach, beach party, beach, beach, beach party, party JK but we had fun just hanging out. Remember dunking Izzy C. in the dunk tank, thanks for that guys. Eating wayyy too much junk food, but FRIED DOUGH! Overall, a successful day.

We CRUSHED So You Think You Can Dance with the softjazz Kanye vibe we created. I kid you not, Woody laughed through our entire performance. Speaking of Shire artistic and creative talent, remember when Catalina failed to mention she was on the Voice, just as Cece forgot to mention she was the next Van Gough?? Love that you guys are humble but seriously HOW DO YOU NOT TELL US THESE THINGS?! Remember the Shire band of Dina, JK, and Haley who would serenade us before we went to sleep, we especially loved the "I don't know my name" by Grace Vanderwaal.

Remember when you all made your staff laugh so hard they developed abs? On multiple occasions? Starting with the Caveman ABC fashion show skit. Molly being a feminist cavewoman and Dina taking a bite out of that orange. The usage of dining hall props continued when Leah ended up soaked in milk and Gina coated with soy-nut butter during lip syncs. When all we had to listen to was Carla's funky European music. And just every Nyla face, joke, and movement. Who could forget that body part dance and, of course, THE FICE! Last, but certainly not least, can we all just praise Ruby. Quick shoutout to our pets Chacoon and Pharel the turkey.

Remember when you guys were actually insane? Like how it was the summer of "more chill" yet Kate and Jordy didn't seem to get the memo? Livy's henna freckles. When Billi imagined hearing "Red Robin Yum" and her Make Your GL laugh performance? Can't forget about her iconic dance moves. Psh Psh Ding Dong. What about when Chloe was cleaning the bunk till 2:00am, I think she learned her lesson. How about your weird obsession with Tums? And Icy hot? And protein bars? What about when Shaina led a protest against the staff, honestly still don't understand why, but it was funny to watch you guys sit on the dining hall floor. And who could forget "Beep Beep I'm A Sheep". Remember when Claire tried to save a stray dog, couldn't, then proceeded to cry. Kate's prank on Allison, but she took it like a champ. O, Nyla, and Ruby hit the folks. Lastly, remember when you guys liked to TORTURE your staff (we definitely do!)? P.S. I don't think I've ever seen anything scarier than Claire imitating a wild animal chase.

The summer started to fly as we went to the Mainer's Game and then to the Color run. Remember bonding with the Scribes at the waterfront? Serena's birthday excursion – Mcdonalds, the Spiderman movie and Cozy! Remember Beach Day, a classic fantastic day in Ogunquit, ME hanging out on the beach. Thanks to everyone who braved the freezing water to visit your staff! Finally arriving at PVD. We loved meeting all your parents! Thankfully we had great weather, even if we barely made it to any activities. Shoutout to Emily and the Ochlis' for our 3v3 bombardment games. Going out to dinner with your parents, and bringing back absurd amounts of food. Shoutout to the orphans Sam, Olivia, Catalina, and Soleil dinner was dope!

Remember all the oops of the summer? Oops we lost the sailing rudder and had to make it up to all of sailing specialty. Oops MIG fell off Chloe's shoulders and we basically performed a 20 minute surgery on her elbow. Oops we don't understand curfew (shoutout to Victoria Colligan's quote). Oops Chloe's Beach day botch (word of advice: stop listening to the things Claudia, Kate, and Shaina tell you to do). Oops we never had hot water. Oops shires roll up late to everything. Oops Izzy C doesn't function in the heat. Oops staff learned their lesson not to challenge you guys to a water gun fight. Oh well, we still had fun!

Remember excursion? Day one Faniuel Hall for lunch then onto the duck tour. Here we go Boston here we go quack, quack, quackquackquack. I love those pics of you guys driving the duck boat. To end day one being met by Dick and the Foresters and heading to Sheer Madness. You guys looked so cute, too bad the boys didn't get the memo. Waking up the next morning to head to the JFK library. Learning about American history and taking some bomb pics. Next was the scavenger hunt. Whether your group raced around to find every answer or took their time to just enjoy Boston, I think we can all agree it was a fun activity. Getting some quick shopping done, and purchasing some sick glasses, before dinner at Dick's Last Resort, with some hilarious and some scary accurate hats. Paige's was especially funny. Remember when they refused to believe Izzy C was in charge? Who could forget what came next? Definitely not Kate. RockNRoll chorus acapella group, possibly the highlight of the trip. We had a great night jamming out to their songs and taking pictures with them afterwards. Remember getting back to the hotel and playing Bean Boozled? MIG and Olivia win for best facial expressions. Izzy and Shaina's insane, and horrible, idea to eat 5 at a time. On the last day waking up to go shopping and see Despicable Me 3. Not going to lie, the van rides were also pretty lit. Everything from jamming out to throwback songs to Nyla crying at Tim McGraw's "My Little Girl." All in all, I had an amazing time and I hope you did too.

SHIRES

Remember Green and White. 5 (6?5.5?) long and hard fought days. Remember when Sam was the dark horse on the white team literally killing it in every activity. The softball game, O with her unreal homerun and Chloe with her legendary catch. The volleyball game, all around I've never been more impressed with your skills, Shaina ending it with a killer serve. Paige killing it in gaga. Watching you guys go so hard in every activity but still being able to come back together as a group when it was over made my heart melt. I'm so proud of all of you for getting so involved and playing such a big role throughout the war (and of Izzy for not getting injured!). Shoutout to JK playing the piano for the Green's alma matter and Siena and Leah for choreographing the gymnastics routines. Congratulations to the Green Legends!

The last few days, while the saddest of the summer, I wouldn't trade for the world. Our last EA was a long scavenger hunt around camp. Fitting in some of our favorite activities while incorporating old camp traditions, ending the next day stargazing and sharing embarrassing stories. GL swap was a blast, we learned that Sobel and Dina were secretly the same person. Scribe speeches were amazing but hard to hear, yet their message was clear. They, along with the rest of camp, want you guys to come back, cherish and revel in your last summer as campers. On the last night doing Snapple Caps for bus notes, I couldn't think of a better way to end the summer.

Billi – It is obvious to anyone looking how much you love camp, but even more than that, it is obvious how much you understand it. You get that this place is special for the people and opportunities it presents. And because of that, you have become a reason why its so great. You're inclusive, encouraging, and supportive and you embody everything you love about camp. From your wild side to your love of long and meaningful hugs, you are camp. Keep coming back and passing on the traditions and legacies of camp.

Carla – The first thing we noticed about you is how mature you are. Your worldly experiences bring an element of wisdom and intrigue to your personality. While you were only here for a week, the second thing we noticed was how much the entire group loves and respects you. We hope to see you next year so we can hear about all your crazy adventures.

Catalina – Since the day you arrived, I loved watching you blossom and grow more comfortable in this group. You shocked us all with your incredible singing voice and your endearing personality. Your smile could light up a room and I'm so happy you were a part of our group, it wouldn't have been the same without you. We hope to see you back for the summers to come.

Cece – You are a genuinely sweet and caring person. You add a breath of fresh air to this group with your classic West Coast vibe. Your creativity and skill doesn't end with art, but also flows into everything that you do. You are such an easy-going person and a blessing to us on staff. Keep coming back, this group needs you.

Chloe – Everything you do comes from your heart. You're always doing what's best for everyone and for camp. You're daring and willing, strong and fearless, smart and beautiful, but most of all you are an inspiration. Your heart is huge and it drives everything that you do. If you show even half the amount of love you have for your friends to the rest of camp, you will be an unreal Scribe and counselor. Never change and keep coming back.

Claire – You are quietly hilarious and outwardly amazing. You prove that you don't have to be loud to have a significant and lasting impact on the group. It is difficult to find a person who can say they're genuinely friends with everyone in the group, but you are that and so much more. You are a steady and compassionate person whose friendship is cherished by everyone around you. Keep coming back because this group would not be the same without you.

Claudia – My baby. You are one of the most humble and down to earth people I know. Since you've come into this group, you've changed everyone for the better, you bring people closer and remind them of the best way to be a friend. To genuinely care and be there for everyone in this group is no easy task, but you do it effortlessly because that's just part of the amazing person you are. You are fair and kind and beautiful. Keep coming back, this group loves and needs you.

Danielle – You were a constant surprise to me. Everything from your insane athletic abilities to the ease with which you were able to fit in and find your place in this group. Watching you become more confident and breaking out of your shell was incredible. You are one of the happiest and most easy going kids I have ever met, never lose that smile that is always plastered to your face! I hope to see you next year!!

Dina – You are amazing. You are amazing because you are selfless. Whether it's in a sport, cleaning up camp, or helping out a friend, you put others before yourself. You are amazing because you care so deeply. Cheering up your friends and enjoying camp to the fullest are two of the most iconic things about you. And finally, you are amazing because I have never met a person more Robin Hood than you. You understand its importance, embody its most valued principals and revel in its opportunities. Keep coming back so you can teach future generations everything you love most about this place.

Emily – From day one your friendly and caring nature shone through. You were the first to branch out and become friends with the staff and from then on we noticed how kind you truly are. Your ability to laugh at every situation is admirable and you are incredibly respectful and a true joy to be around. Thank you for being such an easy-going person, everyone on our staff sincerely appreciates you. We cannot wait to see you next summer!

Gina – You are honestly one of the coolest, most hip, trendy, hilarious and all around genuine people I have ever met. Even after two years, it is obvious how much the group adores you, and how much you love camp. Your ability to fit into this group with such ease is underrated, and not something to be taken lightly. Your laid back attitude stems from both your chill personality and your social maturity. You are a rare combination of outgoing and mature. Keep coming back, because this group needs a little bit more of Gina.

Hayley – You are wild and fun, but your most present quality is how much you care. Everything that you do is driven by that underlying passion for life and for you friends. You are constantly amusing us with your hilarious and outgoing nature. Never forget you play a huge part in this group and you will always have a place. I cannot wait to watch you bring your energy and fun-loving attitude to lead girls camp next year, you're obviously gonna kill it!

Izzy – You are incredibly bubbly and energetic. Your stories are crazy and I love hearing them, even if you do repeat them a million times. You are a constant force in your group and your years at camp have allowed you to live and carry camp's traditions with you. A friend to your group, the rest of camp, and your staff, remember to just be you because you are amazing and, of course, keep coming back. P.S. I'm so proud of you for not getting injured this summer!

Jordan – You are insane. Possibly clinically certifiable. But if there is anything I learned from you this summer, it's how to be carefree. You reminded me of what it means to let loose and have fun, while never forgetting what is truly important to you. You have so much positive energy, I can't help but smile and join you whenever I see you dance in the dining hall. Your heart is so big and kind, I genuinely feel blessed that we got so close this year. Your love for camp and for your friends is blatantly obvious and makes me so happy to see. Keep coming back, I know you know how important it is.

Jordan K. – You impressed us this year with your willingness to tackle any problem head on. Your fearlessness is one of many admirable qualities you possess. You are caring and your friendships at camp don't end with this group. Your connections to your family are obviously important to you and something we both share. Remember to keep encouraging both your friends and family to keep coming back and loving camp like you do.

Kate – Hammy, this whole summer you led me to believe that you had no chill, but then you read me the letter you wrote to yourself about what camp means to you. With every word you wrote it became more and more obvious that you truly understand camp and how it makes you a better person. Here you are able to let lose all the things that don't matter, dance like crazy in the dining hall, and even form weird obsessions because why not. Never forget the free-spirit side of yourself you discovered here, and don't forget to pass it onto the rest of Girls camp next year! P.S. I love your hypotheticals.

SHIRES

Leah – You surprised me this year with the passion you hold in all aspects of your life. Whether it's during Green and White sports or making friends with tumblers, it's obvious that you are a truly dedicated person. It may seem cliché but you care. It is sometimes used as a blanket statement, but I could not think of a more accurate adjective to deScribe you. Never lose the way you care so much about the things and people around you because it's the one thing no one can take away. I can't wait to see you as a Scribe!

Lily – Most people know you as a wild child, and you are, but you're also incredibly mature and sophisticated. You have a mindset filled with wisdom beyond your years and you understand the importance in the little things. You value your friends so highly and constantly put them as your top priority, whether that's just hanging out with them or checking up and making sure everything's ok. The fact that you fought with your parents to extend shows me that your love for camp is real and true, and you should know that camp loves you back with the same intensity and passion. Keep coming back.

Livy – You are the perfect combination of energetic and mature. You're willing to do and try any and everything just to make it into an experience. You go all out in sports, in singing and dancing in the dining hall, and in caring for those around you. It has been amazing watching you grow into a leader of not only your group, but of all girls camp. Regardless of recognition, you step up when no one is looking and that proves your true selflessness. You value the friendships you've made here above all else, a characteristic which you will cherish for the rest of your life. Keep coming back.

Maddie – Miggiebaby, your laugh is contagious and even when you cry I think you could be the cutest thing I've ever seen. But if there's anything I've learned from when you cut your elbow is that you're anything but childish. You have a unique type of maturity. At camp, it manifests in your ability to help kids understand and enjoy camp. It is a quality that only comes with years of wisdom and understanding, to be able to possess it this young just shows how incredible of a person you really are. Keep coming back, I can't wait to see you kill it as a Scribe and with a group of your own one day.

Molly – If you were to have asked me last year to give one word to deScribe you, I would have said sweet. Spending this summer growing closer with you, I have learned that you are so much more. You are funny, smart, understanding, mature, but if you were to ask me now one word to deScribe you, I would say genuine. The way that you care about people, the passion you put into activities, and the way you love camp, it's all real. You are truly a remarkable person because everything you do, you do with heart. Keep coming back, your selflessness and compassion will allow you to be an incredible leader of girls camp and, hopefully, an unreal counselor.

Nyla – Obviously you are one of the funniest people I have ever met, but growing closer with you this summer I realized something else. I learned about your skills as a leader in the group and watched how important your presence actually is to this group. Your power as a leader stems from the respect you garner from you friends as a result of you being a constant and supportive friend. You have the ability to unite the group in turmoil which is a rare gift. Keep coming back.

Olivia – O, never have I met a person more enthusiastic, fun-loving, and all around awesome. Your spirited nature makes everything you do and just being around you that much more fun. Your energy is tireless and your happiness is infectious. You are a best friend, a rock, and an encouragement to everyone in this group, including me. Thank you for understanding and living camp to the fullest. It brings me to tears knowing that you get it and that you can share it with the rest of girls camp next year.

Olivia M. – Your staff all loved getting know you this summer. Your humor put a smile on our faces every day. Your quirky spirit added a layer of complexity and positive energy to the group. Watching you work hard and put your all into Green and White was an awesome feat. Keep coming back, we can all see that your love for camp grows with every day and we know that the group's love for you grows just as much.

Paige – You are forever a child in the best way possible. You remember what it means to let loose and have fun without a care in the world. You know how to love others unconditionally and are not afraid to show it. Your hugs always brighten my day and remind me of how special you really are. Please never lose that side of you as you grow older, as a Scribe you will recognize and love that about yourself almost as much as we do.

Ruby – There is no easy way to explain your role in this group. You are a leader, a friend, and the glue which holds this group together. I think you more than anyone believes in and cherishes the opportunities and friendships that camp offers. More so, you've become a person who opens those opportunities and friendships to some while reminding others of their importance and value. You are going to make an amazing Scribe next year and I can't wait to watch you kill it!

Sam – You constantly surprised us throughout the summer with everything from your maturity to your performance in Green and White. You have integrated yourself so well into this group, it is obvious that everyone can call you a close friend. Thanks for being you and keep coming back (preferably for longer next time) because we can't wait to see you kill it as a Scribe!

Serena – Your commitment to camp and your friends shines throughout everything you do. Few people have such an awareness for the people and things around them like you and I hope that's an aspect of yourself you never lose. Continue being there for the people you love and I promise they will stick by you too. Even though you left early, your presence was felt throughout the entire summer. Keep coming back, can't wait to see you kill it as a Scribe.

Shaina – I've told you this before, but I think you are the strongest person I've ever met. Whether I'm talking about your stubbornness or your actual strength of character, you should be immensely proud of who you are today because I know I am. You've become an integral part of this group both as a leader and a friend to all. You're the person people go to for advice and comfort because you are dependable and inspirational. Don't forget that this place offers you a home and security of friendships and family, I hope to see you next summer.

Siena – From the moment you arrived at camp it was like you never left. You have such a strong impact and important presence in this group. You are strong-minded and you stand up for what you believe is right and I couldn't think of a better role model to lead Girls camp next summer. Your compassion for camp is unmatched and watching you be a leader has made us so proud. We all can't wait to see what else you'll do leading camp soon.

Soleil – From the moment you arrived, it took you all of five minutes to become an integral part of this group. Your fearless attitude was obvious from day one, and it is something I deeply admired. Your nickname explains it all; you fit in so well and immediately were loved by this group and by camp. It was so easy for you because of your easy-going attitude and your willingness to partake in every activity and try new things.

Staff – What else can I say except, Shi Staff Stack3D Staff. I would not have gotten through this summer without you guys and for that I am eternally grateful. You all did more than I could've ever dreamed and helped me in ways I didn't know I needed. From my original speeches during pre-camp to the one I'm writing now, I just wanted so say thank you for putting everything into this summer. I know both I and the kids deeply appreciated it. I love you all so much, keep in touch, and I hope to see you all very soon!

Shires - Thank You!

The reaction I had when I first found out I was your GL and the reaction I'm having now trying to say goodbye to you all is the same, I'm sobbing. You guys have helped me understand what it means to genuinely fall in love with every person in a group. You have surprised me on countless occasions both with your maturity and your questionably daring attitudes, made me laugh harder than I ever have, made me smile wider than I ever thought possible, and made me love deeper than anyone in history. You are an unreal group of girls with so many diverse personalities that somehow perfectly complement each other. Individually, know that each of you has impacted me in a way that makes me want to be a better person. There's no way to adequately deScribe how much you all mean to me so I just want to say, thank you for giving me the summer of a lifetime, it is something I will always cherish.

P.S. Stay in touch!

Scribes

Remember when...

I'm a friend of a friend of a friend of a friend! I'm a friend of a friend but you don't know me, and if I come out tonight – can I get in for FREE!? HEY SCRIBES – now I would love for you all to stop vibing, stop playing BS and hold off on going to the toilet for a hot sec and reminisce with me on some dashing memories we've had this summer. But before we begin, may I ask you to place your crocs in sport/ safety mode please.

So, scribe surprise, that happened. Opening day, good day, nice shirts by the way. Don't you love bunk arrangements? Firstly, I just want to shout out a huge congrats for all you getting those big A grades this year. However next semester an A is the aim for all of you (notch). Remember shire scribe danish? You lost. Still proud though. Jazzy established a close relationship with the quad…What's for EA? What's for EA number 2? Personally, I don't know. Let's go to Walmart, Thursday June 29th – good timezzzz.

We are cute though, PJ jumping and s'mores? ODT nights – Scurran you should probably hold that in. The first campfire of the summer – You guys are such good leaders of girls camp. Proud (again). Hey Jinsel, are you ok buddy? For real though, stop line walking through other group activities it's not ok. I really liked the idea for our scribe dance, the original idea I mean obviously. Its ok though spaghetti cats, windmill kids, sunscreen and toilets are more our type anyway. Right?

West end was certainly an award winning night for you. You guys were crazy, you were loud, and most definitely went all out painting nearly everything and everyone in sight. Herma how's your hair doing? Maybe we should meet up this year and climb Washington again? Ha. No. The tantrums at the top can only be a one time thing. Wasn't the trolley down great though…syke. Speaking of 'syke' I loved being at flagpole with you all every morning. Highlight. Angie when do you arrive? Remember when Clara joined our group? JULY 4th. What a day. What preparation. You were all amazing, you led your booths with enthusiasm and honestly the day was the best 'I love America' day I've personally ever been too. I know you all love aiding stop asking for more. Sidenote: We should probably fix our dining hall table arrangements it's a legitimate nightmare.

Remember the social when Jazzy and Herma won the dance off again. You all brought the roof down that night in the barn and went so crazy although our outfit game wasn't too strong. Remember Britney Snow day? I suppose we really do know how to dress up when we feel like it.

KATAHDIN was the best hiking trip ever. Seriously though we really took charge of that mountain. We owned that climb. I couldn't be prouder. You were positive (most of the time) and you all had big smiles (most the time…shoutout to that vertical cliff face @meatloaf and scurran) Huge shame about the upcoming thunderstorm preventing us from one more night in the wilderness. Saxons We'll be there in a half hour for dinner. Wait – HI ELLIE NICE OF YOU TO FINALLY JOIN US!

So you think you can dance? Well to be perfectly honest most of you can, and some of you very well in fact. Quick shoutout to all the enthusiasts. Although on a serious note, your scribe song is truly incredible and I think it really shows you guys as the amazing group you are and you should all be so happy with it because it really is perfect. Your dance made me laugh the whole way through and I know everyone loved it, so again I hope you all do too. Julie try not to fall over and embarrass yourself next time. And most importantly…wear sunscreen. Remember our back scav on the far far? Well done Rosie you hit a home run with that story.

Remember the casino, when you taught blackjack and roulette? Sadie you looked wonderful dear and Jazzy SPIN THAT WHEEL! In all black you really looked the part and the way you dealt those cards was just…wow. I hope you had fun.

Hey Meatloaf are you ready for beach day? Wait Scribes are you all ready for beach day? After hours and hours of 'preparation' I hope your final decisions were the right ones and you were all happy with your choice of clothing attire. But for real, beach day was so fun and you all aided for your groups so well as always.

Remember when we led the color run and you guys ran around with everyone in camp, around the whole of camp (literally everyone though, like every single human). You all looked super cute all colorful and smiley, even though the colors did stick to certain parts of the body…wasn't ideal @sadie. Remember the canoe trip to the marina with the Tumbies and eating that whole tub of frosting at the ODT? Remember when we had high school stereotypes as our theme for the day – I think that's my favorite one. Makes me laugh every time. Funny when Rosie's high school stereotype is low key actually Rosie.

FINALLY, ITS SCRIBE EXCURSION! Jazzy and Julie hold it in on the van rides please but at last hello P-Town and hello JINKX MONSOON. A 29-year-old man looking like a 54 year old woman who completely blew us all away. Wasn't sHE awesome? The pictures captured after are for sure keepers. The hole in one bakery and a rematch of mini golf (we're practically pro's now) then the knack and the baseball game, despicable me 3 at the drive-in movie. All very impressive. I think it's rotation time, your half an hour is up. The next day surfing, shout out to all those that stood up, shout out to all those that tried…returning to P-town that afternoon to say our final goodbyes. Back at camp, remember Black Friday? Our day of intensity. We went so hard at homerun. Best period ever. Remember the Harry potter themed scav hunt. That could've possibly been the funniest most creative thing you guys did this summer I couldn't stop laughing. Dana's invisibility cloak and the whomping willow @jinsul. Remember when we line walked that night all around camp and did our scribe song on the quad? Remember minion mon(Saturday)day and walking to cozy which actually took a lot less time than expected, so snaps for us. Remember when we cleaned all the camp vans. Smile. Remember when Green and White just didn't break before my staff meeting, I've never been so on edge, sincerely apologetic for making you all extremely anxious.

Remember when Green and White did actually break, confetti and copters. The mighty toxic white and the great green legends went to war, and for 5 days, meals were quieter but you were all still very loud. You guys honestly killed this color war, both teams played with intensity but I was so proud of you all after every activity no matter what happened you came together and realized the true power of your group and with that you made your last camper color war the best it could be. You all, in some way, showed talent on talent night and you all showed heart in the field and the lake. After tug-o-war you all proved what it really means to be a scraxon and I feel really honored have been to be part of it.

Remember when Jazzy SBUT and Kham got their 5 year shirts and Lizzie and Scurran got their 10 year vests, just proving that camp is a place worth coming back too (hint hint FYA summer). Our last trip to cozy where you all had just so much dairy I can't even. Writing and delivering your scribe speeches. You guys really highlighted the most important aspects of camp, not only explaining to girls' camp why this place is so special but more importantly proving through your actions and respect this summer how it is special and that's what differs this amazing group from the rest. You couldn't have done it better.

Scribes

Angie – Cool down! I feel so lucky I got to get to know you so well this summer. You light up any area or situation with complete ease, something you should never change. This group really needs you, you belong in The Realm.

Clara – I know that day one wasn't the day one you expected. But I was so happy to see you smile and embrace camp just how you should have with the positive mindset that sets you apart from many others. Keep being you pretty girl!

Dana – Pug. You rock, and I think I told you everyday just because I meant it every day and always. You are loyal to the bone and have a heart of gold. You're hilarious and I'm so lucky to have spent all these summers getting closer and closer with you. Camp needs you forever, so never let it go.

Eli – Hey miss talented. Thank you for always being so positive. Its evident that you love camp so much and that's what brings you back every summer and I can't wait to see you kill it on staff.

George – This summer you were different, different in the best way. You realised not only how special this group is, but also how special you are to this group, I want you to cherish this thought forever. I admire everything you do with such care, always thinking about others before yourself. I can't wait to see you next year, love you pretty.

Herma – You are hilarious. Never once did you fail to lighten up not everyone's day. You have a contagious personality which draws everyone and anyone in around you. I'm always here for you whenever you need me, about anything and everything. Keep doing you. We'll hit trees next year I'm sure.

Jazzy – MY FAVOURITE GOOFBALL. Always finding amusement in ABSOLUTLY everything meant that this group were constantly on their toes, constantly being energized and that's all because of you. I will never forget your soccer goal and volleyball spike (ish).

Jinsul – I know that we joke with you. But honestly you are such an integral part of this group you have no idea and this summer it has become most evident. Camp or this group wouldn't be the sam without Jinsul and Jimbo so never forget it.

Julie – Jubu. Simply I just want to say thanks for being you. I can't believe how close we've got this summer. You know how important you are to camp and its evident how important camp is to you. I just ask you never lose touch of that.

Kham – I'm so happy you've really found yourself this summer and where you really belong, and that's right here in this group in camp. A place that needs you way more than you think.

Lizzy – Thanks for alway making me laugh and never failing to make the most of every opportunity that gets thrown at you. I envy how you carry yourself, with little care and such freedom, it's honestly amazing and never change.

Maggie – St Maggie's our angel and you really are. This summer you put yourself before anyone else in all circumstances and became such a confident smiley pretty little lady. Making the most out of every activity and ensuring everyone makes the most of the time they had left as campers, they'll all be so grateful to you in the end.

Matti – I was so proud of you this summer. You dove head first into camp and truly made the most of being here. Trying so many new activities and making the most of every opportunity meant that you got out of camp exactly what you put in. I am so happy you were able to be part of this special summer.

Mauldin – my partner in crime. Why is it with you I always act like a 2-year-old? Thanks for bringing out the youth in the group it's an amazing quality and I envy you for it. You're constantly caring for others and being way too friendly. I'll miss you beyond words.

Meatloaf – Hey you! Its going to be so weird not spending every moment of everyday with you. You don't realize how special you are sometimes, not just to me, or just to the group, but to camp. I know sometimes things get tough, but with or without camp I am always here for you. I'll miss you being around, but you had an amazing summer.

Rosie – ZAP! We may annoy each other. And I may really still dislike you for waking me up to go waterskiing but that's why I love you. You ensure that everyone makes them most out of every minute and second of camp and I envy you for that. Never change Roro.

Sadie – Stop crying it's ok, just message me now and everything will be fine! Firstly, thanks for doing my shoes. Secondly, thanks for being you – you totally made this summer so incredible with your literal nonstop energy (I could always count on you for a dance party) and your big big grin!

SBUT – Thanks for always being there for me. Your maturity is so necessary for the group yet at the same time always giving brief spontaneous moments of hilarity which brings the whole group back to reality. Never lose sight of this side of you – it's perfect.

Scurran – There isn't much I can say to you that you don't already know. You bring a whole new dimension to the group and to camp that enables people to make the most out of everything and creates a positive mood around everyone.

Tara – I'm beyond proud of you this summer, you totally killed aiding, watching you with those kids made my heart melt and that's what you always need to remember. This group isn't complete without you, so come back, and keep doing you.

Tessie – Firstly thanks for always smiling. You're a small little lady yet such an integral part of the group keeping them together and united with your constant energy which is more important than you know.

To my staff – You guys were all incredible and I couldn't have imagined a better squad of ladies to accompany me this summer to give these girls the best 7 weeks they could have. All of you mean so much to the girls and so much to me, and I hope to see you all back in The Realm next summer.

So Scribes, Get on the group chat and update me on your life. Take a cheeky peak at all the photos we took this summer together, and finally always remember that camp and this group are always here for you. And most of all, remember to always always…be a goofball.

Camp Robin Hood Gives Back Day

Robin Hood Gives Back Day was a powerful day here in The Realm.

Retired Army SFC Joe Swoboda and his service dog Lily came for a visit. Joe survived two major explosions during his military service and like hundreds of thousands of military veterans, Joe returned home with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder and Traumatic Brain Injury. The non-profit organization K9's for Warriors trains rescue dogs as service dogs for veterans and paired Joe up with Lily.

Lily has helped Joe overcome both his physical and psychological traumas of war – and as a result, Joe's new mission is to help save his fellow veterans from the despair of PTSD, which tragically leads to many deaths annually. Our campers listened to Joe speak and spent some time getting to know Lily. We ended the day by writing letters of thanks and encouragement to active members in the military that were sent to our troops overseas. It was an enlightening day and I know that we all learned a lot from Joe's experiences. We extend a special thank you to alumnus John Flaschner for organizing the day and introducing us to Joe and Lily!

WHEN WE THOUGHT ABOUT HOW WE WOULD MARK THE 90TH ANNIVERSARY OF CAMP ROBIN HOOD we couldn't help but think about Green and White and all the tradition that comes along with our most anticipated five days of the summer. We made the decision to celebrate 90 years of camp during color war. We kicked off the celebration last spring in New York City where many alumni got together to reminisce about their camp days and catch up on each other's lives. Then in August we welcomed over 125 former campers and staff members back to the Realm for two days of reliving memories and enjoying The Realm! The reunion began with a cookout on the beach and with the waterfront open for all to enjoy. That evening we all sat down to an amazing banquet style dinner in the dining hall. After dinner we listened to stories of camp from David Solomon, Stan Brown, Chuck Illig, Dick Roberts, Diane Morath, Michelle Brockmann and our guest of honor John Klein. The camp then went to the theater to enjoy an evening of skits and songs in our Green and White Talent Show. The following day brought more alumni to The Realm for a lovely lunch under the tent on the quad with everyone's favorite camp foods! We enjoyed dinner on the quad followed by green and white song night in the theater. We ended our time together as the whole camp was chanting "it's all over" when color war officially ended. It is true that you come for a summer, stay for a lifetime. Every person that drives under the Camp Robin Hood sign at the front gate of camp leaves their mark somehow, whether they stay for one summer or 50 summers. We are thankful that there are so many people that call and have called Robin Hood home and humbled by the comments we received about Robin Hood. It's the timeless CRH culture that still thrives and continues to draw people back year after year.

FOUNDER'S NIGHT

Tradition has always been at the forefront of everything we do at Robin Hood and Founder's night is no exception.

On this special evening we gather together as a community to celebrate the birthday of Andy Friedman, the founder of our camp. The evening begins with a banquet-style dinner which is served to the campers and staff by the brass and the group leaders. Next we all gather in the theater to hear stories about Andy and the history of Robin Hood. After this each group presents camp with handmade gifts just as they did for Andy years ago. With a tremendous amount of help from our woodshop the campers create some very thoughtful and skillfully constructed offerings. This year's gifts were both useful and innovative including a laundry day board built by the Quills and weather guide from the Scribes. The Friars made new distance signs for the home run diamond and the Arrows made big fidget spinners to attach to the trees in girls camp. We are always impressed by our campers' imaginations and their commitment to making these gifts. After this part of the presentation tradition dictates that camp gives gifts back to our campers and staff honoring their time spent at The Realm. 1st, 3rd, 5th, and 10th year campers and staff receive a special item to commemorate the occasion. This summer we had the pleasure of recognizing some staff members who have spent 15, 25, and 35 years in service to The Realm. What a memorable and significant evening it was on so many levels. Happy Birthday Andy!

Holiday

See the green team pick the bean
Start of our legendary team (green!)
They came
And now we're following in their name
Montana how old are you
Surely you're not under 18 too
Jacko, stick to making shirts today

Watch us reign over The Realm
cause legends never die
'membering our name for the rest of your lives
Becca and Schrieb

So much confetti I can barely see
Is that a helicopter flying over me (green!)
To find, the judges are hidden inside
Can I get another we are green (We're green!)
Watch us dominate the land and Ossipee
(green!)
The truth, is green is just too good for you

Watch us reign over The Realm
cause legends never die
'membering our name for the rest of your lives
Becca and Schrieb

"The captains from Ohio and California have won the war"
The toxic waste has been disposed of
Just that name is a punishment
Day by day we're taking over
To the top the legends went Wait what you thought Rebecca was quiet
Have you even heard Jacko speak
Schreib's not tired he's on fire
We're on our way to victory
Just cause
Just cause
Because we're legends yeah!

Watch us reign over The Realm
cause legends never die
'membering our name for the rest of your lives
Watch us reign over The Realm
cause legends never die
'membering our name for the rest of your lives

WE ARE THE LEGENDS, WE'RE HERE TO STAY

Hot and Cold

Schreib picked the bean
And his team is the dream
Yeah green, we're supreme
Not blank duds
Monty schemes

Becca is her name
Chemistry is her game
You should know
That she'll dispose of you
'Cause we're green and you're white
You can't win this fight
How long did Monty stay like 24 days
On land and the lake legends dominate
We fight, our team's stacked
The yellow team's whack
(White) You don't really want to win
(Green) We just really want our steaks doe
"Cause we're green and you're white
You can't win this fight
White why even try
Cause legends don't lie

Our lids
Arnott chapped
And this war is a wrap White team's energy is a dead battery
Jakco speaks bout nothing
his insta's boring
You should know that
We are here to stay
'Cause we're green and you're white
You can't win this fight
Schreib closes his eyes
As he leads with pride
But 90 years later
The realm is much greater
The Legends are here and we have no fear
(White) You don't really want to win, no
(Green) We just really want our steaks doe
Klein dared, and we did
Girl's camp is a hit
Watch us as we reign
Remember our name

Judges call the war off
Monty has her daycare drop off
Green legends are the story
So high off this war

Dick read the score
We know green won the war
'Cause we're green green and tonight
You can't stop our hype
You wish that you could
But green's just too good
White poisons the realm
Captains at the helm
We clean up the white
As we sweep song night

(Green) We're not only going to win, yuh
(Green) We're gonna make our legacy, live

'Cause we're green and you're white
You gave up the fight
Right here on night 5
The Legends alive
We are the fun team
The war goes to green
Watch us as we thrive
THE LEGENDS ALIVE

House By The Sea

They say home is a place where your heart is Wish I had known that when I first started
For so long we days here for granted
And now we're begging for more time
And I'm trying my best tough
To pretend I am strong and can keep holding on
But now we're left with these memories
In my heart I belong beneath these magic trees

They say home is a place where you're needed
It won;t be long now, til we're leaving
90 years of traditions before us
We'll be next to pass them on
And I'm now who I wanted to be
And this place let me be all that I've ever dreamed
Stargazing with you next to me
In our hearts we belong beside lake Ossipee

They say home is a place you can choose to be
And I've decided to carry home inside me
So it's not really as if I'm leaving
Its more like something pulling me
From the bonds that were formed with such ease
The sound of the wind,
as it blows through the trees
Laying on the quad without a care
In my heart, in my mind I am already there

Yeah behind everything that we do
I just want to come home and relive it with you
And then we'll be where we're yearning to be
In our hearts we'll be carrying Andy's dream

Yeah behind everything that we do
There's a place in my heart where I'll always hold you
Now we're back where we wanted to be Just frozen in time its just you and me

And now we're where we wanted to
We're together at home it just you and me.

Mr. Brightside

Running out on the quad
And we've been waiting so long
Toxic toxic white team
Ready to win it all

It started out with the bean
Jacko was ready to cream
Monty started to scream,
we have such a stacked team

Now we're here on night 5
Sorry Becca and Schreibs
During the 6-day war
Toxic has poisoned your lives
Andy's dream's on our mind
We can't leave him behind
Mighty white on our grind
And this war is ours now
Now, toxic spreads too far
Now, legends die

White team can't stop we're killing green
Toxic Control
Sorry green, you wish you were on this team
90 years of magic lies
In our crew before your eyes
Green it's just not meant to be
White it is our destiny
Legends open up your eyes
Cause we're the Toxic White

Green you've made it this far
But you have run out of time
Toxic toxic white team
Started a pandemic

Legends keep getting sick
Warning signs made them run quick
Toxic's too dangerous, Toxic's too dangerous

Now we've completed our sweep
And while the legends all weep
Toxic's poison runs deep
Green team face your defeat

Lots of judges in town
90th brings them around
Good to have you all back
But this war is ours
Now, toxic spreads too far
Now, legends die

White team can't stop we're killing green
Toxic Control
Sorry green, you wish you were on this team
90 years of magic lies
In our crew before your eyes
Green it's just not meant to be
White it is our destiny
Legends open up your eyes
Cause we're the Toxic White

Gives You Hell

Hey judges are you listening
It's the summer of the meme
Everybody's on our team
Green's still probably counting
Can't figure out the score
Not zeroes anymore

When you face the white
We will reign supreme
90th team
We will poison you
With our toxic fumes
Put you in your tombs

And what happened to the yobs
You left us the best one
We thought he was your son
Late nights in the studio
Eat steaks on lazy day
Judges chalked the chalet

The paint we wear is yellow
To the alumni, hello

When you face the white
We will reign supreme
90th team
Got a crew of two Toxic bleeding through
Dick, we'll miss you

9 Square is new but
It's taken over The Realm
Thunder in our way
Staff just wants to play
It will still be safe

Tomorrow you'll be thinking to yourselves
Wish we made Andy proud
But toxic overwhelmed
Monty has just now realized
FYA summer's a good time

When you face the white
We will reign supreme
90th team
Jacko and Monty
Everybody's dream
Lead us to vict'ry

John Klein is here to watch us
Dominate the green
Never had worries
Still see confetti
Emily's 15th

Jackson can't you see
Blank Duds are a tease
Schreibs calls himself a legend
But he can't jump with ease
Our 90th year
And hundreds are here
We're untouchable
Ruling camp at the helm

When you face the white
We will reign supreme
90th team
The score will be said
Winners must be read
White has won this war
By tomorrow Legends crumble
At their core
And the toxic white's
Poison will live on
For 90 more

When you face the white
We will reign supreme
90th team
The score will be said
Winners must be read
White has won this war
By tomorrow Legends crumble
At their core
And the toxic white's
Poison will live on
FOR 90 MORE!

Fix You

When you pull away you can barely breathe 10 long months without what you need pictures capture the memories
it's not enough

when the tears come streaming down your face reliving moments you can't replace gaze at the stars, jump in the lake
Bound to return

90 years have come and gone
from andy's dream we built a home
the legacy within you

laying on the quad under the moon glow where the trees surround and the wind blows slow tattered pine needles on the ground below just you and me

90 years have come and gone
from andy's dream we built a home
the legacy will stay true

JC:
show me, the way
we'll keep on moving, traditions won't fade
we still have, more years and time

SC:
listen, closely
I promise you'll find the magic in the trees
if we could, just freeze the time

90 years have come and gone
from andy's dream we built a home
our legacy continues

Camp Robin Hood 1927 2017

GREEN & WHITE

Green 3,586/ White 3,503

It's Monday, July 31st, all excursions are completed and camp is back to full capacity.

So the fever has struck; there is a palpable energy in the dining hall and on the fields.

The question is: how? And exactly when?

Lunchtime began as normal, and then a shower of green and white confetti cascades down from the ceiling, and then another. Mayhem ensues while Yensi and Flash lead the masses out of the dining hall and towards the new quad. There they were met with smoke and confetti cannons, before a helicopter appeared from behind the trees which drifted over towards the grandstand soccer field – is it going to land? Who is in it? Where are the judges? After a few circles the helicopter lands on the far field, and out steps Dick, Diane and Steve Rupp – resplendent in hats and canes. So where are the rest of the judges? Attention turns to the driveway by the stables, where the tractor appears towing a trailer with the giant TPJ chair. In the tractor bucket are DC, Woody and Chuck, with an array of visiting judges adorning the TPJ chair.
Green and White 2017 had begun

We gathered in the barn to hear DC announce our 4 captains – Montana Black, Rebecca Lightman, Jackson Pollock and Matthew Schreibman.

Campers and staff were dismissed to their group areas to elect camper captains and co's, before assembling on the quad for the Jelly Bean Ceremony. As the heavens opened we retreated to the barn, where it was determined that Rebecca and Jackson would lead the Green Legends, and Monty and Matthew would be heading up the Toxic White.

So it was straight to business with Junior Camp Tug of War, and Staff Softball providing an amazing end to a spectacular day.

An evenly contested Day One showed that we were in for a close war – the day ended with Green with a whisker of a lead.
Green 705 | White 676

Day Two heralded our traditional Swim Meet. The weather cooperated and we saw some terrific competition in the water; with the White team just edging it. The rest of the day produced hard fought competition on the fields, with White taking over the lead by the end of the day. Green 1520 | White 1584

On to Day Three and the Track Meet, where Green proved to be the more skilled, taking the event by 79 points; and by the end of the day Green had whittled down White's lead to 40 points.
Green 2226 | White 2266

Day Four saw the beginning of our 90th Celebrations, and throughout the day we welcomed around 200 campers and staff from years gone by. They had a wonderful day watching the competition, and cherishing the memories of their own Color Wars. That evening we packed out the barn to witness a hugely entertaining Talent Show. A close day's competition ended with White stretching the lead, but still will within reach.
Green 2743 | White 2857

We entered Day Five with everything to play for, and plenty of points available. The morning saw Green claw back some points, which promised an intense and exciting afternoon. The Giant Relay ended with a nerve-jangling Rope Burn won by the Green team, but White dominated the Tug of War. So, as we always like to see, it was all coming down to Song Night.

The Green Legends proved to be the better singers, which was enough to secure overall victory.

Final score: GREEN 3586, WHITE 3503.
A margin of 83.
