Camp Robin Hood

19 RH 27

YEARBOOK

2024

2024

Camp Robin Hood
19 27

AS I WRITE THIS YEARBOOK OPENING LETTER, my mind goes back 52 years to my first day at Camp Robin Hood. I vividly remember getting off the bus as a terrified Juggler late at night due to weather and meeting Andy Friedman. With a firm handshake, he welcomed me to CRH and promised a summer to remember. Andy's vision and presence are still deeply embedded in our daily lives at The Realm. As we look back on our 97th consecutive summer at camp, it is easy to see Andy's passion for camp and dream of a better world reflected in everything we did.

CRH provides all of us with a remarkable oasis where screens, electronics and 21st century problems are replaced by wholesome activities with a focus on friendship, character development and kindness to others. We say it before every meal: "Make us ever mindful for the needs of others," a concept we embrace wholeheartedly and a legacy we pass on to every new camper. My hope is that everyone takes home the critical skills and values learned at camp and applies them in their everyday lives. Although hitting a softball into the trees is a great accomplishment which few will achieve, everyone has the capacity to be caring and compassionate. Imagine a world like the one Andy envisioned, filled completely with people intent on improving the lives of others.

Our secret sauce at CRH is the people who come back year after year to fulfill Andy's dream. More than 75 former campers worked on our staff this past summer; our administration has a combined 275 summers at The Realm; and each year, CRH is woven into the family history of new generations of campers. Robin Hood has acted as a safe heaven for kids from around the world throughout WWII; during the polio outbreak; in the fall of 1947 when camp burned to the ground and still opened the following summer; amidst the turbulence of the 60's; and most recently the COVID outbreak – where we proved once again that Nothing Stops Robin Hood!

I close this letter from Andy's desk filled with pride for what we have accomplished and humility for what the future holds. It is because of all of you that we are able to perpetuate the singular experience and deep connection which all CRH campers and families share, and I am appreciative beyond words.

With love and gratitude,

Woody

Richard "Woody" Woodstein

65 Robin Hood Lane | Freedom, NH 03836 | 603.539.4500 | Fax: 603.539.4599 | www.camprobinhood.com

WOODY and ANDREA

Chuck

Michelle

Peter

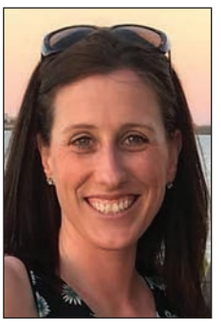

Wendy

Rick

Scott

Kat

Diane

Arash

Matt

Deric

Daf

Julie

Andrea

Yensi

Sam

Camp Robin Hood Awards

GROUP MASTER CAMPERS

GROUP FELLOWSHIP

GROUP SPORTSMANSHIP

Boys' Camp

TPS
Master Camper Michael Haaren
Fellowship Sasha Singer
Sportsmanship Fisher Kaplowitz

JUGGLERS
Master Camper Holden Marcus
Fellowship Colby Spacek
Sportsmanship Dylan Herfield

SQUIRES
Master Camper Alex Kesselheim & Julian Klassman
Fellowship Sylvester Holz
Sportsmanship Jackson Walker

ARCHERS
Master Camper Theo Evans
Fellowship Ben Bernstein
Sportsmanship Lorenzo Rodriguez

YEOMEN
Master Camper Jack Grossman & Alex Snyder
Fellowship Harrison Klassman
Sportsmanship Sam Evans

LANCERS
Master Camper Erique "Quique" Zubillaga
Fellowship Juan Carlos "JC" Hernandez
Sportsmanship Jake Matzuzaka

FRIARS
Master Camper Carter Sussman
Fellowship Sebastian Khalil
Sportsmanship Jake Ponsky & Wyatt Reimer

Girls' Camp

SCOUTS
Master Camper Maggie Kvirikadze
Fellowship Juliet Williams

TUMBLERS
Master Camper Jordana Squires
Fellowship Quinn Horowitz
Sportsmanship Ayla Raivich

JESTERS
Master Camper Emma Miniati
Fellowship Kendal Ilardo
Sportsmanship Maya Dessen

BOWS
Master Camper Lily Raphael
Fellowship Poppy Dobbins
Sportsmanship Leah Peck

QUILLS
Master Camper Sloane Sussman
Fellowship Rachel Dix
Sportsmanship Bryn Raivich

ARROWS
Master Camper Maddie Lipton
Fellowship Mackenzie Berger
Sportsmanship Betsy Land

BARDS
Master Camper Caroline Callahan
Fellowship Zoe Bressler
Sportsmanship Dylan Oakley

MASTER LADY

Marnie Spear

MASTER GENTLEMEN

Eli Kramer and Lucas Kaganovsky

GIRLS FELLOWSHIP

Eliana Mehta

GIRLS SPORTSMANSHIP

Zoe Bressler

GIRLS SERVICE

Ellie Hoglund and Katherine Schmidt

BOYS FELLOWSHIP

Luca Serafino

BOYS SPORTSMANSHIP

Sebastian Khalil and Tyler Grossman

BOYS SERVICE

Noah Martin

Camp Robin Hood 1927

EFFORT & SKILL and MOST IMPROVED

ARCHERY
Effort & Skill
Boys Gus Beauvalot
Girls Arletta Curran

Most Improved
Boys Evan Murphy
Girls Savvy Schleimann

ARTS & CRAFTS
Effort & Skill
Boys Quentin Lacroix
Girls Regan Van Horn

Most Improved
Boys Mason Moore
Girls Juliet Williams

BASEBALL
Effort & Skill
Boys Ben Vuernick & Santi Cleason

Most Improved
Boys Arnold Seiden

BASKETBALL
Effort & Skill
Boys Eli Kramer
Girls Carly Zolot

Most Improved
Boys Gavin Shepard
Girls Abigail Vuernick

DANCE
Honorable Mention
Andreas Van Rossum & Hudson Brown

Effort & Skill
Girls Sadie Krindler

Most Improved
Boys Jack Grossman
Girls Livvy Hoglund

DRAMA
Effort & Skill
Boys Callum Jacoby
Girls Nellie Oliver

Most Improved
Boys Luca Milite
Girls Ayla Raivich

FOOTBALL
Effort & Skill
Boys Eli Kramer

Most Improved
Boys Collin Fuller

GYMNASTICS
Effort & Skill
Boys Drew Hoglund
Girls Maya Dessen

Most Improved
Boys Alex Snyder
Girls Maggie Kvirikadze

HORSEBACK RIDING
Effort & Skill
Boys Luke Orlowski
Girls Amelia Grandic

Most Improved
Boys Charlie Corr
Girls Rachel Dix & Tillie Whalen

RIFLERY
Effort & Skill
Boys Noah Hochman
Girls Savanna Schlieman

Most Improved
Boys Dylan Herfield & Emmanuel Makris
Girls Quinn Horowitz

SAILING
Effort & Skill
Boys Will Morrison
Girls Zinnia Edwards

SOCCER
Effort & Skill
Boys Alon Lipshitz
Girls Blake Rabin

Most Improved
Boys Alex Kesselheim
Girls Leila Waldman

SWIMMING
Effort & Skill
Sr. Boys Wyatt Zabel
Jr. Boys Julian Rodriguez
Sr. Girls Tessa Hoglund
Jr. Girls Livvy Hoglund

TENNIS
Effort & Skill
Boys Robert Toriscik
Girls Carly Zolot

Most Improved
Boys Juan Carlos Hernandez
Girls Zoe Bressler

TRIPS
Effort & Skill
Boys Quentin Lacroix
Girls Chloe Bjarkadottir

Most Improved
Boys Colby Spacek
Girls Kathryn Greenbaum

VOLLEYBALL
Effort & Skill
Boys Noah Martin
Girls Betsy Land

Most Improved
Boys Luca Milite
Girls Dylan Oakley

WAKEBOARDING
Effort & Skill
Boys Julian Heller
Girls Keegan Shepard

WAKESURFING
Effort & Skill
Boys Matthew Ross
Girls Reagan Van Horn

WATERSKIING
Effort & Skill
Boys Rafael Calleja Labadie
Girls Tali Shear

WOODSHOP
Effort & Skill
Boys Callum Jacoby
Girls Zoe Bernstein

Most Improved
Boys Zachary Tirrell
Girls Keegan Shepard

MOST IMPROVED

BOYS – Evan Murphy, Mason Moore, Arnold Seiden, Gavin Shepard, Jack Grossman, Luca Milite, Luca Milite, Alex Snyder, Charlie Corr, Dylan Herfield, Emmanuel Makris, Alex Kesselheim, Juan Carlos Hernandez, Colby Spacek, Luca Milite, Zachary Tirrell

GIRLS – Savvy Schleimann, Juliet Williams, Abigail Vuernick, Abigail Vuernick, Ayla Raivich, Maggie Kvirikadze, Rachel Dix, Tillie Whalen, Quinn Horowitz, Leila Waldman, Zoe Bressler, Kathryn Greenbaum, Dylan Oakley, Keegan Shepard

EFFORT and SKILL

BOYS – Gus Beauvalot, Quentin Lacroix, Ben Vuernick, Santi Cleason, Eli Kramer, Callum Jacoby, Eli Kramer, Drew Hoglund, Luke Orlowski, Noah Hochman, Will Morrison, Alon Lipshitz,Julian Rodriguez, Wyatt Zabel, Robert Toriscik, Quentin Lacroix, Noah Martin, Julian Heller, Matthew Ross, Rafael Calleja Labadie, Callum Jacoby
Honorable Mention – Andreas Van Rossum, Hudson Brown

GIRLS – Arletta Curran, Regan Van Horn, Carly Zolot, Sadie Krindler, Nellie Oliver, Maya Dessen, Amelia Grandic, Savanna Schlieman, Zinnia Edwards, Blake Rabin, Livvy Hoglund, Tessa Hoglund, Carly Zolot, Chloe Bjarkadottir, Betsy Land, Keegan Shepard, Tali Shear, Zoe Bernstein

STAFF AWARDS

GL's Megan Goldsby and Max Corbin

SPECIALTY Kiara Mackay, Tennis | Nina D'Andrea, Trips
Vadym Antonenko, Soccer | Dan Humby, Woodshop

1st YEAR AIDE Ava Charney and Cal Rodin

2nd YEAR AIDE Olivia Wahlstedt and Robbie Levine

OPENING DAY 2024

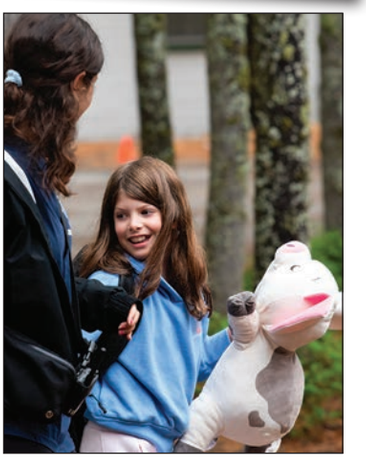

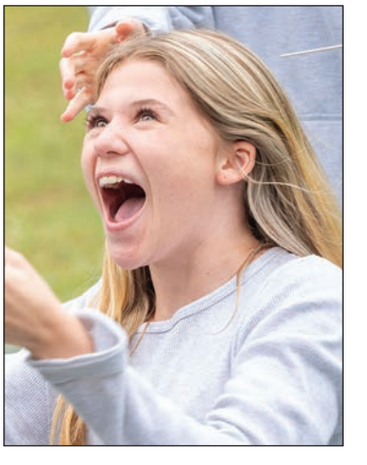

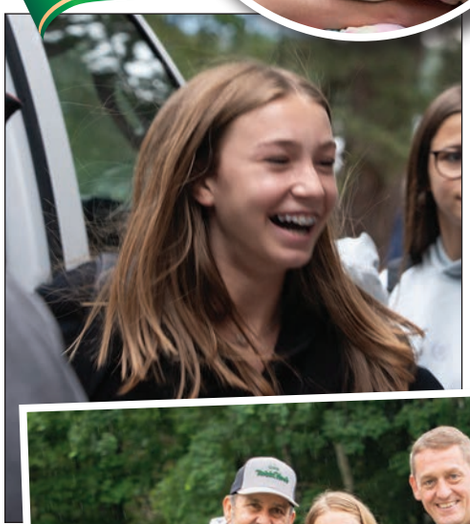

Robin Hood

TPs

STOP PLAYING TEATHER BALL. PUT AWAY YOUR MAGIC CARDS AS WE REFLECT ON THE BEST SUMMER OF OUR LIVES.

THE SUMMER STARTED OFF GREAT!

We pushed through the rainy weather and started to bond through countless hours of carpetball. As all the members of the group started to settle in, we got to know each other better and soon realized these were going to be the best next seven weeks of our lives.

Remember when we played that first football game and how close the game was? Then we played capture the flag as our first evening activity and had a blast. Remember when we hiked Mt. Rattlesnake with the Saxons? That was so much fun and we definitely got a workout. Remember the staff talent show? All that singing and dancing was so funny. Remember when the group went on the flying squirrel? In that moment I was so proud to lead such a brave group of young men. Who remembers that first Boys Camp campfire, when you guys got up there and were introduced by the Saxons? That was such a cool moment. Remember TP vs Quill bombardment in the rink? We destroyed them and did it with class. Remember when we went into North Conway for mini golfing? That was a great afternoon and you boys can really golf – WOW!

Who remembers the challenge cup and our victory against the Friars? Remember the Uno reverse card? It truly was the best way to end a dispute. Remember when we went on the pontoons and went to the main lake? That was so much fun and it's always great to spend an afternoon cruising on Lake Ossipee.

Remember the 4th of July? From the water inflatables to the treats on the quad and the beach party, it was truly a great way to celebrate the 4th. Who remembers when we went to North Conway for the day? We watched Despicable Me 4, which was hilarious, and then got pizza on the lawn, which was so good.

Who remembers "So You Think You Can Dance?" Our dance was so good and we had the whole theater pumped up. Remember our intercamp with Camp Kenwood? We played hard in those activities and motivated each other, and found success. Our record that day was 4-1 and I could not have been more proud of you boys.

Remember the Junior Camp and Senior Camp musicals? That was so fun to watch, and those that were in it did great, especially "The Dragon." Remember parents visiting day and how fun that was? Seeing everyone with their loved ones really made my day. It was awesome that you boys got to show this special place to your family and friends. Saying goodbye to our 4-weekers was tough but we got through it. Hopefully all of you will stay seven weeks next summer.

Remember when we went on an excursion? Storyland was amazing! Those water rides were awesome and the roller coasters were another level of insane. The Roarasaurus was crazy but we did it and I was very proud of you guys. Then we finished the trip off with a great McDonald's dinner followed by delicious ice cream in North Conway.

Remember that early wake up for Green & White and how cool the break was? Seeing the water ski pyramid was so cool. You boys played hard in every sport and you sang your hearts out on song night. I could not have been prouder to see you guys perform at the highest level with so much spirit. It was a great war and that experience made us closer than ever as a group.

As camp finished up with awards night and Founder's Night, we reflected on a wonderful summer. I had a blast being your group leader this summer and I hope all of you boys come back for years to come. You mean so much to me and to camp. My advice would be don't waste a minute, and keep the love for camp alive for as long as you can. I hope you all enjoyed the summer as much as I did and just know you are all a part of the Robin Hood family forever.

TINKERS/PAGERS

Rusty Curran – You love to have fun and your love for camp is special. Don't change a thing, and keep being yourself. Hope to see you back next summer, and hopefully for seven weeks!

Will Doherty – Your competitive nature and willingness to look out for your bunkmates were always on display. You never shied away from being yourself around others. Can't wait to see you next summer.

Ayan Gadiyaram – AG!!! You are kind and super respectful. You played a big role in the group and I hope your summer was one to remember. You are super creative and talented, don't change a thing.

Adam Gray – Your competitiveness and humor made every activity one to remember. It was awesome seeing you find your place here over the summer. I hope you keep coming back!

Michael Haaren – Your goofy energy and constant laughter helped make everyone's day. You have tons of energy and I hope you will always continue to be yourself. Can't wait to see you back for many summers to come!

Ryan Hamilton – You are hilarious and full of energy. You might be the most polite kid I have ever met. I'm glad you came to Robin Hood this summer. You are a key member of the group and camp needs people like you. Please keep coming back, see you next summer.

Jack Himel – You were a great addition to the group and your love for camp is awesome. You're hilarious and I hope to see you back in The Realm next summer and many more years to come.

Fisher Kaplowitz – I loved watching you find your stride this summer. Your goofy energy and jokes kept the days moving, and you always were super kind to your groupmates. Can't wait to see you back for years to come.

Bobby Kocourek – KOCOUREK! You're funny, kind, and your knowledge of steaks is impressive. You have a lot of energy and are a great soccer player. Glad you came to camp this summer.

Evan Murphy – I hope one day you can look back on this summer and realize what a big accomplishment it was. You had constant energy and were always able to brighten everyone's day. Looking forward to seeing your Robin Hood career continue!

David Radvinsky – Your experience and love of camp was on full display this summer as you helped your newer groupmates discover the magic in the trees. Your funny personality and energy are infectious. Keep coming back!

Julian Rodriguez – I enjoyed watching you make the most out of your time at camp. You are super responsible and funny, and always looking out for others. I hope you keep coming back, this group needs you.

Zachary Ross – You might be one of the funniest kids I've met. You always have contagious energy and know how to make everyone laugh. You are an important part of this group, and I can't wait to see you come back!

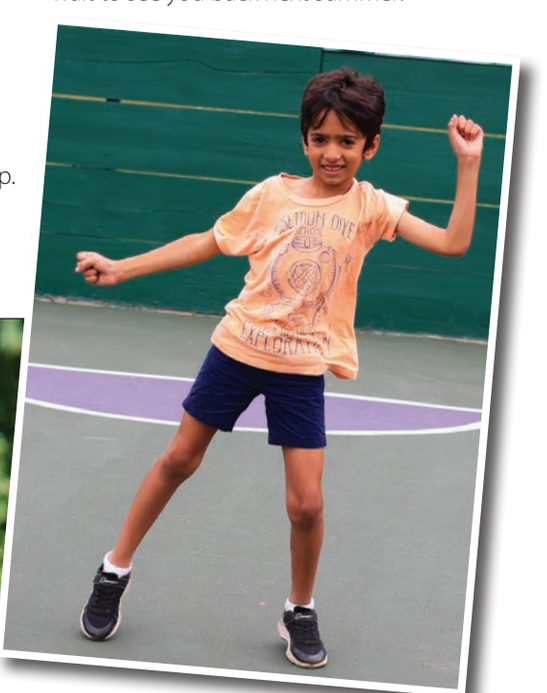

Drew Schoenberg – You are such a nice kid and a great friend to your groupmates. You get camp, and love to make the most out of things, and I respect that so much. Your first summer seemed great and I can't wait to see all you accomplish in your Camp Robin Hood career.

Blake Simanovsky – You were always there to support your groupmates day in and day out. You are caring, funny, and a great friend. I know you care so much about this place. Keep coming back, this group needs you.

Sacha Singer – Your athleticism and competitive nature jumped out from day one, but your friendliness towards everyone is what made the biggest impact. You always have a smile on your face, and you make sure your groupmates do too. Can't wait to see you back next summer!

TPs
NIKE
NFL
NETS

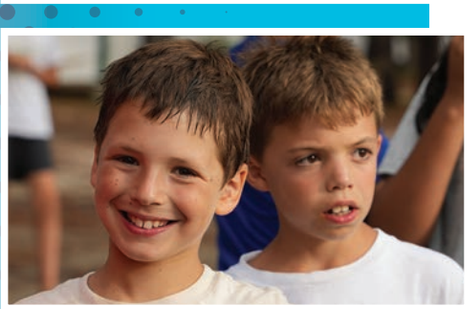

Camp Robin Hood

JUGGLERS! JUGGLERS! JUGGLERS!

Put down the Top Trumps cards, stop sweeping, and sit down while we think about the great memories we made over the summer.

On opening day, even the rain couldn't stop the Jugglers from getting right into the swing of camp. As campers arrived, we played soccer with the Archers, already a clear favorite activity for the group. We then waited at the gas pump for the arrival of the New York bus. It was so much fun cheering for and then meeting our new friends! We went down to our bunk to get used to the place we would all live for the summer. Ping pong, carpetball, and tetherball games started immediately (something that wouldn't cease for the whole summer). Spaghetti and meat sauce for dinner was delicious! Right after, our first EA started and Kick the Can was a hit. Lifelong friendships were already being created and the summer was off to a great start. Day 1: success!

Remember when the formation against Brock was created at Senior Waterfront? How about when we climbed Rattlesnake Mountain? It took no time for all of you to settle into camp, and meaningful memories were being created immediately. The night of the massive thunderstorm was super memorable. Not due to the fact that we lost power, but that so many of you hoped we did?!?! The dining hall clearly became one of the Jugglers favorite places on camp. Does everyone remember when we screamed to get Sunday Sundaes? How about when Taran claimed clear for the entire summer! The staff talent show was also a hit. Did you enjoy watching your counselors embarrass themselves on stage? Coming out of a strong first week, the Jugglers were unstoppable.

July 4th was right around the corner from Week 1, where the Jugglers enjoyed ice cream, fun games, and PIE FIGHTS!! Did all of you enjoy dunking your counselors, and Archer, in the dunk tank? After July 4th, the Jugglers became extremely involved in intercamp tournaments, competing in tennis (shoutout to Freddie for getting first), softball, soccer and kickball. And by competing, I mean dominating. The Jugglers killed the competition in the U10 and U11 soccer tournaments. Sunday rolled by again which introduced the Jugglers to lazy Sunday. However, this was trumped by the hype of getting Sunday Sundaes again! Jugglers LOVE ICE CREAM! The Jugglers favorite activity was piling as much ice cream into the bowl as possible and of course, eating all of it.

It was early into the summer when the Jugglers discovered their immense riflery skills. Does everyone remember when Corey set a record for shooting down tennis balls? The Jugglers enjoyed many special periods this summer like Senior Waterfront with our Saxon aids, drawing during FNOO, or evening pontoon rides. I know one of Daniel's favorite activities was letting balloons fly into the fan and seeing where they flew! All of you definitely enjoyed destroying the TPs in SWF and greasy watermelon, or when we combined with the Squires for Shark Tank! Before we knew it, the Jugglers were only a couple Daniel grandpa jokes away from So You Think You Can Dance, which of course, our dance was a hit.

BANANA. Does everyone remember when we spent the day in North Conway and saw the Minions movie? After watching the movie and enjoying pizza on the grass, it became clear the Jugglers would not stop imitating minions for the rest of the summer. Following this, we enjoyed watching the Junior Camp talent show! Does everyone remember when we also went out of camp to watch the Sanford Mainers game. We probably ate more popcorn than any other group in camp!

All of the Jugglers showed their athletic prowess this year. Whether it was beating your counselors in an intense hockey match, climbing mountains, or beating the Tumblers in Gaga, all of you showed great skill. Parents weekend was amazing, and I enjoyed meeting your families. We were sad to see some of our friends leave at the four week mark but then the Jugglers became a tight unit.

Although there were less of us, the fun did not end. Excursion was definitely a highlight of the summer. Storyland and a quick ice cream treat led to an amazing day, topped off by a nice night camping out at the outpost. Do you remember making tons of s'mores? How about when we went with the TPs, Scouts, and Tumblers to throw candy during the Freedom Old Home Week Parade? We certainly had a lot of candy and popcorn that morning. While we were having a lot of fun, everyone was distracted from the lurking event…THE GREEN & WHITE BREAK!

JUGGLERS

Was everyone surprised when Green & White broke? Although all of you were clearly prepared, sleeping with sneakers right next to your bed, ready to slip them on at any minute. Then it happened! We were sent down to the waterfront in the morning to watch the insane show put on with the waterski boats. Do you remember the five days of intense Color War and activities that ensued? How about when Krish was in the Junior Camp talent show. The Jugglers fought a hard war alongside the TPs. The TPJ color was even on both sides and had a great tug of war to end it off. As Green & White came to end, the Jugglers were able to come back as a group to enjoy the final days of camp.

Although our time left was short, the Jugglers enjoyed every second, literally. You refused to leave the tetherball pole, showing extreme passion for the sport. We were also able to have a few blitzball periods where basically everyone was able to hit homeruns! Using our sus count off, we were able to make it through the last three weeks, past GL swap day, and to Founder's Night. Which of course, our bench stood out among the rest as one of the most artistic pieces that has ever graced camp, and will reside in the dining hall for years to come. As the banquet dinner and awards night came to an end, do you remember eating candy on the last night and watching the Sandlot? While summer came to an end, the Jugglers had a great one, that we will all remember for years to come.

Rapha Agmoni – It was so great to have you this summer. You were always supporting your groupmates and were never giving anyone a hard time. I definitely see the MLB in your future. Hope to see you back next year!

Ellis Austin – Even though you joined a few days late, it didn't stop you from immediately getting immersed with the group. I hope you had fun this summer, and I can't wait to see you next year!

Taran Dempsey – I seriously cannot remember meeting someone as kind and caring as you. You were friendly and empathetic to everyone in your group. Thank you for making my job as your GL so much easier.

Corey Gendron – You are probably the funniest kid I have ever met. You never fail to produce a joke when everyone needs one. Thanks for being a great camper this summer, hope to see you next year!

Blake Goldstein – I can't believe it was already your third year as a Juggler! Being this young and having so many years under your belt is extremely special. Clearly you love camp and I hope you keep coming back.

Andres Goslinga – You might be the best soccer player Robin Hood has ever seen. No matter the competition, we could count on Andres scoring a hat trick. You never failed to put a smile on everyone's face. Thanks for being great to have this year.

Freddie Hajaj – You are one of the smartest Jugglers I have ever met, while also simultaneously being one of the friendliest ones. You were constantly rooting for your groupmates no matter the situation. I hope to see you return back for many summers to come.

Dylan Herfield – Although you don't always like to admit it, you know camp is for you. You need this place and it in turn needs you back. I can't wait to see you thrive for years to come.

Archer Lengyel – Archerrr!!! You were certainly the most chill kid at camp this summer. You were always doing the right thing, and inspired others to do the same. Thanks for being an awesome camper this summer.

Gonzalo Lopez – No more nasty! You're hilarious, man. While it was only your first year, it seemed as if you had been here forever. You understand camp so well and it's great to see your passion for The Realm.

Holden Marcus – Despite it being your first year, you instantly became a leader of the group. Your passion for camp is so visible and can be admired by all. I am so excited to see you grow up at camp. Keep coming back.

Daniel Salajka – I don't think I have or ever will meet another kid with as much energy as you. You go into any activity with intensity, no matter if it is your favorite or not. Thanks for giving the group its spirit and liveliness.

Colby Spacek – I am ecstatic that you extended this summer. You put your leadership and sportsmanship skills on display during Green & White. Keep coming back, camp needs kids like you.

Krish Workman – You have never failed to put a smile on someone's face. You're hilarious and are always able to light up the room. I'm excited to see you return to The Realm for years to come.

To My Staff

This summer would not have been possible without all of you. Thank you so much for being on top of it this summer, making my job so much less stressful, and being great counselors for the kids.

The Squires of 2024 ascended upon The Realm ...in three waves.

Elad arrived two days early, full of energy and ready to jump into the camp spirit. Almost immediately, he challenged his brother to a 1v1 basketball game. Their match was intense and drew quite the audience, setting a competitive and enthusiastic tone for the camp. Shortly after Elad's arrival, Phillip joined the camp. Known for their strategic thinking, Phillip and Elad decided to play a game of chess. Their match was captivating, showcasing their sharp minds and sportsmanship, inspiring the other campers. By Saturday, the rest of the campers had arrived, and camp officially kicked off. Most of the campers already knew each other from previous years. This familiarity made for an easy and quick settling in, as they picked up right where they left off last summer. The only new faces were Elad and J. Walk, who quickly became integral parts of the group. The first week was all about settling in. We attended various activities such as waterfront, tennis, soccer, basketball, flying squirrel, gaga, riflery, archery, Senior Waterfront, and waterskiing. Remember when Elad turned into Shaq, or when each activity provided opportunities for campers to reconnect and bond? Elad and J. Walk quickly integrated into the group, contributing to the fun atmosphere. The highlight of the week was the Sunday Archer vs. Squire football league, where friendly rivalries and team spirit flourished.

In the second week, we continued participating in a variety of activities, including intercamps, where our Squires didn't lose a SINGLE soccer game and won every tournament we competed in, with ease. Shout out to Robert Buman, Jake Radvinsky, Alex Kesselheim, and all the players who competed…with the help of Kesselheim's average of four goals a game, this championship mindset carried for the rest of the summer. The campers embraced these challenges with enthusiasm, pushing themselves out of their comfort zones and supporting each other along the way. We enjoyed office games, 9 square, softball, volleyball, and team handball.

Remember THE SHOT for candy canteen, or when Robert and Noah showed remarkable courage during archery, while Charlie and Jake's enthusiasm during the hikes was infectious (including some of Noah's pit stops)? The sense of accomplishment and camaraderie grew stronger with each activity.

The 4th of July was another highlight of the summer. We had a day full of festive activities, including a parade, BBQ, and fireworks. The campers wore red, white and blue, and the entire camp was decorated in patriotic colors. With some ice cream and a lot of whip cream all over the place, I guess you could say they had a little too much sugar! We played traditional games, sang patriotic songs, and enjoyed delicious food. One of the highlights of the summer was the dance night in the third week. The atmosphere was electric, and everyone was excited to showcase their moves. Alex set the tone with an energetic performance that got everyone on their feet. But it was Juju and Mathew who stole the show with their incredible dance skills, leaving everyone in awe. It was a perfect way to celebrate before saying goodbye to our four-week campers. As we reached the end of the fourth week, a bittersweet feeling settled over the camp.

Remember Noah's awesome OHIO shirt! Or how clean his area always was…I don't! Remember when It was hard to say goodbye to some of our friends who were leaving? Ranger, Pierce, Penn, Elad, and Harrison had become integral parts of our camp family, and their departure left a noticeable gap. We held a special farewell campfire where everyone shared their favorite memories and expressed their appreciation for each other. Midway through the summer, we hosted a talent show that allowed campers to showcase their unique skills and creativity. Elad impressed everyone with his basketball tricks, while Phillip wowed the audience with his strategic chess moves and an impromptu magic show. Other campers displayed their talents in music, dance, and art, making it a night to remember. The talent show highlighted the diverse abilities of our campers and reinforced the supportive and encouraging atmosphere of the camp.

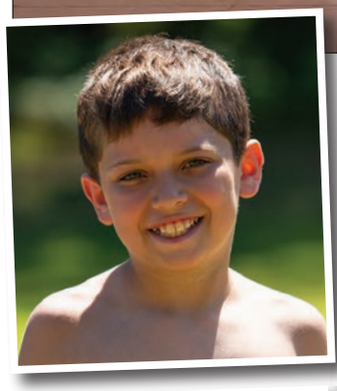

Green & White came around and the kids competed their hearts out. The energy was high and I had so much fun watching them give it everything they had, with White coming out victorious. The friendships only grew strong and stronger with the help of pickle boy and his adventures! What a year! We can't wait to see you all back…

SQUIRES

Holden Bash – You had a great summer! You shine in everything you do and are so positive. Your ability to laugh and make other people laugh is something everyone loves most about you!

Robert Buman – Your unselfishness is one of a kind. You are always thinking about other people and how to make their day better. You are a very genuine, nice, caring person and don't ever lose these qualities! You are so much fun to have around every day and I can't wait to watch you grow!

Avi Cohen – Your love for camp has grown so much over the summer. Your attitude towards everything you do is one of a kind. You are one of the funniest kids I've met! Great summer kid!

Jonah Cohen – The best smile award goes to Jonah! When you smile, it makes everyone around you smile. Not only are you a tremendous brother, you're a tremendous friend, and everyone is lucky to have you as a groupmate!

Pierce Collmer – I don't think I've met anyone who can keep a smile on their face 24/7 before. And certainly someone who knows so much about everything. Whether it be sports, Pokemon, or your personal favorite, Star Wars. I hope you keep coming back and showing off your football and Pokemon cards!

Charlie Corr – You're a silent leader, you may not be one of the loudest kids, but you surely are one of the most loved. You always listen and lead by example, and it's a special quality to have! Love you kid. Can't wait to see you grow!

Arthur Curran – Ranger, you're positive attitude and no questions asked mentality amazes me. You always follow directions, yet manage to make as much fun with it as possible, and always put everyone around you at ease. However, that innocent attitude can't fool me at waterfront anymore. I hope to see you during the summer of 2025.

Connor Deane – You are one of a kind. The nicest, most respectful kid I know, and the group follows you. Keep leading, keep being you. And just know that your kindness will take you a long way in life! Love you kid!

Spencer Dickerman – Your growth over the summer is unmatched. You grew from a homesick kid to the most positive, happy kid I've seen! I don't know if I've seen a kid grow and mesh into a group as well as you have! Keep growing and taking advantage of every moment.

Eli Goshin – Your positive energy is what stands out most. People want to be where ever you are, Eli. If you are happy, the whole group is happy, and that's something everyone really admired about you. You are a leader in this group, and I can't wait to see what the years to come have in store for you. Keep coming back. This place needs you more than you know!

Penn Harawitz – I'm so proud of you for growing. Your love for camp and making the most out of every situation, your positive attitude really shines and I truly don't know if there was a cuter kid in camp! Can't wait to see you next year!

Noah Hochman – How are you so funny? Whenever I see you hanging out with other kids, you're always smiling and laughing with them. Keep using that creative mind of yours, and here's to many more woodshop creations!

Sylvester Holz – Syl, your ability to connect with others and find friends wherever you went, always amazed us. You are the whole group's best friend, which is very rare to see in a kid your age. You always put others before yourself and that's something we could not have been more thankful for. Keep being you.

SQUIRES

Connor Josephson – You had an unbelievable year. You always gave it your all at every activity and showed tremendous sportsmanship throughout the summer. Your contagious smile lights up any room you walk into. I'm so proud of the growth you made throughout the summer.

Alex Kesselheim – Your ability to lead is your best quality. Behind all of the sports and goals, is someone who wants everyone around them to succeed just as much as himself. You had an amazing year! Never stop smiling, never stop competing… the sky is the limit for you!

Julian Klassman – Your energy is unmatched. I've never seen a kid with this much positive energy 24/7. You are always giving it your all and making the most of every opportunity. Your smile is contagious and you immediately light up every room you walk into. Keep being yourself. I can't wait to see you grow older.

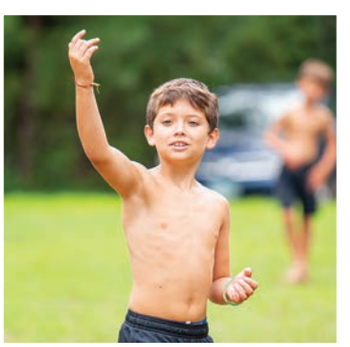

Harrison Larose – Your energy is something else, always up and ready to go! You gave every activity your all and never ran out of gas! And did it all with a smile on your face every time! Great summer! See you next year!

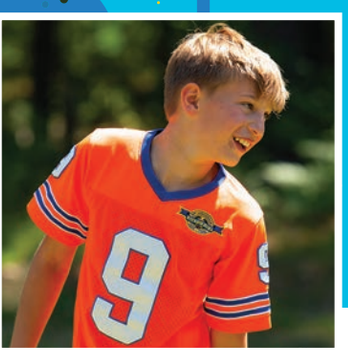

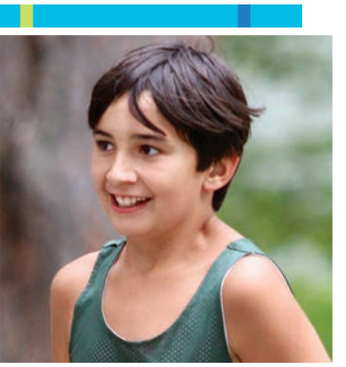

Elad Lipshitz – Wow! What a year. Flying across the world from Israel is never easy, let alone coming to a summer camp for a month, where you don't know anyone! You thrived from the minute you stepped foot on camp, always willing to try new things. And your ability to make anyone around you smile and laugh is something special! Can't wait to see you next year

Kelan Natauri – You are the bravest kid in the group. I'm so proud of you for staying seven weeks and making the most of every moment you had. Your love for this place is unmatched, and all of the staff will miss our nightly talks! Love you kid. Can't wait to see you next year.

Philip Pores – Oh Philip, what would we do without you? Whether it was your wisdom beyond your years, or your hilarious jokes, you always found a way to make even the toughest situations more fun. We love you buddy, keep coming back.

Jake Radvinsky – You are a natural born leader with so much to say! Your energy is noticed and followed by the whole group, and it's a special gift to have! Keep coming back and being the leader you were always meant to be.

Matthew Ross – I swear that smile never comes off your face! You are the most mature and polite 10-year-old I've seen. Your love for this place has grown and grown and Robin Hood loves you just as much! Your future is so bright and I can't wait to see what's in store for you!

Ezra Singer – If I am being honest, I don't think I've seen someone so young be so old at the same time. You're maturity combined with your athleticism make you one of the oldest 10-year-olds I have ever seen. I hope you come back summer after summer and keep splashing those three pointers in my face.

Jacob Sperling – I was surprised to see how mature you are at such a young age. You are everyone's best friend and you are an excellent role model for what it means to be a respectful, caring kid! You had such an amazing year and I can't wait to see you continue to improve and grow!

Dean Squires – You're honestly one of the funniest kids we've ever seen. You always managed to put a smile on the faces around you and we are so grateful for that. We can't wait to see you again next summer.

Lucas Waldman – You are such a lovable kid! You make every room you walk into ten times brighter. I'm so happy with your growth and willingness to try new things! Keep being curious!

Jackson Walker – I don't know if I've ever seen a kid in their first year fit as well as you have. You blended with the group immediately and became a fan favorite! I'm so proud of you for extending to seven weeks and can't wait for the future of your camp career!

Archers...

The summer started with a bang as the New York bus arrived and our group was united for the first day. Despite the rainy start, the Archers were ready for a summer of fun!

Remember our soccer match versus the Jugglers on the first day in the pouring rain? Our first EA, Fortnite, was a huge success and began our love for unique EAs throughout the summer. Who remembers our first meeting? A great success as we discussed the interconnectedness of the group and the importance of achieving oneness. We heard great advice that the Archers took to heart. You will only be an Archer right now, once in your life, so you need to make the most of it!

Who remembers our first paddle board period? It was a multi national conflict, with everyone taking sides. Our homerun periods never had a dull moment. Alfonso's homerun set the precedent after he told all of us he never played softball before. Who remembers Sammy's analysis of the Bows and our vow of silence at meals?

The Archers had a great time during the staff talent show, although most of the time it felt like they were laughing at the staff not with them…Our roll call wasn't the biggest hit but we still all found it funny. Remember our first campfire? It was a beautiful night and we all learned a lot about each other, while also getting to eat s'mores at the ODT.

4th of July was a day to remember. Remember the delicious food on the quad? Emanuel was a Saxon for the day and we learned that Cooper is an expert water pong player. Who remembers the field of bees and all the friends we lost there? The beach party was so fun and started the summer of BEACH PARTY. We kept improving our count off and we finally were able to achieve the perfect count off (after some practice) during Senior.

Our squirrel defense league was active throughout the summer with A Will leading the charge to keep our bunk squirrel free. Our bunk wasn't just where we slept, but also a fully operating salon. Who remembers Calvin's texture cream and his self care routine? Diego's excitement to explore new parts of camp during EA was infectious. Our trip up the mountain was fun filled, despite the heat as we scaled the peak in record time.

Who remembers our adventure to Kenwood for spirit day? We took on everything they had with the help of the Squires, and despite our slow start during kickball, we were able to come back during soccer. Diego and Epi's hat tricks secured us the win. We all came back to camp with a huge appreciation for Robin Hood. When Kenwood came to CRH, every activity had me on the edge of my seat. Remember our overtime penalty shootout to win soccer?

The Archers took on an ambitious dance and despite not wanting to practice at all, it still came together on our last day. We took the stage by storm and despite technical difficulties, we put on a great performance and received critical acclaim.

Who remembers our foray into North Conway? We got to see Despicable Me 4 and eat some great food. The movie theater was strictly enforcing their no outside food or drink policy but we found a solution. We bonded with the Tumblers on the quad after we met the camp from North Conway.

The end of first session took us all by surprise. Our group was so cohesive, it was painful to say goodbye to everyone who wasn't staying full. But we are excited to see everyone again next summer.

Who remembers our challenges against the Bows? NEXT GOAL WINS!!! Who remembers the finale when we announced our excursion? Everyone made sure to pack right away.

Who remembers excursion? The day started with a bus ride with the Bows to Water Country. Once we got there we explored the park and rode all the rides that were offered. The weather was perfect and it was a great time. After the water park we went to watch Inside Out 2. The movie was great and everyone stocked up on snacks! We got Chipotle for dinner then we went to Cold Stone for dessert. All in all it was a great day and we came back to camp in high spirits.

Green & White took us all by surprise at 7am. Remember when sleeping in shoes actually worked? Woody got us all down to the waterfront to watch an insane water ski performance. I still don't know how they got into a pyramid. Then the judges came down to the lower court on a trolley, and The War officially started. There were eight captains this year, which was surprising!

Who remembers the first soccer match of the war? Both teams fought hard and it really set the tone for a great war. Every activity the Archers had was exciting, everyone fought hard. The Archers weren't just confined to athletics though. Theo took a lead role in a Junior Camp skit and did great! On Night 5 the war came down to a margin of less then 70 points, but the White team won. Everyone was happy to be done by the end, but it was a great five days.

After Color War, we all felt the end of the summer rapidly approaching. We made the most of our last couple of days. Remember the spud coup? Surfs Up was pretty good though, right? We ended the summer with a combined Founder's and banquet night. Congrats to everyone who won awards! The final night was full of elixir and goodbyes. Thank you for such a great summer, Archers. I hope to see you all back next year!

ARCHERS

Alfonso Baron – The first time I saw you step onto a soccer field, I saw immediately that you were going to be a force to be reckoned with! It was truly a pleasure watching you not only thrive in a completely new environment, but being able to see the goofy, funny, sweet, athletic, and fiery kid you are, come out in every activity. You grew so much this summer, and I hope to see you finding your way back to The Realm for many summers to come.

Ben Bernstein – Watching you come out of your shell as the summer progressed, has been one of the best parts of my summer, hands down. Not only are you one of the nicest eleven-year-olds that I know, but I and the rest of the staff also had the pleasure of watching the magic loving, soccer enthused, energetic, and all around great kid you are, grow and mature throughout the summer. Please keep coming back for as long as you can, you are an essential part of this group and a future leader of The Realm.

Jake Bridges – Seeing your true self shine through was a high point of the summer. It was amazing getting to meet the goofy, sweet, fun-loving kid that you are. I can undoubtedly say the rest of your bunkmates would say the same thing. Seeing you try new things and go outside your comfort zone, was fantastic to watch. I hope to see you doing the same in the following summers. Keep coming back. You are a great addition to the group, and your presence is much appreciated.

Diego De la Vega – From the moment you walked into the bunk, I couldn't help but smile ear-to-ear watching your infectious energy and smile radiate throughout the bunk. You are absolutely nasty at soccer, a fierce fighter at Senior Waterfront. But most importantly, an incredibly sweet and kind kid who brightens the mood of everyone around him. I cannot thank you enough for what you did for the group this summer. You truly embody the values and principles that camp holds dear. It is so clear that you belong at Robin Hood, and I cannot wait to see what you will do as you move through the groups.

Theo Evans – Thevans! Getting to know you this summer was so amazing, you are so optimistic and positive; you always are able to find the best in every situation. It was so great to see your enthusiasm for every activity we had, and of course, your insane goalie skills. You are a leader in the group and I can't wait to see where your camp career takes you.

Jake Gustin – Your energy, infectious laugh, and overall great self were a huge part of the success of the summer. It was a pleasure to watch you go out and compete in every activity with a huge smile on your face. You are part of the glue that holds this bunk together. I'm so glad that you were not only a part of The Realm this summer, but also for many summers that will follow. Please don't ever stop being yourself. I can't wait to see what you will accomplish.

Samuel Kroh – Sammy, you are so fun to be around. The energy you brought to the group this summer was unmatched, and you always had a smile on your face. Your love for camp and its traditions really make it clear that you know why camp is so special. I loved answering all of your questions and I can't wait to see you back in The Realm next summer!

Charlie Levine – Throughout the summer it was evident how much you cared about camp. Your passion for the activities you cared about was contagious. Your skills on the riflery range were unparalleled, and your commitment was overflowing. You know what camp is about and you showed that every day, with your group and in the bunk. Camp needs you as much as you need camp. I can't wait to see where your career in The Realm takes you.

Epifanio Lopez – Epi! Your impact on the group this year was tremendous. You brought a fresh face full of smiles, laughter, and energy. You and Diego made the ultimate duo together, whether that was on the soccer field, in the water, or just messing around in the bunk. I'm not sure which was better, your soccer moves or your tetherball skills (I'm pretty sure the Birchmont goalie would say the former). But regardless, it was a joy to be around you for the four weeks you were here. You bring so much to camp, and I hope to see you coming back for many, many years.

Emmanuel Makris – Eman! No one can bring a smile to my face faster than you. Whenever I turn my head, I have no idea where I'll find you, and it was a joy seeing your adventurous spirit thrive at camp. Even though it was your first year, it seems like you have been at camp forever. The bonds you made with your group and the groups above you, really cemented you as a core member of the Archers this year, and I can't wait to see you next summer!

ARCHERS

Lucas Malko – You are one of the most positive, happy people I have ever been around. You understood camp from the second you arrived, and you made your presence felt immediately. Your enthusiasm for activities was amazing to see and you were always ready to give it your all, regardless of what we were doing. It was great seeing you fit so seamlessly into the group, and make such strong bonds so fast. I can't wait to see you again next summer!

Tyler Mann – Tyman, the goat. You always have a smile on your face and you're always up to something. You understand what it means not waste a minute and are always showing us how to live that every day. You are an integral part of the group and I know you have many years ahead of you. I hope you have a great year, and I can't wait to see you next summer!

Luca Miniati – Watching you join this group was amazing. You instantly found your place and became an integral member of the Archers. Your energy was contagious and you always have a smile on your face. You are one of the most positive kids I've ever met, and it was a joy being around you all summer. I know you love camp and I can't wait to see you again next summer.

Lorenzo Rodriguez – It was a joy getting to know you this summer. You are one of the most mature eleven-year-olds I've ever met and it was clear that you understood why camp is special. The bonds you formed this first summer with your group were unrivaled. You were an elite defender in all of our football matches and your enthusiasm during activities brought such a great energy. I can't wait to see you again next summer!

Tomas Salajka – We have Tom! The connections you were able to form from the first day you arrived really impressed me. You became an integral member of the group right away and made such close bonds. You are one of the smartest kids I have ever met, and I know that you found your place at camp. I can't wait to see you next summer!

Cayden Slitt – It is obvious to everyone in the bunk that you care incredibly about camp, and in just two summers, have integrated yourself into the bunk seamlessly. I thoroughly enjoyed all of our hockey talks, and just this once, I'll forgive you for being a Bruins fan. It sucks that there isn't an award for best hair on camp. But between you and me, it's pretty obvious that you would win in a landslide. The passion, energy, and discipline that you carry yourself with, have served you well at The Realm and will continue to do so as you age and mature. I hope to see you back in the following summers. I cannot wait to see what Robin Hood has in store for you.

Spencer Steele – Getting to know you this summer was such a treat. You are a natural leader and such a big part of the group. You are super competitive and always gave your all during activities. You are freakishly good at shooting in basketball and I lost knockout to you more times than I want to admit. I can't wait to see you next summer!

Cooper Thau – Icee! Your energy and presence were felt tremendously throughout the bunk. Your willingness to do anything with a smile on your face was a huge contribution to not only making everything run smoother, but to the overall success of the bunk. You are a vital part of the group. Not only do you lead in activities through your athleticism, but also in the bunk, with how you carry yourself with maturity and kindness. I hope to see you coming back to The Realm for many summers to come, and cannot wait to see the things that you will accomplish at Robin Hood!

Calvin Van Horn – Caaalviiiiiiiin!!!!!! Whether I was yelling your name to get on benches, or watching you score an epic goal in soccer, I never had a dull moment with you the entire summer. You possess a rare combination of physical and emotional maturity, as well as more camp experience than most Archers will ever have. It is clear that people look up to you as a role model, and not only do you handle the position extremely well, but you thrive in stepping up to the spotlight. You are one of the leaders of this group, and it is clear to everyone that in a few short years, you will be a leader of camp. Please keep coming back, The Realm needs more people like you.

Beckett Ziman – It was so great to watch you come into your own this summer. It was great to see your love for camp grow throughout the summer as you learned the ins and outs. Watching you loving activities like sail and paddle and Senior, really exemplified what camp is about. You became a core member of the group and I miss your questions. I hope your game is doing well, and can't wait to see you back next summer.

Yeomen

We greeted everyone with our fantastic sign, and camp greeted us back. What happened to the tornado? It was a bit of a chaotic start and we loved every second of it. The flying squirrel was an instant hit. We found interesting ways to make fun out of every period. Remember Rocco's caricatures? Someone needs to tell me before breakfast whether he's evil, nonchalant, or alien today. We ended the first week with Mini Hoop March Madness. Ali and Will popped off - Freak University will be calling.

Remember hiking Mount Bayle? The trips staff were glazing our hiking skills but we weren't fast enough to beat the pouring rain. The Fourth of July, beach day, and all of the intercamps were epic too – I hope you guys are still gooning. Evening activities were a highlight of the summer – camper hunts, skit nights, and scav hunts. Remember the giant rock you guys left on the far far? It took a while to recover but I'm sure it was worth the singular point. Remember fnooing with Chambers and our special edition episode of Shark Tank? Rocco's product for the elderly is sure to save lives. By the way, I'm still wondering who likes mail more, Tate or Lucas.

Maybe most of all, I loved working on the dance with you all. It took so much work to put together but the murder-mystery you guys put on, was worth every second of it. We definitely won So You Think You Can Dance. Losing the four-weekers was tough but we looked ahead to excursion and 'G and Double-Yuh.'

The 9-Square beef went crazy so we channeled our rage into a rap battle against the Quills. Remember the Frozen dance? It was a unanimous winner from the judges. Rain kept us in the bunk for a few but we endured with good movies, magic, and rafter-ball. Excursion and the sunshine came at the perfect time.

Remember The Excalibur? My group started in Funtown City USA and then ventured over to Splashtown. We went on almost every ride. Chipotle hit and so did the movie. We were so exhausted when we got back and knocked right away.

It was the first Morning Break in a while and it was electric. The waterskiers were sick, but my favorite part was probably finding out Rocco slept through the whole thing. It was a close war and you guys competed so hard. I wish I could have coached more of your activities, but I'll always remember hearing the songs in the bunk. After Green & White ended, you guys reunited so quickly.

You guys never took anything too seriously. Remember Rainbow Six in the bunk and the Capybara hostages? What about ultimate apples and bananas and Chamber's water?

As Yeomen, your understanding of camp and each other continued to shock me throughout the summer. I'm so glad that you connected with Dick and could be part of one of his campfires. When I come back, I can't wait to see how he has helped each of you click with camp. But moreso, how he has helped you click with each other.

YEOMEN

Levi Applebaum – Though you're rarely the loudest in the room, you grew to be such a big presence by the end of the summer. Even though you'd rather chill than play an intense soccer game in the rain, when it comes to everything that makes camp special, you always give it your all. I loved watching you go crazy in the rap/dance battle against the Quills, and at random meals in the dining hall. Keep coming back. You'll love it more and more each summer.

Paxton Bash – Pax, like many in this group, you don't carry a mean bone in your body. Among friends you're quiet but assertive, and a great leader. Despite your size, in activities, you're relentless and focused. I love how seemingly contradictory your personality is. Keep being yourself and keep coming back. You are so mature and content for your age.

Auguste Bealeavoux – Gus, I knew you would kill that part in the dance, and I feel like you have been dancing ever since. Images of you doing a head stand on the quad or the Gus dance in the d-hall, are imprinted in my brain. I'll miss your silliness, but even more, I'll miss those heartfelt moments when you'd show gratitude for simple things like a great EA or canteen. You know what's important, and that's why I know you'll keep coming back.

Alexander Callahan – Ali, I was shocked to find out the same kid who was screaming at me to put him back in the game, up nine with two minutes left, is also the most calm and thoughtful leader in stressful group situations. Remember that you can be that same poised leader in the heat of competition. You bring so much energy to this group. Keep coming back, I can't wait for you to dominate at The House.

Sam Evans – Sevens, you are one of the most genuine and kind people I know. Your love for camp shows in every activity. I loved watching you come further out of your shell this summer. You always do the right thing and lead by example. Keep coming back, this place is in your blood.

Lucas Frank – You're intentionally and unintentionally hilarious at the same. I love how creative you are in coming up with new ways to have fun. When things go too far, you tend to be a voice of reason. You're one of the funniest kids I've met, but you have a strong moral compass too. Remember that throughout your time here.

Morris Glaezner – I was so excited for you to arrive, and you did not disappoint. Though our time together was shorter than I would have liked, I'll always remember our talks floating in the corkls. You are thoughtful, curious, and genuine. Keep coming back because no matter how long you stay, the impact you make on the rest of the group is unforgettable.

Jack Grossman – It's often not how you act but how you respond, that determines your character. Jack, whatever happens, you always respond with a smile. You embody this group's unusual maturity, and I envy your poise and thoughtfulness. Carry that with you throughout your summers here and I know you will continue to be a force for good at Robin Hood.

Drew Hoglund – I never heard you go out of your way for someone else in the group, but I saw and felt it. You have a knack for knowing when someone's down, and you always swoop in, simply as a shoulder to cry on. I saw it countless times and experienced it myself. Your sense of empathy is unparalleled. Keep coming back. I know this place will return all you give it.

Harrison Klassman – Harry, your positive attitude is infectious. I was lucky I put your bed next to mine this summer because your constant smile always brightens my day. You lead purely through your demeanor and I really respect that. Keep coming back and keep cheezin'.

Alec Ladov – Boomba, when the whistle blows, you're the fiercest competitor, and when it blows again, you're the kindest kid. You have such a big heart and it shows not just in how much you play with, but how much you empathize with others. Come back for seven next year so you can crush it during Green & White.

Rocco Millite – You're absolutely hilarious in everything you do. You joined this group so effortlessly because of your sense of humor. Use it to reach out and connect to more people. You're an amazing person to be around because you never take yourself too seriously. I'm envious that it took so little effort for you to figure that out. Try to maintain that spirit throughout your time here and I know you won't waste any of it.

Austin Ponsky – AP! Sometimes too funny for your own good, you're loved by all of your friends, and are an even greater friend back. Your undying energy and charisma help hold this group together. You're a great actor and story teller, though some of your stories seem a bit questionable. Keep coming back and keep dancing.

Zach Radvinsky – Though you act a bit crazy at times, beneath the surface, you're one of the most easy-going and nicest kids. You're comically clever and bring a smile with you wherever you go. Keep using your humor to brighten other people's days. You're such a great leader when you choose to be, and I know you'll leave your mark on camp.

Will Reed – What are they feeding you man? Your sense of humor and constant energy are unmatched. You're hilarious, but serious when you need to be. I don't think you realize how much of a leader you could be within this group. Stay loud and come back for seven next year, camp needs you.

Taylor Richter – Getting to know you was one of the highlights of my summer. You're so sensible and considerate for your age. There were so many moments throughout the first four weeks where I watched you effortlessly resolve arguments between your groupmates. Keep coming back. This group could use your quiet, thoughtful leadership.

Tate Rosen – Ta Terosen! Being a new camper is not easy, but you wasted no time finding yourself a place within the group. While you're not always the loudest, your radiating smile and constant jokes, always light up the room. Keep coming back. This place has so much to offer and you're built for it.

Jordan Simanovsky – I don't know why you always look like you're up to something. You literally never are. You're the most loyal and supportive friend to your groupmates. I love how excited you get to celebrate their wins even though you're sometimes shy to applaud your own. I'll miss playing magic or just talking zlog and schlog before bed. Keep coming back.

Logan Slitt – Your energy is unmatched. I was amazed by your dedication to hockey, but even moreso, I respected your decision to stay past four and make the most of your time here. Camp is such a unique pause on our outside goals and routines. I'm so glad you see that. Keep coming back because camp needs you.

Alex Snyder – Shnyder, you're like a grown man walking around in a little body. Whenever I was unsure, you were always there to remind me what activity was next. Seriously though, you're smart, kind, funny, compassionate, and you always know the right time to be any one of those things. That's a harder thing to learn than any of those traits individually. I know you'll keep coming back, and I'm just as sure you'll leave a permanent mark on this place.

Ryder Ziman – I'm incredibly proud of you. I loved that you kept your waterfront streak for so long – I think every group should do that. You're a dedicated and ambitious kid. Keep coming back because every summer has something new to teach you.

CAMP
Robin Hood
2024

Robin Hood

METRO REGION ALL STARS
MAJOR DIVISION BASKETBALL CHAMPIONS
CED
2023

RVCA

Yeomen

LANCERS!!

Put down the magic cards, stop playing ping pong, sit down on the couch, put on your Lancer King crown and get ready to reminisce about the greatest summer of our lives.

Lancers, remember a crazy and enthusiastic group that stormed The Realm on June 22? We kicked off the summer, welcoming the New York buses and an intense game of spud in the rain. Remember Eli slowly cleaning the table? Despite the immense amount of rain, we still managed to have a ton of fun in the first week. Remember Santi's group in team handball? Instantly making him a force to be reckoned with. Remember the login surprise sound in the pants versus pant pirates? Remember Andrew sailing the seven seas? Sail paddle was not for the weak. Finishing the week off, we came up on our first Sunday Sundaes, shocking The Realm with our amazing Ice CREAM chants. Remember Iggy and Andrew being the dream cleaning team and Gonzalo just holding the broom? Remember snubs, elite and a Rizz tip from Jules in the scav hunt? Remember our mountain trip and listening to sexotheque the whole way there?

Remember Jake unofficially hitting trees, and Mabu popping off in the 4v4 basketball tournament? Remember Brian's crazy threes, and our challenge with the Yeomen (2-0 sweep)? Remember being exiled to the back porch of the dining hall? Remember Victor's crazy goals in inter-camp, and gooning against Kenwood? Remember OOOOOOO HEEEESSSSEEE and our count off PR?

Remember having an amazing time at the Fourth of July beach party and our senior death match for EA? Remember when we challenged the Arrows to a lip-synch, and Andreas becoming Michael Jackson? Jacob being nuts at wakeboarding, and the music party in the bathroom. Remember Leo's birthday tiara and him destroying Gavin in a 1 v 1 in basketball, three times the same day? Remember the Bingo tornado and the seven way magic game? Remember beach day and our three day streak of ice cream? Remember effort, and the spikeball game at the waterfront? Remember FNOO and Gonzalo's commitment to the needs of others? Remember Jake the tank in team handball? It truly was impossible to stop.

Remember PVD? We had an amazing time seeing our families. It was so great to show them how the Lancer kings do things. Remember the KG skimboard? Remember respect points? With the fifth week of camp upon us, it was time to head off to excursion. Remember going to the coin factory, then the US Postal museum, and finishing the day off with the custom stamp shop? That was a great time. I'M KIDDING! We started the day off with Canobie Lake park then off to see Despicable Me 4 and a Chipotle dinner. Remember the untamed roller coaster? It had all of us shaking in our shoes. As we returned to camp, Woody "tricked us" into thinking we had messed up big time, only to find out we would be continuing our excursion the next day, paintballing. Remember JC's last stand? Remember Mason being an absolute sniper while Zalo put his body on the line for his team? I think it's fair to say that excursion was the peak of the summer…SIKE!

As we got back to camp, tensions were high, and Green & White could break at any moment. Remember the waterskier break? It was definitely a break we won't forget. Remember Jake and Quique being amazing captains? Remember when Marksy transformed into prime Lebron James in basketball and Neil transcended into Shalant Neil? Remember Green & White soccer? That hands down had to be the most impressive period I have ever seen you guys compete in. As Green & White came to a close, we locked in on cherishing every last moment with each other.

Remember the Far Far Olympics and you guys all killing it in the gymnastics routine? Remember Eli becoming the sock wrestling lightweight champion of the world? Remember Jake winning the heavyweight championship with one arm?! Remember our last night campfire at the waterfront? I think it went to show how much we care about each other and camp. Remember the last night and Kreindler clutching up with McDank's?

LANCERS

Juan Carlos Hernandez – JC, your energy was unmatched. You made sure everyone in the group was smiling at all times. Camp is so clearly a place that you hold close to your heart. Keep making The Realm a better place.

Santi Claeson – SANTI, I was so pumped when you decided to stay seven weeks. You instantly became such an important leader in this group. Watching you compete in every activity was the highlight of my summer. Keep coming back, because this camp needs your leadership more than you know.

Andrew Coon – Mr. Coon, you represent what it means to love the small things at camp. I was blown away by your archery, sailing, and fishing skills this summer. I could tell how much you loved camp and I can't wait to see what is in store for your camp career.

Drew Coslov – You are the nicest 13-year-old I have ever met. Whenever someone was down, they could always look to you to make them feel better. This camp needs people like you. Keep coming back.

Leo Friedman – Well if it isn't my basketball rival. You quickly re-found your spot in the group after taking a couple years off. You were always there for your groupmates and it was apparent how much the group loved you. I'll see you next year for another 1v1 during Green & White.

Max Gottsegen – Even though you came a little late to camp this summer, you instantly became a core part of the group. You light up every room you walk into. Your love for camp is unmatched. See you next year at Green & White.

Bryan Haber – You were such a pleasure to have in The Realm this summer. Your curiosity and kindness gave you such a key place in the group. Keep coming back, because this place needs you.

Adam Jablow – JA-Clutch, it was a pleasure being your counselor this summer. I could always count on you for a good laugh and also as a helping hand. Your tik tok dance was unmatched. So proud of you this summer. I can't wait to see you next year.

Jacob Josephson – You are a key member of this group. You keep things energetic and funny at all times. I was extremely impressed with the maturity you gained over the summer. It's so clear how much you love camp and how much camp loves you.

Eli Kesselheim – You were such an amazing part of the group this year. Whenever the group was down, they could always look to you to spark the energy. I'm so proud of the leader you became this year.

Becka Kvirikadze – MADNESS, I had an amazing time being your counselor this summer. I love watching your tenacity and the way you compete in everything you do. I believe it is your best trait. I can't wait to see you next year.

Jack Lipton – Loptin, you have such an intoxicating personality and make each activity special when you bring the energy. I couldn't have been more impressed by the way you led this summer even though you weren't a captain. I know I'll be seeing you next year at Green & White.

Owen Madigan – Your goofiness and fun spirit brought a different element to camp this summer. There was a period you couldn't go without a smile on your face and it made the bunk such a better place to be around.

Ben Marks – Marksy, you were an absolute beast this summer, from being unstoppable in basketball, to magic the gathering, you give 100% in everything. I'm convinced you will lead this group for years to come. Keep coming back so you and Jake can be on separate teams.

Gonzalo Mas – ZALOOOO! Coming to camp all the way from Spain, you really blended into the group perfectly from the start. You have such an enthusiastic attitude and make the group so much better. Can't wait to see you in Green & White!

Jake Matsuzaka – The Tank, you truly were an amazing leader in this group this year. I'm so proud of the way you carried yourself all summer. Keep coming back because this group needs you. Magic tourney champs forever!

Mason Moore – MA-SON, the magician himself. You're such a friendly and thoughtful kid. Anyone could count on you when they needed a friend in the group. Keep coming back, because this camp needs you more than you know.

Victor Perrin – Thank you so much for being such a chill and relaxed kid this summer. You truly brought out the best in everyone around you and the group loved that. Your positive attitude and easy going personality made every activity even better.

Arnold Seiden – The man himself, with it only being your first year. Your curiosity allowed you to fall in love with camp this summer instantly. There's never a dull moment when you are around. Can't wait to watch your love for camp continue growing.

Cayson Seley – No matter the day you always make the most of it. You keep things alive and make sure everyone around you is having fun. I know there are many great summers to come for you.

Alexander Slayton – ZANDERRRRR, you are the funniest kid I have ever met. The staff could always count on you for a laugh when we needed one. I was so happy to watch you grow into a funny, outgoing kid.

Ignacio Urena – Iggy, you blew me away with how fast you became such a key part of the group. You keep things goofy, yet controlled always. I can't wait to see you next summer where we can run back our ping pong games.

Sebastian Urmeneta – Mr. I.L.T, you were such an amazing kid to have in The Realm. From your amazing leadership qualities to dance moves, you made the group run with ease. Keep coming back and hopefully we'll see you at your first G&W.

Andreas Van Rossum – MINI MIKEJACK, even with it being your first year at camp, you found your place very quickly. I was blown away by your dance skills and enthusiasm throughout the summer. See you next year!

Niel Varghese – Shualant Neil, it was a pleasure watching you break out of your shell this summer. Even though you came later, you made such a large impact and soon became one of the kindest kids in the group. Can't wait to see what you accomplish in your camp future.

Ben Vuernick – It was a great time being your counselor this summer. I was thankful for you being the voice of reason in the group. You always know when to stand up to the group, when you feel the right thing is not being done. I am excited to see what is to come for you.

Luca Wallenstein – You were such a great kid to get to know this summer. You gave it your all in everything you did no matter the circumstances. It's so clear how much you love this group and camp.

Wyatt Zabel – The FISH, you are the kindest kid in the group and a master of leading by example. I could always count on you to be first on benches and to listen. Thank you. Keep killing it.

Enrique Zubillaga – Little ZUBI! It was such a pleasure to be your counselor this year. You are the kindest, most respectful 13-year-old I have ever met. You prove to the group that you don't have to be the loudest to be the best leader. Can't wait to watch you build on your leadership skills for years to come.

LANCERS!

Camp
Robin Hood

BEACH DAY
EST. 1927
CAMP ROBIN HOOD

FRIARS

The Friars came to The Realm ready to rumble with tons of positive energy. All of the boys reunited with their old friends and were prepared to make new ones. Everyone passed the swim test with flying colors, and we started by playing capture the flag, Danish longball, and Hunger Games, a few camp classics. The next day, we got to waterski, play ultimate frisbee, and team handball until we saw some rain, which may have kept us inside, but that didn't stop the Friars from having fun. We played cards, basketball, and some much-needed rafter ball, which were a few Friar favorites in the bunk. We also were able to watch the last three games of the Stanley Cup final, which were great games.

As the weather cleared up, the vibes only got better. The boys hit trees at home run diamond and had splash wrestling matches in the waterfront. For Grant's birthday, we had cake and then adventures to the sandbar, which led to an interesting adventure. Everyone spent the summer on their fitness grind as some of the lads geared up to play in the house game.

Remember when we climbed Mount Major, played in flag football tournaments, and absolutely demolished Kenwood in a full day of sports? We beat them in flag football 34-7 after a defensive masterclass. We then played baseball and won 6-1, credit to the pitcher. It was a hot day, and Kenwood was complaining about the heat, so we gave them the sideline with shade and then proceeded to win 4-1. And don't even get me started on basketball because that was way too easy for us. We played two games and won both by more than 20. I remember how hard you guys worked and deserved that time to wind down, make s'mores with the Bards, and then watch the sunset together.

Overall, we spent a lot of time at the waterfront, and most of the group went "scuba diving" and mapped out Bay 2. We even did a scuba diving evening activity and, in total, collected 72 mussels! In the following week, the boys looked forward to going to North Conway, more inter-camps, and some hot weather.

Some more memories included eating the mussels we caught, which Yensi kindly cooked for us. The butter sauce was incredible. We also had an eventful challenge that ended spectacularly thanks to Woody's intervention. As a result, the Friars went bowling with the Bards, and the boys were live. We had a great night of bowling and pool.

The third week was filled with fun and thought-provoking moments. The boys were at a key point in their lives, with many of the group entering high school in about a month. Life gets hard, and we all get stressed out. It was important that the boys had an outlet for their emotions, which was why we did campfires at Robin Hood. We had a lovely swim at the ODT (outdoor theater), followed by some seaweed battles and more mussel searching. Then we began our campfire. We talked about camp, life outside of camp, and many Friars spoke about how camp helped them manage their stress and the happiness that camp brought them. The campfire was emotional, but everyone was respectful. At the end, we sang the goodnight song, and everyone gave hugs to each other. After that, we made some s'mores, enjoyed the sunset, and shared laughter.

Beach Day 2024 was a major hit. We joined the Foresters and Saxons and took Ogunquit by storm. The sun was shining, and the water was the warmest it had ever been at Ogunquit. We walled up, tried to fight the waves, and did some gnarly body surfing. The fellas then got some great eats while Max and Callum went on a run, but joined us later.

At the four-week mark, camp held its annual Parents Visiting Day. It was amazing to meet the families of the Friars and for the boys to reunite with their parents. Lincoln's uncle was a beast at softball, and Snyder's dad was an impressive pickleball player. PVD allowed parents to experience life at camp for a few hours, and many parents used the time to get active with their children. However, PVD came to a close, and some of our friends had to leave, but we are so excited to see them next summer. Green & White was approaching soon, and everyone had their own theories about when it would break, causing much excitement for all. Despite only having about a week and a half left at CRH, spirits were soaring high due to the excursion, fun new activities every day, and the aforementioned Color War.

The Friar excursion was always a trip that created lifelong memories, and this year's three days and two nights were no exception. We drove up to Crabapple Whitewater in Maine to begin our first overnight trip at camp in five years (first ever for most)! We dropped our backpacks off in our rooms and immediately went to a nearby waterfall to swim. We had a blast jumping into the water and swimming out of the current. That night finished off with karaoke with the Bards, and the boys sang their hearts out. The next day, we went white water rafting in the Kennebec River! Even though rain tried to get in the way of our rafting, we persevered and crushed the rough waves. That night ended with various games around where we were staying, including volleyball, spike ball, cornhole, and more.

On our final day, we went paintballing, and the Friars really showed how well they worked as a team after easily beating the staff in our game against all the campers. Then we got back to camp, and the excitement only grew because now we had Color War right ahead, as well as the permanent return of Snyder! It was so good to have him back. We listened to Spanish phonk music with the kitchen staff, learned a new old-school game from Dick, the hook had one more victim, we wore our stylish Friar jerseys to dinner, and we continued to build on all the successes and growth of the summer!

FRIARS

Sam Blacksberg – Whether he's chasing after a soccer ball or catching that perfect pitch in baseball, Sam's enthusiasm is unmatched. His love for camp and the great outdoors shines through in everything he does. The Realm is a great place for Sam and we're hoping to see him back next summer.

Hunter Bloch – Coming to us for his first summer from California, Hunter took camp by storm. From Day 1 he was an instant fit within the group and embraced the culture + lifestyle of camp. Hunter loves to go on the boats and wakeboarded for the first time this summer; soon he was an expert. He also likes to play softball and basketball. Overall, Hunter is enthusiastic about camp, and everything we did he gave his best effort. Hunter would kill it during G&W and I'm hoping to see him at camp for it next summer.

Daniel Bridle-Khym – Hailing from Manhattan, NY, Daniel absolutely crushed it at The Realm this summer. Daniel's always smiling with a group of friends, enjoying all camp has to offer. Daniel goes by DBK and has forged incredible bonds with his groupmates. He's a star tennis player and the master of nitroball. Unfortunately Daniel couldn't stay with us for seven, but still had an incredible impact on the summer. Fingers crossed that Daniel comes back next summer and stays for the full seven weeks.

Lincoln Decarlious – While he may not be the most outgoing person when you first get to know him, once he opens up to you, he'll be the funniest and kindest kid. While he's always down to clown, Lincoln will also be the one to pick you up when you're down. Lincoln balls out during team handball, volleyball, and his love for camp is unmatched. Keep coming back Lincoln, this place needs more people like you.

Ethan Feldman – Always cool and relaxed, one may even refer to him as "nonchalant". However that doesn't reflect on his effort in activities or inter-camps, as Ethan's always dominating. It's common to see the Cleveland kid cashing in deep threes or scrambling for a touchdown. Ethan is also very socially mature and helps his group out in a lot of ways. Keep being yourself and a positive influence on your group, you're killing it E.

Colin Fuller – Colin may be quiet, but when he opens up, his sense of humor and conversational skills shine brightly. His enjoyment of soccer and willingness to learn new sports show his adaptability and enthusiasm. Colin's thoughtful approach and gradual opening up create meaningful connections with those around him. His unique blend of quiet strength and humor enriches the camp experience for everyone. Hoping to see him for the 2025 summer.

Alexander Glimcher – One of the funniest and most creative people I know, Alexander brings such a uniquely amazing energy to the group. The leader of the Waterfront 2 expeditions, Alexander is always coming up with some new idea to keep the group entertained and close with each other.

Aurelio Gomez – All the way from Spain, he is known for his infectious humor and zest for life. His passion for soccer, volleyball, and working out keeps him active and engaged in camp life. Aurelio's jokes and laughter light up the camp, making every day more enjoyable. His ability to combine fun with his love for sports creates a lively and welcoming atmosphere for everyone around him.

Gavin Horowitz – An amazing friend and great athlete, Gavin really embodies camp. There is nobody who doesn't like Gavin, with his infectious laughter and positivity. While he likes to joke around with friends, he never takes it too far, which is something the entire group respects. Gavin certainly "gets camp" and I can't wait to see how he keeps influencing this place.

Callum Jacoby – You are crazy in the best way possible. You are a blast to be around and are somehow everywhere all at once. Always the first one to push the boundaries to see where they really lay, and the group loves you for it. Keep being yourself and experiencing camp to its full potential like you do all ready, and you will find so much success here.

Max Jelin – Jelin brings such a wildly positive, yet unpredictable energy to the group. One of the biggest personalities in the group, but we wouldn't want to have it any other way. Camp is so much more memorable with Jelin around and it is clear how much he loves camp.

Sebastian Kaye – Sebby brings an incredible energy to every game of basketball, making each match more exciting. His positivity isn't just limited to the court; he's always there to support and comfort his groupmates whenever needed. Whether it's a tough practice or a challenging moment, Seby's reassuring presence makes a big difference. His enthusiasm and kindness truly make him a standout camper.

Sebastian Khalil – Coming to us from Dallas is Sebby. Sebby brings energy to the group every day and regardless of the activity, shows enthusiasm. An incredible athlete and an already mature young man, Sebby's going to kill it in high school. Sebby, man, your energy is contagious. Keep coming back, this place needs you.

Zach Levine – Co-captain, baller, comedian, compassionate friend, I could keep going all day. Zach is a great member and leader of this group. He kills it in every activity, giving maximum effort, and is always there for his friends when they need him. He always has a smile on his face that spreads to those around him everytime.

Alon Lipshitz – Our Israeli king, it was so amazing that he could join us this summer. While it was only his first summer, he clicked with the group like it was his fifth. A force to be reckoned with in any sport, but specifically watch out for him on the soccer pitch. One of the funniest yet sweetest people in the group, Alon's future is incredibly bright at camp. Next year in Jerusalem!

Noah Lodish – Hailing from New York, Lodish combines his love for basketball and flag football with a strong interest in weightlifting and waterfront activities. His dedication to both sports and fitness is evident in everything he does. Whether he's on the court, in the gym, or enjoying the waterfront, Lodish's enthusiasm and hard work set a great example for everyone. His diverse interests and positive attitude make him a valued member of the camp community.

Rohan Natauri – Rohan's love for tennis, sailing, and the waterfront is matched by his vibrant energy and wide circle of friends. His presence at camp is truly uplifting, and it's clear that this place is his happy spot. Rohan's positive attitude and the strong support network he has built around him, make him a key part of the camp community. His joy and dedication are a true testament to the positive impact camp has on him.

Rex Perlman – One of the sweetest people I know, Rex brings a smile to the whole groups face whenever he is around. Rex is always incredibly kind to those around him and that certainly influences others to do the same, making this place better for everyone in it. Despite not being one of the loudest or most outgoing, his impact on the group is real and substantial.

FRIARS

Jake Ponsky – The mini pekka, Ponsky is such a positive force. Whether it's hyping up his teammates, helping back up his opponent he just took down, or being a great friend to his brothers in the bunk. Jake personifies camp so well, and it brings everyone around him such joy seeing him flourish in The Realm.

David Porres – Definitely one of the smartest in the group, Diesel brings a more laid back vibe to the group, but he can definitely turn it up to 100 when he needs to. He's the most underrated dancer in the group, and you do not want to face this man in chess. Big D is one of the funniest people in the group (especially when he crashes out) so keep coming back, there is so much love for you here.

Evan Ramirez – Evan's lightning speed and unwavering commitment to camp make him a standout camper. In just two summers, he's made a profound impact on the group through his dedication and positive attitude. His ability to give 100% effort in everything he does, paired with his supportive friend group, highlights his exceptional character. Evan's influence is truly remarkable, and he continues to inspire those around him.

Wyatt Reimer – Laughter and comedy are Wyatt's specialty. I can't remember the last time I saw him without a smile. Don't let his joking exterior fool you because he will give you the work at QB, and was dominant when we had our inter-camps. Camp is the place for Wyatt to be and he's an integral part of the Friars. Keep spreading joy and we hope to see you back at RH next summer.

Eli Rosenstock – One of the funniest guys I know, the room always lights up when he walks in. Eli's connection and respect for Dick, will take him and the group very far. While not exactly known for his athletics, beware of the kid from Maryland when he has a lacrosse stick in his hands! Keep coming back, camp needs people like you.

Spencer Sears – The nonchalant hooper of the group, Spencer is such a sweet guy. You will never meet anyone with more bracelets or jokes up their sleeve. Somebody who is always so kind to everyone around him, camp needs more people like him.

Ben Snyder – After sustaining what would have been a summer-ending injury for anyone else, Ben took only two weeks to heal before returning to camp and finishing out the summer. He knew he couldn't participate in most of the athletic activities, but it didn't matter to him, since that's not what camp is about to Ben. He understands it deeper, knowing that spending time with his brothers is invaluable. Ben is an amazing influence on the group and truly "gets it".

Carter Susman – Carter excels in every aspect of camp. He's a beast on the field, an amazing friend to everyone around him, insanely funny, and a great outdoorsman. Camp needs you as much as you need it, so keep coming back. Your best summers are ahead of you, and I'm so excited to see how you continue to shape this place.

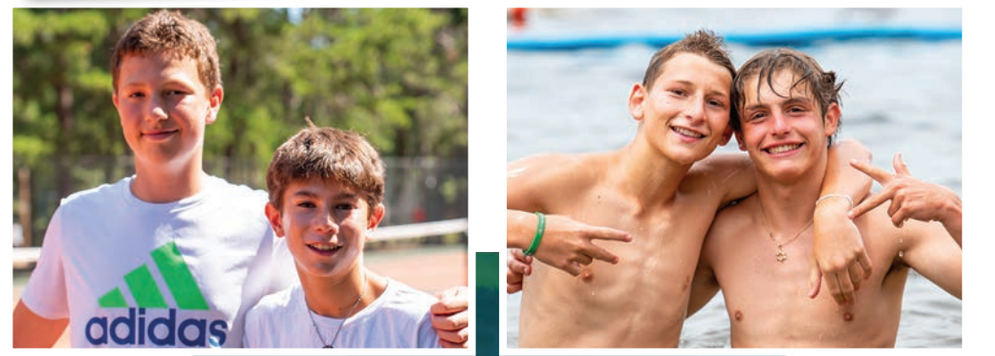

Grant Van Horn – Once you get to know Grant, you will find an incredibly funny and cool person. Always cracking jokes and making camp better for everyone around him, Grant is an ideal camper. He gets along so well with everyone, his subtle comedy is to die for. By far one of the most loved people in the group, we are all happier when he is around.

Hugh Vernon – Shoutout to the NYC soccer king, Hugh. We had a great first four weeks with Hugh, as he's always making jokes, but during team handball I wouldn't want to run at him. Hugh is a great fit for the group and we hope he returns for the full summer in 2025.

Lachlan Whelan – You alway brings so much energy and it shows how much you love camp. Whether it's team handball or sailing, Lachlan always sets the tone for the rest of the group. Can't wait to see you dominate The Realm in 2025.

Zeke Wolff – The other half of the outdoor boys from Denver, Zeke was right at home the first night despite this being his first summer at RH. Nobody can run faster, build a better fire, or shred more slopes (maybe Carter) than he can. A super positive force with infectious energy, times are always better when Zeke is around. We know you have many opportunities next summer, but just remember some of the best nights here, and I'm sure the decision will be a breeze.

MY STAFF

Thank you for making this summer as fun and easy as it was. We made such good memories this summer and I can't wait for the next!

Oy oy Foresters!

Put down your skimboards, relax on the Mojos, and no, we're NOT going to IKEA! Let's get on the benches and take a moment to relive the best summer of our lives.

We started the summer four campers strong, but that didn't stop us from having an epic game of capture the flag with the Lancers and Friars. As the New York bus rolled in, we greeted the majority of the group and the summer really began. Remember the swim test when Julian got his first green band? We were all so proud. Remember having sail and paddle every day? Remember during the first of many sail/paddles, Owen and Robert left James stranded on the dot? The Waterfronts prank on all of you that we had instructional swim, was a highlight our group had at the waterfront. Instead of doing that, you decided to begin your new career paths rock diving. Being amazed at the sized rocks Nate, Tyrone, Robert, and Luke would come back with, blew all of our minds. Remember when Julian was faithfull, because I don't. Cameron loved staying in the lab. No matter the time, Cameron was on the court balling. Our first game of Frocker as a group was electric.

Remember how excited you all were when you found out we were going on a mountain trip? It turned out to be an incredible hike with our amazing trip staff. Julian and Hudson both faced challenges up the mountain while Hudson was carrying a HUGE stick named Thomas, Julian attempted to walk backwards. When it broke three quarters of the way up, we referred to it as "AS". Remember our victory over the Friars in dodgeball? You all loved activities with the younger campers. You showed them the ways of being a great group. For example, pajama jumping with the Jugglers, it made their day. James Bond is a classic, and always known for picking the strongest team in Softball. Nate and Tyrone both hitting trees for the first time is always a beautiful thing. Theo was not too happy that period. Remember Tyrone and Jorge's English or Spanish standoff at lunch?

We started off week three HYPE with the West End game. The atmosphere wes electric. Cheering on the seven Foresters who played, was amazing. It was a hard fought game, and even though we ended up losing, it was a night to remember. Remember the spikeball series? Tyler and Cameron against Jerry and Robert…we're not sure who ended up winning. What about Riding Luke? It was amazing to support our friend in his passion at the stables. The riding staff really appreciated us.

North Conway for the 4th of July was so fun. It was great to hang out with the Shires, Saxons, and Scribes, and to enjoy the food and festivities Conway had to offer. Remember the concert? Hudson and Tyler getting shouted out on stage was hilarious. What about the fireworks? They were a perfect way to cap off a perfect night. The next day, Will and Oskar arrived, while Luke went missing in Spain. Remember when Nate went to the barbershop, and we adopted Emmanuel as an honorary Forester for a day?

Remember Beach Day? Owen brought his skimboard and went crazy on it. Riding the waves was also a highlight of that day. Our reverse scav hunt with a giant tarp in the middle, got a little fishy. How about the legendary bocce comeback against the Squire's in the Challenge Cup? Against all odds, we took the dub to qualify for the finals where we lost to the Quills in a very fair game of vookum. Remember when Alvaro was beasting on the tube? Jorges races against a Squire to get to flagpole first. Speaking of flagpoles, do you remember "sleeping" at flagpole for five days straight to solidify being first there that week? How about when Tyrone was happy to be at the Junior Camp talent show? Has anybody seen Luke? Or Dan for that matter…Remember Bill Geese? "So…I did a thing!" How about Varghese's fear of spiders? POP QUIZ… What's Hudson's favorite movie? It's definitely not Despicable Me 4.

Remember our performance during So You Think You Can Dance? We absolutely nailed it – definitely one of the standout dances of the night. And what about that unforgettable intercamp softball tournament at Kenwood? Julian kept us inspired with his motivational quotes, and Owen gave his all as coach. Then there was the emergence of Clutch Luke at the pizza place on the way back. Everyone was hydrated and happy!

PVD was a day to remember. It was great to meet all of your parents and loved ones. Hopefully you had fun spending time outside of camp with them in the afternoon. For the people that got to go to Chipotle, we learned that Mauro would like "no teese" on his bowl. We stocked up at Walmart, and got ready for the final three weeks.

The excursion arrived in a flash, and in just three days, we managed to pack in the most fun of the entire summer. Each day was filled with thrilling activities and chances to explore Boston. Remember the ropes course and the duck boats? We even ran into Travis Barker after our Fenway Stadium tour! Remember going to Raising Canes and Dicks? The concert was incredible – Tyrone and Mauro were totally rocking it. James had the best sleeping setup among us all. We wrapped up our adventure with a delightful kayaking trip down the Charles River.

Green & White arrived sooner than we anticipated. Waking up at seven in the morning was definitely a challenge, but you all rose to the occasion. Color War featured some intense matches, but the bocce game, where you managed to cover every corner of the camp, is likely the one that stands out the most. Another memorable moment was your fierce basketball game, complete with the legendary "OG with the body" and the classic "it's good if it goes" moments.

As the summer drew to a close, it hit us that our time as Foresters was coming to an end. Through all the highs and lows, we united and became the best group in camp. We'll always remember the thrilling Mount Washington race with Miles and Julian, the legendary Battle of Boys Camp, and Alvaro's memorable "free trial." Our final evening activity, a rainy game of team handball on the soccer field, was a picture perfect way to close out the summer. On our final night, we came together to play a pickup game of basketball and hang out on the far field. These cherished memories will last a lifetime.

FORESTERS

Hudson Berger – You are a great kid to be around. Your positive energy and enthusiasm towards everything you do makes you so special. Whether we are in the dining hall or on the sports field you bring positive energy that everyone can pick up on. Never stop being you!

Nathaniel Carrierro – Nate. Everyone can agree that you're a joy to be around. You always had something hilarious to say, and certainly livened any room you entered. Your maturity separated you from the pack, and was very admirable. It's clear that you love camp, and that you understand what it's all about. We hope to see you staying the full session next summer, because the importance of your presence cannot be understated.

James Cleveland – It feels like this summer, camp really clicked for you. You never stopped having fun, being goofy, and giving every activity your all. You were beloved by everyone in the group, and you loved everyone back. You're one of the few people who it's clear really understands camp – we can all agree that the group needs you, camp needs you, and you need camp. We'll see you next summer.

Cameron Emanuel – Although it's only your second summer, it feels like you've been at camp forever. You're quiet, but confident. You are undoubtedly one of the most mature kids in the group. You always do the right thing, stay in your own lane, and lead by example. Camp definitely needs more people like you. Stay in the lab kid, and maybe we can sneak you into one more West End game next year.

Alvaro Floran – Alvarooo!!! We didn't know what we were missing without you, but now that you're here, everyone can agree that you are needed in this group. It can be hard to find your footing coming for the first time as an older camper, but you came out of your shell so quickly – it feels like you've been here since TPJ summer. Your passion for everything camp was a wonder to watch. You really gave it your all, one hundred percent of the time. Keep doing too much, and we'll see you back next summer.

Miles Frank – Frank! It's clear that you love camp, and people at camp love you. Your arrival midway through the summer made an immediate impact. You give it your all in activities, are always willing to push yourself, and out yourself out there, and have a great attitude no matter what.

Oskar Goshin – Gosh! You're really that guy. Your arrival two weeks into the summer made an immediate impact. You brought with you a bubbly energy that people seem to feed off automatically. You're a leader in the group without even trying, and that's what makes it so special. Keep doing things your own way, because it's working.

Tyler Grossman – Your ability to be a leader in the group is very clear. Winning sportsmanship this year was well deserved. You are a positive person to be around on and off the field. You know how to make a room smile, but you also know when it's time to lock in and be serious. Keep grinding kid, and we'll see you next summer.

Julian Heller – Fogel. The energy you brought as soon as you stepped foot at camp was unrivaled. You're constantly having fun, and it's clear that people in the group feed off of that. You're such a leader in the group, and you use that power for good (most of the time). But seriously, your confidence is contagious, and, in the words of Woody, if the Foresters had a video game, your face would be on the cover.

Jorge Ilaris de Sangenis – For this being your second year at camp, you have seamlessly fit into our group. Your love for sports and your enthusiasm for every activity make you a standout member of our team. Your positive energy and readiness to participate in anything, have earned you a special place among us. We're so glad to have you, Jorge, and look forward to many more great times together!

Jack Illardo – Your outgoing spirit and quiet strength have made you a unique and cherished friend to all of us. Your love for camp and your ability to connect with everyone will always be remembered. You've made so many great memories here, and your presence has made our time together unforgettable. Can't wait to see you next summer!

Mathew Johnson – Matty Ice! The energy you brought right from the get-go was amazing to see. You were squeezing every bit of fun from every moment you were a part of. You are a joy to be around, and your passion for everything at camp was evident. You're one of the few people who not only loves camp, but really understands it. Keep being yourself kid!

Jerry Lewart – Jerrrrrr!!! Your maturity and kindness constantly amazed us. Always willing to take the hardest job, you did everything without complaint and with a smile on your face. Not only were you the model camper, you were an amazing friend to all, and an unmistakable leader in the group. Seven weeks is calling your name next summer! We know that if you stay, you will thrive in the second half of the summer, and big things will surely be headed your way…

Will Morrison – Although you came late, you got right into the groove of the summer. Your ability to fit back in where you left off, says a lot about your character. You are always the first to do something when asked, and people in the group look up to you. Your ability to lead is impressive, and Robin Hood needs more people like you.

Luke Orlowski – Riding Luke! You might be the nicest guy in camp. Everyone should strive to have an attitude like yours. You attacked everything you did with full effort, and knew how to make the best out of a bad situation. We know you're going to kill it this year, and we can't wait to see you back next summer.

FORESTERS

Mauro Perez – Maurooo! You're such a beast. Your maturity is off the charts, your competitive nature brings out the best in everyone, and your kindness is class. Everyone can agree that we're so glad to have you in the group. You always do the right thing, are always respectful, and do amazing in every activity. We could go on and on about you…camp is lucky to have you, and we'll see you back next summer.

Owen Rothstein – You're an awesome person to have in the group, and everyone can attest that you're an amazing friend. As your summers have gone on, you're appreciated more and more. You're such a positive, funny guy, and you're at camp for the right reasons. You kill it in every activity, and your passion for everything you do is infectious. We know you have so much more ahead of you at camp, so keep coming back.

Zach Tirrell – Tyrone. You tackled the summer in a unique way, and it was refreshing to see. You're never worried about what others think of you, and nothing can stop you from having a good time. Your quiet kindness was brilliant to witness. You really have no enemies, and are beloved by everyone in the group. We're stoked to see you back next summer – if you liked being a Forester, you'll LOVE being a Saxon.

Robert Torocsik – Terosack! You really are wise beyond your years. You approach camp with such maturity and kindness, and you do it so consistently that it's almost taken for granted. You are the glue of the group, and every group would benefit from someone like you to hold them together. You're an amazing athlete, an amazing friend, and a model camper. Keep doing what you're doing, and know that it's being noticed.

Benjamin Varghese – All though your time at camp was cut short, your impact was unmistakable. You were always hilarious, and brought a bubbly energy with you wherever you went. You always saw the positive in any situation. It's clear that you love camp – we hope to see you back next summer to pick up where you left off.

Josh Weiner – You've always been a mature kid, and that was definitely on display this summer. But that's nothing new. This summer, your fun-having, carefree side really shined as well. You never let anything rattle you, and seemed to have the right outlook about everything. Keep being yourself – we're excited to see you next summer as you continue flourishing into the amazing young man you're bound to be.

CAMP
Robin Hood
2024

What Up, Saxons

Ayy that's Rizz!!! Turn off Feathered Indians, silence the bird comms, and stop cooking ramen so we can unpack this lit crazy movie of a summer!!!

Remember opening day? The first half of you guys rolled into The Realm in style and we were off to the races! Remember our first game of barn volleyball? Fino may have fallen over a few times but it was still the first of many intense games! Remember the side quests on the first day? Those tents proved to be a challenge but in the end we were able to get them down. Remember Ayy that's Rizz? Gavyn is so lucky to be in possession of that photo forever. It's going to be worth a lot of money some day. Over the next couple days, Rafa, Quentin, Zane, and Buman rolled in and we were finally a complete group.

Remember staff talent night? You guys couldn't have been cheering louder for my flute solo in California Dreaming. I would not have been confident enough to pull off the performance without your guys' support! Thank you! Although I think you would have preferred if the song was Oppy Day.

Remember our first campfire with our TPJ buddies? Those little guys were so happy to hang out with you. Introducing the TPJs to all of Boys Camp while simultaneously building bonds that would last all summer long was really amazing to see. This set the tone for your incredible leadership and mentorship that would only blossom as the summer continued. Remember teaching the chants to Boys Camp? Remember Jack Chambers' new moose cheer? It never really got off the ground but we can change that next year.

Remember Reid's Runaway later known as The Clearing? Innovation that excites! Remember when we played handball against the Friars? It started off pretty close but it ended in absolute domination. Remember Jules vs Colton? Wasn't even close! Remember when I was informed of the curfew by Ian's friend? Good to know! Remember our Walmart trip? I don't think you guys have ever been more excited. Remember when Noah bought a two hundred dollar Lego set? Worth it!

Remember the 4th of July? You guys took it to a whole new level this year with Ian and Kag's Pie Royale and Rafa's Spin the Wheel being the hit events of the day! You guys successfully ran camp that day and every single kid had an amazing time! Remember the North Conway fireworks? We were able to watch the entire show despite the delay and Kramer's don't look down challenge made it pretty easy to stay locked into the show.

Remember our inner camp basketball tournament? Although we went away 1-2 on the day, everyone got minutes and almost everyone got at least one bucket. The big takeaway was our introduction to Coach Deric and we got our first insight into his extraordinary lore.

Remember Mount Washington? How could you forget? Holy moly was that an adventure. I think Pierre might still be on the mountain. Most of our legs were dying, but somehow Quentin remained unphased like it was just another stroll in his backyard. Remember the POIs? I think Pierre's Pebbles or Kramer's Cliffs were probably the hardest ones, but my personal favorite was Quentin's Quarry. Once we got to the top we all enjoyed some much needed fuel and then started the descent. We were on the mountain for a total of eight hours and our legs were sore for days!

Remember Beach Day? It was nice to have it the day after Mount Washington so we could get some much needed rest and recovery on our legs. The Foresters and Friars completely submerged Noah in the sand and Hamza bodysurfed some crazy waves. We got to walk around the town of Ogunquit for a little bit and you guys all enjoyed some Ben & Jerry's and chocolate balls from that candy store.

Remember when we speed ran So You Think You Can Dance? John and Hudson pulled up just four days before the dance but we were able to choreograph, learn, and master what Woody called "The best Saxon dance in twenty years". Kag and Kramer showed off their dramatic dancing, Fino got to be cheeky, Hamza, Rafa, and Hudson flexed on everyone, and all of you lit up the entire barn with our glowsticks. Truly a dance that will be remembered for years.

Remember our Wednesday work days? Although serving and cleaning in the dining hall every Wednesday sometimes got slightly tedious, going out to dinner every Wednesday night surely made up for it. We were able to go to Chipotle twice, Flatbreads, Jersey Mikes, and of course Fiesta Halisco. Fiesta Halisco night is one to remember for sure, it's pretty hard to forget a restaurant after sitting in it for three and a half hours.

Remember all our homerun periods? Buman, Perry, and Hamza all managed to hit trees this summer. Remember the Kag curse? The only time it was ever broken was during Green & White (fortunate timing).

Remember all the great rivalries this summer? The Hawk and the Eagle? Kramer and Ian? Hudson and John took their dance rivalry to the next level representing finesse and power respectively. John ended up winning it with power but it was an event that Zane, Fino and I will never forget.

Remember the night of the hawk, eagle, and gosh? The Hawk Hunted with a 99% success rate with Hamza being the only one able to successfully elude him. I think we all learned that Hawks see better at night.

Remember PVD? It was amazing to see all of you guys with your parents and even more amazing when Perry and Reid's family brought me a cake for my 21st birthday! The card you guys got me was so sweet, I had to display it in my area all summer. You all got to go out to dinner and go shopping with your parents, and boy did you stock up on snacks for the second half of the summer. Marquis was very happy!

Almost immediately after the first session ending we got to go on our Saxon excursion to Portland Maine! Robert finally joined the group at our first stop on excursion: Liquid Dreams Surf Shop where we all got fitted for our wetsuits and boards. Then we hit Ogunquit Beach for our surf lesson. After a few tragic wipeouts, everyone started to get the hang of it and we looked like natural shredders out there. Rafa, Robert, John, and Hudson looked like they had been surfing their entire lives. After surfing, we switched to Old Orchard Beach to explore the boardwalk, do some shopping, and hit the amusement park. Noah and Rafa got sus shirts, Buman, Reid, and Kramer fell victim to an arcade addiction, and Kag went on the spinny roller coaster ten times in a row without throwing up. Impressive and a little bit concerning!

Remember when Pierre didn't want to leave? When we finally tore Pierre away from all the fun, we headed back to the hotel where we got some late night Chipotle before calling it a day.

Remember Day 2 of excursion? We hit the water early for some good old Portland lobstering. You guys caught, measured, and taped up the lobsters with efficiency and grace. All of the lobstering worked up Fino and Kramer's appetite enough to purchase some seaside lobster to the delight of our bus driver. We then headed over to Urban Air Trampoline Park where we were able to dunk, play dodgeball, and do a whole bunch of obstacle courses. We met some cool new friends and Pierre even did a double backflip! After the trampoline park, we hit up the mall for some much needed shopping. John was able to get an entire new closet of outfits and the three amigos, Jules, Pierre, and myself made ourselves comfortable on the massage chairs and took a nap.

Remember Buffalo Wild Wings? A lot of you worked up the courage to try the hottest wing and the effects were catastrophic. Remember Perry, Rafa, and Noah taking down cartons and cartons of milk?

Remember when Jules mogged everyone by not even needing water? Remember the Ghost Tour? Oh my goodness, I don't think I've ever seen Gavyn and Hamza more scared. Remember Gordon vs Kag? That was probably the scariest part! Remember John's ghost story? I don't want to even hear the phrase Skee-Bee-Dee ever again!

Remember our final day of excursion? Remember Wolfe's Neck State Park? We were searching everywhere for an Osprey and only Gavyn and Quentin ended up seeing one. Remember Zane and Rafa's Brain Rot off? I wish I didn't! Remember shopping at LL Bean and the other outlet stores? Remember Jules and his microwave on the bench? Remember our return to camp? Our first EA back was softball on the Far Far with 90 feet bases! Remember Podl's amazing performance at third base? What can't he do?!

Remember our skit night? I sure do! Kag and Robert's portrayals were almost too accurate and Noah's grand finale is still fresh in my mind! Remember when Kag and Perry finally got to put chairs on paddleboards? Dreams do come true!

SAXONS RULE

Remember our Fri/Fo/Sax football league Super Bowl? It came down to Kag vs Kramer in a very intense finale, and Kramer's team narrowly pulled ahead for the victory. Remember Reid's Team? Even though we didn't win a single game, I still think we pulled out the biggest fleece trade in history. Remember when Milite got demoted as ref by Woody? Poor guy. Remember when Ian and I played 1 on 1 basketball? Enough said.

Remember our fake break? We got the whole camp, thanks to Noah and Gavyn's cracked AI skills. It looked like Speed really made that video! Unfortunately, the next morning we had to say bye to Hamza, but his legacy will forever remain.

Remember Green & White??? We were awoken by Woody, and Thunder playing loudly over the PA system. Don't even get me started on that sick waterski pyramid. There was some controversy about the teams and it took forever to finally agree, but eventually we were off to the races! Green started hot and kept it burning, winning 8/10 of the events. But every activity was close and you all showed your incredible leadership and athletic intensity throughout the war. A bunch of you even got to do some of the pump ups which was so fun to watch! I don't know which performance was my favorite!

Remember Milite's ultimate frisbee catch? What about Kramer's football performance? How about Noah Martin's all out domination in volleyball? Or when Quentin absolutely smoked everyone in the long distance run? What about Kag and Kramer's portrayals of Ken or Hudson and Rafa's dancing? I can't even pick a favorite! Remember tug? White finally won round three after the first two ended in a draw. But my favorite moment of the summer was after the tug, when we all hugged each other and became a group again!

Remember Saxon speeches? You guys worked so hard and they were just perfect! The entire camp was feeling the emotion that you guys put into those words! Incredible job!

Remember GL swap? Hilary for Capitan! Remember our pontoon boat ride? Remember the Ogres, Elves, and the coming of the dragon queen? Remember when we had to get towed back to camp in complete darkness?

Remember our last EA? It was in two parts and it started with an insane round of Hunger Games. Remember Fino's amazing come from behind victory? Despite his injury, Fino was able to win it for his team by eliminating Gavyn and Perry in heroic fashion. Remember Hawk Hunt? This might have been the best activity of the summer. Remember Quentin hiding in the tree? Remember John falling asleep under the craft shack? Zane and Kramer won round one with expert hiding spots, and Hudson, Gavyn, and Ian took home gold in Round 2! All thanks to the Kag Gun! Who won the Big Bowl in 98? Milite and Zane sure know the answer!

Remember awards night? Quentin started off the night right by winning Best in Camp for Arts and Crafts, and the Saxon sweep to follow was just amazing. There were expected awards like Kramer winning Best in Camp basketball and Hudson winning Best in Camp dance, but also some unexpected awards like Milite winning Most Improved Drama! The night ended with Fino winning Fellowship, and Kag and Kramer splitting Master Camper. Perfect end of the year!

Remember our walk to the front gate with Deric? I don't think there was a better way to spend our last night. I'm so excited to see all of you absolutely kill it on staff, this is only the beginning! Hawk out.

SAXONS

Hamza Abuoleim – Hamza, Hamza, Hamza, you rascal! I don't know what I'll miss most, your endless pursuit of a good time or your endless morning hair routine. Jokes aside, it's not easy to join a group of boys that have known each other forever, but wow did you make it look like a piece of cake. By the end of your third day here, it looked like you had been coming to camp all your life. You are so easy-going and charismatic, and that's going to serve you very well in life. Keep hooping, laughing, and being the mischievous boy that you are.

Ian Allard-Neptune – Despite missing part of the summer, the impact you had on Boys Camp was tremendous. I think the TPs trying to stay up well past their bedtime to wait for you to come back, speaks for itself. You are an amazing role model and a fantastic leader in the bunk. Although you love your sarcastic remarks, it's so easy to see how much this group and camp means to you. We really felt your absence when you were gone for those three weeks. I think we were all just counting the days until I got my co-GL back. In all seriousness, I know that we joke around a lot, but I am immensely proud of everything you accomplished this summer. From your leadership on the field and in the bunk, to the mentorship you displayed for all those seven-year-old boys who worship you. You radiate confidence and charisma, and you'll make a perfect counselor if that's what you decide you want to do next summer.

Hudson Brown – HTB! I'm so happy that I finally got the opportunity to be your counselor after all these summers. You are delightfully cheeky and so charming, that even when you're being mischievous, it's impossible to be mad at you. This summer you went above and beyond in everything you did. You learned how to surf in maybe 30 minutes. You were so wonderful with all the junior campers. And you choreographed the majority of our dance in 48 hours. I'm going to miss all your ping pong trash talk, your wickedly contagious smile, and most of all, just having conversations with you. Whatever you decide to do in the future, whether it involves RH or not, you're going to be a star. See you in the city!

Zach Buman – Some of my favorite memories of the summer are watching all those basketball and prank videos with you. You are a joy to have in the bunk, always smiling and ready to dive into any activity. You're a wonderful older brother to Robert and you were a fantastic Saxon buddy to Evan, and Saxon aide for the Squires. There's no one I'd rather have next to me in the bunk. Can't wait to see you on staff next year, and more importantly, when are we running hoops in the city? Gonna need my 3 point specialist!

Rafael Calleja – Rafa! You are straight up hilarious, bro! You are incredibly social and always making other people laugh. Thank you for everything you did for the bunk this summer, whether it be helping choreograph our dance, or cleaning up even when it wasn't your job, you were always around to help others. You also did a great job aiding for the Archers, and I'm sure you're going to be a fantastic counselor next summer. I'm going to miss your dancing, goofy jokes, and most of all, your incredibly hot and random takes. Hope I see you next summer at Green & White!

Pierre Der Megreditchian – I don't know what I admire more about you, your love for exploration or your uncanny ability to make friends with anyone. It was a pleasure to get to know you and learn a lot more about France this summer. Your genuine curiosity and adventurous spirit were truly infectious. I hope your YouTube career takes you far and that you never stop exploring and making new friends. I believe in you.

Zane Fishman – Zany Zane! I'm not even sure where to begin. I'm going to miss your endless love of puffins, pulling off your blankets in the morning, your fiery passion for volleyball, your copious amounts of ramen, and honestly even your addiction to asking me to look at Instagram. You are always optimistic, you always have a smile on your face, and you go with the flow. These are traits that are going to serve you so well in the future. Life is unpredictable, but I'm pretty sure that I can predict you'll be smiling through 95% of it. I think we all could take a page out of your book. I can't wait for you to impart all your volleyball wisdom on your campers next year! See you then!

Lucas Kaganovsky – The leadership you demonstrated this summer was outstanding. Not only were you one of the leaders in the bunk, but you were one of the main voices of Boys Camp this summer, always rallying the guys to do cheers, and getting the junior campers involved. You don't let anything get under your skin. Everything rolls right off of you, and that's going to make you an extremely effective leader, counselor, and employee anywhere in the future. Leadership aside, I'm even more proud of the kindness you displayed all summer long. It's easy to be kind to your friends, but it's more difficult to be kind to every person you encounter, and you did that this summer. Congratulations on getting Master Camper! You deserved it 100%. This is only the beginning for you, Kag. Can't wait to see you next year at Green & White.

Eli Kramer – When I first found out I was coming back to be your GL I was on the phone with Miki, and he said two things: "The group is amazing" and "You're going to love Kramer." First time he's been 100% right in his entire life. I don't know anyone who embodies the term Master Camper more than you, bro. You are an incredible leader, the heart and soul of every activity, and a wonderful role model for the junior campers. I hope you know how many of them look up to you. Your impact this summer on Boys Camp was enormous. I'm very proud of the person that you are and I know that this is only the beginning of your career here. Big things are coming soon and it's only going to get better. Lock in. You're going to be an incredible counselor no matter what group you're with, and I can't wait to see you in action next year.

BROOKS
BEACH DAY

Quentin Lacroix – I'm very proud of how much you accomplished this summer. You built rockets. You saw more stars than anyone else at camp. You completely demolished everyone in the long distance run. But most importantly, you cemented your place in the group forever. You are an amazing camper who truly cares about other people and about camp as a whole. I can't wait to see you be the best lifeguard this camp has ever seen, next year!

Noah Martin – Spartan! What can I say? You set out a goal at the beginning of the summer and you worked your butt off to achieve it. And achieve it you did! But I'm not just talking about the Service Award (which I am so proud of you for, by the way). I'm also talking about the personal growth you demonstrated this summer. You were a pleasure to have in the bunk, a loyal friend, and an incredible role model for junior campers. I saw you sacrifice numerous rest hours to play Magic the Gathering with Jugglers, and that's just the kind of guy you are. You put others first and you should be so proud of that (I definitely am). You're going to be a great counselor next year. I think we're going to see a significant increase in RH volleyball skill after your guidance!

Robert Milacci – Even though you weren't with us for the first half of the summer, it took you no time to reassume your role as one of the leaders of the group. You are a fierce competitor, a loyal friend, and a calming presence to have in the bunk. You always do the right thing, constantly putting others before yourself and making sure the entire group is doing well, both physically and emotionally. That's leadership. You were also fantastic with the younger campers. The TPJs that would always be climbing all over you, and also the Friars that you aided for. Every single one of them looked up to you. I'm incredibly proud of what you were able to accomplish this summer and I hope you at least consider coming back on staff next year, because RH will be better for it.

Luca Milite – You are such a diesel. I am so incredibly proud of how much you have grown since I knew you at SAC. You are a leader who never hesitates to put other people before yourself. You radiate positivity and charisma, and your leadership skills especially during Green & White this year were nothing short of exceptional. And on top of that, you might just be the funniest kid I've ever met. Never lose that joy because it's ridiculously contagious. You are the heart and soul of this group and it's so obvious how much you care about camp and every single person in your group. You're going to be an amazing counselor next year. See you then fool.

Reid Olynick – I don't know if I've met anyone more chill than you are. You never complain, and you can have fun no matter what you're doing and no matter who you're with. Whether it's looking like a natural on that surfboard, while we were all crashing or scooping popcorn in the hot sun on the Fourth of July, you always have a relaxed demeanor and are up for any challenge. You also have the amazing ability to get along with anyone, whether it be a TP, Yeomen, or Saxon. Everyone loves you and for good reason. You are kind, easy-going, and intensely loyal. Can't wait to see you on staff!

Eli Perrino – Perry! I'm very proud of the growth that you demonstrated this summer. Not only are you a great friend to your bunkmates, but you were incredible with the Squires that you aided for this summer. You may not enjoy every activity that camp has to offer (and that's okay) but you made sure that those Squires enjoyed all their activities, and you made their summer 10x better by hanging out with them. You are respectful, a good role model, and always able to make your friends laugh. Can't wait to see you back on staff next year.

Lucca Serafino – Fino! I don't know if there is anybody that embodies the term fellowship more. You brighten up any room that you walk into with a highly contagious smile. You did incredible work with the Archers when you were aiding for them. They look up to you so much and you're going to be an amazing counselor. I'm also so incredibly proud of how you handled adversity this summer. You didn't let anything get in the way of you having an amazing summer. And even though you had to miss the last couple Green & White activities, you were out there supporting your boys loudly and proudly. You're an amazing kid with a giant heart and this is only the beginning of your RH career. I'm sure of it!

Gavyn Shepard – Vinny Shep! It was my absolute pleasure to get to know you this summer. You don't let anyone or anything (boot included) get in the way of you giving it your all in everything you do. Whether it be you carrying your team in Green & White basketball or putting your architectural mind to work in various construction projects, you always give 100%. Always. You are an impressive athlete on the field, there's no denying that, but I'm most proud of how kind you are to your groupmates and to all those Yeomen that look up to you. I can't wait to see you be an incredible counselor next year and for years to come. We'll find time for a 1v1 at Green & White next year!

Colton Stratman – You were only here for one week, but boy was it a memorable one! Everyone is going to remember your standout performance in the West End game. But I'm very proud of the person that you are off the court. You have immense confidence and boy can you back it up. But you're also an incredibly loyal friend who will do anything for the people that you care about. I would wish you good luck this season, but we both know you don't need it!

John Zaccaro – Your strength is truly remarkable, both physically and in your character. Your help with all the tasks was invaluable, and you never once complained, even though you did most of the work. Your proactive attitude and willingness to help were commendable. The second way you use your strength is your ability to not take things too seriously. You are rarely upset, and you're always coming up with creative (sometimes ridiculous) ways to make your friends laugh. I think it's safe to say after this summer I am joining Milite as an official JG. Can't wait to see what you accomplish on staff!!

JEREMY AND FELIX – Boys, thank you for all your work this summer! I know you guys were very busy but when you were around, whether it be for EA, trips, or even periods here and there, it was awesome to have you. You are two of the kindest men I've ever met. If you're ever in New York… Hit me up!

Opening day was a tremendous success as campers arrived throughout the day from various states –

Massachusetts, Maryland, and New York. The anticipation was palpable as we all stood cheering when the bus finally pulled into camp. Excitement buzzed in the air as campers explored their designated areas, helping each other arrange their beds and unpacking an array of stuffed animals.

Our first camp lip sync event was a highlight, showcasing our collective love for Taylor Swift. Small groups choreographed dances and wowed the staff with their impressive gymnastics skills. As evening descended, we kicked off the summer with a unique activity: speed dating. Campers learned about each other's favorite things and shared their excitement for the upcoming season. Topics ranged from the exhilarating Flying Squirrel activity to Gaga (the popular camp game) and the senior waterfront experience. The energy was contagious – we couldn't wait for the summer adventures to unfold.

Pause the music, close the bunk shops, end the game of tetherball, put away your wooden electronics and get ready to relive the core memories of this perfect summer together.

As everyone arrived one by one I knew I couldn't wait for us all to build forever friendships and everlasting memories. Our group was made complete as we welcomed Joelle off the New York bus, waving our poster and cheering as it rolled into camp. Our little bunk for the summer started to feel like home once everyone had arrived, unpacked their stuffies and straightaway started making loom bracelets and opening shops in the bunk.

It all went so quick from then on. Remember when we had our first trip out of camp to climb Rattlesnake with the Tumblers and Scribes? Everyone fell asleep in the van before we'd even got out of camp. It was a little walk up, but the view was definitely worth it.

There's definitely no need for reverie in this bunk when Quinn's waking us up with "everybody wake up, get out of bed" and Maggie is wanting me to complete my morning stretches.

Remember every time we had waterfront? You would cover all the counselors with your creations of sandy water. I can still hear the laughs, and I'm sure, all counselors can still feel the sand on their skin from being covered. Also, remember that time when Juliet, Quinn, and Charlotte found all those mussels in the lake? We were so shocked. Who remembers seeing the snake at Arts and Crafts?

I'm still positive that we had the best 4th of July out of all groups. From Dani giving each of us a red rose to watching everyone enjoy the booths set up by the Scribes and Saxons, especially pie royale.

Then, hearing how excited you were to get married for a ring pop. I think everyone had blue mouths for the rest of the day. To end our celebrations we went pontooning as the sun set.

Remember swimming at Woody's and everyone doing George Washington hairstyles? Livvy, yours would always be so funny and your impression to go along with it still makes me laugh.

You all have so much talent; your confidence on stage and in front of others is unmatched. Remember when you closed off the JC talent show? Joelle and Juliet performed their dancing duet, followed by Grace and Livvy, each of you showing off your amazing dancing and tumbling skills.

The Junior Camp play of 'The Magical Forest' was a huge success, Quinn, Juliet, Grace and Livvy you all rehearsed during your free time, and it paid off. What a fantastic performance you all gave.

Our twist on greasy watermelon is definitely one to remember. Having no watermelons meant we used a 9 square ball and called it Greasy Blueberry instead. Every time we added more grease you were all screaming so much.

First position, arms up, plié!! Wow, wow, wow. That's all I can still say about the time and effort you put into making the routine for So You Think You Can Dance? I'm so proud of all of you for getting on stage and being absolutely fantastic.

I'll never forget when we ran around in the pouring rain on the Girls Camp Field yelling, dancing, and playing freeze tag. Remember when you all ran out of socks and had to borrow the counselors? They were so big on you.

We were so lucky to have so many excursions out of camp this year. Like when we went mini golfing? It was very hot, but Joelle and Quinn were determined to finish all 18 holes and then everyone had a well deserved ice cream. How about our fun afternoon in North Conway with the whole of Junior Camp to watch Despicable Me 4 or when we went bowling at Archie's. Maggie and Joelle kept getting the bowling balls stuck halfway down the alley.

To the biggest Excursion of them all. Storyland! It was a very long day but Juliet kept us going with her enthusiasm and positive energy to try everything, and all the slushy refills helped too. The Moo Lagoon was incredibly cold but that wasn't stopping us from having fun going on the big, big slides and avoiding the giant tipping bucket.

SCOUTS

Splash Battle – Pharaoh's Reign was definitely the favorite ride of the day. I don't think any of us came off dry, there was a lot of screaming (mainly coming from me) but it was so much fun, plus we definitely got in a few lucky shots at the counselors off the ride. Grace and Juliet, you overcame your fear and rode the Roar-O-Saurus Coaster and ended up having so much fun. We can't forget about the dance party at the end of the day. After Storyland, we picked up some McDonald's and if that wasn't enough, had Lickety Splitz Ice Cream as well. We all got back in the van with very full stomachs, hyped up on sugar and chanting away about "sitting in a tree." A memorable day all around and I'm so happy I got to share it with you all.

I'll always remember when we went PJ jumping on the pontoons and having Dunkin' Donuts. You were all laughing at me for believing in the 'no swimming after food' myth.

Who remembers when we had Midnight McDonald's in the bunk and looked for stars on the porch? Juliet just turned over and went back to sleep.

The anticipation for Green & White kept the energy going for the whole week prior with predictions of when it was going to break and the fake breaks keeping us on our toes every day. It's a good job everyone was sleeping with their sneakers close to their beds, as we hoped for an early morning break. Running to the waterfront half asleep for a Green & White skiing pyramid, a trolley full of judges and eight captains. The intensity was incredible, seeing you all put everything into each activity, sporting event, and the meets. The rain tried to stop us a few times, like during Archery and Riflery, having to sprint back to the bunk. Everyone's shoes were soaked for the rest of camp. It all came down to song night. It was a very close battle. You should all be very proud of yourselves.

Seeing how supportive you were of each other's wins and losses made me so happy. It's a week full of Fight White Fight or Go Green Go, but coming together as a group again and singing the goodnight song will forever be remembered.

Joelle Burk – Jojo what a rollercoaster your first summer has been. I think you proved to yourself that you are brave and fearless when you give new things a try. You should be so proud of yourself because I know I am. Watching you and your sister grow even closer over the course of the summer was so special. I'm so happy you decided to stay seven weeks. The group wouldn't have been the same without you, even if I did constantly have to remind you to walk a bit faster.

Livvy Hoglund – With you it's always "Uppy Uppy Uppy" and I wouldn't change it. You love camp with your whole heart and truly understand the magic of being here. It shows in everything you do, from the memories you tell, to the friendships you've made. Im so happy we got to spend another summer together. I'll miss our mouthwash competitions and saying " Livvy your towel " every single day. I can't wait to see you finally as a Tumbler next year!

Maggie Kvirikadze – Our shining star. I cannot describe the talent you possess. You amazed me every day with something new. Your smile is infectious and lights up my day.

You're so caring and selfless with everything you do, which is truly admiring. Seeing the love you have for your brother grow each day was so special to watch, and hearing you shout his name from the paddleboards was even funnier. Always be yourself, hope to see you back next summer.

Grace Nickerson – Grace or should I say Podl's Boss. If Newcomb's not on the schedule, he better watch out. All summer you have been fun, energetic and full of sass. Which is exactly what we needed. You bring the excitement to everything from stealing your cousins hat to your performances during EA's – there's never a dull moment with you. I'm so happy we got to spend another summer together, don't ever change. The Tumblers of 2025 are lucky to have you.

Quinn Saunders – You were our perfect joy from the moment you arrived. I could tell you were going to keep us entertained all summer, with your positive energy and silliness radiating through the bunk every day. Your determination to try every activity and push through all of the obstacles you encountered is inspiring. Please come back next summer. It wouldn't be the same without your presence and chaos, Keep being you.

Juliet Williams – You effortlessly spread kindness and care wherever you go, your want to encourage and believe in everyone is admiring. You were such a positive influence during Color War with keeping your team motivated. I'm still not over how many tennis balls you hit down during Riflery, and seeing how proud you are of yourself when you accomplish something new. You have to come back to camp next summer 'whether you like it or not ':)

Charlotte Wilson – As the youngest girl in camp, you took it in your stride, always giving everything at all activities. Pictures would be taken twice as you had the funniest faces anytime the camera was around, never change!

As you sit at home now, reminiscing on the summer, I hope you remember the time we spent together and the memories we created. I will forever remember this summer and how lucky I am to have spent it with you all. For the next 10 months I'll be thinking of all your funny stories, every push of senior waterfront and fearing the word "freeze".

I'm going to miss you all so much.

Love Always
xoxo

It's time for a...

TUMBIE SLUMBIE PARTY!!!

Put down your slime, finish your books and stop play fighting to Pump Up the Jam because it is now time to relive and recap the BEST SUMMER of YOUR LIVES!!!

Nothing matches the nervous but excited feelings of coming to camp on the very first day. Even though it was some of your first summers, you all came into camp with the biggest smiles on your faces. Whether you came in cars or on the New York and Boston buses, you were all immediately greeted by the campers and counselors with so much love! A little rain doesn't stop our energy! Alice had the best time playing in the puddles while we waited for everyone to arrive. Soon enough, 25 amazing Tumblers had arrived in bunk 10! After about 10 minutes of being in the bunk, introducing yourselves, and admiring our beautiful bunk decorations, you were already playing with slime, making bracelet shops, and coming up with the funniest things to say in telephone. We didn't think the day could get any better, but lucky us it was, Morgan's birthday was on the first day of camp! After a treasure hunt that brought you all over camp, you all ended up at the dining hall where we feasted on some cookie cake! It's safe to say that the summer was perfect from Day 1.

Over the first few days of camp, you all transitioned super quickly! We did our swim tests, learned how to do archery and riflery, and tried the famous FLYING SQUIRREL for the first time! What a fabulous addition to camp. Watching the new campers become accustomed to each activity as the returning campers continued to demonstrate their love for them, was so incredible to see. After one of our first trips to Woodshop, Chapin had already spearheaded the first official Tumblers 2024 plaque, which everybody was so excited to sign. But don't forget about the best surprise that the first few days brought us: RATTLESNAKE! Not only was the hike absolutely epic, but Ayla's singing in the car ride back was unbeatable. As Week 1 progressed, it was so fun introducing the new campers to the evening activities that us counselors have been doing since we were their age. Chloe and Harper, as the unstoppable partnership that became infected with the infamous "Meatball Disease," led an amazing game of Infection that you all were so into! Also, we can't forget about Hunger Games! You all being so into these active evening activities makes them so memorable and so much fun! Plus, such a memorable evening activity that happens during the first week is the Staff Talent Show! All of us counselors love getting up on stage and setting the standard that anyone and everyone can feel confident enough to perform in front of the entire camp! And to close off Week 1, you all finally experienced your first campfire of the summer. You caught onto the importance of campfire so quickly and we are so proud of you for that. As the Scribes introduced the new campers to Girls Camp and taught us some songs and cheers, it was amazing to see you all embarking on the traditions of The Realm that you will continue to do each and every summer. You all displayed your natural and instinctive love for camp with every chant you screamed and song you sang.

As the summer continued into Week 2, it was evident how close you all were getting. One of our favorite memories was the day we all went pontooning out to the main lake. Enjoying a relaxing ride and then jumping in and swimming together was such a memorable moment. Remember when we threw you guys into the water off the boats? It was also just the best when we went on our morning trip to play mini golf! We played a round of 18, ate snacks, and had so much fun with each other. Remember when Luli got a hole in one? But we were all clearly anticipating the best part of Week 2 (arguably one of the best days of the whole summer): 4TH OF JULY! After the incredibly fun parade, we went from activity to activity with Junior Girls Camp, playing on the inflatables, having a dance party, getting married, pieing each other in the face, and of course the epic beach party that ended the day. We all then feasted on the fair food being served in the dining hall and had an intense game of camper hunt! Despite our full stomachs from fair food, camper hunt was still a success. It was truly the best day ever! We ended it with an amazing circle time where we all reflected on our favorite parts of camp so far. Circle times after fun days like that have to be some of my favorite memories from the summer because I love hearing all about the progression of your friendships and memories. Remember when we went around and said our favorite things about each other? You guys have so much love for each other and it shows. In addition to the love and friendships among you all growing so much, what was so exciting to see was your relationships with other groups begin to grow as well.

Halfway through every activity, you began to beg to challenge whatever group was playing another sport besides us. Whether they were the Jesters or the Archers, you guys brought so much competitive energy and spirit to it. The Green & White intensity was off the charts for being so early into the summer. This translated into the Challenge Cup as well as our challenge against the Jesters. But, most of all, it was evident during Spirit Day! You all traveled two hours away to Kenwood Camp and competed with the 9-year-old girls in kickball, basketball, newcomb and soccer. It was so fun to experience another camp's atmosphere and to make new friends. Never forget the family style chicken nuggets and fries. A few days later, we played Camp Birchmont and we absolutely killed it! Your sportsmanship and competitive energy was unmatched. We celebrated with a trip to Cozy Corner that night, which was so amazing and delicious. Remember when Sloan led a dance battle against the TPs there? We performed our amazing dance in the Cozy Corner parking lot and anticipated performing it in front of the camp in the next weeks to come. Week 2 was filled with so many amazing trips, big moments and fun, but somehow, it only gets crazier in Week 3.

Remember our trip to North Conway where we watched Despicable Me 4 and hung out on the lawn? We ate candy and pizza and had the best day ever. Besides this incredibly fun day, we had a bunch of super fun days at camp during this week too. Especially at night, our evening activities were incredibly fun! Pajama jumping was a huge hit as well as the infamous car wash. Not too soon after we got to perform Girl Party for real in front of the whole camp at So You Think You Can Dance! I have never seen a more confident group of girls up on that stage! You killed it! It truly was a girl party! However, the fun did not end after the third week. We had the most fun in the days leading up to PVD. The excitement of the parents coming, kept the kids going with immense amounts of energy. Remember when we did sunset pontooning? The lightning sadly made us go back on to shore, but never forget Abby, Ayla, Olivia and Aviv being tossed into the water by Waterski Will! The sunset was also as beautiful as always on Lake Ossipee.

The days got better and better and somehow your confidence boosted even more on stage! Junior Camp talent show was a huge hit and you all displayed your enthusiasm and love for performing! The talent kept shining as Joey and Ayla killed it in the Junior Camp play as well. Remember when we got morning Dunkin' because you guys won Dunkin' on demand on the Fourth of July? Best morning ever! PVD approached sooner than we thought and meeting all of your parents was the highlight of the summer. Seeing you all interact with the people that raised you and made you the people you are today, was truly so heartwarming! Our last EA together was filled with candy and Snapple Caps as we complimented one another and listened to our favorite music. It was the best way to wrap up the summer. Four-weekers, you were incredible, and we will see you next summer!

The fifth week approached sooner than we thought and it may have been one of our busiest weeks of the summer. Green & White was bound to break any second, but the brass had to keep us preoccupied so they sent us on an excursion as soon as possible. The ten of you hopped in the vans and made it to Storyland! The best place ever. You guys immediately got on to the rides and knew exactly what your plan was for the day. You indulged in slushies, candy and all of the food you could find and really made Storyland your home for the day. The water rides were definitely a hit, as well as the dinosaur ride and bamboo chute! It is safe to say you all had the best time ever. To top it off, at the end we got a special performance from Cinderella, Peter Pan and others, as they danced and sang to us as our finale at Storyland. We then hopped in the vans to McDonald's where you all got your own happy meals. We have never seen you guys happier than when those happy meals were placed in front of you. This day was truly filled with delicious treats and it did not end at McDonald's. After we headed to Lickety Splitz where we got ice cream, and played on the playground! Our bellies were definitely full after this day, but it did not end at ice cream. We headed back to camp for the night and went to the lodge to watch your favorite movie, Parent Trap! Excursion was more fun than we could have ever hoped for! The day after excursion was rainy, but full of fun. We watched The Rise of Gru in the lodge and indulged in our candy. Later that night, we played in the mud, and the week just kept getting more fun as Alice's birthday approached so quickly!

As if Alice's birthday wasn't enough, Quinn turned 10 as well! We had an amazing day full of Quinn's favorite activities, and cookie cake at lunch. But the night was truly the highlight. We did a makeover with the Bards and you made them look fantastic. I have never seen them look crazier. The Bards and Tumblers are definitely a power duo. After the makeover we headed to the bunk and got Pizza Barn with a classic camp tradition of M&M's on our pizza. The day was perfect, and don't forget the fake break that day at lunch. Yensi drove that car like a pro race car driver! We were sure the real break was coming soon.

The day after we had a normal day of activities and learned that we were going to the Freedom Parade that celebrated 125 years of Freedom, New Hampshire. Additionally, the anticipation of Green & White became even higher as the Scraxons carried out their fake break at dinner! They had you all fooled. We made amazing posters with a concentration on camp and being kind to others, and fell asleep that night ready to celebrate. The next morning we hopped on the bus with the Scouts, Jugglers, TPS, Saxons and Scribes and had the time of our lives. We passed out candy and got to ride on the back of the trucks! It was so fun! After our parade we returned to camp and had a beach party with the Scouts and Jesters! The day got even better as we had a dance party at lunch and had senior waterfront for the third day in a row! Predictions for when Green & White was going to break kept getting crazier, and we kept an eye on every single move the brass made. Sneakers stayed on our feet at all times (except for Serena and Alice, who chose to be barefoot at all times).

Time flew before our eyes and the morning of July 29, Green & White broke! We were awakened by Woody's voice telling us to go to the waterfront and that it was Green & White! We rushed to the waterfront, eyes still trying to open and morning breath potent, and we were surprised to see waterski pyramids and then a trolley full of judges. The fun did not end as we were shocked to see eight captains called, and shortly after the war began. Our captains Harper and Serena quickly began to lead the group and Green & White was in full swing! The Scumblers absolutely killed it. Seeing you guys compete was the highlight of our summer. Your sportsmanship and love for Green & White was unmatched. From cookie cake decorating to an awesome game of kickball, you guys competed with amazing intensity and still had so much fun. Even though White won, both teams had the times of our lives.

After Green & White, time flew by. We anticipated our days ending in The Realm and lived every moment to its fullest. A common trend in the last few days also happened to be food, as we took our final trip to Cozy with the Jesters, received Pizza Barn for Jordi's birthday, and indulged in some midnight McDonald's (even though Joey and Alice slept through it). GL Swap day was a success! When I say M you say C! MC! Founders Night was amazing as we made our infamous Ice sign (thank god the ice machine can now be identified) and Alice presented her sign for Andy. We sang our final goodnight song and went back to the bunk to "pull an all-nighter" when in reality you were all asleep by 12:00. We woke up the next morning to say goodbye to Quinn at 5:00 am, and before we knew it, you were all gone.

Remember when Abbey wasn't absolutely dominating us in every sport? Addie wasn't smiling? Alice wasn't knee deep in the mud? Ari wasn't flipping and tumbling? Audrey wasn't smiling and giggling constantly? Aviv wasn't prying into Morgan's love life? Ayla wasn't dancing? Blakely wasn't wearing the cutest outfits? Chapin wasn't reading us her letters from her uncle? Chloe wasn't cartwheeling? Hannah wasn't playing with her slime? Harper wasn't the queen of Gaga? Joey wasn't begging to go to riflery? Jordi wasn't giggling? Kailey wasn't having everyone's backs? Kennedy wasn't giving massages? Lielle wasn't talking at the speed of light? Liv wasn't the biggest Taylor Swift fan? Luli wasn't wearing her green towel dress? Mary wasn't talking in her funny voice? Olivia wasn't pretending to be a yoga mom? Quinn wasn't dying laughing on the floor of the bunk? Serena wasn't walking to the waterfront barefoot every period? Sloan wasn't joking around about her "Super Goop?" Tribeca wasn't constantly giving everything as our sass queen? WE DON'T!!!!

TUMBLERS

Tribeca Baker – You are the human form of sunshine. No matter what was going on at camp, we could always rely on you to be a positive light for everyone around you. Whether it was in our group or truly anyone in camp, you made such a mark here. We can't wait to see you come back to The Realm forever and continue to touch the hearts of more and more people.

Audrey Bridges – You are such a naturally outgoing and social person, it was shocking to know that it was your first summer at camp. We loved watching you build relationships with every girl in the group with ease, while always being so inclusive and kind. We can't wait to see all the amazing things that you do at camp next year and all of the years to come.

Leille Burk – We are so proud of you. We know adjusting to this new foreign place was weird, but you did it with such ease and confidence. Seeing you find your love for camp was the highlight of our summer, and you fit into this group so amazingly. Keep coming back, and always remember camp is here for you.

Serena Cheney – Every time we look at you we smile. You are a constant light in this group and your happiness is contagious. Your kindness and deep love for this place show so evidently; you have an amazing future at camp. Never stop coming back because you are a core part of this group.

Abbey Cox – You are so mature for your age and your athletic skills at your age are insane! You are so kind to everyone and are genuinely a core part of this group. Your laughter fills a room and it has been a pleasure watching you thrive this summer. Never stop coming back because camp needs you and so does your group!

Kennedy Cybul – Coming in as a new kid, we are so proud and impressed at how you carried yourself this summer. Even though you came in already knowing Chapin, that didn't stop you from forming strong and meaningful relationships with everyone in the group. Thank you for always showing your love and putting smiles on peoples faces. We can't wait to see you thrive here every summer.

Luli Dolega – You are the most natural camp person we have ever met. You are so funny, kind, and outgoing in everything you do, all while staying true to yourself through and through. Thank you for your constant good attitude and positivity, that makes being a counselor so rewarding. Never stop coming back to camp because you truly belong here.

Liv Gomez – Throughout these four weeks of getting to know you, we watched a sweet but somewhat shy girl emerge into a hilarious, outgoing camper that is a perfect fit for Robin Hood. Thank you for giving camp a chance and putting yourself out of your comfort zone every day. We can't wait to see what you continue to do at camp every year to come.

Aviv Gray – You never fail to put a smile on everybody's faces by just being yourself. Whether you are being silly, sassy, or just walking up to us to give a big hug, you always make our days brighter. You collect friends by the minute and we loved watching you nurture the friends you made last year, while creating so many new, strong bonds. You are going to absolutely kill it throughout your camper career and we cannot wait to watch it happen.

Alice Greenbaum – We have already told you multiple times, but you are the definition of camp. You constantly keep us going and your love for this place is just so evident. Your speeches never cease to amaze us, and your maturity this year was not looked past. You are such an amazing kid, keep coming back, camp needs more Alice's.

Chapin Gresens – Your energy is unmatched and your personality is like no other. The love you have for camp is shown in everything you do, and this group is lucky to have you and your odd noises you make at random times. You are so incredibly kind. Remember to never stop coming back.

Quinn Horowitz – Quinnie, you made our lives so fulfilling and fun every single day. Your love for camp is so evident and contagious. You have the most natural kindness and emotional intelligence when it comes to how you carry yourself within the group. Thank you for being a light with your positivity, and always having a smile on your face. Never stop having laugh attacks while rolling on the floor. I'll see you in 50+ years when you're still coming back to camp.

Harper Jacobs – You are a leader of this group in only the best ways. You are humble and silent, yet incredibly impactful. Your smile is beautiful and your love for camp is so big. You are so kind to everyone and we knew we could always count on you. Never stop coming back because this camp needs you.

Arianna Kamat – Your development at camp was one of the best ones we have ever seen from a camper. Watching you evolve at the beginning of the summer to being such a reliable and mature girl in this group, was so amazing to see. We are truly so impressed by your ability to be so humble at such a young age. Please keep coming back and showing off your gymnastics skills.

Sloan Kroh – Our hilarious, sassy, and sweet Sloanie. You are the most emotionally intelligent 9-year-old that we have ever met. Getting to know your ins and outs throughout the summer was such a pleasure. Keep coming back forever because you are such an amazing addition to this group.

Olivia Leebow – You're a star on stage, in the bunk, and on the field. You always try your hardest in everything you compete in, and put all of your energy into each activity. Seeing you shine this summer in the talent show was a big highlight, and we know we can always count on you for a good laugh. You're so mature, and belong at camp. Please never stop coming back!

Joey Mann – Your energy and love for this place is evident in everything you do. You're constantly eager and anticipating the next activity, and you keep the group going. We cannot wait to see you grow up at camp. You have a bright future ahead.

Blakely Osky – It was so amazing watching you fit right in and so quickly learn to understand camp and absolutely thrive. That is what camp is all about. We love your huge personality and and we hope you keep coming back and letting it shine. Keep coming back because you will thrive here.

Chloe Pickhaver – Any counselor hopes to have a group full of girls like you, Chloe. Thank you for all of your maturity that is so evident within everything you do. You are so kind and caring about the girls around you, not to mention, hilarious! We hope to see you and your kangaroo impressions for many summers to come.

TUMBLERS

Ayla Raivich – You are such an amazing kid. You are constantly worrying about others and making sure everyone around you is okay, but continue to have a smile on your face at all times. Your personality is what completes this group, and remember that camp is your place. Don't stop coming back!

Kailey Rosen – We love how sweet and funny you are, but our favorite thing about you has to be what kind of friend you are. Your intentions are always good, your heart is so kind and caring, and we know that you have the backs of every girl in this group. Thank you for being who you are, and keep coming back to The Realm forever.

Hannah Seley – Ever since your first Scout summer, we have loved seeing the way you grew and developed at camp. Even though we cannot get you away from the tetherball ever, we thank you for getting into every single activity and bringing so much intensity. Keep coming back to The Realm forever and ever.

Jordanna Squires – Jordi!!! You are a ray of sunshine. We could always count on you to listen when we needed, and for you to bring a wave of fun when we were down. We have never seen anyone come in and take camp by a storm quite like you did. This place is truly made for you, so don't stop coming back.

Adeline Stone – You are a girl who is always ready to put a smile on your face. Your positivity and silliness is contagious for the group, as well as all of us counselors. It was so amazing getting to know that side of you in addition to your deeper, emotional side. Please keep coming back to camp because The Realm needs a simple, happy girl like you.

Marietta Touw – We have never seen a new camper fit in so well into a pre-existing group, while being so naturally inclusive to the other new campers as well. You are the silliest and craziest Tumbler, bringing so much happiness and fun to the group. Keep being your wild, fun self forever. We can't wait to see you thrive at camp in future years.

To Our Staff –

Thank you for being supportive in every way we could possibly ask for. You guys never failed to amaze us and you did so well with the kids.You really stepped up to the plate when we needed you and we appreciate it so much. Remember that we are always here for you whether it be over the year, or at camp. We may have been the most stacked staff this camp has ever seen. Thank you for everything. It was so amazing getting closer with you all this summer.

TO THE TUMBLERS OF 2024 AND SCRIBES OF 2031

This summer was truly remarkable. Your group's energy and love for each other is so evident in everything you do, and we are so happy to have gotten to know you better. You guys have so much time ahead of you, but it will fly by, so cherish it forever. You all love camp so much and any counselor is lucky to have you (no matter how messy you are). We love you forever and always, and we will see you next summer as Jesters of 2025!

TUMBIE SLUMBIE PARTY OUT!!!

jesters

BY NOW, YOU ARE ALL BACK HOME WITH YOUR LIVES DRIVEN BY SCHOOL, BUT LET'S TAKE A PAUSE FROM YOUR HOMEWORK TO RELIVE the best summer yet.

Coming together the first day, I was nervous as I did not know many of you. Nonetheless, each of you jumped out of your cars and gave me the biggest hug and smile when I said I was your group leader. Maya was the first camper as she came in at almost midnight a night early. But after hearing her laughter and seeing her smile as she leaped out of the van, I knew the summer would be amazing. On opening day we all woke up at 8 am, filled with so much excitement to see everyone. As I sprinted back and forth from the bunk to the barn in the pouring rain, I had the pleasure of being the first person to welcome you to your Jester summer. As more cars, vans, and buses pulled under the camp sign, our family in Bunk 4.5 slowly became complete, and the best summer ever was about to begin!

Remember staff talent show? It was on one of the first nights of camp and you all got to see all of the counselors make big fools of themselves on stage! We all did dances, there was also some singing, and I loved watching you all cheer people on and get into it. Thank you for supporting all of your counselors on stage!

Remember the first campfire? It was so fun getting picked up by the Scribes at our bunk and walking down to the waterfront together singing songs.

Remember when we hiked Green Mountain? I know we were surprised to hear that we were not hiking Rattlesnake, but we all still went into the trip excited and enthusiastic. It was (very) hot, and with only a few breaks and lots of good music, we made it up to the top! The hike was much harder than Rattlesnake, and I am so proud of everyone for pushing through and making it to the top to climb the tower and see the view.

Remember when we went mini-golfing? We were the only group to go that day, so we got the course to ourselves! Everyone went around all 18 holes, and although a lot of golf balls ended up in the waterfall, everyone finished in the end with smiles on their faces.

Remember the 4th of July? When the Scribes came in to wake us up before 8 am, all of you were already up and getting ready! The counselors slowly but surely made their way out of bed, and by the time it was benches, every camper was decked out in headbands, tutus, face paint, glitter, tattoos, necklaces, and so much more. Seeing how excited you all were for the day made me even more excited, and I knew it would be an amazing day. We started off with activities where we sadly lost to the Quills in Gaga in the challenge cup (Caroline was the MVP as she was the last Jester standing BOTH rounds!), but still, the excitement of the holiday kept spirits high. We went into the afternoon, starting with the parade, where we made the best sign for our group and walked around camp with everyone to display our outfits and posters.

Then we had the fair! We went around starting at the homerun diamond, where we played on inflatables and dunked FYAs in the dunk tank. Then we went to the quad, played games, and ate popcorn, candy and ice cream. Next, we made our way to the barn and danced. Lastly, we ended the day of activities with a Girls' Junior Camp beach party! Obviously, the best part of the day was the dinner, during which everyone stuffed their faces with fair food! An amazing day in all.

Remember when we went to Camp Evergreen? It was a very hot day, but we played super hard in all four sports against the girls our age at Evergreen. First, we fought hard in soccer, which ended in a tie. Next, we sadly lost in kickball (only by one point!) and then tied 4-4 in basketball. Lastly, we came back and won the last activity, which was newcomb! Overall, it was a long day, but everyone's positive energy, determination, amazing teamwork and sportsmanship made the day one we will never forget.

Remember when we went to see Despicable Me 4? We left before lunch to head off to North Conway. Before we left, we all went to crafts and got ready by making minion signs, masks, and decorations! Once we got there, we ate lunch and played on the big lawn and playground while half of the junior campers watched the movie. Remember the epic game of Capture the Flag that we played with a bunch of Junior Camp groups? When the first movie was over, it was our turn to head to the theater! Once we finally reached the air-conditioned theater, we all settled into our comfy seats and watched the movie. I loved it, and I know you all did too! We then went back to the lawn and got to eat pizza together, which was a perfect ending to an amazing day.

Remember the Junior Camp talent show? You all killed it! You made us proud, from skits to the magic tricks, to the dances. The excitement of your performances radiated to everyone in the group, and it was a happy night for all.

JESTERS

Remember SYTYCD? We worked so hard on our dance, and it paid off when you guys killed it on stage! Everyone looked adorable in their "country" outfits and braids, and you made us all so proud. It was also so fun to see all the other groups' dances, as each was unique to their group.

Remember when we went on excursion? We all left camp in bathing suits and Robin Hoods, so excited for what the day was going to hold. First, we went to Whales Tales Waterpark and got to go on a bunch of rides and eat candy, pizza, chicken fingers, and soda. Then, we drove to McDonald's for a yummy (and healthy) dinner! Lastly, we went to the movies to see Inside Out 2 which exceeded expectations. It was a long day in all, but it was one we will never forget!

Remember color war? The break was super early in the morning, but you guys were already up and in sneakers! The waterskiers were so cool in the pyramid, and the judges coming out in a trolly made the break. The group was split into two teams and the next five days was full of friendly competition and spirit. I am so proud of everyone's sportsmanship during these five days, you all continue to amaze me. Go Green go! Fight White fight!

Remember when we went bowling? Remember the Junior Camp play? All of the Jesters killed it! Remember our Sonny Angels unboxing parties? Nothing made us happier! And I'm so sorry for getting you all addicted to them:) Remember when we went sunset paddleboarding? Remember when Vivian and Rosy were Chuck and Lucky in dog show? Remember PVD? Meeting your parents was so fun. The next day we were all teary eyed saying bye to the 4-weekers, but we will see you next summer! Remember when we played capture the flag against the Squires? Remember when Kendall got a triple out in Green & White kickball? Remember when we all stuffed our faces with donuts on lazy day? Remember when we made a flying squirrel sign for Founder's Night? Now the Jesters of 2024 will forever leave their mark on camp!

Ava 'coco' Applebaum – Coco! You are such a light in the group and your smile and warm energy is contagious. You are a leader by example and it is clear that others look up to you for being your kind and thoughtful self. We will never forget your enthusiasm in all the activities and sweet smile that brings us all so much happiness. Keep coming back!

Quinn Austin – You always ensured everyone felt included and valued, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere for the group. Known for your kindness and compassion, you constantly sought to support others and advocate for them when they felt they could not. Your smile is contagious, and we will never forget how you constantly pulled out all of your teeth! Keep being the fun-loving and silly girl we love, and keep coming back!

Sienna Carmel – You are the most giggly, loving girl, and watching you laugh until you cry almost every day has been a delight. Besides being a fashionista and setting a high bar for Jester clothing taste, you are the perfect fit for this group and bring so much fun to the table. You are such a kind friend – always able to understand and feel for others, which makes everyone feel so welcomed and at home. We will always love Sienna. Keep coming back!

Maddie Curran – Your kindness and gentle spirit make everyone around you feel special. You always try your hardest to make every activity fun and engaging. Your love for your friends, riding, and camp dessert radiates and brings so much happiness to the group. We will never forget "camper Maddie" for being the most amazing friend a Jester could ask for. Never lose your free spirit and perfect hair routine, and keep coming back!

Maya Dessen – From SYTCD to daily encounters with your bunkmates, you always radiate confidence and are true to yourself. Your glowing personality and respectful nature always keep us in good company. It was amazing to see you effortlessly make new friends and memories this summer while also holding onto the bonds and experiences from last summer. Keep up the killer dance moves. Keep coming back!

Sean Dooley – Your enthusiasm and laughter echo throughout the bunk and all of camp! Your jokes will always brighten my day, even when you laugh too hard to get a word out. Whether you are a little fish in the lake, a pro newcomb player, or a dancing queen, you always put your everything into each activity, and I thank you so much for that. Keep coming back!

Vivian Dooley – Your amazing skills on the flying squirrel are the perfect example of your ability to try new things and give every activity your all. You always look out for everyone and remain a friend to all with your silly and kind spirit. Even though you may only be a Jester, you have wisdom well beyond your years. Keep coming back; camp needs its next composting Chuck!

Anya Gadiyaram – Your creativity and curiosity are truly amazing. No matter what activity or period it is, you still approach it with such enthusiasm and a sense of wonder. If a camper is upset, you are the first person to sit down with them and ask them if they are okay and if there is anything you can do to help. Keep being yourself and spread your infectious joy everywhere you go! Keep coming back!

Arielle Gray – You are always on the move. Whether you're on the dancefloor, playing your heart out in activities, or running around with friends, you always find a way to have a good time. Your competitive and enthusiastic spirit radiates throughout the group; anyone would be thankful to have you as a friend. Keep being your sassy, sweet self, and keep coming back!

Julia Haaren – Your goofy spirit always puts a smile on everyone's face, and you light up any room you walk into. You have consistently been a friendly face to everyone in the group and always continue to look out for others. You always know how to entertain us all, from the JC talent show to paper bag skits to the Junior Camp play. Keep coming back!

Margaux Himmel – Watching you grow and thrive this summer has been truly rewarding. Your enthusiasm for trying new activities and your ability to be a supportive team member have positively impacted the entire group. I know camp has been in your family for a long time, and you are carrying on the legacy and tradition! Keep coming back!

JESTERS

Kendall Ilardo – I know you said everyone always talks and writes about your smile, and I can't help but do the same. Your smile brightens every room you walk into, and you always radiate true kindness. Watching you be a friend to everyone and always treat others with the utmost respect has been one of the most amazing things. Seeing you laugh and joke around, we cannot help but put smiles on all our faces. Keep coming back!

Evan Ladov – You are truly an adventurous person who is ready to try everything. From being one of the first people to jump off the tower to learning all the camp cheers and songs, you truly embody the camp spirit. It is crazy to think that this is your first summer, as the close bonds you have developed make it feel as though you have been here for years. Keep coming back!

Sienna Marks – Your addition to the Jesters this summer created such an amazing balance and spirit among the group. Whether dancing to the Cotton Eye Joe or showing off your basketball skills, you constantly give every activity your all and did it with a smile on your face. Your drive to try new things is exactly what camp is all about! Please keep coming back; you are exactly the person Robin Hood needs more of!

Emma Miniati – I will always admire how you fit perfectly into the group. Your humbleness and kindness are such special parts of you. You consistently look out for other campers and seek to put others first, and it was the biggest joy getting to be your counselor this summer. Remember when you decided to extend? Best day ever! Keep coming back!

Genevieve Murphy – Neve, you are a genuine friend to everyone in the group. You are beyond mature and always a selfless leader. From your artistic skills and athleticism to you always doing the right thing, you remain one of the most impressive people ever. You are such a central part of this group! To know you is to love you, and camp needs you. Keep coming back!

Lucy Pickhaver – You are always smiling and laughing with everyone in the group. From the beginning of camp, you inserted yourself into the group and gained other's respect as a friend and as the holder of the notorious "pop it" game. Also, your performance in the JC play was impeccable. Keep up your skills as an actress, and keep coming back!

Ella Simanovsky – From teaching people about Robin Hood traditions to screaming Green & White songs in the dining hall, you

As the summer comes to an end, I think of all of the amazing memories we made together. I have never met a group of girls who are more kind, generous, selfless, and beautiful inside and out. You continue to make me proud every day, and I am so thankful I got to be your GL. Please come back next summer and stay in touch over the year.

I Love You All!

always embody camp. Your eagerness to learn our daily schedules and nightly EAs and ensure the new girls feel included, truly shows how much this place means to you. It is such a pleasure to watch your interactions, which always end in laughter. Keep coming back!

Rosa Skotticelli – Rosy, you bring so much fun energy to the group and always know how to make people laugh. You never fail to show up and give it your all at activities, and it is evident that the others listen to you and your advice. We will never forget your performance as Chuck in the dog show or your terrifying scream when seeing a bug. Keep being your authentic, goofy self, and keep coming back!

Susan Varghese – Your energy is unmatched. During meals, you are consistently one of the first people up on the benches dancing. You have a contagious enthusiasm for each activity and bring so much fun and positivity to the group. We hope you consider pursuing a rapping career, and always remember your time during Jester summer! You are such an integral part of this group, and we adore you. The Realm loves you; keep coming back!

Caroline Whalen – You are truly the funniest person I have ever met (and you know this from the many times I have cried laughing at one of your skits or jokes). You have the sweetest and most selfless soul, always thinking about others before acting or making a decision. Never stop dancing, and never forget that you are such a light in people's lives. Keep coming back

Annie Wilson – Your curiosity about camp was wonderful to see. You're a great conversationalist, and your energy is contagious. Watching you get into new activities such as riflery and horseback riding was a pleasure. There's never a dull moment with you! Keep coming back!

To my Staff

I cannot thank you enough for all of the hard work you put into this summer. It was not always easy, but we always worked together and as a team, and that is more than I could have asked for. I am going to miss you so much over the year, and I hope to see you back next summer! Love you all and I am so proud of the work you did.

HEYYYYYYY SUPER MARIO BOWS!!!

I hope you are ready to sit back and look back on the absolutely EPIC summer that was summer '24.

We started opening day zero off with a bang when we welcomed the three California girls, and of course, the Jersey one too. The excitement only grew throughout actual opening day. Remember when we dropped our Bow sign in the mud (sorry Natalie)? We were just too ecstatic for that New York bus to come through.

We started the summer off with a very exciting game of 9 square and an even more exciting evening activity: MUDDY DIZZY KICKBALL. This was where the athleticism of the group really began to flourish. We woke up the next morning to Woody wishing Gabby a happy birthday on the loud speaker and so the celebration began. We started the morning off strong with a very intense game of ultimate football followed by everybody absolutely crushing the swim test despite the frigid rain. Seeing the lack of hesitation to get in the freezing cold lake on that cold day was what made me realize this was going to be the best summer of our lives #10for2. As if the day could get any better we walked into the bustling dining hall just to find out it was SMILEY POTATOES AND CHICKEN NUGGETS for lunch :)

Do you remember our electric game of bombardment? I definitely do. At basketball and volleyball I got to experience first hand the basketball star that is Livy (she may or may not have gotten me out once or twice in knock-out). Unfortunately, a big storm hit right after our newcomb and knock-out extravaganza so the whole camp retreated to the dining hall where we played an exhilarating game of Bingo before dinner. We ended dinner with a cake for our birthday girl, Gabby AND Sunday Sundaes. Do you remember our battle with the Archers for who would get to go last? It was definitely rigged because Gabby CRUSHED that rock-paper-scissors fight. We ended with spa night and circle time. Wait. Did I say the night ended? YOU THOUGHT. When everyone was in bed thinking they were going to sleep, we still had one more birthday surprise. Camp Robin Hood's famous tradition: M&M pizza. Everyone who hadn't had it before loved it, and it was a perfect way to end Day 1 of the summer.

Our first campfire was amazing because it was our first time back together with all of Girls Camp and we got to see the Scribes kill it at teaching the Goodnight Song and Can You Freak It.

Remember when I made you guys dress up in the craziest outfits you had and then brought you to Cozy AND THERE WAS ANOTHER CAMP THERE? Seeing the looks on all of your faces was definitely a peak moment of the summer.

We then embarked on our infamous mountain trip at Green Mountain. Let's just say the level of difficulty was more intense than expected, but even in the face of defeat, you all persevered and made it to the top! I hope you were just as proud of yourselves as I was of all of you. Also, we are definitely still owed a Cozy trip after that fun little excursion.

Soon enough the staff "not so" talented show rolled around and you got to see us attempt at some very fun dances. Our first roll call took the camp by storm. YEAH BOWS! That's when everyone found out that this group would run The Realm.

Your awesomeness was even more solidified when we went to Camp Evergreen for spirit day and absolutely dominated them in kickball, newcomb, basketball and soccer. I was just so so proud watching my babies thrive and seeing you guys have so much fun doing it.

The 4th of July rolled around before we knew it. You guys embraced the patriotism like I've never seen before while having a blast on the inflatables, in the dunk tank, at the dance and beach party. Facing Kramer in a basketball 1-v-1, in the marriage booth, and of course, at the pie battles (I wish I could say the same about the whipped cream situation). We ended the day with some delicious and superrrrr healthy fair food. 10/10 day as you guys all said at bedtime.

So You Think You Can Dance is always a highlight of the summer, but this year you guys did not come to play. Everyone was in awe after seeing how good a Bow dance could be. You all did Abby Lee Miller service.

Soon after SYTYCD, Parents Visiting Day snuck up on us. It was so amazing to see everyone reunite with their families and playing knock out with all the dads was soooo fun! The next day, we sadly said goodbye to our four-weekers, but were also looking forward to what was to come in the second session!

Excursion was immaculate. Water Country was lit and Chipotle was even more lit and we finally got to see Inside Out 2!!! We ended the day with ice cream at Coldstone and had a very fun bus ride home with the Archers!

Remember when we challenged the Archers almost every day and crushed them? Remember our Danish challenge against the Saxons? Remember when you all were obsessed with FE!N?

GREEEEEEEEN & WHIIIIIIITEEEEEEEEEE!!! Aka the best five days of the year! The war was kicked off with a super cool 7 am break when the whole camp ran to the waterfront where we found Green & White waterski pyramids. The judges then came to the lower basketball court in a trolley! Still wondering where they got that. ALSO, HOLY 8 CAPTAINS! You guys were all so amazing. The sportsmanship was better than any group I've ever seen and seeing you guys absolutely give it your all was incredible.

BOWS

Remember when you guys 9-squared it up in the pouring rain? That was definitely the most intense, fun activity. Although the mighty White Wild West prevailed in the end, both teams fought so hard and had so much fun! Green also swept song night which has not been done in ages! Overall, an amazing war and another moment where you all impressed me so much with your poise, athleticism, and intensity.

For Founders/Awards night, we gave camp a Bows '24 plaque for our bunk with all of our names, and on the back we rewrote all the notes that we had to sand off of the bathroom stall! We also left some space on the sign so future groups who have Bunk 5 (the best bunk) can write on the plaque instead of the walls. I loved how much you all embraced this idea and got to sanding right away with no complaints. Dare I say it was fun?! The rest of the night was full of 1st year water bottles, 3rd year flags, 5 year shirts and 10 year vests, along with so many of you getting the "Best in Camp" and "Most Improved" awards for so many sports! It was also so fun to see who won the big awards, and I know there are going to be so many of you guys up there one day.

Britt Alvers – You are such a sweet girl with such a big heart. You dove in to everything with no complaints and an open mind. Not to mention you absolutely crushing it in the play.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Yrsa Bjarkadottir – You are a ball of energy and you are absolutely hilarious. You are the type of person who has an incredible ability to read a room. You know when to goof off and you know when to take things seriously, and you have such an amazing ability to be so grounded. It is so obvious to me that you have such a big heart and you are always there to put a smile on the faces around you.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Evelyn Callahan – You are effortlessly friends with every single person in this group. You are a natural leader who knows exactly how and when to use your voice. You are also such a fierce competitor and you are so, so mature. I loved watching you absolutely crush it this summer.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Poppy Dobbins – You truly light up every room that you walk into. You always manage to put a smile on everyone's face and you are so just incredibly down to earth and level headed. There are so many things I admire about you I could literally write all day. You are the glue for this group and manage being the most bubbly person, while also always being honest.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Katlyn Driscoll – You are a basketball star. You came into this group so effortlessly and it was a pleasure to watch you literally be friends with everyone. You always had a positive attitude and it was so clear how deeply you cared about your friends.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Teddy Friedman – You are the cutest human. I don't think I have ever met a kinder, more caring person. You have the biggest heart in the world and you are also such a goof at the same time, which is the best type of person. I loved watching you grow and flourish this summer and getting so close with you.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Sophia Ghassemieh – You are the missing puzzle piece to this group. Watching you blossom here has been such a privilege. You are so funny and just an all around incredible human who is genuinely so loved by every single person.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Leila Goldstein – You are the cutest and sweetest little mush ever, my soccer star. You light up every room you walk into and I can always count on you to have a smile on your face.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Gabriella Hamilton – You are just the most smiley ball of joy ever and I absolutely loved getting to know you this summer. You were positive and enthusiastic about every activity and also absolutely killed it in the play.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Celeste Hernandez – You are absolutely hilarious, Celeste. You are such a key part of this group and will never ever fail to put a smile on everyone's face. I loved watching you thrive this summer and be friends with everyone! Never stop doing the worm.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Claire Jablow – I really do think you will create world peace. You are a quiet leader who is so confident and so loved by everyone around you. I loved watching you absolutely flourish this summer and make lifelong friendships. You also have an incredible sense of humor and I feel like sometimes we make eye contact and can just read each other's minds.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Olivia Kamat – You are one of a kind! You were always so positive about everything we did and your love for camp is so evident. You were also always so attentive and would offer a helping hand without fail.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Vivian Landers – Vivvvv! Your dedication and drive are two traits that are just so inspiring, but I also loved getting to see you be a part of a group that did not revolve around soccer. You were so kind to everyone, and once you got into an activity, you absolutely thrived!
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Isabelle Leebow – You are a character in the best way. It is so evident that you always have everyone's best interest at heart and you are just so compassionate and mature. Not only were you my camper, but also my friend. You are literally the most talented little singer ever and I can't wait to come to your concerts when you're a pop star.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Hazel Lipman – You are awesome! I can always count on you to be on top of everything and there is nothing better than a Hazel Lipman smile. You completely submerged yourself in everything we did this summer and I loved watching you thrive.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Violet Lipman – You are such a nice and caring kid. Your intensity and drive is inspiring and I loved watching you mature so much this summer. You really are coming into yourself and are just so, so fun to be around always. You're also such a little jokester.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Blake Natauri – You are just the sweetest kid who is wise beyond your years. I loved bonding with you this summer. You are so self-aware and will always be there to provide a helping hand without my even having to ask. You are just such a ball of joy and completely thrived this summer. I wish I could tell you to turn your flashlight off after flashlight time is over all year.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

BOWS

Lily Nickerson – You are one of the most caring kids I have ever met. Every single time I said goodnight to you and asked you to rate your day out of 10, you asked me to do the same and that meant more to me than you know. You delved into every single thing you did with a smile on your face and so much enthusiasm. I just feel so lucky that I got to know you.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Skyler Oakley – You are hilarious. I can always count on you to be so real while matching everyone's energy always. You are so caring about those around you and are just so free spirited. I loved watching you absolutely crush the sport that is softball this year, and watching you play your heart out during Green & White. You never complained and are just such a rock for this group.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Leah Peck – Oh hey Miss Olympics. You are an incredible person, Leah. You are just a ball of energy who finds fun and joy in everything you do. You are so fun and silly and you light up every room you walk into. I think I also just need to mention that you are the most incredible athlete I have ever met. You are such a fierce competitor, but you are also the first one to come back together with your friends at the end of the day.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Elsa Rachelefsky – You are the sweetest, most compassionate human. You are just so mature and aware of others around you. You are the first to know when someone is feeling upset and always take the initiative to help. You are just so warm, and I loved not only being your counselor, but also your friend. I'm gonna miss our deep talks.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Lily Raphael – My Joe. You are a perfect human being. You make camp a better place, Joe. You never ever fail to put a smile on everyone's face and are literally always cracking us up. You are so kind, genuine, and words cannot describe how actually awesome you are. Not to mention you are an athletic beast. Let's be on Green together forever, cutie.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Livy Rosenberg – You are an unreal character, Livy, in the best way possible. You have never once in your life failed to make someone laugh and you care about those around you so deeply. I'm going to miss you so much, I'm even going to miss begging you to clean your area. My QB forever.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Colette Roth – You are such a leader in this group and such a calming presence. You have an amazing ability to be completely hilarious and totally goof off, but you're also able to be so mature when you need to be. I loved getting so close with you this summer.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Rosie Slayton – You just slay, girl. You have so much personality and are just so so fun to be around. You were friends with literally every single person and clearly cared so deeply about everyone. You are the type of person that thrives everywhere because you're just so awesome, and I loved getting to watch you do exactly that this summer.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Annika Thakarar – You are such an important part of this group, Ani. You are so incredibly thoughtful and empathetic, and those two qualities put together make a pretty amazing person. I loved watching you come out of your shell this summer and make so many meaningful friendships.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

Kylie Zweibel – You are just awesome, Kylie. You are so incredibly empathetic and compassionate while knowing how to be completely ridiculous at times. You don't take yourself too seriously, while always providing a helping hand or shoulder to cry on when someone needs it.
I LOVE YOU! KEEP COMING BACK!

BOWS!!!

When the final car pulled away from camp on closing day, camp immediately fell silent without all of you amazing little people. We had the best summer of our lives together and I wouldn't trade it for anything. I love you all more than words can describe and I CANNOT WAIT TO SEE EVERY SINGLE ONE OF YOU BACK NEXT YEAR!!!

BOWS '24 FOREVER!

I WANNA BE A QUILLIONAIRE...

Put down your slime (seriously, put down your slime, it's everywhere) and stop choreographing new dances, and sit back and relax while we take a look at the SICKEST SUMMER AND QUILLEST GROUP to walk this camp!!!

QUILLS! By now you're all reading this at home dispersed around the world, hopefully already having the best year ever! But put down your homework and get ready to reminisce on the summer of our lives! From the minute Keegan, Sloane and Tessa arrived on the 21st, we knew that we were going to have the best summer with you guys as our new family. Although I, Ella, knew most of you already, it was shocking to see just how much you had matured since Jester summer.

Since I, Ginsberg, didn't know you guys too well before the summer, I was nervous. But the second each of you jumped out of your cars with the biggest smiles on your faces to give us a hug, I knew this was about to be an amazing summer. On opening day we all woke up with so much excitement, eager to see each other again and begin our summer of fun. As we sprinted back and forth between the bunk and the barn to greet you guys with each new person arriving, was a new feeling of absolute excitement! We had the pleasure of being the first ones to welcome you back into The Realm and once we all settled into Bunks 8 and 9, our epic summer was ready to begin.

Remember the fabulous opening to camp when we all gathered together in a Chuck's playhouse for the first time to truly see the counselor's talent. Our FYAs amazed us with a Nicki Minaj dance, our AGLs following with a classic take on the song of the summer "Hot To Go." And the female GLs wrapped it up with an extraordinary dance to "Please Please Please", fiercely conveying their emotions on stage. Not only did we leave this night with many, many laughs, we also knew we had the littest most coordinated staff at camp!

Remember when we had our very first campfire of the summer? You were all SOOO excited when you found out it was our EA, and it lived up to the anticipation! The evening was spent learning and singing along to classic camp cheers as the sun blinded us, while setting over camp. Our favorite part of the night was when the Scribes and Shires introduced the new campers of the summer. We all loved cheering for our favorite new campers, Alice, Mer, Ale and Julia!

Remember when we were awoken by the Scribes running into our bunk, all decked out for the FOURTH OF JULYYYY? We all put on our brightest red, white and blue, and spent the morning beating the Jesters in the challenge cup! We then spent the afternoon rotating with Junior Camp girls between the inflatables, the barn party, the carnival, and the beach partyyyyyy! We all got married, got our fortunes read, pied each other on the face, danced on the stage, and got soaked from the inflatable slides. Best. Day. Ever.

Remember when we went on the craziest, most challenging, hardcore hike of all time? Diana's Baths was a movie. The scenic ten minute walk was a wonderful time to chat and admire the beautiful state of New Hampshire. After breaking a sweat, the chilly pools between rocks were EXTREMELY refreshing. Remember the mini slide and the bigger slide that Libby was itching to try? They were so fun! The best part of the whole trip was when we got Cozy on the way back!

Remember when all of Girls Camp band together to travel and defeat Camp Evergreen in a multitude of sports. For us Quills, we thrived in soccer, volleyball, basketball and softball. (We truly are the most athletic group on camp). Even in the heat we stayed enthusiastic to participate, and everyone had their chance to show off their coordination. We even defeated Evergreen in a lunchtime cheer battle, proving that Robin Hood has more fun!

Remember when we proved to the whole camp the Quills CAN DANCE? Although our first dance would have been truly epic (RIP S&M), we absolutely showed off our dancing abilities with our Chappel Roan mashup. With a mix of lip sync, acting and lifts, we pulled out all the stops. Shout-out to Sloane, Nellie and AJ for portraying the true emotions of the songs. During camp's most popular night we enjoyed the debut of the 2024 Scribe song, along with the Scraxon tradition that follows. Such an epic night.

Remember arguably the best day of the summer…BEACH DAYYYYYY? We all hopped into vans to head to Ogunquit Beach, blasting Vamos a La Playa the whole way there. We got our tanning in with the warm air contrasting with the refreshing ice cold water. We got our lobster rolls and ice cream and all enjoyed restocking on our (secret) candy stashes. Ella even discovered her all time favorite book at the general store. After an epic day in the sun, we all came back to a movie night where we enjoyed M&M pizza as our Challenge Cup prize.

As the first session came to a close, we savored every last moment together as 30 TA. Remember when we played Camper Hunt and Counselor Hunt ? We devoured you guys in Camper Hunt. You had no shot against the most athletic staff at camp. However, you did get us good in Counselor Hunt, especially when Leila found Ginsberg, Ella, AND Avery, all in one semi-illegal hiding spot…It was such a fun and memorable final EA!

Remember when we had a slumber party in Bunk 9?!?! Sooooo much post-PVD candy was consumed, plus candy canteen! It was so sweet watching you all cuddle on the porch for a movie night as we soaked in our final night before the four-weekers left. While the end of the first session brought many tears and goodbyes, it also brought excitement for the second half and all that was yet to come!

Remember our epic Quill excursion?! Fun Town Splash Town was SOO much fun. You guys loved the biggest, scariest rides the most…it was crazy! The big rollercoaster and the crazy mouse ride made my heart stop. I don't know how you guys did it so many times. That didn't even compare to when we entered Splash Town and went on the massive water slides though. The disappearing floor and the racing slides were by far the most popular (and once again the scariest). Afterwards, we headed to dinner at Chipotle, for some much needed grub before our movie night. Remember the first 10 minutes of Twister? We do…That movie ended up being incredible, leaving us reeling with excitement, exhaustion, and a large fear of extreme weather conditions.

As sad as we were to see excursion come to an end, the extreme anticipation of Green & White kept us on our toes all weekend. Although many of our predictions (or basically all of them) were wrong, it was so exciting being woken up at 7 am to an amazing water aerobics show and watching eight group leaders be named captain! As we ran to the waterfront in our pajamas, unbrushed hair and unbrushed teeth, all we could think about was the start of the best five days of the summer! With Sloane and Rachel leading such strong teams, everyone fought so hard in every single activity, giving it your all. From swim meet, to track meet, to tug, and song night, every event was fun and full of so much energy. We even got to see Devan and AJ kill it as the youngest in the Senior Camp dances, and Sloane in the Senior Camp skit. The Quills truly dominated that talent night even as the youngest ones.

Remember the last night, playing Alma's and eating chocolate covered strawberries at dinner? As we all stood on the benches singing and crying, I couldn't believe how quick the summer passed. At least we had one more night. Remember our amazing Founder's Night pickleball paddles? They turned out to be such a unique and special gift. HUGE shoutout to Tahlia for her outstanding artistic abilities, and Keegan and Savy for their woodshop skills! Founders/Awards Night ended up being a major moment for the Quills. Obviously, we knew you guys were the best group on camp, deserving of all the awards, but seeing so many of you guys get recognized on stage for your efforts this summer was beyond awesome.

After we sang our final goodnight song of the summer, we headed back to the bunk for some major feasting, recapping, and movie watching. Our goodbyes the following morning were difficult and painful, but only went to show how perfect our summer was and how much we'll all miss each other.

Alejandra Alvarez-Ossorio – You are the funniest girl I have ever met. Watching you break out of your shell this summer has been so amazing. You fit right into this group so naturally, always making friends and making us laugh. Keep coming back forever.

Mercedes Alvarez-Ossorio – You are so incredibly funny and kind. It's been such a joy watching you grow and become more and more comfortable at camp this summer. You never fail to make everyone laugh. Please always come back!

Annabelle Collmer – It is clear that everyone loves and cares for you so much. Your smile is truly contagious and makes everyone around you happier. You are so strong and mature and that is reflected back onto your friends. Keep coming back because this place is truly special and you belong here.

Devan Cox – I have never met such a bright and infectious personality. Watching you grow this summer has been the best. I loved watching you get your well deserved recognition in G&W…you were truly a star. You are such a leader in the group, so never ever stop coming back.

Arletta Curran – You are truly a perfect person. You carry yourself with such an easy and inviting attitude, spreading joy and excitement wherever you go. It's been so amazing to get to know you more this summer, and I can't wait to see everything that is in store for you.

Emilia De la Vega – I can't believe this is only your second summer because it seems like you have been a part of this group for years. You have such a fun, bubbly personality that stands out in this group, and makes everyone around you happy. Your love for camp is evident in everything you do, and your constant smiles are contagious.

Julia Diez de Bonilla – You are one of the sweetest girls with the most contagious smile. It is crazy that this was only your first summer, because you fit into this group so naturally. It is clear you are a camp person and are excited to do everything. You radiate so much joy for this group, so never stop coming back.

Rachel Dix – You are such a strong leader of this group by always being there for everyone. It is clear that the group loves and respects you, and that's why you made such an amazing captain this year. Your athleticism and positive energy is so necessary for this group. Keep coming back forever because this is your home.

Zinnia Edwards – You are the sweetest and silliest girl ever. Watching you grow this summer has been the most amazing thing. You care for everyone in the group and are always excited about each activity. Your smile is contagious and you truly make everyone around you happy.

Claribel Fernandez – You are one of the silliest people I have ever met and always put a smile on everyone's faces. You are so special inside and out and that is what everyone loves about you. You're always there for your friends and always staying true to your goofy self.

Libby Gendron – You are truly the most fun girl ever. You have the most infectious laugh and put your all into everything you do, whether it be SYTYCD, a game of Infection, or writing a "Scribe" song. Never ever stop being you because you are the biggest joy to know!

Amelia Grandic – You walk around camp with a smile on your face that is so contagious. It's clear that you are happy to be at camp, and are trying to enjoy every second. From your fierce athleticism to your awesome sense of humor, you are such an important part of this group.

Tessa Hoglund – You are such an important part of this group. Everyone looks up to you and it is so amazing that you are such a camp person. Your humor and smile makes all of our days better, and you reflect all of the qualities of a true camp person. Never change the way that you are, and continue to have such a happy, positive attitude about life.

Raleigh Iepene – You always find a way to put all of us in a good mood. Your silliness and happiness at camps radiates onto others and makes everyone's day. You are always there for people when they need someone, and always excited about everything we do at camp. Your constant positivity keeps this group going.

Ruby Ioenig – You are so unbelievably mature and fun. You carry yourself with such a confidence and unseriousness that people gravitate towards you. You are such a special aspect of this group and I can't wait to see you grow more at camp!

Ryan Lengyel – You may be the last one out of the bunk but you are always the first one to get excited about an activity. Your constant goofiness and positivity keeps this group going. You are such an amazing friend and try at everything you do. The balance of maturity and craziness that you embrace is a true gift.

Rilyn Nagory – You are the sweetest girl I have ever met. It is so clear by the way that you care for everyone, and are always trying to make your friends feel better. There isn't a mean bone in your body and you are always there to uplift your friends if they need you.

Nellie Oliver – You are an absolute star. Despite the way you loooove to take your time, you are such a fun and special person. You balance your silliness and maturity beautifully, and are looked up to by all. I can't wait to see all you continue to do with your bright future at camp.

QUILLS

Alice Pickhaver – Getting to know you the past four weeks has been an absolute pleasure! Your maturity and confidence shined this summer as you fully immersed yourself into all camp had to offer. I cannot wait to see all you have coming in your future at camp, you are truly so special!

Phoebe Plouffe – You are genuinely the most hilarious person ever. Your one liners never fail to make everybody laugh and you light up every room you walk in. You are truly the glue of the group, so never forget your importance!

Ella Ponsky – Your energy is so amazing and you always carry yourself with a smile. Your love for camp and your friends is so heartwarming and amazing to see. Camp needs you sooo much, so always always come back.

Bryn Raivich – Knowing you is the best. You are such an amazing friend and rock to all those in your life. Your smile and silliness never fails to brighten my mood. You have such a quiet confidence that makes you a leader to so many. Never forget how much this group needs you, because they do!

Savannah Schlieman – You are one of the funniest people ever. Your love and devotion to camp is so strong and evident, and truly makes you a leader in this group. You care for your friends and are there for everyone you love. Keep coming back forever, because you are so important to your group and this place.

Tali Shear – You light up every room you enter, with your bubbly and fun personality. You have such a strong sense of self, and are always making others laugh and smile. You really are a core member of this group, and it has been so special getting to know you.

Keegan Shepard – Your love for camp shines in everything you do. Whether you're over at riflery or slaying in the lake, you try at everything you do and are always there to teach your friends how to be better. You care for everyone so evidently, and are such a key aspect to this group. Keep coming back forever.

Tali Smith – You are one of the coolest girls out there. You are obviously a dancing queeeeen, but watching you grow so much this summer has truly been so amazing. You are such a leader in this group. Make sure to keep coming back forever.

Sloane Susman – You are genuinely one of the craziest people I've ever met, but I'm so grateful to have gotten to know you this summer. You have such a strong confidence and friendliness about you that draws those around you in. You are unbelievably outgoing and kind, which makes you an irreplaceable part of camp.

Leila Waldman – You have the bubbliest calming energy ever. You lead with such grace and charm, and are an incredible friend to those around you. You always have a smile on your face and are spreading joy. Please always come back!

Tillotson Whalen – You are the most fun and energetic ray of sunshine! You are so effortlessly kind and goofy, and I find that so admirable. It is so apparent how good of a friend you are, and how much you care about all those around you.

Charlotte Whelan – You are the perfect balance of silly, crazy, and mature. You're such an asset in the group, making people laugh, listen, and always leading with grace. Getting to know you better this summer has been such a pleasure!

STAFF – We could not have picked a more stacked staff if we tried. Thank you all so much for being by our side this summer and going the extra mile to make the summer amazing for the campers. We and the kids appreciate everything you have done, and love you so much. We can't wait to see you all grow on staff for years to come.

TO THE AMAZING QUILLS OF 2024

We could not imagine a more amazing summer with a better group of girls. Every single one of you made our first year as group leaders so perfect and special, and we truly thank you for that. The love and dedication that each one of you has for camp makes your group so special and unlike any other. We know you are the best group at camp because you quite literally swept awards night, putting all other groups to shame, while also proving to be the coolest group by winning the challenge cup. Watching you all grow and mature so much this summer has been truly special. We can't believe how fast the summer flew by, and we love you all from the bottom of our hearts. Keep coming back forever and ever. We can't wait to continue watching you all grow.

Take off those crocs, lace up your sneakers, & get ready to lock in.

Let's relive summer 24!

Arrows, it's incredibly hard to believe that you are reading this from the comfort of your own home beds, though I'm sure your double mattresses and lavender scented egg crates ensure the comfort of your camp beds too. Whether we are snuggled up in Bunks 6 and 7 or facetiming each other from all over the country, I promise if you just close your eyes and think of the lake and the buses pulling in, you can transport yourself right now all the way back to Opening Day.

Charlotte, Sarah, Sidney, River, and Sienna B were our first Arrows to arrive at camp, beating the opening day crowds. With five of you partially filling the bunks, the rest of the staff and I felt just a little bit of the energy we had been waiting for all of pre-camp. After Sienna B rolled up to the infirm late that Friday night, we were ready and anxiously awaiting the arrival of the other 27. There is no better feeling than lining the drive into camp and cheering as the buses pull in. Who could forget the sweet, sweet embrace of reuniting with your friends after months apart. I surely won't forget when Brooke sobbed, stepping off the bus. That just shows how much camp means to her! As you all slowly trickled in, it was so much fun to surprise you all and to see your faces when you found out you had not just me, but Reggie and Sassy again, too. Reggie and I definitely won't forget when we came to get Kyra from the infirm, and did not quite deliver the reaction we were expecting. Turns out she thought we just came to say hi to an old camper. I'm sure the infirm staff found it hilarious when we made Kyra redo her reaction upon finding out that Reggie and I were in fact her counselors for the second time.

There's no energy quite like the dining hall on the first night back, and you guys did not disappoint. From indulging in the delicious pasta and meat sauce, to singing at the top of our lungs, the Arrows were definitely making our mark on Summer 24. I knew that night that my excitement to have you guys again was definitely warranted, and we were in for a fantastic summer.

As the days went on, you guys were treated to the delightful experience of cheering on your staff at the staff talent show. Who could forget the FYA's insane dance (they have always been such a talented group)? Ava and Lyla definitely represented the Arrows well. Sassy's rendition of Hot To Go impressed us all, and I nearly re-tore my ACL, Irish jigging on stage. We really gave it our all for you guys! And the best part of the whole night: singing the goodnight song together for the first time in the barn. The night ended in such a special way.

Then of course was our first camp fire. What a night of learning cheers, introducing our newest Arrows, Sadie and Sienna B (Siena H wasn't there yet), and hearing from the newest Scribes. It was a perfect way to end the perfect first Sunday at camp and tie together the best first week. From learning our new favorite game, Flickerball, from Scott, to enjoying our first soccer period together, we very instantly embraced the full send attitude of the summer. In the first couple of weeks together we made some unforgettable memories. I will never forget our ODT swim and circle time reflecting on why camp meant so much to us, our daily snack quad skips and dance parties, watching the Notebook at Woody's, playing Bingo in the dining hall when the first big storm came, our lip sync battle against the Lancers (complete with a Kyra v. Andreas dance battle), our hike up Mt. Bayle, and more. Every day, the notes of Highway Queen by Mt. Joy made me so excited for whatever new thing was going to come my way as your group leader. Those first few weeks flew by, but I enjoyed every second of them.

As quickly as the summer started, everyone's favorite summer holiday came quicker. The Fourth of July was definitely one to remember. From Flickerball against the Shires to whipped cream pie wrestling and a lit beach party, to unlimited fried dough, the day was magical. That was until Reggie caught a glimpse of Jorja eating a hot dog. IFYKYK. Anyways, you all made my Fourth of July so special. I couldn't have asked for a better day.

When the Fourth came and went, we knew the summer had really gotten started, and we dove headfirst. From some original EAs like Survivor and PowerPoint Night (I still can't get Sidney's strange addiction out of my head) to our undefeated streaks at Evergreen and Birchmont, your energy seriously amazed me every day. It was unreal leaving the Birchmont soccer field with six different goal scorers, but I can't even say I was surprised with such a remarkable group of girls. Not to mention, I got to listen to River and Maddie commentate the whole game, which made the experience that much more enjoyable. What wasn't enjoyable however, was Blake's yogurt that somehow ended up in River's hair. Food fight?

While it's obvious that Arrows are athletic, you stunned everyone again with your insane performing talents. From So You Think You Can Dance, to Sophia's incredible performance in Mamma Mia, I could not be prouder of you guys. You owned the stage, and I for one, think we were robbed from competing in the Girls Camp So You Think You Can Dance finals. I'm still not over it. I've been told that the X formation really sold the crowd.

As the days moved on, we got to hit the beach with the Quills, and I don't think we could have had a better beach day. The waves at Ogunquit may have been freezing, but I loved playing mermaids with you all, even if I couldn't feel my toes. We obviously all had to enjoy a Charlie's burger and fries since you hate camp cookout so much. Overall, beach day could not have been better. Let's all go back.

The summer could not have been complete without some of our best theme days. I loved Canada Day, but I especially loved Brittany Snow and Kyra's lovely tribute to Jojo Siwa. I'm still wondering if Kyra slept alright the night before.

While the first four weeks were a blast, the summer really heated up when the first session ended. Saying goodbye to ten of our best friends was definitely a low point of the summer, but we learned how to pick it back up. Moving into one bunk was the beginning of it all, and while I know said move was a cause of stress, I know we can all agree that somehow, Bunk 7 felt even more like home. Our first week post four weeks was filled with such fun new memories like Gomez's amazing 13th birthday. Our night of pontoons and Pizza Barn was perfect. We even got to see Shantall before she officially arrived. Obviously our pontoon adventure included lots of toastering and me driving the boat for the first time since last summer. When we finally rolled back up to the dock (and after I successfully docked the boat), we all got to enjoy some yummy pizza on the waterfront. It was so fun to get to enjoy that time together. Thanks Gomez for turning 13!

Anyway, excursion snuck up on us, and we made our way over to Canobie Lake Park. I'm sure it was hard to forget the staff outfits, and I guarantee you can picture them now. I will, for one, never forget your faces when you realized the five people wearing huge blue manks and kids basketball shorts walking towards check-in were me, Reggie, Sassy, Ava and Lyla. After rides and games, we hopped back into vans and arrived at the movie theater. I was so proud when you found that bargain and left the movie concessions stand with a ten dollar soda, and a new reusable cup and T-shirt. I was even prouder when River proved her swindling skills when they ran out of the cups that were supposed to be a part of the deal. Inside Out 2 did not disappoint and neither did Anger, if you know what I mean. After kicking back and watching Anxiety get defeated, we made our way over to Chipotle and got some much deserved chain fast food.

I know we all would have been content with the amazing excursion day 1, and some of us definitely would have been content without the unnecessary anxiety from Woody's surprise. However, that doesn't mean that our unexpected excursion day 2 wasn't perfect. Floating down the Saco River in tubes was legendary, and I'm sure we will never forget it. Reggie and I sure won't forget the creative way Dahlia floated down the river in her tube. By the time we had gotten to the Canal Bridge, our group was hangry, but at least we made it there in one piece. SACO! am I right?

GO ARROWS!

Thank God Frye's was so close to the tubing place because I think you guys would have lost your minds.

Leaving Frye's, the Green & White fever had definitely struck. With me frantically texting to see if the Lancers were on their way back, to you all listing off your theories for the break in a fury, we knew that the five day war was quickly approaching. It turns out we still had a couple days to wait, but with our return, the imminent break felt even more real. Though we were definitely disappointed it didn't break within the two days after we got back, we did enjoy a fun couple of normal days. We noticed every meal and every missing brass member though, and I will never forget our night of Camper Hunt the night before the break. We ended early because we were SO sure it was breaking. Little did we know the pyramid of water skiers would be pulling up to camp the very next morning.

The 7 am break took us all by surprise, but we slipped on our sneakers and ran. Standing there, that same energy vibrated through our bodies, and we knew it was time. Being split into two different teams was obviously hard, but I was consistently amazed by how hard you all competed throughout the five days. Your game of Danish was one of my favorite activities to watch all war, with all of you putting in 100% effort. The fact that we ended with a score of 19-18 was incredible. In addition, watching you all in the talent show made me so, so proud of you guys. From skit to dance to glee, you all proved what I have already known, to the rest of camp. You are so talented and amazing! Speaking of talent, you were amazing at voting in the fake election on the quad. Susan B. Anthony would be so proud. With the end of Green & White came many hugs, a spirited dessert altogether on lazy day, and an electric day after. We knew the end of the summer was quickly approaching, but we put it to the back of our minds and had such an amazing last couple of days. I won't forget our fashion show off the tower and the water toga party. Boy am I glad I showed all of you dubstep. Now we can rock out every year. Our blindfolded adventure to Cozy was also a favorite part of the summer that I will never forget. When a bus of 22 kids wearing seven tutus, pulled up to Bobby Sue's, I just know it was the highlight of everyone's day. However, the smile on their faces couldn't hold a candle to the happiness I felt on the last night, singing the team almas with you all. I think my heart grew 10 sizes and the emotions overcame me. But just like always, you were there to give me a hug. You girls are amazing, and the love you show is unmatched. I love all of you! Hope to be seeing you when the buses pull back in…

Sienna Baker – You are such a rockstar. You are so outgoing, beautiful, and hilarious. I love hearing about your adventures and just hanging out with you. You put such a good foot forward this summer, and the group is so lucky to have you. I hope you come back and stay for longer next summer because I just know you would love Green & White. It was such a pleasure getting to know you this summer. Love you!

Zoe Bernstein – You are such an amazing girl and camper. I loved how much you were there for your friends this summer, and I cannot thank you enough for how much you did for your group. You always have a smile on your face, you are always cracking a joke, and you are always lifting the mood of the group. I know that you will have such an amazing career at Robin Hood, and I cannot wait to witness it. Love you!

Chloe Bjarkadottir – I just love you so much. You are the most fun, intuitive, and beautiful person inside and out. I love your energy even when I desperately want you to go to bed, and I appreciate how you lift everyone in the group up. I know how much camp means to you, and I love that you know how special of a place it is. I will forever love everything about you, Chloe, and I hope that you never forget that I am here for you always, not just at camp. I'm so proud of you, and I love you!

River Boren – My Rivs, I love you so much it's insane. You are such an amazing young girl, and I am continuously amazed by your emotional maturity. You are such a fun girl to be around, and I can't help but smile when I see yours. Hanging out with you is so easy because of your ability to be friends with everyone. Honestly, I don't think there was a day all summer I didn't see you without your gorgeous smile. I love how much you care about the people in your life that are important to you, and your heart is so pure. I love you so much, River, and I know we will see each other soon.

Hannah Corr – I cannot even begin to describe how impactful you are to the group. You are quite literally friends with everyone, and someone like that is hard to find. You bring light to every situation, you are kind and easy-going, and most importantly, you are always just happy to be where you are. Everyone who has the privilege of having you in their life does not even understand how lucky they are. Keep smiling, keep being yourself, and keep living your life the way you are now, because that outlook will carry you to great success in life. I love you!

Ellie Gartenberg – I had so much fun getting to know you this summer, Ellie. You are such a light in the group, and your friends benefit so much from your amazing emotional intelligence. You are equal parts selfless and protective over your own self-peace. I know that you are such an amazing example and a strong leader in the group. I know it was tough this summer without your brother, but you handled the circumstances with grace and proved time and again that you loved camp more than anything. I cannot wait to see you again, and I am so proud of you. Love you!

Grace Goldberg – I am so proud of you. You took an experience from last summer that maybe wasn't the best and you went into this summer with an open mind. Thank you for being open to new experiences and for being yourself every step of the way. I love your outgoing and happy-go-lucky attitude, and I can just envision you killing it as a counselor in the future. I love you so much, and I cannot wait to keep coming back to see you thriving. Have such an amazing year!

Eva Gomez – Gomez, you are such a leader in the group. From making everyone feel included to laughing with your friends, I can always count on you to be positive and to support your groupmates no matter what. I don't know if camp could survive without you, so please never stop coming back. Your infectious spirit and love for camp is exactly what every counselor wants in their campers, and you were exactly that. I love you so much!

Shantall Hernandez – It was so amazing to meet you and get to spend time with you in the last two weeks. While we definitely all wish you could have spent more time with the group, you made such an amazing first impression, and I know we are all excited to continue to get to know you next summer. You are such an amazing girl, and I love how easy-going you consistently are. Love you!

Siena Hernandez – Wow! In all my summers at Robin Hood, I have never seen someone click faster with a group. From the moment you got to camp, you just understood it. Seeing you bond with everyone was a joy that I cannot even describe. You are such a wonderful person that it came as no surprise that everyone loved you instantly. Your energy, vibe, and overall caring nature makes you such an invaluable member of the group. I am so happy that you have found your place at Robin Hood. Please keep coming back. We love you so much!

Emily Holczer – I am so glad that camp is your happy place. I can tell how much you love it, and it is so amazing to see. You are always having a good time, and you genuinely care about your friends so much. I love being name twins, and I cannot wait to see you when I come back. You are such a wonderful young girl. Love you!

Jorja Holdbridge – You are the kindest. I love how you are always talking to new people, and I genuinely think you could make friends with anyone. You have an innate talent for listening to others and being there for them in so many ways that are invaluable. I hope that you know what you mean to those around you and keep embracing everyone around you for who they are. You are so mature and such an amazing part of the group. I love you!

Ellie Holz – Oh boy, Ellie! I just love you so much. Your goofiness and laugh make you so, so special. Sharing a joke and a hug with you are two of my absolute favorite things. The positive impact you have on your friends and groupmates is absolutely unmatched, and I hope you know how loved you are by all of your friends. Keep being yourself everyday because there is absolutely nothing about you I would change. I love you!

Kyra Jelin – I always say this to you, but I wish so badly that you could see yourself the way the group and I do. You have the most incredible heart and the most beautiful smile. Kyra, you light up every room you walk into, and I cannot thank you enough for the dedication you have to camp. The way you love everyone is something that I only wish I had as a camper, and I thank you for the example you set for those around you. Please always be yourself and remember how amazing you are. I love you!

Sarah Kramer – OMG! If only words could describe how much I love you. You make me laugh every single day, and I just love hanging out with you. Whether we are chilling and talking or having a tickle fight on the way to get food in the dining hall, you are just such a pleasure to be around. You never take life too seriously, and I know that your groupmates appreciate you for the way you handle yourself and your friendships. Please don't change a thing about yourself, Sarah, or I will seriously be upset. I love you, and I can't wait to see you.

Betsy Land – I am so so proud of you. You are such an amazing young woman, and I am so impressed by you daily. You are so wonderful at branching out and meeting new people across camp, but you know that at the end of the day, the girls in your group are the most important and you prove your commitment to them every day. I loved watching you grow and blossom even more this summer, and I loved cheering you on. Please keep in touch and never be afraid to talk to me about anything. I love you!

Evelyn LaRose – You are so, so mature for your age, and I cannot thank you enough for all that you do for your groupmates. You are caring, thoughtful, and you always have a smile on your face. Thank you for loving camp so much, it truly never goes unnoticed. Please promise to keep coming back and try to stay seven next summer! I truly think you will love it so much.

Maddie Lipton – You genuinely are every counselor's dream camper. Your selfless and happy-go-lucky attitude makes you every camper's dream friend too. Maddie, plain and simply, the group would not be the group without you in it. Your empathy, willingness to help others and work hard, and your dedication to fun and positivity makes you an all-around perfect kid. I am so proud of who you have grown up to be and I cannot wait to continue to watch you kill it at Robin Hood every summer. You are the best, and I love you!

Sadie Madel – I am so unbelievably proud of you. I know that coming to camp as a new Arrow can be difficult, but you were always trying your best to put yourself out there. I know that you know time at camp is precious, and I can tell how hard you try to embrace everything that is thrown at you. Keep being yourself and keep on pushing. This place will always love you back.

Emma Nickerson – My little sister! It has been the biggest pleasure to know you all of these summers, and I am so proud of the young woman you are becoming. You are someone in the group I can always look to and count on, and I cannot thank you enough. Your laugh is contagious, your positivity is wonderful, and your love for camp radiates off of you. I know how desperately you want to be there each and every day, and I just want you to know how much camp loves you. You are so wonderful, Emma, and I love you so much.

Sidney Perrino – You are such a voice of reason and a leader in the group. Whether you are laughing with your friends, learning and teaching poker to the group, or just putting your heart and soul into every activity that you do, you light up the group, and I couldn't ask for anything more. You have grown so much since Bow summer and being able to witness that has been one of the greatest pleasures of my time at Robin Hood. Sidney, you breathe camp, and I cannot wait to see you coming back every summer. I love you!

Blake Rabin – Blaker, I want to be you when I grow up. Literally. You are the coolest, most amazing girl in the whole world, and I love how much you sacrifice to get to camp each summer. I want you to know that it is so worth it for you to be here and to recognize that is the most important thing. You are such a kind and caring person, and I will miss your presence each day. I miss you already so much, and I can't wait to see you next summer. I love you!

Brooke Rubino – Thank god I got to be your counselor. You are filled with love and joy, and I am so happy to know you. You are such an incredible person, and the love that radiates from you is infectious. Camp is so lucky to have you, and it is so wonderful to see how much you love being here. I knew from the second I met you stepping off of that bus, that I was going to love you so much, and I do. Thank you, from the bottom of my heart, for being you.

Audrey Scherquist – You are the sweetest girl in the world. A hug or a smile from you instantly brightens my day, and I could not be happier I got to spend another summer with you. I love everything about you, but I especially love your love for your friends. Keep being you, Audrey! You are so amazing.

Charlotte Spear – Char! You are just perfect. You are so kind to everyone that you encounter, and I know that the success of your group is so important to you. If I ever needed something, you were often the first person I thought of, and I cannot thank you enough. From being a smiling face to a new camper to making your best friends laugh, you are the epitome of camp. You are such a natural leader, Charlotte, and I hope that you know how special you are. I love you so much.

Sophia Stoneham – My little dancing queen, Sophia! I am so unbelievably proud of the summer you had. From rocking the stage to being a friend to all, I don't think you realize what you do for camp. You are a smiling face everyone looks to, and I cannot even describe to you how much the group loves you. I am still so sad I missed your breakout performance as Sophie, but I just know you were amazing. Please always remember to be yourself because you are such a joy. Come back next summer. Camp needs you. Love you!

Eva Thakarar – You are the kindest young woman. I love your enthusiasm for everything you do, and I cannot begin to tell you how fun it is for me to talk to you about your latest reads. I can always count on you to be a kind voice of reason in the group, and I want you to know that your friends really look to you in many situations. I hope you know that you are a natural leader, and camp is so lucky to have you! Love you!

Kai Thompson – You had such a wonderful summer. I was so proud to watch you grow and plant even more roots within the group. Seeing you make even more friends was something that made me so happy to see. Your goofy energy and that little bit of edge you have, make your personality so energetic, and I can always count on you to lift the group mood. I love who you are as a person, and I only hope that you continue to grow into yourself and embrace your fun-loving and kind personality. I love you!

Abigail Vuernick – You are so amazing, and you had such an amazing summer. From being a captain to just being an overall amazing friend, you have such a large impact on your group. I am so proud of you and the ways that you handle yourself when times can get tough. Your positive outlook on life and your commitment to good communication with friends makes you such a wonderful person to be around and to put trust into. Thank you for always being yourself and for dedicating yourself to the good of the group. Your kindness and your love for your friends will never go unnoticed. See you next summer! Love you!

Kavya Workman – You are so fun to be around. Your sneaky humor and your adorable smile make my day every day, and I was so sad to see you go. I love how much you put into your time here. Please try to come back for longer next summer, the group misses you so much. Thank you for being such a wonderful presence in the group. Love you!

Dahlia Hoffman – You are such an amazing young woman and I loved watching you grow into your confidence throughout the summer. You make me laugh, and I love how you flow through life easily. I am reminded so much of myself when I talk to you, and it has been so amazing to get to spend the summer with you. Please keep being yourself, and I will keep watching with awe. I love you!

Mackenzie Berger – Big Mack! You are the most amazing girl. I cannot get enough time with you ever, and I will constantly wake up missing your big smile and your goofy and positive energy. I wish I could spend every day ever with you, but if I only get the summers that's okay. Your care and dedication to camp and your friends is so amazing, and I cannot wait to keep watching you come back. You bring a smile to all of our faces every day, and I promise that it is not unnoticed. I love you, Mack!

TO MY STAFF –

I know we always said it, but Arrow staff is quite literally unmatched. I love each and every one of you, and know confidently that I could not have done it without you guys. Reggie, Sassy, Lyla, Ava, Hannah, Ellie and Aimee, you were such wonderful people to spend each day with, and I couldn't have imagined working with anyone else. Thank you for everything you did for me this summer, and thank you so much for loving the kids as much as you did. You guys made the group what it is, and I am so thankful.

YOU MADE MY SUMMER SO MAGICAL, AND I COULD NOT HAVE ASKED FOR A BETTER LAST SUMMER AS A GROUP LEADER.

ARROWS

You guys simply complete me, and I will never forget the way you made each day so fantastic. I love you to the stars on the quad and back, and I cannot wait to reunite with you all. I love you so much.

Bards

The summer could not have started off stronger. Between the new flying squirrel and our pink Chuck flag. How could this possibly be a bad summer? Right away, we welcomed our six new amazing girls, Sabrina, Sol, Valentina, Libby, Jane, and Sloane G. Between Sabrina not screaming once on the flying squirrel and Libby immediately braiding everyone's hair, I had a feeling all of you would fit in pretty well here. Despite a bit of rain, all of you unpacked into your cozy areas, finally in one bunk all together! We finished our swim tests and for our first evening activity, we did scavenger hunt (Sorry Daf, about your beard) and then ended our night off with a circle time where we discussed our goals and bucket list for this summer

We got hit with some beautiful sunny days, where we got to swim in the lake, play some volleyball, soccer, pickleball and more. We pretty much got to go on the boats every day, whether it was waterski, first period, or sunset pontooning after dinner, there was no shortage of enjoying the beautiful Ossipee Lake scenery. Remember when Lila got up so easily on one ski?! We also had our first campfire where all of our new friends were introduced by their camp big sisters.

Remember all of the trips we got to take out of camp? We traveled just a short ways out of camp to spend the morning mini golfing! You all showed up with amazing short game skills and got to treat themselves to ice cream after all your hard work on the course. Remember Gracie the dog? Remember when we dominate the gym? With our ab workouts and Zumba led by Lily and Ivy, we stayed jacked. Evening activities like slip-n-slide kickball, Infection, and competitive cookie decorating filled our nights with laughs and sugar. What's new?!

If we didn't have a rivalship with Kenwood Evergreen then, we definitely do now. Between playing against them in a volleyball tournament (not to brag, but obviously we got first place) and spirit day, we can't forget Sergio's Dungeon and our camp uniform. The next day, we were blessed with a beautiful beach day. We woke up early and began our journey to Ogunquit Beach, where we somehow managed to enjoy the freezing cold ocean. Remember the over/under game? Remember Eden's obsession with Mary Hurd? Remember Farmington? After we rested on the beach and explored the boardwalk, it was time for us to head back to the vans, where you all fell fast asleep. That day was so much fun! When we got back, we were lucky enough to have the opportunity to watch Family Affair in Woody's house with Ben, and relax for the rest of the night. In the middle of the week, we celebrated the 4th of July with a parade, ice cream, slip-n-slides, and a beach party! It was the best day ever!

Remember how the next morning we ventured to Bayle Mountain for a hike? We crushed it in just about 45 minutes! You guys killed it and definitely redeemed your hiking skills. Of course we went to Cozy Corner after, where we indulged in some post-hike ice cream. After we got back we cooled off in the lake and had a chill activity period where we read books and made friendship bracelets. Remember Zoe's tanning obsession? After dinner we pajama jumped in the lake for evening activity and danced on the waterfront together as the sun set.

Remember Nat and Libby's birthdays? Thank you to Nat's mom for the goody bags! Remember Sloanerman's amazing birthday songs? Remember Jackson from Camp Cody? Remember beating the Friars in kickball? Remember the optional hike to Mount Chocura? Remember when Libby was reminded of home every time a country song came on? Remember lip sync dance battles? Remember Parents Visiting Day? Seeing everyone with their parents so happy was the best! Remember when your parents brought a plethora of food like challah, pickles, and candy platters? Shout out to Allie and Lexi's moms for the candy!

Remember the Naked in Manhattan dance? Remember Horror movie, Kathryn? Remember Annie's spa nights? Remember when Clem was in the first stall listening to Noah Kahan with Zoe's fan for way too long? Remember the sad Meow Meow Meow Meowwwwww song? Remember let the imps do it? Remember the sand throwing competition? Remember the Mama Mia Performance to Dancing Queen? Remember finding Josie's campfire? Remember how excited Zoe B was to get mail? Remember Kathryn's special song? Remember being Hooked on a Feeling? Remember BEEF? (shoutout basketball Will!) Remember when Ava was a baller? Remember when Lexi was not eating dried mango? I don't. Remember Janice the cat? Remember when you guys could not hold it together after watching One Day? Remember being in #FetalPosition4Life? Remember when we had soccer every day? Remember Lysol's SSS? Remember when we island swam in the morning? Remember Swiper no Swiping Siena? Remember when we ran around camp in the rain and jumped in the lake? Remember how Zoe D slayed the dance? Remember when Sloane conquered the Portland hospital like a champ? The Beatles will never win! We love you Sloane! Remember when everyone's cycles synced? Those were some scary days…

Remember when Siena was calm during a paddleboard period? (like no not ever). Remember Eden's Hal's Barbecue Chips? Remember when Winnie the Pooh had a honey jar stuck on his nose? Remember when Josie wasn't sleeping? I don't. Remember when there were hidden mickeys everywhere? Remember when Lily taught us all the Get Off Me tik tok dance? Remember when Libby and Valentina easily won the try not to cringe challenge? Remember the makeover with the Tumblers? Remember Siena's Gua Sha? Remember the Tyla dance? Remember how fun our excursion was? Nothing was better than that first rest stop Dunkin' hit. It has been so long since you guys got the taste of outside food! Remember white water rafting? The edits and photos CrabApple made were FIRE. Remember the female Emo AI version of Robin Hood? Remember when Allie fell out of the raft? Remember Connor? Remember axe throwing? Remember Chipotle? Remember Eden and Santi? Remember tower fashion shows? Remember when Eden was quiet during flashlight time? I sure don't.

BARDS

Remember the anticipation in the air when Green & White was about to break? Remember when Josie slammed her thumb in a door hinge? We are praying for you girl. Remember Lysol's SSS? Remember how OLD CAMP you guys became? Remember Will and Dom? Remember how many times we got to swim at Woody's? Remember our chipmunk friend? Remember Sammy's secret admirer? (iykyk…) Remember Dylan's Archie's adventure? Remember when Livy did parkour trying to turn off the fire alarm in our bunk? Remember Allie's lemme purrrr's? Remember Sol's face masks? Remember when Annie and Caroline broke and fixed Hannah's bed? Remember Sigma Alpha Baddies? Yeah, this was a brain rot summer for sure. What is Dang Matt Smith? Remember when we beat the Friars in dizzy kickball with the best ref ever? (we love you, Woody!). Remember when Jane wasn't reading a new book every day? I don't! Remember the bat in the bunk? Remember when you all were kittens? Remember when Sloaney wasn't an angel? I don't.

It was 7 am. Woody announced Green & White was breaking on the overhead speaker. He told us all to go to the waterfront. At this point nothing was discreet. Thunderstruck by AC/DC was playing on repeat. All of a sudden the Twisted Tea actors came out of nowhere, doing a pyramid on water skis. We knew this was real when the judges rode down on trolleys. The next five days were intense. With the Green Outlaws and the Wild White West, this was bound to be an amazing war! It was amazing to see how hard all of you went. Congrats to all of our captains and cos, Annie, Dylan, Caroline, and Sammy! Finally the war ended and White took the dub. But the real win was being able to return back to one big group again.

Remember when Theo was your group leader for the afternoon? Remember when you got to walk to Cozy? Remember when we screamed our almas in the dining hall during the last dinner? Remember awards night? Congrats to Caroline and Zoe B and Dylan on your awards? You are all so deserving. We love you! Finally, we finished the summer strong by writing letters to your future selves, stargazing in the rink, and watching movies on the porch. I could not be more proud of how far you girls have come. You are truly a beautiful bunch of girls inside and out, and your growth this summer was amazing to watch. You better all come back next year, because I know your next two camper years are only going to get better.

Valentina Blanco Ferrada – You never fail to put a smile on my face. From the first day I met you I knew you were very special. You are the full package! Beautiful, athletic, bilingual, an amazing friend, amazing camper, and hilarious. You somehow manage to be good at everything, and watching you grow in confidence and maturity throughout the summer was amazing to see. I can't wait to hang in Spain!

Zoe Bressler – You are truly one of a kind, and I've never met anyone quite like you. Your humor brightens even the dullest days, and your kindness makes everyone feel valued and loved. You've taught me so many valuable lessons, and I find myself wanting to be more like you every day. You're not just one of my best friends, you're like a little sister to me. I miss your hugs and can't wait for the day we get to see each other again. Until then, know that you're always in my heart and thoughts.

Caroline Callahan – When I think of camp I think of you. You carry a certain energy that lights up any room you walk into. You manage to make everything fun – even when it's not. You have a contagious laugh and hanging around you is truly a pleasure. I have never met anyone like you and I can see us being friends forever. Thank you for being there for everyone when they need, and making any time a good time. I love you!

Jane Collins – From your sweet smile to your soft voice, your calming aura never fails to brighten my day. From the moment you arrived at camp, your quiet strength and thoughtful presence were felt by everyone around you. Though you often preferred the comfort of a good book, when you spoke your mind, it was clear how much wisdom and insight you have to share. You may have been quiet, but your presence made a big impact on all of us. By the time you left, camp just didn't feel the same without you. We were all sad to see you go, but we're grateful for the time we spent together and the memories we made. You are truly one of a kind.

Olivia Dennig – You've been such a sweet and cuddly presence this summer, bringing so much warmth and joy to everyone around you. Your goofy side always makes us smile, and your love for your friends is so heartwarming. It's been amazing to watch you grow and evolve over the summer. You've come so far and it's amazing to see. I am so grateful to have had you with us, and we'll always remember the special way you made this summer unforgettable. I love you!

Zoe Dessen – You inspire me. Your talent as a dancer is absolutely amazing. But what really stands out is the passion you bring to everything you do. You care so deeply about the world and the people in it, and that shows. Your drive to become a better person and make a difference is something truly special. You have so much to offer, not just as a dancer or at camp, but as a person. I can't wait to see where that takes you. Watching you grow is a privilege, and I know you're going to do amazing things. Keep being you…there's so much greatness ahead.

Lucy Friedman – You are such a natural leader, and it's amazing to see how much you care about everyone around you. You always stay true to yourself and others, and your honesty shines through in everything you do. Your intuition helps you understand things in a way that makes everyone feel safe and understood. It's clear how deeply you care about the things that matter to you, and that passion is something special. Keep being the wonderful person you are – you're making a real difference just by being yourself.

Sloane Ginocchio – You have a vibrant personality that really stands out, and your spunk and sass are a big part of what makes you unique. It's clear that you're passionate and willing to stand up for what you believe in, which is a quality that shows real strength and conviction. Your determination and individuality are commendable, and you add a distinctive energy to any group. It's important to recognize the courage it takes to express oneself openly and to advocate for one's beliefs. Your presence brings a lot of character to the mix, and that's something worth appreciating.

Sloane Goldstein – You truly embody what it means to be a genuinely perfect human being. Your kindness and sweetness are extraordinary, and you have an incredible way of becoming the center of attention, not by seeking it, but by simply being the most compassionate and caring person in the room. Your subtle humor is a delight and always brings a smile to my face, making even the simplest moments special. I can't imagine this world without you because you make it brighter and better with your presence. Everyone deserves to have someone like you in their life, and I'm deeply grateful that I get to call you friend. You are a true gem, and your impact on those around you is immeasurable.

Kathryn Greenbaum – I've got to say, you are one of the most unique and hilarious people I've ever met. Your quirky sense of humor and those out-of-pocket jokes always keep me on my toes, and I love it! But beyond the laughs, you have such a kind heart, and it shows in everything you do, especially in how you're such an amazing older sister. You bring so much to our group, and camp wouldn't be the same without you. I'm so glad we've gotten even closer this summer. You're truly one of a kind and I love you!

Jenna Gustin – I am so proud of you. You've grown so much this summer, and it's been amazing to see. You care so deeply about the things that matter to you, and your sensitivity is one of the things that makes you so special. But let's not forget how hilarious you are. You always know how to bring laughter into any situation. I wouldn't change a single thing about you because you're perfect just the way you are. I'm so glad I got to be a part of your journey this summer.

Natalie Lefberg – Rabbi Nat! Your happy-go-lucky attitude and spunky personality make you an absolute delight to be around. Let's not forget your passion for Israel… You have a natural way of bringing fun and laughter wherever you go with your goofy antics. At the same time, your intense passion for things adds an extra spark to everything you do. It's clear that you put your heart into every moment, and that energy makes such a positive impact on everyone around you. You truly make every experience more enjoyable just by being your authentic self.

BARDS

Annie Lippard – When I think of the word kind I think of you. There are not many people out there like you, but it is people like you who make the world a better place. Everyone could learn a lesson or two from your sweet words, soft soul, compassion, and love for those around you. You genuinely care about making things better for everyone, not just yourself. Please never change, and never let anyone let you believe that you need to change. I love you!

Ava Lowe – You brought a sense of calm and warmth that made everyone around you feel loved and special. Your witty humor brightened our days, and your kindness touched the hearts of everyone you met. You faced your hardships with such courage and grace, and watching you overcome it was truly inspiring. Though we were all sad to see you leave camp early, the impact you made in such a short time will stay with us. You will be greatly missed, but we're so proud of you and know that wherever you go, you'll continue to spread joy and love.

Sabrina Miller – From the moment I met you, I knew I was dealing with a very strong person. Your presence shifts the energy of a room from good to great. You somehow manage to make anyone comfortable in a conversation. Watching you grow more and more at home here was amazing to see. From the first night when you came in late at night to the day you left, you did not waste a minute attempting to fulfill every moment you had here. I hope to see you back here soon. Keep doing you!

Dylan Oakley – Dyl, you are such an incredible leader, and it's amazing to see how you naturally guide and inspire those around you. Your genuine nature and positive attitude make a huge difference, creating a welcoming and uplifting environment for everyone. Your kindness shines through in everything you do, and your energetic and social personality brings so much life to any group. Simply put, you're amazing, and your presence has a special way of making every experience better. Keep being your perfect self!

Eden Polacheck – Your laugh is so contagious. Everything with you is so funny. Whether it's your impin dog, your childhood pics, the mothership at paddleboarding, hidden mickey, or a waterski boat, you manage to make everything a great time. I loved our nightly talks because you always managed to take the conversation somewhere I never thought it would go. You are always keeping me on my toes! Never change! You are going to kill high school, and anyone in your presence is so lucky!

Josie Ponsky – You bring so much to camp. You've got this incredible mix of being quiet yet totally quirky, and it's something that really makes you stand out. Your kindness to everyone around you doesn't go unnoticed, and I love those silly moments that make camp all the more fun. You've got a sense of humor that's pure gold. You're amazing just as you are, and I'm so glad you're here. I love you so much!

Siena Posner – POS! Words cannot describe you. Your laugh brightens my day. You are effortlessly stylish and cool, and it's always so much fun spending time with you. Your sweet and hilarious personality lights up every moment, making each experience more enjoyable. You're not just beautiful on the outside but have a truly amazing inner beauty that shines brightly. This summer, your personality really stood out and made a big impact on everyone around you. I've loved every minute spent with you and can't wait for more. Keep shining just like you do!

Sasha Radvinsky – It's been truly amazing to witness the growth you've shown in your character since I last had you as a camper. Your genuine care for others is evident in everything you do, and it's clear that you're dedicated to working on yourself and striving to be even better. Your honesty brings a refreshing transparency to our interactions, and your cool, laid-back attitude makes you so easy to be around. On top of that, your sense of humor never fails to bring a smile to my face. Your kindness and thoughtfulness make a real difference and you've become such an incredible person. Keep being the amazing person you are. I love you!

Clementine Rose – Clem, your strength and kindness are truly inspiring. Despite life's challenges, you never let anything dim your smile or your ability to make those around you feel loved and cared for. You have a way of making everyone feel special, and that's a rare and beautiful gift. The world is a better place because of people like you, who spread joy and warmth no matter what life throws your way. Your positive energy and caring heart are something that everyone who knows you is lucky to experience. Keep shining bright, Clem – you're making a difference every single day. I love you more than you know!

Allie Rosenberg – It's been such a joy to watch you grow and become more confident in who you are. You are so well rounded – beautiful, funny, fun, and athletic. You are like a little sister to me and your sense of humor lights up every room. Seeing you step into your own has been truly inspiring. I'm excited to see the incredible person you're becoming, and can't wait to watch all the amazing things you'll do in the future. I love you, Allie!

Lila Rosenberg – Lils, you have an incredible way of truly caring about everyone around you, always thinking about how your actions might affect them. Your kindness and generosity shine through in everything you do, and it's clear that you always put others first. On top of that, your storytelling is so fun to listen to. Your genuine concern for others and your wonderful stories add so much to the group, and I'm so grateful for the warmth and kindness you bring into every moment. I love you!

BARDS

Josie Rosenfeld – You bring so much joy and character to our group! Your love for your friends shines through in everything you do, and your sense of humor keeps us all laughing. You have a natural beauty that radiates from the inside out, making you an incredible person to be around. And let's not forget your love for sleep, because even the best need their rest! Your presence adds something truly special to our group, and we're all so lucky to have you in our lives. I cannot wait to watch you grow more as your camp career continues. I love you!

Sloane Singerman – You are amazing. I have never met someone more caring than you. You are so mature for your age and so aware about how everyone around you is feeling. I know I can always trust you with anything, from Quill summer to now, it has been amazing watching you blossom into the person you are and becoming. It was so sad to see you leave at four weeks, but remember The Realm will always have a place for you.

Lyla Soloman – From the moment you arrived at camp, it was as if you'd been with us all along. Despite joining a bit later because of your dancing, you slipped into our group seamlessly, bringing warmth, laughter, and a beautiful energy that lifted everyone's spirits. Your kindness and willingness to help others never went unnoticed, and the way you embraced every moment without a single complaint was truly inspiring. You have a gift for making people feel comfortable and included, and your hilarious sense of humor added so much fun to our days. I felt beyond lucky to have had you again this summer. You are so loved!

Sammy Steinlauf – You are one of a kind. You have a certain way about you that is calm, cool, collected, nice, and hard working. When you want something, you get it. Not because you whine and pout but because you work for it. I will always respect you and your hard work and compassion towards your friendships, sports, school and family so much. I cannot wait to watch you grow even more into an amazing person, and I know whatever you end up doing in your future, you're going to do an amazing job. I love you!

Cornelia Touw – CORN! You have a wonderful ability to go with the flow and adapt to any situation with ease. Your athleticism is impressive, and it's clear you put a lot of effort into everything you do. But what really sets you apart is your kindness and humility. You're always considerate of others and never seek the spotlight, which makes your genuine nature even more special. You bring a positive and grounded energy to everything you're part of, and it's truly appreciated by everyone around you. I love you!

Sol Urena – Watching you grow in a new place and country, into a fun, kind, giving girl who loved to share notes and gifts with those she loved, and do face masks at night with her friends was amazing to see. Your experience at camp is truly what camp is about. I am so proud of you for making this an amazing experience for yourself. You are going to keep growing into an amazing girl. I can't wait to see you in Madrid!

Elizabeth Wilson – I just wanted to tell you how impressed I am with you. It's not easy to join a group of 14-year-old girls and fit in so seamlessly, but you did it with such class and effort. Your kind and pure soul shines through in everything you do, and it's clear you're an amazing friend to everyone around you. Your creativity and artistic talents are inspiring, and you've brought so much laughter and joy to camp with your hilarious sense of humor. I'm so grateful you came to camp this summer, and honestly, I hope you keep coming back forever. You've made this place so much better just by being you.

Alexis Zweibel – Lex, you are genuinely kind and amazing, and your athleticism and ability to include everyone make you stand out in the best way. Your love for dried mango is just one of the many things that make you unique. You're an incredible older sister and friend, always there with the best snacks and your distinctive raspy voice that everyone loves. Your positive energy and thoughtful nature make a big difference in the lives of those around you. It's clear how much you care, and your warmth and kindness are truly appreciated. I love you!

Bards
2022
SOCCER

Hey Shires!

What are the odds we look back on our Shire summer in The Realm?

ONE... TWO... THREE...

Let's rewind all the way to opening day… Shires arrived early for the Senior Camp soft open with smiles on your faces. Surprise! We're in Siberia! Even though day one was rainy, it's okay because we were able to catch up on the OC, our favorite show! We ended the first day with Family Feud at the ODT! Remember our first nighttime volleyball? Who knew we would improve so much from the beginning of the summer? I think volleyball has become our sport thanks to Cate!

Week 1 we had fun trying all of the new activities! We attempted to wake surf. Congrats to Lila S and Sophie for getting up first try! Maybe I'll get it next summer. We each discovered our new favorite activity, the flying squirrel, and we took to the new floaties at senior waterfront! Remember the pushing off game? We gained a few battle scars on those floaties, but it was all worth it to be the last one standing. Remember speed dating with the Foresters? And 9 square with the TPs? You guys made great friends with our table neighbors! Remember ABC fashion show? So glad we put those laundry beads to good use. Remember the challenge cup? Round one we sat on the sand court for newcomb. You all showed no mercy for the Scouts! Remember swimming at Woody's? Ratner and Marni's "plan A" at the new ODT was a success!

In Week 2, we left camp a lot! Remember our Lit 72 hours? Starting with the FunBucket social! Hey Casey? When is the Shires curfew? The next day we left for beach day! Remember our van ride with Will Heese? Loved his aux! We all got sun and sand at Ogunquit! Remember when Sophie somehow bought fireworks. Rick Lowe was not too happy about that. RIP to sparklers at camp. Remember when Eliana bought our new friend McKibbles? The next day we had our "hike." What a tough time that was getting up the mountain. We struggled but finally made it. The uphill battle earned us Cozy Corner for sure! We arrived back at camp to swim at the ODT!

The Fourth of July! What a day! We had a competitive morning starting with our second round challenge cup game. Who knew Andrea would be so amazing at flicker ball?!? We destroyed the Arrows and advanced to the next round. Then we challenged the Foresters to a volleyball game. The afternoon was filled with fried food, ice cream, a beach party and whip cream wrestling! After dinner we had an unforgettable night in North Conway watching the fireworks! We got back super late, but luckily, we had pontoons all morning the next day. Remember odds are on the pontoon? Remember when Lila R pulled hair? I do!

Remember the spirit day at Evergreen? You really showed up with your cat face paint and dominated the fields! We ended the day with WoFection! Remember our spontaneous trip to Cozy Corner? Thanks, Ratner and Marni, for being so convincing to Woody! Remember fight night? Who knew Sadie was so good at leg wrestling. And we can't forget Eliana and Lila S 's epic rap battle. Don't worry I got a video. Remember the Senior Camp cookout? Everyone to the cookout! That includes you girls in the gazebo!

Shires loved the waterfront this summer! Remember pajama jumping? Hey Shires! Isn't this just the best night ever? Can we give a big thank you to our lifeguards? Dome and Jeremy were great sports. Speaking of the waterfront, remember my least favorite game? Triple crown for tying bottoms to Chuck's doc! Remember diving for rocks in Bay 2? How did you guys get that massive one? And no, Alexandra, you can't paint a boulder and give it to your SSS. Remember dancing with waterfront Andrea? Remember our pontoon boat ride to the main lake?

Remember McDonald's with the Scribes? Chicken nuggets and fries paired so well with the stars in the rink. Remember when McKibbles was held hostage? Remember Esme's contact ball? Rumor has it she tarted with a marble. Remember when Gypsy Rose came for Robin Hood Gives Back? I don't! Remember when Sophie broke Evvy's bathing suit at Senior waterfront? Remember Milnay and Carly? Remember when Elle midnight madnessed Sadie? Remember devouring cookie cake from the Scribes? Remember our one and only fitness period filled with zumba?

Remember the best night of the summer, SYTYCD? You guys went out there and brought the house down with your dance. It was truly the best one. Cozy should have been ours. Remember our super long roll call? 16 BOTTLES OF MILK ON THE WALL, 16 BOTTLES OF MILK! Speaking of role calls… DO IT! DO IT! STOP! LET ELIANA DO IT!

Remember the Despicable Me movie? Remember our play day at Birchmont? Grace and Ratner slayed the soccer field, and all of you made new friends! Remember Alicia's Santos and the cookie cake? Remember Senior Camp bowling? Remember all of your mega beds? Remember all of our feasts at night? Remember getting Chipotle? Remember PVD? It was so fun to meet all of your parents!

Post PVD we immediately kicked it up a notch with excursion! Remember the bus ride to Boston? Hey Lottie Lottie lottieeeee! Remember our lunch at Tatte? Remember the duck tour? RELEASE THE QUAKEN! Remember shopping at Quincy market? Remember our dinner at Fire & Ice? Remember the Counting Crows and Santana concert? Remember the hotel and our security guard, Jason? Remember the JFK museum? Remember when you tried to throw a party in Fiona, Lila S, Eliana and Evvy's room? Remember getting Dunkin' every morning? Remember Treetop adventures? Some of you really killed it with the black diamond level! Remember the Bravehearts game? I don't! Remember trolling Jake Baumoel? Remember when Eliana and Lila S capsized in the Charles River? Good job guys. Our trip to Boston was truly unforgettable and it was so fun to relive Forester/Shire excursion with you all.

We returned to camp with the energy ready for Green & White. Remember Peter, Eliana and Ratner's fake break? They really got us good. Remember slime making? Remember when your staff wore blueberry alo suits? Remember your unforgettable performance at make your GL laugh? Remember right after when Sophie ran during the fake break? Remember anxiously awaiting the Green & White break and coming up with new theories every day on when it could be? We were tweaking for sure. Remember pontooning for our last evening activity before Green & White? Turns out we would be woken up bright and early for this break!

SHIRES

We got started right away with day one! You guys had an amazing war, bringing effort and intensity to each activity. I loved how at the end of each sport you all came back together at the end to celebrate the game and thank the judges. Remember the downpour and our muddy Gaga game? Lila S's strategy to stay in the water worked well, until White pulled out the win. Remember how incredible you guys were in the talent show? You all killed it in the skit, dance and glee. Remember song night? At the end of the night we all came back together as a family. And boy did you have an exciting Night 5! Remember Fiona's new rock? Remember when you all tried to build a fort? Remember leaving your mark on the Siberia bathroom? Sure gave us a fun activity for lazy day!

Remember watching that new show, and meeting our new friend LUCA ROCCO MAGNOTTA?? Remember when we had GCF every day? Remember GL swap? Eli and Toby had a blast getting to know you all. Remember walking to the spot? Remember when Alexandra and Esme had their "phones?"

Remember our final EA and the ultimate troll? Remember walking to the far far field blindfolded only to figure out that our EA was fishbowls? Remember realizing that Fish Bowls is actually fun? Told ya so! Remember when Eve snuck over with pizza? Remember when it got dark? You all had a great time running around on that field. Remember sitting on the tennis court last night? Remember playing our last game of nighttime volleyball? Remember your all nighter that night? So many memories you guys made!

Andrea Blavia – You are an amazing person with such a beautiful soul. I loved being your counselor, and working on my Spanish with you. Your smile is contagious. I loved watching you make friendships and continue to make camp your home. We love you so much, and hope you come back for Scribe summer. Te amo.

Evvy Boren – I loved hanging out with you all summer; it feels like we could talk about anything. You are the sweetest person ever, and so fun to talk to. I love giggling about random stuff with you and catching up on the latest. It feels like we've been friends forever. You're just so much fun to be around, and your friends adore you. Your importance in the group is undeniable. Love you so much!

Sophie Deane – Big S! Where do I start? You're genuinely so entertaining to be around. You are someone who can make any situation fun. Camp is your world and everyone's just living in it. Laughing with you can always make my day. You are also always there for the people around you. I loved watching you be such a genuine friend to all, even your counselors. Thank you for being the best this summer. Love ya, Soph!

Alicia de Ledesma – You were the perfect addition to our group this summer. You came into camp with so much energy and optimism. Your outgoing personality allowed you to make such good friends and adjust to camp so fast. I loved watching you immediately embrace camp and its traditions. You also killed it in the dance! We love you and hope to see you next summer!

Brooke Dery – I loved having you as a camper and friend this summer. You're so down-to-earth and chill, yet you care deeply for your groupmates. I loved watching you take charge during the dance – you really showed everyone how it's done. Your natural stage presence was so fun to watch. You're also incredibly kind and always there to support your friends. I love you so much.

Elle DiNatale – Talking to you is like talking to an old friend. You are wise beyond your years and a go-to person for everyone in the group. You are so down to earth, have a great sense of humor, and you're always there for your friends ready to give advice or a hug. You are such an important part of the group, and everyone looks up to you. I miss you and I love you so much!

Grace Justice – You are so kind hearted and have such a friendly presence. I am so glad you decided to come back this summer on your own. You fit into this group so well, and I loved watching you form deeper friendships with the girls around you. You are always into every activity and set a positive attitude and example for the group. I love you, keep coming back.

Sadie Kreindler – You are the definition of a happy camper and I loved seeing a smile on your face throughout the summer. I am so glad you decided to come back for this summer, you bring such great energy to the group. I love listening to your stories and talking with you. You always have such a great attitude and I loved watching you love camp again. Love you so much, keep coming back.

Esme Leichtling – The Shires just wouldn't be the same without you. Your jokes and boundless energy always keep the group entertained, and your passion for the things you love, especially camp, is truly inspiring. Camp is your place, and you're effortlessly comfortable here. You're not only a great friend who knows just what to say when someone is upset, but you also immediately welcomed me as your counselor with open arms, something I'll always remember and appreciate.
I love you so much!

Alexandra London-Grant – Whether you are belting out your favorite Taylor Swift lyrics or telling a long story, your passion shines through. I loved listening to you talk about the things you love, it makes me so happy. You care just as deeply about your relationships within the group, and are always there for a friend in need. You are truly so loved by the girls in this bunk. I'm so lucky to have been your counselor this summer. I love you so much.

SHIRES

Eliana Mehta – You are quite literally hilarious. I've never seen anything like it. From the evil doctor impression, to your rap battle or your performance in the skit, you always get us so good. We know you will always be there to make us laugh, but also at your core you are a great friend and such a caring person. You are incredibly thoughtful and have so much love for the people around you. Everyone in the group loves and admires you so much. I love you so much.

Fiona Meru – Your laugh is absolutely contagious, and I love our conversations about anything and everything. You have this wonderfully chill, go-with-the-flow vibe that I admire so much. Your carefree attitude is truly iconic, and I wish I could be more like you in that way. You're such an integral part of the group – everyone loves you. And I love you so much!

Lila Ratner – Whenever you start talking, I know it's about to be something good. You are just a goofball in the best way possible. You never take life too seriously, understanding that camp is the place to simply be silly and laugh constantly. You are also a great friend, and I love how close you are with your groupmates. I would be lucky to have you as a lifelong friend. Don't worry, I forgive you for pulling my hair! Keep being you, I just love it.

Lila Soloman – What's not to love about Lila? It felt like you were always smiling or laughing all summer. Your energy is infectious – you're just the cutest person in the world and such a goofball sometimes. I love seeing the amazing friendships you've built in this group. The Shires wouldn't be the same without you. You're simply the best, and I love you so much!

Marni Spear – I admire you so much. You care so much about the people around you and you are truly a friend to every person in the group. I love how you can be just as kind and caring to a stranger as you are to your lifelong friends. You are incredibly empathetic and extremely positive in every situation. Thank you for keeping me sane this summer and always giving me a hug when I needed it the most. Keep smiling and being the fun, positive and loving girl you are. I love you.

Carly Zolot – Oh Carly, you get me so good. Even if some of your jokes don't always land, you still keep us laughing along with you. You're so much fun to be around. But beyond that, you're the definition of a dependable friend. When someone's upset, you're the first to step in and help them feel better. Your loyalty to your friends is remarkable, and I know you'll always be there for the group through both the highs and lows. I love you so much.

Hey Shires!

Wasn't this just the best summer ever?

Thank you to each and every one of you. This summer was my best one yet and unforgettable, thanks to you guys. You are such a funny, passionate, enthusiastic group that loves each other so much. Watching how much love you have for camp and one another reminded me why I love this place. Camp brings us lifelong friends, and if any group is going to be friends forever, it's you guys. Being a part of the Shires of 2024 was an experience that I will never forget. Thank you for letting me share this summer with you. I can't wait to be best friends forever. You guys are going to be the most amazing Scribes next summer. Keep loving camp and soak up every minute with one another. Friends like this are rare, so keep them close and don't let go. I love you all so much.

Shires forever!

Heyyy

SCRIBES

I hope you're not having a strop and that you're ready to look back on the best summer of your lives!

Nothing made me happier than seeing you all get out of the cars and become the leaders of The Realm! We spent day zero making Bunk 4 our new home, scritchen and all! And we started the summer with a fire at the waterfront and making a bucket list for your final camper summer! Don't forget the grape nuts! And of course our last first night ended with some Shirley Temples. Being the leaders of The Realm came naturally to you all on opening day! Despite some rain you all carried energy and enthusiasm with you as you unloaded bags and welcomed new and returning campers to The Realm for summer 2024! After a long but exciting day we had our first of many movie nights in Bunk 4. After opening day it was evident that you would kill it all summer long! We jumped right into camp activities by playing some pickleball and soccer, but that's assuming Sabrina can even shoot! The day took a turn with a storm but some all camp bingo and the first Sunday Sundaes were the best cure!

Remember hiking Rattlesnake with the Scouts and Tumblers? Little did we know what hike we still had in front of us. Remember that night when we learned all the UK slang? It's jobby time! Merry Christmas (and Happy Hanukkah)! Remember Christmas in June? Who doesn't love a theme day! Later that day you all led your very first campfire of Scribe summer and you KILLED it! It made my heart so happy to see you standing in front of all of Girls Camp, right where you belong!

Remember Dunkin' on the pontoon? There's nothing like a donut on the main lake!

HAPPY SWEET 16! Remember Ellie's birthday? After a fire schedule we celebrated with Cozy and a pizza and movie night at Ellie's house! Always a great time in Florida!

I bet you didn't forget about the Senior Camp concert! Scribes brought the style for sure! We loveee a Bon Jovi cover band!

BEACCCHHH BEACHHHH PARTYYYYYY! Yay beach day! Beach day best day! I'm so glad we got to continue our post beach day spa van ride home! Everybody grab your eye masks! The 3rd of July. That's all I have to say about that!

Happy 4th of July! Best 4th in Robin Hood history! Your planning and hard work did not go unnoticed! Everyone had so much fun! And after a long hard day of working we headed to North Conway for the fireworks! A great end to a great day!

Let's fast forward a few days to the adventure of a lifetime! Good ole' Mount Washington! Just keep climbing! It was all worth it for the shirt! Don't you think? I could really use a round of sunset pontoon Calabria right now…

Remember when we surprised the Shires with McDonald's in the rink?

One of the biggest nights of the year…So You Think You Can Dance! You all KILLED it! Can't wait to do the hoedown throwdown together forever! And might I add, best Scribe song ever. I am so beyond proud of you guys! Star gazing in the rink was the perfect end to the best night.

How could you forget the night we finally got to try grapenut ice cream, a Scribe 2024 staple.

Remember PJ jumping? Don't forget to hold on to your pants! And can't forget about Family Feud…IT'S CHUCK'S DOCK!

After a successful and fun PVD with all of your families, it was time for an RBSA! WooHoo! The day after PVD it was time to pack up for excursion!

After an early morning departure on the bus, we got right in the water to catch some waves! Scribes and Saxons can surf! Then we were off to Portland, more specifically, LitLand! Ellie and Reagan had an especially good time at spud craft!

The next morning it was time to go lobstering! You guys made the most of the adventure in the rain! After some time walking around Portland, we headed to a trampoline park and then the mall for some shopping! After a spicy dinner, it was time for a spooooky ghost tour! skee bee deee…Before heading back to camp, we walked around a state park before we went shopping…for kitchen appliances? Overall, excursion was so much fun! I wish we could go back! As soon as we got back to camp, Green & White energy filled the air! Which meant it was time for the Scraxon fake break…best one yet might I say!

SCRIBES

Sulasmith DeFrancia – Our sweet southern belle! I am so so happy you came to camp this summer! It didn't take you long to understand everything and really dive in head first to this place! You are the sweetest and most caring soul and we are all so lucky to have met you! I can always count on you to put a smile on my face and brighten my day by being your goofy self. You fit into this group like a missing puzzle piece. Camp loves you and I hope you keep coming back!
I love you!

Sabrina Bruder – You are so beautiful inside and out, never forget it! You never fail to make me laugh or shock me with a new crazy story. Your craziness will never get old and I will miss it! You truly let yourself shine here and it's so admirable! Watching you grow into such an amazing young woman these last two years has been the best! I have loved every second spent with you! I encourage you to come back forever because I know you will never regret it!
I love you!

Eleanor Hoglund – Oh my Ellie, you just get me! Our brains are just always on the same wavelength and I love it. Your laugh is contagious, as we all know, and can always brighten my mood! You are a ray of sunshine on cloudy days and we were so lucky to spend 24/7 with you all summer. You put so much thought and care into everything you do. You were an amazing leader of Girls Camp, like I knew you would be, and I know you will be for as long as you keep coming back. I can't picture camp without you there! Keep being you!
I love you!

Katherine Schmidt – Our angel! You truly light up every room you walk into! You carry yourself with such grace and class. You are the most thoughtful and empathetic person I know! Nothing you do is ever done without a lot of thought. You are a friend to all but truly the most amazing friend to the people close to you. Your optimism and kindness is unmatched and makes every day better! You are going to be the most amazing counselor and I can't wait to watch you shine!
I love you!

Reagan Van Horn – You are always a step ahead of me. There is no one more caring and supportive than you. You care so deeply for the people you love and it is amazing to watch. Everyone around you is so lucky. Anytime something needs to be done, you are the first person to jump up and volunteer, even when the task isn't fun, which is so respectable. I am so lucky to have someone like you in my life! You are such a natural leader and an amazing friend, and you would make a great counselor. Keep coming back!
I love you!

Clara Yager – My little Tinker Bell! Youare so amazing! You have a way of making everyone around you feel so special! Your smile makes my everyday better! You truly are just the sweetest! You are quiet and composed while also loud and goofy and you pull off that combination perfectly. You put your all into every single thing you do and motivate those around you to do the same, and that is one of your many great qualities! You are already a natural leader and I know you will continue to be on staff!
I love you!

To my SCRIBES

There is no other group of people I would have wanted to spend the last two summers with. I am forever indebted to you guys for letting me become part of your perfect and amazing group. Thank you for always encouraging me to be myself at all times and letting me have a normal Scribe summer that I never got. You were amazing leaders of Girls Camp, like I knew you would be! Watching you all grow and mature the past two years has been so special and I have such immense love for each and every one of you!

I am for sure the luckiest girl at camp for getting to be your group leader! PLEASE keep coming back no matter what. The last two summers with you guys have been the best of my life and I have made memories I will never forget! You guys keep me laughing and smiling! You are lucky to have each other. Never let these friendships go. I love you all to the stars on the squad and back.

xoxo, your fearless leader

ART in the REALM

CAMP
Robin Hood
2024

All th ideas come the

WOODSHOP

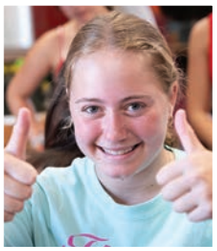

ROBIN HOOD
19 21

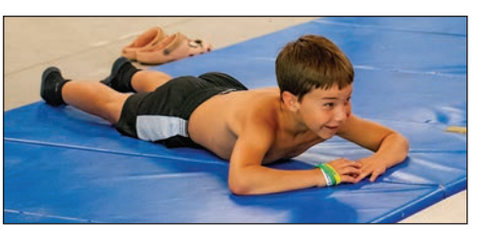

party girl

PICKLEBALL

BASEBALL/SOFTBALL/BLITZBALL

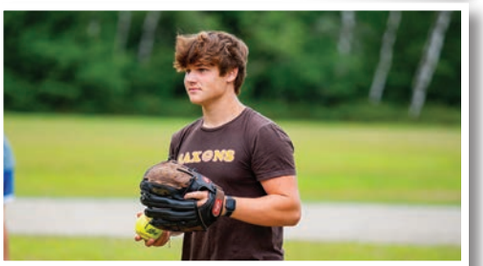

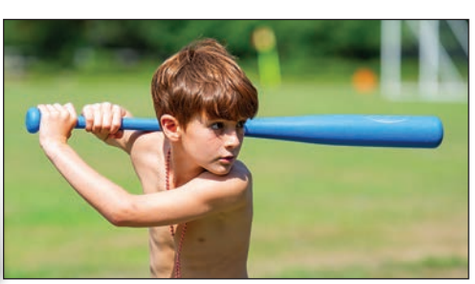

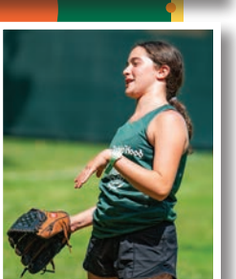

STAFF 2024

VOLLEYBALL

Cate Shanahan + Elodie McGreiver

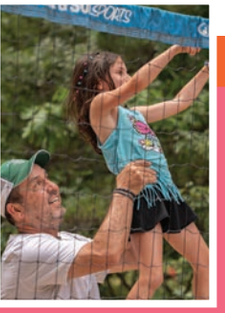

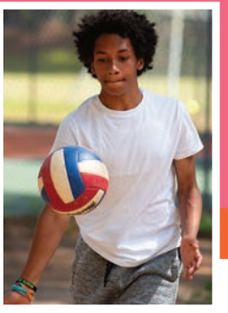

SOCCER

TENNIS

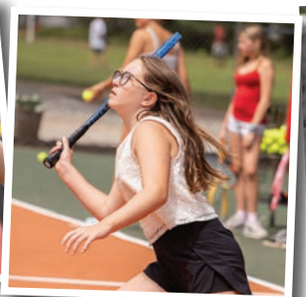

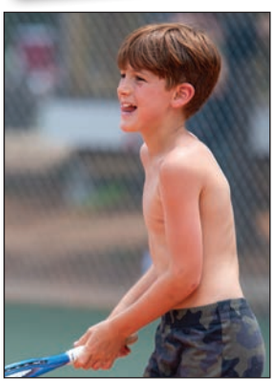

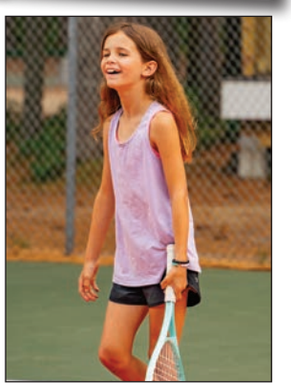

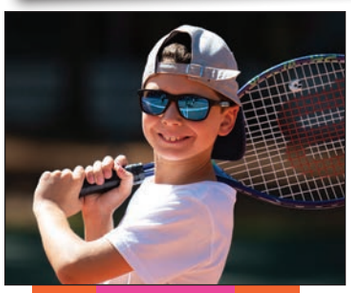

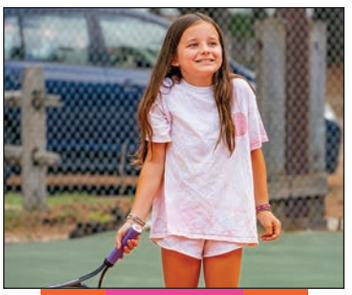

STAY COOL

STAFF 2024
STAFF 2024

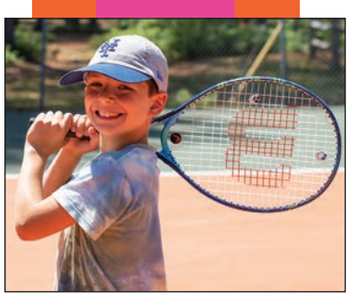

FLYING SQUIRREL

FLYING SQUIRREL

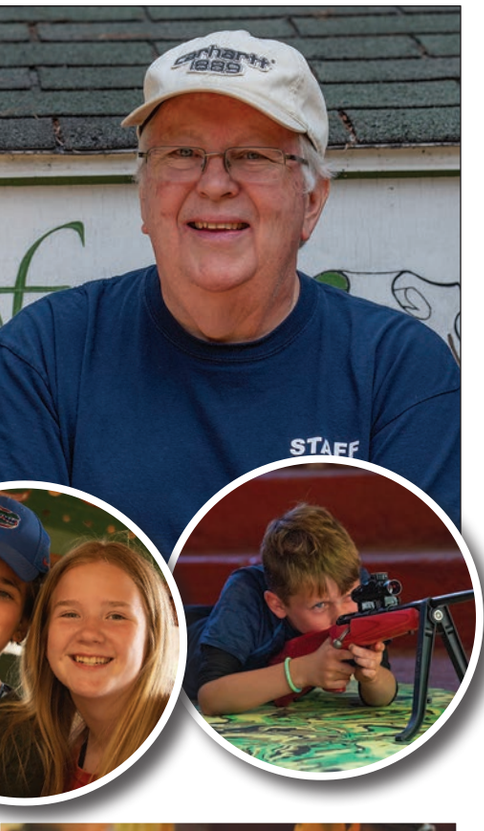

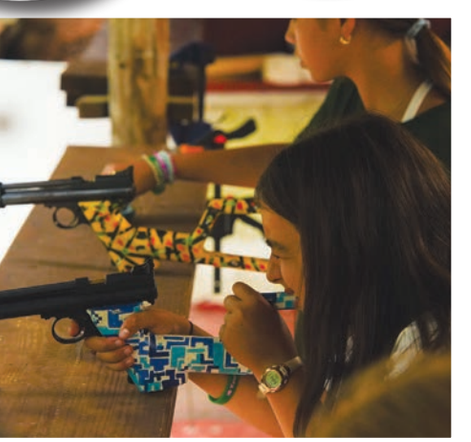

Carhartt
1889
STAFF

HORSEBACK RIDING

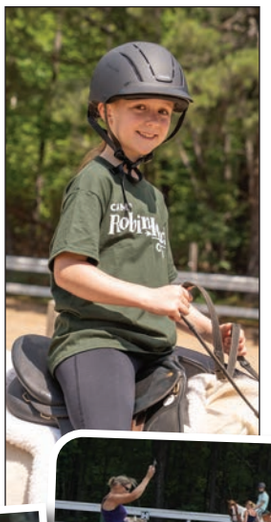

giddy up, giddy up...

TRIPCRAFTS

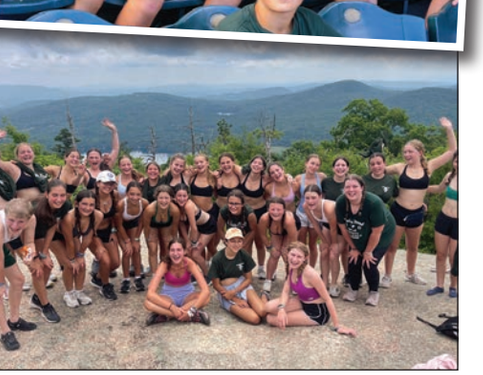

20-31

Sanford

MT WASHINGTON SUMMIT

CRAWFORD PATH

SAILING/CANOEING/PADDLEBOARDING

LIVE WATERSPORTS

LIVE WATERSPORTS

SAILING/CANOEING/PADDLEBOARDING

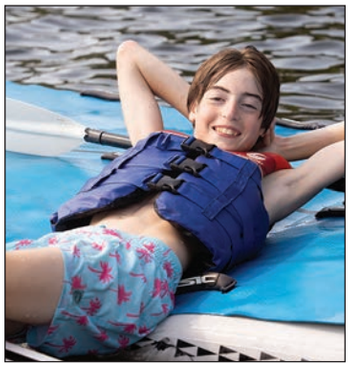

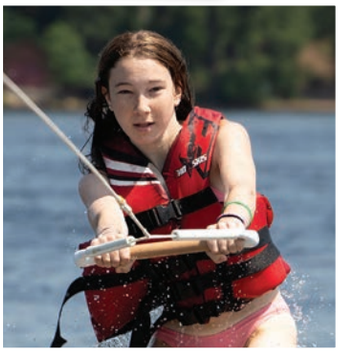

OBRIEN

Craft

WATERFRONT

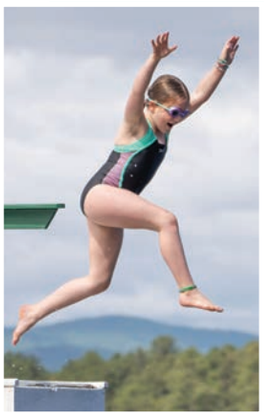

Chucks
Dock

WATERFRONT

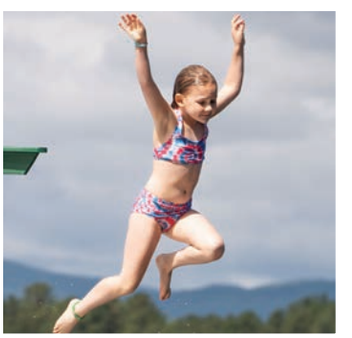

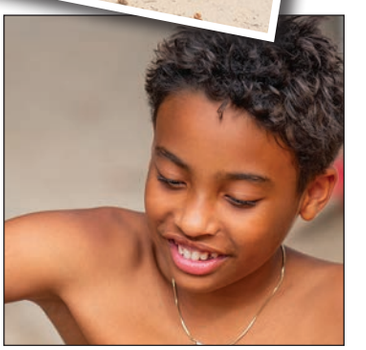

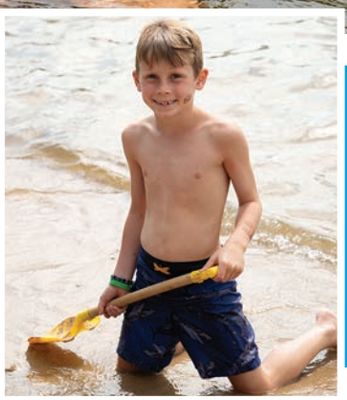

TG

DRAGONTAIL

SPECIAL EVENTS

4th of July

BOSTON
MASSACHUSETTS

BILLA BONG

BOSTON
MASSACHUSETTS

JUZZ
the whole
YEAR

QUILLS

JUNIOR CAMP TALENT

Junior Camp Talent Show

JUNIOR CAMP TALENT SHOW

Camp Robin Hood 19 27

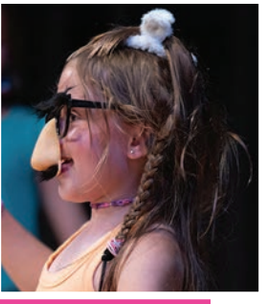

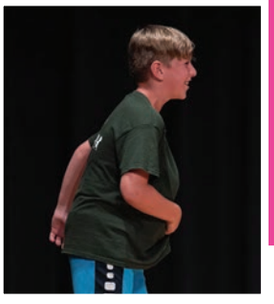

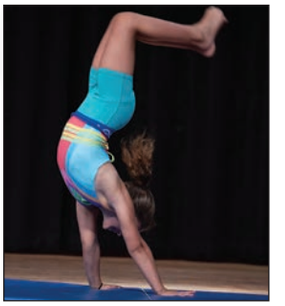

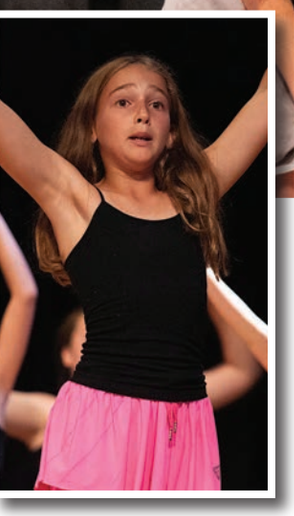

DANCE/SYTYCD

SO YOU THINK YOU CAN DANCE

SO YOU THINK YOU CAN DANCE

Camp Robin Hood

Gives Back Day

As we have done every summer since 2012, we pause on this day to celebrate and to call attention to the notion of giving back to our community and to the world in many different and creative ways.

The idea behind Robin Hood Gives Back Day is to take some time to reflect on how lucky we are to be able to enjoy all that camp has to offer. We are so lucky to enjoy each other's company and to be immersed in our little world where we can quite easily forget the real world and its issues for a while.

This summer, we welcomed Cody from Ben's Bells. Cody arrived with a few members of his team and got right to work with our junior campers. Through a series of activities, Cody showed us how a small act of kindness could make a difference in someone else's day, or even their life.

In one of the activities, campers from each group wrote their name on a piece of paper and taped it to their back. Then, they walked around with a marker and wrote a compliment or something they appreciated or valued on the person's back. By the time this was done, every camper was beaming with pride with all of the kind notes that were written about them.

Cody continued to emphasize the importance of kind acts, no matter how small. We never truly know how someone is doing or necessarily what they have been through that day or in their life. Sometimes, a little kindness can go a long way.

Towards the end, campers painted ceramic coins in a variety of beautiful ways. Each coin then is attached to a tag which says, "This is a Ben's Bells Kindness Coin. Thank you for sharing your kindness. Pass it on." Cody and his team hung a few around camp and the rest were stored in the office. Our administration, as well as our visiting judges during Green & White, handed out these kindness coins when they witnessed a camper treating someone with kindness. It is encouraged to continue to pass these coins along to help build a community of kindness.

We were so thankful to get a chance to learn more about Ben's Bells. If you would like to know more, you can visit their website at https://bensbells.org/. We hope our campers and staff returned home ready to continue to spread kindness like they did this summer in The Realm.

ROBINHOOD GIVES BACK Ben's Bells

PARENTS VISITING DAY

Parents Visiting Day

PARENTS VISITING DAY

PVD
2024

PARENT'S VISITING DAY!
Camp Robin hood '24

PARENT'S VISITING DAY!

Camp Robin hood

PARENT'S VISITING DAY!

PARENT'S VISITING DAY!
Camp Robin hood '24

PARENT'S VISITING DAY!
Camp Robin hood '24

PARENT'S VISITING DAY!
Camp Robin hood '24

PARENT'S VISITING DAY!
Camp Robin hood '24

PARENT'S VISITING DAY!
Camp Robin hood '24

Camp Robin hood '24

PARENT'S VISITING DAY!
Camp Robin hood '24

Camp Robin hood '24

PARENTS VISITING DAY

PARENT'S VISITING DAY!
Camp Robin hood '24

PARENT'S VISITING DAY!
GRATEFUL
DAD
Camp Robin hood '24

PARENT'S VISITING DAY!
Camp Robin hood '24

PARENT'S VISITING DAY!
Camp Robin hood '24

PARENT'S VISITING DAY!
Camp Robin hood '24

PARENT'S VISITING DAY!
Camp Robin hood '24

Camp Robin hood '24

PARENT'S VISITING DAY!
Camp Robin hood '24

Camp Robin hood '24

PARENT'S VISITING DAY!
Camp Robin hood '24

PARENT'S VISITING DAY!

PARENTS VISITING DAY

Parents Visiting Day 2024

PARENTS VISITING DAY

PARENT'S VISITING DAY!
Camp Robin hood '24
PVD
2024

PARENTS VISITING DAY

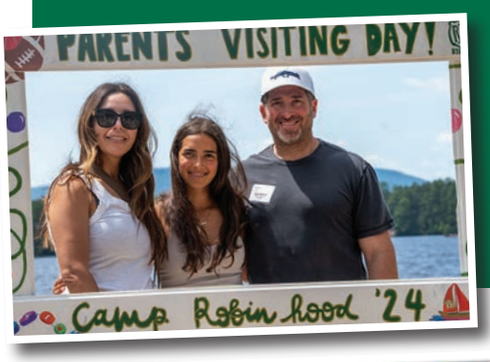

PARENT'S VISITING
Camp Robin hood
PARENT'S VISITING DAY!
Camp Robin hood '24
PARENT'S VISITING DAY!
Camp Robin hood
PARENT'S VISITING DAY!
Camp Robin hood '24
PVD
2024
PARENT'S VISITING DAY!
Camp Robin hood '24
Camp Robin hood '24
PARENT'S VISITING DAY!
Camp Robin hood '24

GREEN & WHITE

Campers went to sleep on Sunday, July 28th, not knowing that the most anticipated time of the summer, Green & White, would begin early the next morning as the fog drifted across Lake Ossipee.

'This is it' boomed from the loudspeaker as Woody kicked off the 2024 Color War break. Thunderstruck by AC/DC thundered over the camp from the waterfront and campers rushed to the beach, eager for any sight of the judges. First, however, campers chanted 'Green & White' as a water ski team did a show ending with a green and white pyramid.

After the show a trolly with all the judges appeared, signaling the start of everyone's favorite time of the summer! At the end of the break, eight captains were announced. Later that morning the partnerships would be revealed with Lucy Hallihan, Perin Romano, Eli Sobel and Jake Baumoel on one team and Gavin Gore, Izzy Lightman, Nate Wildman, Casey Benson on the other.

After breakfast and the jelly bean pick, morning activities were set to take place and the Green team wasted no time jumping out to an early lead of 240-100. By the end of Day 1, which also saw the White team winning two out of three volleyball matches, the Green team led by an even score of 100.

Day 2, headlined by the morning swim meet, both teams jockeyed for a lead. The swim meet kicked off with a new event called the War Canoe before teams jumped into the usual swimming events. Green continued to build on their lead by taking the meet by a score of 348-303. By the end of the day, and after a full slate of afternoon activities, Green increased their lead to 272. Day 2 also gave us the anticipated team name reveal with the announcements being the Wild White West and the Green Outlaws.

On Day 3 the sun shone as bright as ever as campers put on their fastest shoes and got ready for the track meet. Dashers and long jumpers and shot putters lined the soccer field, stretching and locking in on their respective races. Turns out, The Wild White West was a team built for land and not the water. The White team chipped away at the lead and won the track meet by 40 points. In one of Camp Robin Hood's most distinguished traditions both teams presented their team flags which will live forever in Chuck's Playhouse. Day 3 concluded with Talent Night where Junior and Senior campers showed off their talents in a glee song, a choreographed dance, and a play. Well done to all those who participated!

The War began to tighten on Day 4 as White made their move by winning the morning by close to 90 points. After the male and female staff basketball games which were won by the White team, the lead was down to 48 heading into Day 5. Importantly, it should be noted that Jack Grossman took it upon himself to win Nature Points for the White team with his pronounced fishing skills. In the end, these 30 points to the White team were significant.

After a day of activities the outcome of Green & White came down to song night, just like it has in the most previous Color Wars. Both teams belted the words to traditional camp songs before passionately singing their team's medley. When Woody came to the stage to read the final score, silence filled the Barn. A thunderous roar could be heard across the lake as the score was read.
Green, 3,499 and White, 3,558. A margin of 59 to the White.

Final Score: Green 3,499 | White 3,558
A margin of 59 to the Wild White West!

2024
Green 3,499 / White 3,558
– Margin of 59 to the White –
JUDGE
SWITZERLAND
ELLIE

GREEN OUTLAWS

Staff Captains:

Jake Baumoel
Lucy Hallinan
Perin Romano
Eli Sobel

Julia Baumoel
Isaac Bitran
Toby Bloch
Mckenzie Branson
Gregor Brockmann
Ben Buman
Aimee Burnes
Morgan Butler
Yury Castillo Motta
Jack Chambers
Ava Charney
Erin Christie
Keiran Clasfeld
Liv Clemens
Max Corbin
Millie Edwards
Rebecca Ger
Megan Goldsby
Will Heese
Ana Hernandez de Alba de Brigard
Dan Humby
Ella Jaffe
Ben Kreindler
Maya Kruger
Ben Lance
Kyle Lefkowitz
Felix LeMahieu
Andrew Levine
Kiara Mackay
Emma Mahe
Kate McConnell
Ellie Newton
Logan Noack
Lia Russo
Nathan Schlieman
Cate Shanahan
Charlie Sharpe
Molly Shearer
Scarlett Spink
Will Stanmore
Sassy Stratman
Brock Suidgeest
Robert Sziancsak
Lyla Tower
Juan Villalobos
Olivia Wahlstedt
Mary Webb
Eve Weiner
Nora Wildman

WILD WHITE WEST

Staff Captains:

Casey Benson
Gavin Gore
Izzy Lightman
Nate Wildman

Hilary Adelman
Vadym Antonenko
Eliza Bloom
Mitch Boyd
Hannah Brown
Cody Carlson
Laura Cook
Hattie Coulson
Emily Crutchley
Pablo Cruz
Santiago Cruz Lopez
Alex Currey
Nina D'Andrea
Theo Drye
Marina Fidalgo Torres
Tamer Fishman
Neha Gill
Olivia Ginsberg
Noa Goldman
Olivia Goldman
Carla Gonzalez Santoyo
Sergio Gonzalez Herreno
Audrey Gore
Michael Hammett
Hannah Hayduk
Tahlia Jones
Tara Kennedy
Nicholas Lastra Vidal
Robbie Levine
Abi McCarthy
Elodie McGeiver
Millie Nathanson
Ivy Olynick
Juan Pablo Osorio Ceballos
Harry Power
Noah Ratner
Ellis Resnick
Brooke Ridley
Cal Rodin
Sydney Rodin
Gillian Rosenstock
Hannah Rothenberg
Jeremy Sadgrove
Leilani Schwartz
CC Skala
Noah Smith
Sam Swartz
Pierce Terowsky
Peter Torocsik
Julia Walker
Ruby Wildman

CAMPER TEAMS

TPJs

GREEN	WHITE
Capt. David Radvinsky	Capt. Colby Spacek
Co-Capt. Michael Haaren	Co-Capt. Sacha Singer
Will Doherty	Fisher Kaplowitz
Adam Gray	Evan Murphy
Dylan Herfield	Julian Rodriguez
Zachary Ross	Blake Simanovsky
Daniel Salajka	Krish Workman

SQUIRES

GREEN	WHITE
Capt. Julian Klassman	Capt. Alex Kesselheim
Co-Capt. Sylvester Holz	Co-Capt. Jacob Radvinsky
Holden Bash	Avi Cohen
Robert Buman	Jonah Cohen
Spencer Dickerman	Charlie Corr
Noah Hochman	Connor Deane
Connor Josephson	Eli Goshin
Phillip Porres	Kelan Natauri
Matthew Ross	Ezra Singer
Jacob Sperling	Lucas Waldman
Dean Squires	Jackson Walker

ARCHERS

GREEN	WHITE
Capt. Calvin Van Horn	Capt. Spencer Steele
Co-Capt. Tyler Mann	Co-Capt. Theo Evans
Emmanuel Makris	Ben Bernstein
Luca Miniati	Jake Gustin
Tomas Salajka	Lorenzo Rodriguez

YEOMEN

GREEN	WHITE
Capt. Alex Snyder	Capt. Jack Grossman
Co-Capt. Sam Evans	Co-Capt. Jordan Simanovsky
August Beauvalot	Levi Applebaum
Lucas Frank	Paxton Bash
Drew Hoglund	Ali Callahan
Rocco Melite	Harrison Klassman
Zach Radvinsky	Austin Ponsky
Logan Slitt	Ryder Ziman

LANCERS

GREEN	WHITE
Capt. Enrique Zubillaga	Capt. Jake Matsuzaka
Co-Capt. Benjamin Vuernick	Co-Capt. Jack Lipton
JC Hernandez	Santi Claeson
Adam Jablow	Max Gottsegen
Jacob Josephson	Ben Marks
Eli Kesselheim	Mason Moore
Becka Kvirikadze	Xander Slayton
Gonzalo Mas	Neil Varghese
Arnold Seiden	Wyatt Zabel

FRIARS

GREEN	WHITE
Capt. Sebastian Khalil	Capt. Carter Susman
Co-Capt. Zach Levine	Co-Capt. Eli Rosenstock
Ethan Feldman	Callum Jacoby
Colin Fuller	Max Jelin
Alexander Glimcher	Alon Lipshitz
Gavin Horowitz	Noah Lodish
Sebastian Kaye	Jake Ponsky
Rohan Natauri	David Porres
Rex Perlman	Evan Ramirez
Aurelio Quintana Gomez	Lincoln Rupe DeCarolis
Wyatt Reimer	Spencer Sears
Ben Snyder	Grant van Horn
Zeke Wolff	Lachlan Whelan

FORESTERS

GREEN	WHITE
Capt. Robert Torocsik	Capt. Tyler Grossman
Co-Capt. Cameron Emanuel	Co-Capt. Will Morrison
James Cleveland	Hudson Berger
Miles Frank	Alvaro Carasco Floran
Julian Heller	Oskar Goshin
Luke Orlowski	Mauro Perez-Orive
Owen Rothstein	Josh Weiner
Zach Tirrell

SAXONS

GREEN	WHITE
Capt. Eli Kramer	Capt. Lucas Kaganowski
Co-Capt. Ian Allard-Neptune	Co-Capt. Luca Milite
Hudson Brown	Quentin LaCroix
Zach Buman	Noah Martin
Rafael Calleja	Labadie Reid Olynick
Pierre Der Megreditchian	Eli Perrino
Zane Fishman	Gavin Shepard
Robert Milacci	John Zaccaro
Lucca Serafi

SCOUTS/TUMBLERS

GREEN	WHITE
Capt. Harper Jacobs	Capt. Serena Cheney
Co-Capt. Juliet Williams	Co-Capt. Livvy Hoglund
Joelle Burk	Lielle Burk
Abbey Cox	Quinn Horowitz
Alice Greenbaum	Maggie Kvirikadze
Chapin Gressens	Joey Mann
Avia Raivich	Jordana Squires

JESTERS

GREEN	WHITE
Capt. Julia Haaren	Capt. Sienna Marks
Co-Capt. Maya Dessen	Co-Capt. Kendall Ilardo
Genevieve Murphy	Sienna Carmel
Susan Varghese	Arielle Gray
Ava Applebaum	Emma Miniati
Ella Simanovsky	Rosa Skotticelli

BOWS

GREEN	WHITE
Capt. Elsa Rachelefsky	Capt. Poppy Dobbins
Co-Capt. Lily Raphael	Co-Capt. Skye Oakley
Clare Jablow	Yrsa Bjarkadottir
Violet Lipman	Evvy Callahan
Blake Natauri	Teddy Friedman
Leah Peck	Celeste Hernandez
Olivia Rosenberg	Hazel Lipman
Coco Roth	Kylie Zweibel

QUILLS

GREEN	WHITE
Capt. Sloane Sussman	Capt. Rachel Dix
Co-Capt. Arletta Curran	Co-Capt. Tessa Hoglund
Raleigh Lepene	Devan Cox
Phoebe Plouffe	Claribel Fernandez
Ella Ponsky	Amelia Grandic
Bryn Raivich	Nellie Oliver
Tali Shear	Savannah Schlieman
Keegan Shepard	Tali Smith
Tillie Whalen	Leila Waldman

ARROWS

GREEN	WHITE
Capt. Joria Holdridge	Capt. Abigail Vuernick
Co-Capt. Madeline Lipton	Co-Capt. Chloe Bjarkadottir
River Boren	Mackenzie Berger
Shantall Hernandez	Zoe Bernstein
Dahlia Hoffman	Hannah Corr
Emily Holczer	Grace Goldberg
Kyra Jelin	Eva Gomez
Sarah Kramer	Ellie Holz
Betsy Land	Sydney Perrino
Blake Rabin	Brooke Rubino
Kai Thompson	Charlotte Spear

BARDS

GREEN	WHITE
Capt. Dylan Oakley	Capt. Annie Lippard
Co-Capt. Sammy Steinlauf	Co-Capt. Caroline Callahan
Zoe Bressler	Lucy Friedman
Olivia Dennig	Sloane Goldstein
Zoe Dessen	Natalie Lefberg
Sloane Ginocchio	Sienna Posner
Kathryn Greenbaum	Sasha Radvinsky
Jenna Gustin	ClementineRose
Eden Polacheck	Allie Rosenberg
Josephine Ponsky	Josie Rosenfeld
Allie Rosenberg	Lyla Solomon
Libby Willson	Cornelia Touw
	Alexis Zweibel

SHIRES

GREEN	WHITE
Capt. Lila Ratner	Capt. Marni Spear
Co-Capt. Evvy Boren	Co-Capt. Carly Zolot
Sophie Deane	Brooke Dery
Sadie Kreindler	Esme Leichtling
Fiona Mereu	Alexandra London-Grant
Lila Solomon	Eliana Mehta

SCRIBES

GREEN	WHITE
Ellie Hoglund	Sabrina Bruder
Katherine Schmidt	Reagan Van Horn
	Clara Yager

GREEN & WHITE

JUDGES

Most Honorable

Matt Baumoel
Zach Bohm
Ryan Bollman
Jeremy Brockmann
Julie Brockmann
Michelle Brockmann
Mikey Brockmann
Nat Brockmann
Kendall Brown
Maren Butler
Ben Castleman
Elisabeth Charney
Peter Corbin
Wendy Corbin
Billy Freeland
Missy Friedman
Jim Ganaway
Molly Goldberg
Sophie Goldberg
Dan Grossman
Javier Gushue
Roger Harrison
Anna Hermacinski
Evan Hoffman
Jackie Hogland
Geoff Holczer
Chuck Illig
Sadie Jacobson
Sam Jonas
Brendon Keady
Jill Kozloff
Marjorie Kozloff
Danny Kramer
Peter Labes
Dana Levine
Jamie Levine
Joey Licht
Becca Lightman
Rick Lowe
Hannah Magid
Anna Mauldin
Ricky Melasecca
Diane Morath
Ava Morollo
James Newmyer
Josh Podl
Matthew Podl
Jackson Pollock
Brian Ratner
Alex Rikleen
Dick Roberts
Cari Rose
Evin Rothschild
Steve Rupp
Scott Rymer
Evie Schumann
Lainey Segel
Jack Shanahan
Maggie Shanahan
David Shloss
David Slossberg
Brian Snyder
Andrew Sobel
Ben Sobel
Carrie Solomon
David Solomon
Jeff Solomon
Katie Solomon
Leonardo Somana
Jake Szabo
Samantha Szabo
Jules Taylor-Kerman
Jasmine Theermann
Ruby Tower
Andrea Weber
Oliver Weil
Andrew Woodstein
Richard Woodstein
Sarah Woodstein
Andres Zubillaga
Jessie Zweifler

Honorable

Arash Babaoff
Julia Cohen
Lauren Cole
Kat Ferry
Scott Menell
Yensi Rivas
Steve Rupp
Dan Tower
Andrea Van Horn

Camp Robin Hood 1927 2024

Best I Ever Had – GREEN FIGHT SONG

Ski-boat pyramids, trolleys n' eight captains
It's G and Double-yuh and bad guys win sometimes
On the run again, Outlaws how's the [look at band]
You can all join in [point at White], after we win night five

Outlaws know they're home, even though the road's
Just got too many forces pulling us away
Because of Andy, [and] through the rain
We survived two fires, oh, how can we explain
It's the home we'll always have
We're the best we'll ever have

But I read that people leave while the trees remain
On every wall, we still see your names
It's the home we'll always have
Outlaws found their gang

Blue sky is full of drones, their land's a native home,
White thought they had it locked, but
Outlaws cracked the code
They tried to wrangle us, [but] we're better at Rebus
Higher premium, but Jake still gets Chuck's car

Green's perfection, White dropped the bean
It's a brain rot summer and Wild White is a meme
Goin' ninety-five down the interstate,
Claimed Western lands, now we're hunting for our steak

Outlaws tamed the Wild West
We're not hiding, night five's gonna be our final theft
But I read that people leave while the trees remain
On every wall, we'll still see our names
White we laid you down to rest
Outlaws will remain

Perin Romano, she's holding the keys
This team's a mean crew, so let us show you Baumoel's a short king, might he be sitting Green's got the bird flu, so let us show you
Lucy is roaming, brat team is rolling,
Our staff is stacked too, so let us show you
And Eli Sobel, how is the weather
Stomp in your horseshoes, we're coming for you

Outlaws tamed the Wild West
We're not hiding, night five's gonna be our final theft
Wild White needs to face the music and drop the reigns
Green's a rootin' tootin', two-time gang
White we laid you down to rest
Outlaws will remain

When White did duel us, took ten steps forward
We didn't wanna, don't even know ya
White tried to duel us, oil in water
We left them roadkill, lambs to the slaughter
White we laid you down to rest,
Outlaws will remain

The Roads –
GREEN ALMA

I got a message from a friend
Phone lines' been quiet since the day that we left
Wish I didn't have to wonder where you went
'Cause when we're back it looks the same
The rays no Broad Bay and the feeling in this place
My God, that feeling's burned into my brain

I knew I should have stayed, but lignored it
Thoughts I swept away as unimportant
As tears stream down my face
The sign slips out of view
And out the window pane
I hope a road leads back to you
The breeze still on my skin
But the rushing leaves are still
When buses pull back in
I'll be singing next to you

So when the yearbook's all we have
The pages worn away like writing in the sand
I still close my eyes and feel your hand
Ten months more we have to wait
No, it's not goodbye, only goodnight we always say
The two's too quick but never fades

You told me I should stay, but I ignored it
How could anything be more important
Our rivers might not feed
Back in to Ossipee
The night cry of a loon

A Shooting star for two
The breeze still on my skin
But the rushing leaves are still
As I pull my car back in
Wish I was singing next to you

Good Time –
WHITE FIGHT SONG

Whoa oh oh oh
Here we are on night five
Whoa oh oh oh
Whites never felt more alive

Woke up to a seven AM surprise
Judges and a trolly, the war has arrived
Hands up cause the sheriff's taking over tonight
Outlaws, you will lose this fight

Slept in our sneaks every day this week
Green team try again, your name's not unique
Giddy up if you're down to get WILD tonight
CAUSE TWEA IS SPONSORING THIS FIGHT!

Izzy is infected [sike!]
Nate Dogg is a SYAAAAA
Playdates resurrected
We've got Andy on our side
WILD WHITE WILL WIN THIS FIGHT

CHORUS
White saddle up, we're taking this war
Check out our captains
Yeah we got the better four
White Wild West has taken the reigns
Manifest our destiny
Outlaws you'll be bound in chains

FREAK OUT, Pod's back in The Realm again
Hard launched our two new admin friends
Lets' hang out in the GCG tonight
Gavins crew is always tight

Casey is a local
Woods also addicted
The fun bucket social
Giddy up, we ride at dawn
Judges know this wars been won

CHORUS
White saddle up, we're taking this war
Check out our captains
Yeah we got the better four
White Wild West has taken the reigns
Manifest our destiny
Outlaws you'll be bound in chains

There's no day zero, what a crime
We got the blonde squad
White's always a good time
A fun surprise, its 8 not 6
Read the book, it's all right there
We just have to catch a bear

BRIDGE
JC: Always having fun
Riding off into the sun
ALL: End this war right here
White will win, it's CRYSTAL clear
Meet us in the STEN
Outlaws, you'll be locked up then
WILD WEST UNTIL THE END

CHORUS
White saddle up, we're taking this war
Check out our captains
Yeah we got the better four
With Casey, Gavin, Izzy, Nate
This ain't our first rodeo
Outlaws you can hit the road

Green team is cracking, 'bout to break
Prepare our steaks now
Dogg needs his protein intake
With our core four it feels so right
GREEN THERE IS NO NEED TO CRY
WHITE HAS WON THE WAR TONIGHT

I Am Not Who I Was –
WHITE ALMA

We watched the sign fade away
Ending our better days
Replaying memories through the years [low]
Awaiting to come back home
They've left a mark on all our hearts
That we cannot erase
SENIOR CAMP: As we grow, Camp may wane [high]
JUNIOR CAMP: But our bonds will stay the same

So if we stray too far
Will we still have a place in Andy's heart
And when I dont know who we are
Can The Realm be there for us with open arms

From the first breath of the pine
We know it will all be fine
It's in our hearts, we'll never part [low]
From our two month summer haze

Although it's hard when we're'away
We will never lose faith
The O-ssipee shore, forever more [high]
Will be our one safe space

So when we stray too far
We know we'll have a place in Andys' heart
And when we see who we've become
We realize The Realm has been there all along
Our family is there for us with open arms

GREEN

JUDGING
FOR SPOR

Robin Hood
2024

Camp Robin Hood

COLOR WAR 2024 COLOR WAR 2024 COLOR WAR 2024 COLOR WAR 2024

GREEN & WHITE

COLOR WAR

STORY LAND
NEW HAMPSHIRE
ORNELL
NIVERSITY

GREEN
&
WHITE

CampRobinHood

Color War 2024

GREEN & WHITE

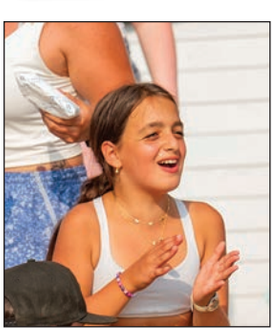

COLOR WAR

Swim Meet

Color War 2024

Track Meet

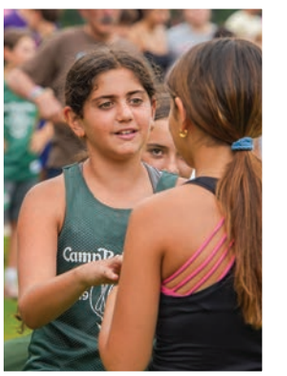

GREEN & WHITE

BOSTON

BEACH DAY

11
30

WILD WEST

Tug of War

COLOR WAR

GREEN & WHITE

Color War 2024

Talent Night

Barbie #1
Barbie #2

BLACK WIDOW
SCARLET WITCH
IRON MAN
THOR

Barbie #2
NEW YORK

THE OFFICE

WILD WEST

GREEN & WHITE

Color War 2024

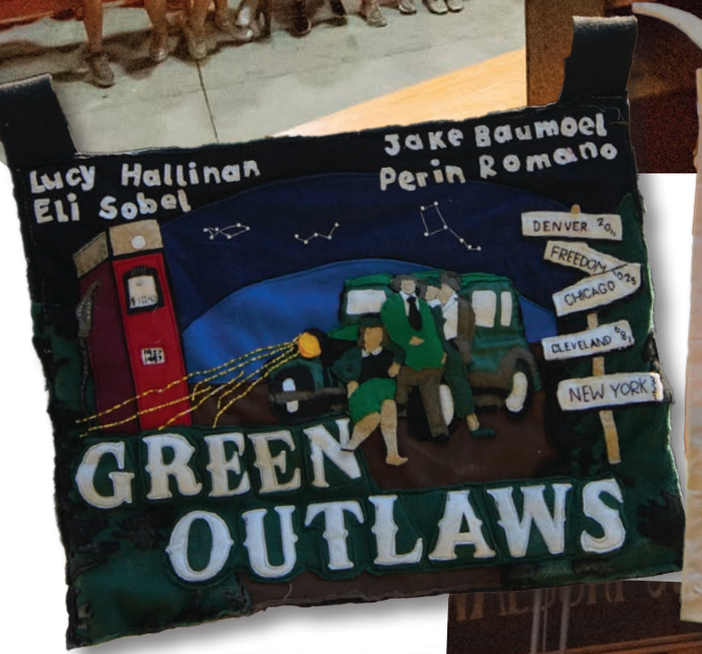

Lucy Hallinan
Eli Sobel
Jake Baumoel
Perin Romano
DENVER 20
FREEDOM 102
CHICAGO 102
CLEVELAND 8
NEW YORK
GREEN OUTLAWS

WILD★WHITE★WEST
Nate Widman
Gavin Gore
Casey Benson
Izzy Lightman

MAGGIE SHANAHAN
JAVI GUSHUE
WHITE RAPTORS
ETERNAL GREEN
2023
JESSIE

COLOR WAR

FOUNDER'S NIGHT

ADMINISTRATION

celebrating Peter Corbin 25 years

Camp Robin Hood
19 27
35 YEARS

Celebrating Michelle Brockmann

and her 35 years at Robin Hood!

BOYS' CAMP GROUPS

Tinkers/Pagers

PAGE 8

Russell Curran, William Doherty, Ayan Gadiyaram, Adam Gray, Michael Haaren, Ryan Hamilton, Jack Himmel, Fisher Kaplowitz, Robert Kocourek, Evan Murphy, David Radvinsky, Julian Rodriguez, Zachary Ross, Drew Schoenberg, Blake Simanovsky, Sacha Singer.
STAFF: Max Corbin, Cody Carlson, Michael Hammet, Robbie Levine, Nathan Schlieman, Marcello Zarif.

Jugglers

PAGE 12

Raphael Agmoni, Ellis Austin, Taran Dempsey, Corey Gendron, Blake Goldstein, Andres Goslinga, Freddie Hajaj, Dylan Herfield, Archer Lengyel, Gonzalo Lopez, Holden Marcus, Daniel Salajka, Colby Spacek, Krish Workman.
STAFF: Ben Buman, Pierce Terowsky, Santi Lopez, Cal Rodin, Brock Suidgeest.

Squires

PAGE 16

Holden Bash, Robert Buman, Avi Cohen, Jonah Cohen, Pierce Collmer, Charlie Corr, Arthur Curran, Connor Deane, Spencer Dickerman, Eli Goshin, Penn Harawitz, Noah Hochman, Sylvester Holz, Connor Josephson, Alexander Kesselheim, Julian Klassman, Harrison LaRose, Elad Lipshitz, Kelan Natauri, Phillip Porres, Jacob Radvinsky, Matthew Ross, Ezra Singer, Jacob Sperling, Dean Squires, Lucas Waldman, Jackson Walker.
STAFF: Eli Sobel, Gregor Brockman, Sergio Herreno, Charlie Sharpe, Sam Swartz, Robert Szincsak, Peter Torocsik, Juan Villalabos.

Archers

PAGE 22

Alfonso Baron, Benjamin Bernstein, Jacob (Jake) Bridges, Diego De la Vega, Theodore Evans, Jake Gustin, Samuel Kroh, Charlie Levine, Epifanio Lopez, Emmanuel Makris, Lucas Malko, Tyler Mann, Luca Miniati, Lorenzo Rodriguez, Tomas Salajka, Cayden Slitt, Spencer Steele, Cooper Thau, Calvin Van Horn, Beckett Ziman.
STAFF: Tamer Fishman, Vadym Antonenko, Juan Pablo Ceballos, Kyle Lefkowitz, Alex Williams.

Yeomen

PAGE 28

Levi Applebaum, Paxton Bash, Auguste Beauvalot, Alexander Callahan, Samuel Evans, Lucas Frank, Morris Glaenzer, Jack Grossman, Drew Hoglund, Harrison Klassman, Alec Ladov, Rocco Milite, Austin Ponsky, Zachary Radvinsky, William Reed, Taylor Richter, Tate Rosen, Jordan Simanovsky, Logan Slitt, Alexander Snyder, Ryder Ziman.
STAFF: Toby Bloch, Jack Chambers, Cooper Ferdman, Andrew Levine, Harry Power, Ellis Resnick, Will Stanmore.

Lancers

PAGE 34

Santi Claeson, Andrew Coon, Drew Coslov, Leo Friedman, Maximilian Gottsegen, Bryan Haber, Juan Carlos Hernandez, Adam Jablow, Jacob Josephson, Eli Kesselheim, Becka Kvirikadze, Jack Lipton, Owen Madigan, Benjamin Marks, Gonzalo Mas, Jake Matsuzaka, Mason Moore, Victor Perrin, Arnold Seiden, Cayson Seley, Alexander Slayton, Ignacio Ureña, Sebastian Urmeneta, Andréas Van Rossum, Neil Varghese, Benjamin Vuernick, Luca Wallenstein, Wyatt Zabel, Enrique Zubillaga.
STAFF: Gavin Gore, Issac Bitran, Pablo Cruz, Will Heese, Kieran Klasfeld, Ben Kreindler, Ben Lance, Noah Smith.

Friars

PAGE 40

Sam Blacksburg, Hunter Block, Daniel Brindle-Khym, Ethan Feldman, Colin Fuller, Alexander Glimcher, Gavin Horowitz, Callum Jacoby, Max Jelin, Sebastian Kaye, Sebastian Khalil, Zachary Levine, Alon Lipshitz, Noah Lodish, Rohan Natauri, Rex Perlman, Jake Ponsky, David Porres, Aurelio Quintana Gomez, Evan Ramirez, Wyatt Reimer, Eli Rosenstock, Lincoln Rupe DeCarolis, Spencer Sears, Benjamin Snyder, Carter Susman, Grant Van Horn, Hugh Vernon, Lachlan Whelan, Zeke Wolff.
STAFF: Nate Wildman, Alexander Curry, Noah Ratner, Nicholas Vidal.

Foresters

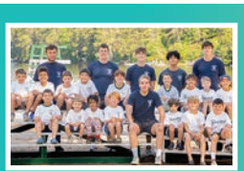

PAGE 46

Hudson Berger, Álvaro Carrasco Florán, Nathaniel Carreiro, James Cleveland, Cameron Emanuel, Miles Frank, Oskar Goshin, Tyler Grossman, Julian Heller, Jack Ilardo, Matthew Johnston, Jerry Lewart, Jorge Llari de Sangenis, Will Morrison, Luke Orlowski, Mauro Perez-Orive, Owen Rothstein, Zachary Tirrell, Robert Torocsik, Benjamin Varghese, Joshua Weiner.
STAFF: Jake Baumoel, Theo Drye, Mitch Boyd, Dan Humby, George Young.

Saxons

PAGE 52

Hamza AbuOleim, Ian Allard-Neptune, Hudson Brown, Zachary Buman, Rafael Calleja Labadie, Pierre Der Megreditchian, Zane Fishman, Lucas Kaganovsky, Eli Kramer, Quentin Lacroix, Noah Martin, Robert Milacci, Luca Milite, Reid Olynick, Eli Perrino, Lucca Serafino, Gavyn Shepard, Colton Stratman, Brock Suidgeest, John F. Zaccaro.
STAFF: Javi Gushue, Felix Le Mahieu, Jeremy Sangrove.

TINKERS/PAGERS

JUGGLERS

SQUIRES

ARCHERS

YEOMEN

LANCERS

FRIARS

FORESTERS

SAXONS

GIRLS' CAMP GROUPS

Scouts

PAGE 60

Joelle Burk, Livvy Hoglund, Maggie Kvirikadze, Grace Nickerson, Quinn Saunders, Juliet Williams.
STAFF: Megan Goldsby, Anna Hernandez, Dani Lynch, Emma Mahe, Millie Nathanson, Cece Skala, Marina Torres, Ruby Wildman.

Tumblers

PAGE 64

Tribeca Baker, Audrey Bridges, Lielle Burk, Serena Cheney, Abbey Cox, Kennedy Cybul, Lucila Dolega, Liv Gomez, Aviv Gray, Alice Greenbaum, Chapin Gresens, Quinn Horowitz, Harper Jacobs, Arianna Kamat, Sloan Kroh, Olivia Leebow, Joey Mann, Blakely Osky, Chloe Pickhaver, Ayla Raivich, Kailey Rosen, Hannah Seley, Jordana Squires, Adeline Stone, Mariette Touw.
STAFF: Hilary Adelman, Morgan Buttler, Nina D'Andrea, Noa Goldman, Connie Grimes, Asha Kumar, Abi McCarthy, Gillian Rosenstock, Ivy Sobel, Olivia Wahlstedt.

Jesters

PAGE 72

Ava Applebaum, Quinn Austin, Sienna Carmel, Madeline Curran, Maya Dessen, Sean Dooley, Vivian Dooley, Anya Gadiyaram, Arielle Gray, Julia Haaren, Margaux Himmel, Kendall Ilardo, Evan Ladov, Sienna Marks, Emma Miniati, Genevieve Murphy, Lucy Pickhaver, Ella Simanovsky, Rosa Luca Skotticelli, Susan Varghese.
STAFF: Sydney Rodin, Julia Baumoel, Emily Crutchley, Maddie Dennig, Neha Gill, Maya Kruger, Ava Serafino, Molly Shearer, Nora Wildman.

Bows

PAGE 78

Britt Alvers, Yrsa Bjarkadottir, Evelyn Callahan, Poppy Dobbins, Katlyn Driscoll, Theodora Friedman, Sophia Ghassemieh, Leila Goldstein, Gabriella Hamilton, Celeste Hernandez, Claire Jablow, Olivia Kamat, Vivian Landers, Isabelle Leebow, Hazel Lipman, Violet Lipman, Blake Natauri, Lily Nickerson, Skyler Oakley, Leah Peck, Elsa Rachelefsky, Lily Raphael, Olivia Rosenberg, Colette Roth, Rosie Slayton, Annika Thakarar, Kylie Zweibel.
STAFF: Olivia Goldman, Abby Carneal, Rebecca Ger, Kiara Mackay, Kate McConnell, Yury Motta, Sarah Silsbury, Mary Webb.

Quills

PAGE 84

Alejandra Alvarez-Ossorio, Mercedes Alvarez-Ossorio, Annabelle Collmer, Devan Cox, Arletta Curran, Emilia De la vega, Julia Diez de Bonilla, Rachel Dix, Zinnia Edwards, Claribel Fernandez, Libby Gendron, Amelia Grandic, Tessa Hoglund, Ryan Lengyel, Raleigh Lepene, Eleanor Loening, Rilyn Nagory, Nellie Oliver, Alice Pickhaver, Phoebe Plouffe, Ella Ponsky, Bryn Raivich, Savannah Schlieman, Tali Shear, Keegan Shepard, Tali Smith, Sloane Susman, Leila Waldman, Tillotson Whalen, Charlotte Whelan.
STAFF: Olivia Ginsberg, Ella Jaffe, Eliza Bloom, Hannah Brown, Audrey Gore, Thalia Jones, Avery Jonston, Scarlett Spink, Leilani Swartz.

Arrows

PAGE 90

Sienna Baker, Mackenzie Berger, Zoe Bernstein, Chloe Bjarkadottir, River Boren, Hannah Corr, Ellie Gartenberg, Grace Goldberg, Eva Gomez, Siena Hernandez, Dahlia Hoffman, Emily Holczer, Jorja Holdridge, Ellie Holz, Kyra Jelin, Sarah Kramer, Betsy Land, Evelyn LaRose, Madeline Lipton, Sadie Mandel, Emma Nickerson, Sidney Perrino, Blake Rabin, Brooke Rubino, Sienna Safchik, Audrey Scherquist, Charlotte Spear, Sophia Stoneham-Yoshino, Eva Thakarar, Lillian Thompson, Abigail Vuernick, Kavya Workman.
STAFF: Perin Romano, Aimee Burns, Ava Charney, Hanah Hayduk, Reggie LoMedico, Ellie Newton, Sassy Strattman, Lila Tower.

Bards

PAGE 98

Valentina Blanco Ferrada, Zoe Bressler, Caroline Callahan, Jane Collins, Olivia Dennig, Zoe Dessen, Lucy Friedman, Sloane Ginocchio, Sloane Goldstein, Kathryn Greenbaum, Jenna Gustin, Natalie Lefberg, Ann Lippard, Ava Lowe, Sabrina Miller, Dylan Oakley, Eden Polacheck, Josephine Ponsky, Siena Posner, Sasha Radvinsky, Clementine Rose, Allison Rosenberg, Lila Rosenberg, Josie Rosenfeld, Sloane Singerman, Lyla Solomon, Sammy Steinlauf, Cornelia Touw.
STAFF: Izzy Lightman, Olivia Clemens, Lily Drye, Tara Kennedy, Elodie McGreiver, Ivy Olynick, Hannah Rothenberg, Lia Russo.

Shires

PAGE 106

Andrea Blavia, Evvy Boren, Alicia de Ledesma, Sophia Deane, Brooke Dery, Elle DiNatale, Grace Justice, Sadie Kreindler, Esme Leichtling, Alexandra London-Grant, Eliana Mehta, Fiona Mereu, Lila Ratner, Lila Solomon.
STAFF: Casey Benson, McKenzie Branson, Carla Gonzalez, Cate Shanahan, Julia Walker, Eve Weiner.

Scribes

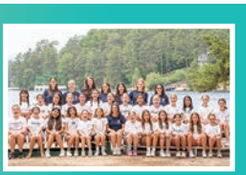

PAGE 112

Sabrina Bruder, Sulamith DeFrancia, Eleanor Hoglund, Katherine Schmidt, Reagan Van Horn, Clara Yager.
STAFF: Lucy Hallinan, Erin Christie, Laura Cook, Hattie Coulsom, Brooke Ridley.

SCOUTS

TUMBLERS

JESTERS

BOWS

QUILLS

ARROWS

BARDS

SHIRES

SCRIBES

KAMP KHARACTERS

KAMP KS

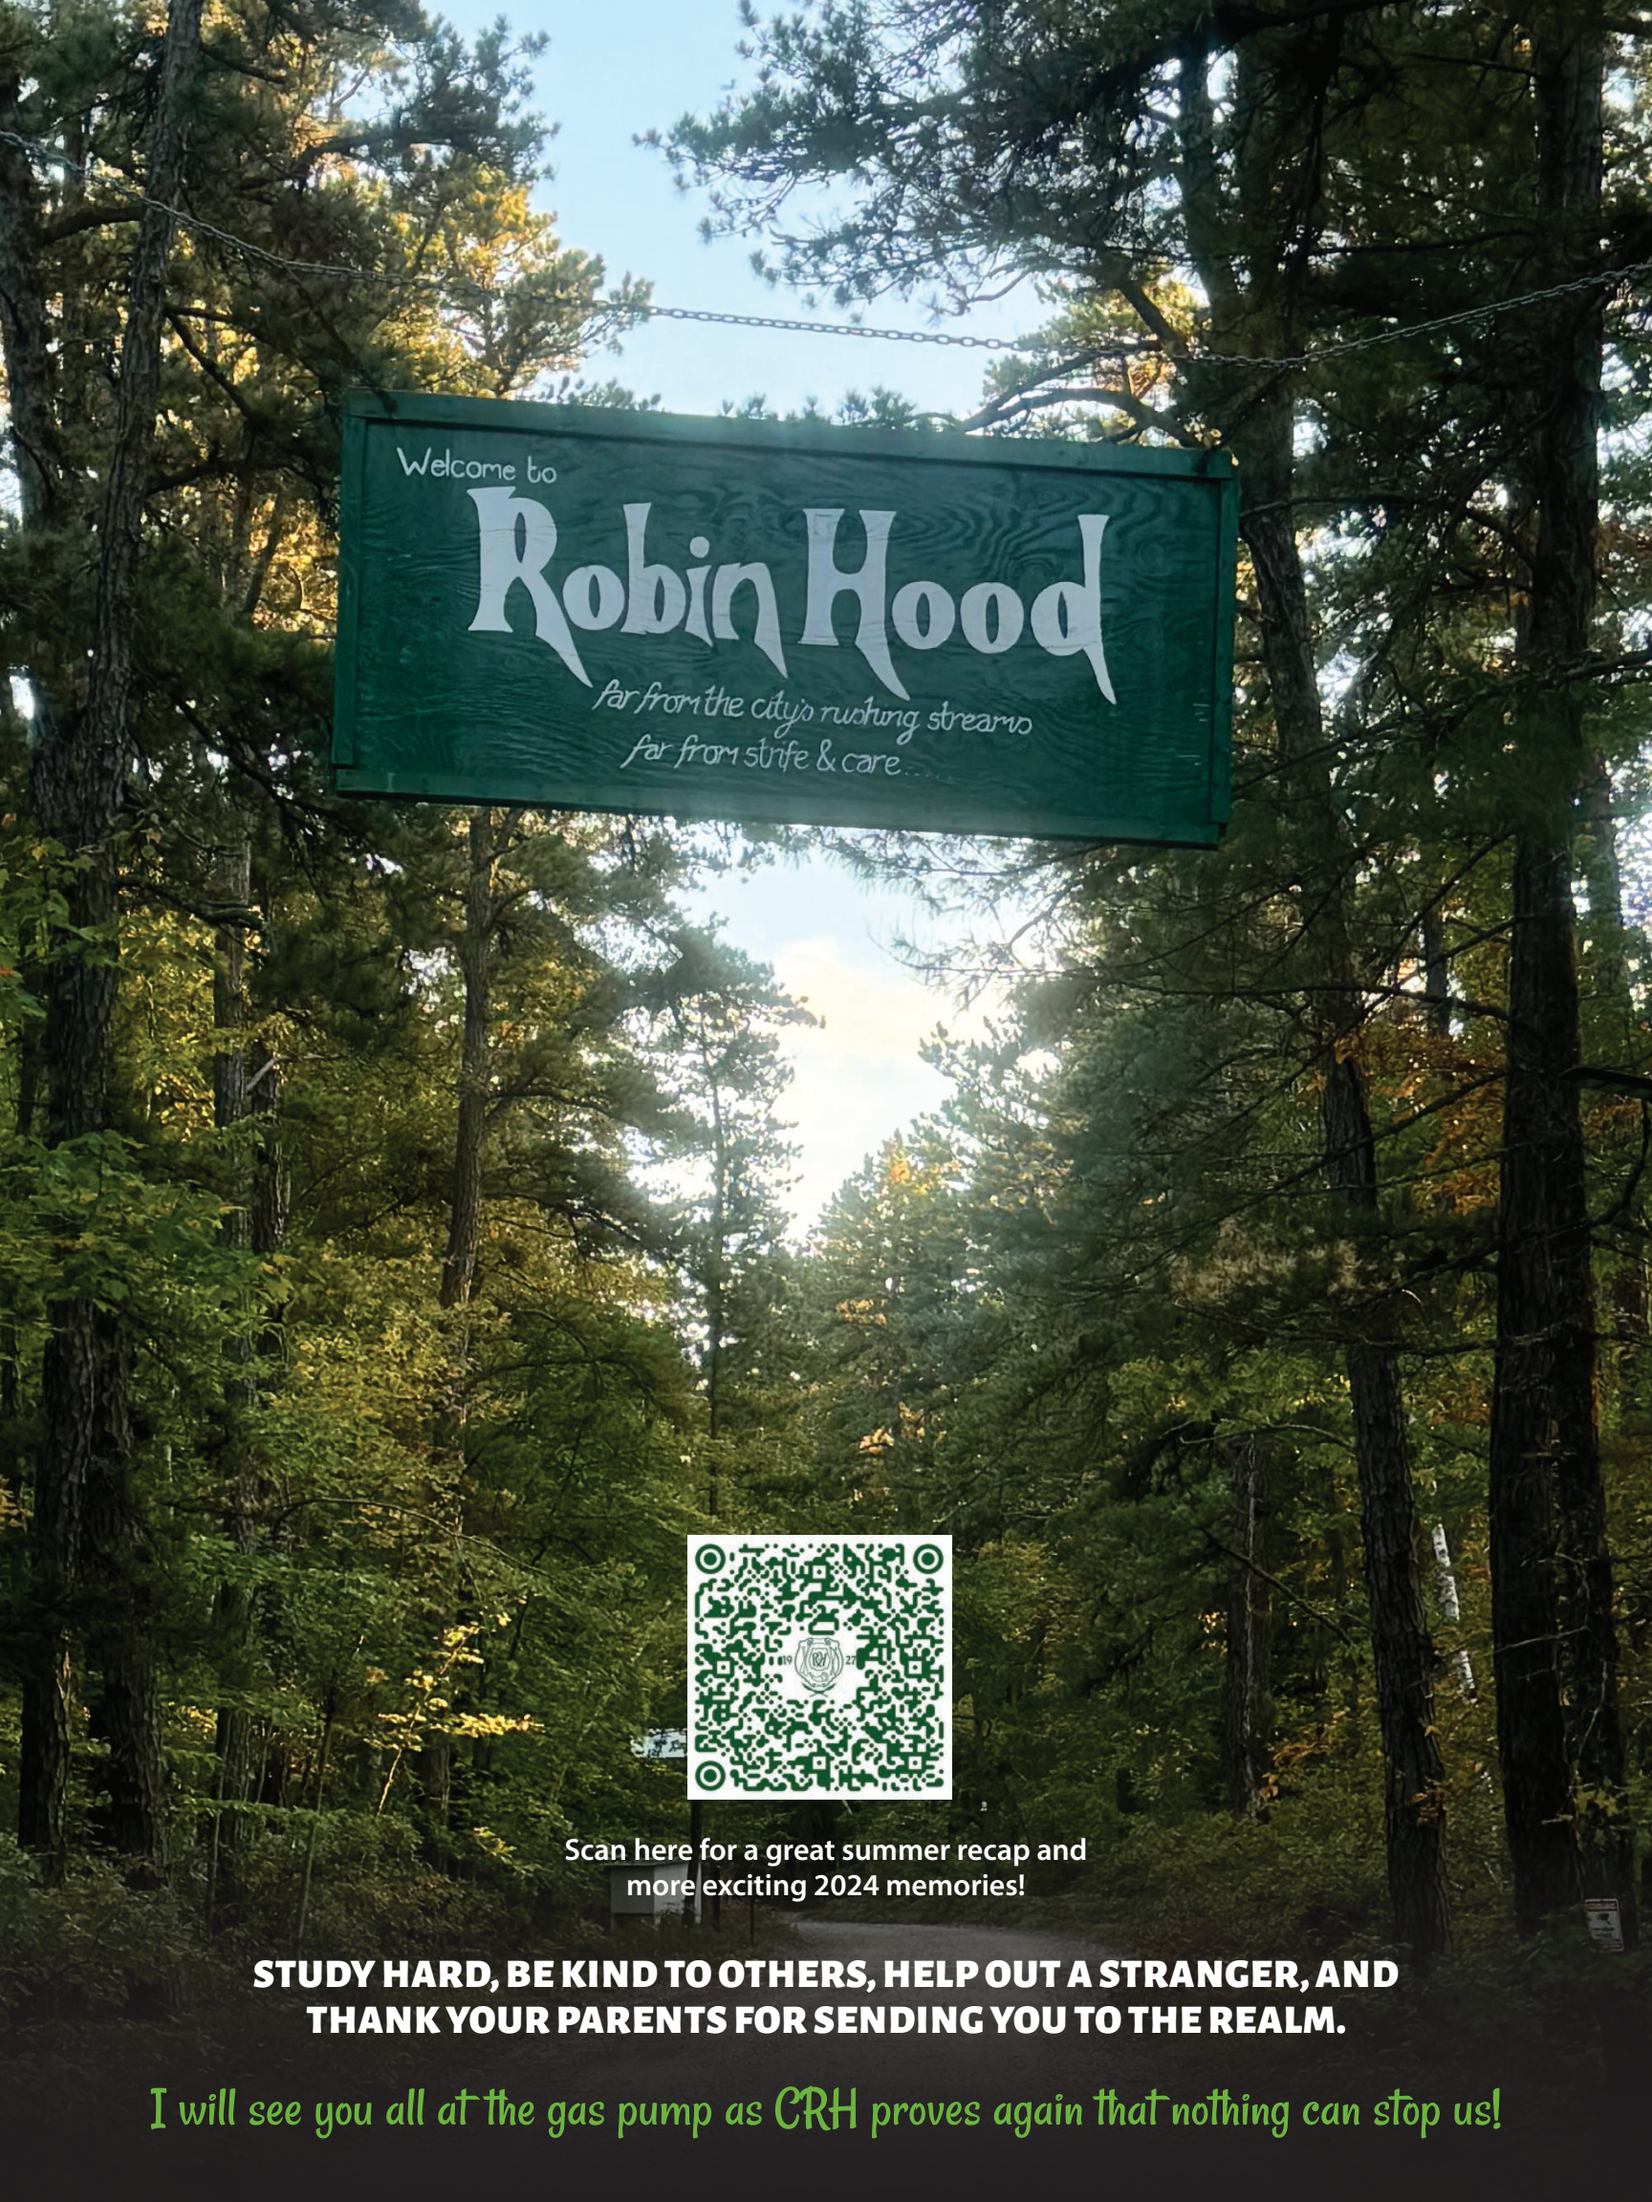

Scan here for a great summer recap and more exciting 2024 memories!

STUDY HARD, BE KIND TO OTHERS, HELP OUT A STRANGER, AND THANK YOUR PARENTS FOR SENDING YOU TO THE REALM.

I will see you all at the gas pump as CRH proves again that nothing can stop us!

Camp Robin Hood

19 RH 27

www.camprobinhood.com

65 ROBIN HOOD LANE | FREEDOM, NH 03836 | 603.539.4500

Richard Woodstein, Owner/Director | woody@camprobinhood.com | 312.404.1828

David Solomon, Owner